Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On March 17, 2017, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Ocwen Financial Corporation (the "Company") increased the size of the Board from eight to nine and appointed Robert J. Lipstein to the Board to serve until the Company's next annual shareholder meeting.

The Board's Nomination/Governance Committee and the Board have determined that Mr. Lipstein is an independent director under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. Lipstein, 61, was formerly a partner with KPMG LLP and served as the Global IT Partner in Charge of Business Services from 2014-2016 and as an Advisory Business Unit Partner in Charge for its Mid-Atlantic Region from 2009-2014. His career at KPMG LLP began in 1977. In January 2017, he became a director at Cross Country Consulting, a privately-held consulting firm that focuses on corporate advisory services. Since January 2013, he has served as an Advisory Board Member of the Weinberg Center for Corporate Governance at the University of Delaware. Mr. Lipstein has a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Delaware.

Mr. Lipstein will receive compensation for his services as a director in accordance with the Company's standard compensation program for non-management directors. Mr. Lipstein also intends to enter into a customary indemnification agreement with the Company, the form of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to our Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on March 26, 2015.

Additionally, Ronald J. Korn has informed the Board that he does not wish to stand for re-election at the Company's annual shareholder meeting and will retire as a director effective on May 22, 2017. The Board has determined that the size of the Board will be reduced from nine to eight upon Mr. Korn's resignation on May 22, 2017.
