3. Press Release

A Press Release was issued by Gildan Activewear Inc. (Gildan) on February 3, 2004 in Montréal, Québec. A copy of the press release is annexed hereto and forms an integral part hereof.

4. Summary of Material Change

On February 3, 2004, Gildan announced that H. Greg Chamandy would assume the newly-created role of Chairman of the Executive Committee of Gildan Activewear in addition to his continuing responsibilities as Chairman of the Board of Directors, while Glenn J. Chamandy will assume the responsibilities of President and Co-Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Gildan also announced that H. Greg Chamandy and Glenn J. Chamandy, who control 100% of the voting rights attached to the Class B Multiple Voting Shares through their respective holding companies, have indicated to the Board of Directors their intention to convert their Class B Multiple Voting Shares into Class A Subordinate Voting Shares on a 1:1 basis, and without any other cash or non-cash consideration.

5. Full Description of Material Change

On February 3, 2004, Gildan announced that H. Greg Chamandy would assume the newly-created role of Chairman of the Executive Committee of Gildan Activewear in addition to his continuing responsibilities as Chairman of the Board of Directors, while Glenn J. Chamandy will assume the responsibilities of President and Co-Chief Executive Officer of the Company. In order to ensure a seamless transition in the overall role and responsibilities of the Chief Executive Officer position, H. Greg Chamandy will also serve as co-Chief Executive Officer for a transition period, currently contemplated as one year, at which point Glenn J. Chamandy will become Chief Executive Officer. Previously, H. Greg Chamandy was Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, and Glenn J. Chamandy was President and Chief Operating Officer.

These changes follow the recent announcement in December 2003 of the Company's long-term strategic business plans. The Company will now enter a phase of plan execution, centred on organic growth, expansion of its offshore manufacturing capacity, achievement of its 5-year market share targets in the imprinted sportswear industry, and initial development of its products into the retail channel of distribution.

H. Greg Chamandy commented: I am extremely proud of our achievement over the past 5 years since our I.P.O. of building Gildan into a public Company with a market capitalization in excess of Canadian $1 billion, and the leader in the imprinted sportswear industry. With the completion of the next phase of our strategy development, and having established a strong management team and one of the strongest balance sheets in the entire textile and apparel industry, I have decided to begin to hand over the role of Chief Executive Officer to Glenn. Through the new Executive Committee, I will remain deeply involved in monitoring key issues impacting the value of the Company, in which I have a significant investment. Over the next 5 years, I plan to begin to divide my time between Gildan and other outside business interests that I wish to pursue. I have 100% confidence in Glenn, with the support of our management team, to successfully implement our business strategy and achieve continuing profitable growth in line with our stated financial targets.

The Company also announced that H. Greg Chamandy and Glenn J. Chamandy, who control 100% of the voting rights attached to the Class B Multiple Voting Shares through their respective holding companies, have indicated to the Board of Directors their intention to convert their Class B Multiple Voting Shares into Class A Subordinate Voting Shares on a 1:1 basis, and without any other cash or non-cash consideration. The Board is currently reviewing the conversion plan, which is expected to be implemented as expeditiously as possible.
