PROXY STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Bally Technologies, Inc. (we, us, the Company, or Bally) on behalf of the Company in connection with the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (the Meeting) to be held at 1:00 p.m., local time, at the Company's principal executive offices, 6601 South Bermuda Road, Las Vegas, Nevada 89119, on Thursday, May 3, 2007, and any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof. At the Meeting, stockholders will be asked to vote on the following matters:

1. To elect one director for a term of three years;
2. To ratify the appointment of the firm of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent public accountants of the Company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007; and
3. To consider such other matters that may properly be before the meeting.

It is expected that this Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy card will first be mailed to stockholders on or about April 10, 2007.

The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies, including the charges and expenses of brokerage firms and others forwarding the solicitation materials to beneficial owners of shares of the Company's common stock. In addition to the use of the mail, directors, officers, employees and certain stockholders of the Company, none of whom will receive additional compensation therefor, may solicit proxies on behalf of the Company personally, by telephone or by facsimile transmission. The Company will also employ Innisfree M&A Incorporated to assist in soliciting proxies for a fee of $6,500, plus-out-of pocket expenses.

The Company's principal executive offices are located at 6601 South Bermuda Road, Las Vegas, Nevada 89119, telephone (702) 584-7700.

Proxies

All shares of Company common stock represented by the accompanying proxy card will be voted as specified by you if the proxy card is properly executed and returned. If no contrary instructions are given, such shares will be voted to elect the director nominee named herein for a term of three years and to ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007. Any stockholder has the power to revoke his or her proxy at any time before it has been voted by filing with the Corporate Secretary of the Company an instrument revoking his or her proxy, by submitting a substitute proxy bearing a later date or by voting in person at the Meeting.

Number of Shares of Common Stock Outstanding and Voting

Only stockholders of record of shares of Company common stock at the close of business on April 4, 2007, the record date for the Meeting fixed by the Board of Directors, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting. On that date, there were 53,258,672 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Meeting, each of which is entitled to one vote per share at the Meeting.

A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Shares of common stock that reflect abstentions are treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and for purposes of determining the outcome of any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote. However, abstentions do not constitute a vote for or against any matter and thus will be disregarded in the calculation of a plurality or of votes cast.

Broker non-votes are shares of common stock held by brokers or nominees over which the broker or nominee lacks discretionary power to vote and for which the broker or nominee has not received specific voting instructions from the beneficial owner. Shares of common stock that reflect broker non-votes are treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. However, for purposes of determining the outcome of any matter as to which the broker or nominee has indicated on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority to vote, those shares will be treated as not present and not entitled to vote with respect to that matter, even though the shares of common stock are considered entitled to vote for the purposes of determining a quorum and may be entitled to vote on other matters.

Directors are elected by a plurality, and the nominee who receives the most votes will be elected. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be taken into account in determining the outcome of the election.

The ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007, must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote. Abstentions have the effect of negative votes. Broker non-votes will not be taken into account in determining the outcome of the adoption of this proposal.

Proposal No. 1:ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's bylaws provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of no fewer than three nor more than nine directors, with the exact number to be fixed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has fixed the number of directors at seven, one of whom will be elected at the Meeting. The Company's bylaws divide the Board of Directors into three classes as nearly equal in number as possible, with the three-year terms of office of each class ending in different years.

David Robbins has been nominated to serve as director for a term of three years, or until his successor has been elected and has qualified. Mr. Robbins has indicated his willingness to serve, if elected. Mr. Stephen Race, whose term as a director expires at the Meeting, has decided not to stand for re-election as a director. As a result of Mr. Race's decision not to stand for re-election and the death of Mr. Joel Kirschbaum, the Board of Directors will have two open seats following the Meeting. The Board and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are in the process of identifying well-qualified candidates to fill the open seats.

Proxies received by the Company in favor of Mr. Robbins' election will be voted for Mr. Robbins. No stockholder nominations for director were received in connection with the Meeting. Although the Company does not anticipate that Mr. Robbins will be unavailable to stand for election, in the event of such occurrence, the proxies will be voted for a substitute, if any, as the Board of Directors may designate.

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the nominee and each other director of the Company whose term of office does not expire at the Meeting.

Nominees for Director	Age	Director Since	Term Expires
David Robbins	47	1997	2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Guido and Robbins are audit committee financial experts, as required by Item 407(d)(5) of Regulation S-K. The Board of Directors made this determination based on Messrs. Directors' Compensation

Arrangements with Directors. Our directors who are also employees generally are not separately compensated for their services as directors. Except as set forth below under Other Arrangements with respect to Messrs. Robbins and Kirschbaum, each non-management director receives $50,000 per year plus $5,000 per year for each committee on which such non-management director serves, except that the chairman of the Audit Committee receives $25,000 and the chairman of each other committee receives $10,000 for such committee service. Each new non-employee director receives a grant of options to purchase 50,000 shares of common stock upon appointment to the Board of Directors. Each non-employee director also receives an annual grant of options to purchase 30,000 shares of common stock. All options granted to directors remain outstanding for the full term, whether or not the director continues to be a director, unless the director resigns or is removed as a director before the expiration of the term the director is serving at the time of the grant, in which event the options expire sixty days after resignation or removal. Directors are also reimbursed for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred on Company business. The Company may grant both employee and non-employee directors additional cash compensation and options as time commitments, responsibilities and other circumstances may warrant. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board periodically review the compensation of its directors and may decide to make changes to such compensation structure in the future.

Director's Share Ownership Guidelines. The Board has adopted a formal share ownership policy and guidelines for non-management directors. The guidelines specify that each non-management director shall acquire and hold common stock valued at twice the annual base compensation paid to the director at the time of the director's appointment or election to the Board. The policy further provides that purchases under the policy be made within three years of the director's appointment, election or adoption date of the policy with the director holding at least that amount of stock during the director's tenure.

Other Arrangements. Effective July 1, 2004, Bally entered into an agreement with Mr. Robbins pursuant to which he agreed to serve as the Chairman of the Board of Directors and as a member of the Office of the Chairman for a period of three and one-half years. The Company made its last payment under this agreement in August 2006 following Mr. Kirschbaum's death.

Director Nomination Process

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, with the assistance of a third-party search firm, identifies candidates for director nominees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers a number of factors including the following criteria in identifying, evaluating and recommending director nominees to the Board of Directors: the candidate's personal qualities and characteristics, accomplishments and reputation in the business community; the candidate's current knowledge and contacts in the communities in which the Company does business and in the gaming industry and other industries relevant to the Company's business; the candidate's ability and willingness to commit adequate time to matters of the Board of Directors and committees; the fit of the candidate's skills and personality with those of other directors and potential directors in building an effective, collegial, and responsive Board of Directors; and the overall diversity of viewpoints, background, experience, and other demographics of the Board of Directors. Pursuant to the Company's Bylaws, the Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will also consider stockholder nominations of candidates for director, assuming the satisfaction of certain requirements, as set forth under Stockholder Proposals and Nominations for Director Stockholder Nominations for Director.

The 92,654 shares of restricted stock had an aggregate value of $1,526,011.38 on June 30, 2006, based on the per share closing price of our common stock on the NYSE of $16.47. If Mr. Hadrill's employment is terminated by us other than for cause or by Mr. Hadrill for Good Cause, each as defined in the Hadrill Agreement (defined below), the vesting of the restricted stock shall be pro-rated through the 12-month period following the month in which the date of termination occurs. In the event of a Change of Control, as defined in the Hadrill Agreement, the restricted stock shall become fully vested effective immediately prior to such Change of Control. Except as set forth above, any unvested portion of the restricted stock at the time of termination shall terminate as of the date of termination. No dividends will be paid on the restricted stock unless and until such shares vest and, thereafter, only to the extent dividends are paid on our common stock.

(6) On December 22, 2004, we issued Mr. Hadrill 156,507 RSUs. The number of RSUs granted was determined by dividing $1,900,000 by the average per share closing price of our common stock on the NYSE for the 20 business days prior to the date of grant. The 156,507 RSUs had an aggregate value of $2,577,670 on June 30, 2006, based on the per share closing price of our common stock on the NYSE of $16.47. In accordance with the Hadrill Agreement, the vesting of 50% of the award was accelerated to October 1, 2005, as a result of the Board of Director's determination that we achieved certain strategic and/or financial objectives for the nine month period ending on October 1, 2005. The vesting of the remaining 50% was accelerated on October 1, 2006 as a result of the Board of Director's determination that we achieved certain strategic and/or financial objectives for the twelve month period ending on October 1, 2006. Vested RSUs represents Mr. Hadrill's right to receive an equivalent number of shares of our common stock as follows: (i) 75% of the shares of common stock represented by the vested RSUs shall be issued to Mr. Hadrill (1) on the later of (a) October 1, 2007 or (b) the first date on which such payment or any portion thereof is no longer subject to the limits of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) in which case that portion of the payment that is no longer subject to such limits shall be issued to Mr. Hadrill at the time such limits become inapplicable, or (2) in the event that Mr. Hadrill's employment with the Company is terminated prior to October 1, 2007, on the first date in which such payment or any portion thereof is no longer subject to the limits of Section 162(m) of the Code in which case that portion of the payment that is no longer subject to such limits shall be issued to Mr. Hadrill at the time such limits become inapplicable, and (ii) 25% of the shares of common stock represented by the vested RSUs shall be issued to Mr. Hadrill (1) on the later of (a) October 1, 2008 or (b) the first date on which such payment or any portion thereof is no longer subject to the limits of Section 162(m) of the Code in which case that portion of the payment that is no longer subject to such limits shall be issued to Mr. Hadrill at the time such limits become inapplicable, or (2) in the event that Mr. Hadrill's employment is terminated prior to October 1, 2008, on the first date in which such payment or any portion thereof is no longer subject to the limits of Section 162(m) of the Code in which case that portion of the payment that is no longer subject to such limits shall be issued to Mr. Hadrill at the time such limits become inapplicable. Employment and Severance Arrangements

Hadrill Employment Agreement. On June 30, 2004, we entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Hadrill (the Hadrill Employment Agreement), pursuant to which Mr. Hadrill began serving as Chief Executive Officer as of October 1, 2004. The Hadrill Agreement provides that if Mr. Hadrill's employment is terminated by us without cause or by Mr. Hadrill for Good Cause, each as defined in the Hadrill Agreement, Mr. Hadrill will receive severance pay in an amount equal to his base salary for one year from the date of termination or until the expiration of the term of the Hadrill Agreement, whichever occurs first. Further, Mr. Hadrill shall be entitled to retain the rights granted under the RSUs described in footnote 8 above, provided that the vesting of the RSUs shall be pro rated through the twelve-month period following the month in which the termination occurs, and the sales restrictions on the stock options granted pursuant to the Hadrill Agreement shall lapse as to a pro rata portion of such options through the date of termination. Upon a Change in Control, as defined in the Hadrill Agreement, Mr. Hadrill will receive a payment of $980,000 and will be entitled to retain all of the RSUs and stock options granted pursuant to the Hadrill Agreement, all of which will vest immediately upon the Change in Control, and the sale restrictions on the stock options will immediately lapse. The Hadrill Agreement also contains certain non-compete provisions.

The Hadrill Agreement was amended as of December 22, 2004. The December 22, 2004, amendment provided for, among other things, a grant of an additional 300,000 stock options and $1,900,000 in RSUs.

The Hadrill Agreement was amended for a second time effective as of June 13, 2005, documenting the terms and conditions of the acceleration of certain of Mr. Hadrill's stock options, which was approved by the Board of Directors on June 13, 2005, and clarifying the terms of Mr. Hadrill's RSUs to comply with Section 409A of the Code.

On June 21, 2006, we amended the Hadrill Agreement for a third time, pursuant to which (i) Mr. Hadrill's term of employment was extended from October 1, 2007, to January 1, 2009, (ii) Mr. Hadrill's salary, beginning July 1, 2006, was increased from $980,000 to $998,000 and (iii) subject to the approval of the Compensation Committee, Mr. Hadrill received options to purchase 200,000 shares of common stock, as well as a number of shares of restricted common stock having a value equal to $1,400,000 as of the date of grant. The number of shares of restricted common stock was calculated based on the average per share closing price of a share of restricted common stock for the twenty business days immediately prior to the date of grant.

Caller Employment Agreement. On March 13, 2006, we entered into a letter agreement with Robert Caller, effective as of April 1, 2006 (the Caller Agreement). Pursuant to the Caller Agreement, Mr. Caller receives an annual salary of $340,000. Mr. Caller will also be entitled to participate in our Management Incentive Program, with a target performance bonus of $204,000 per year, but with a maximum of $347,000 per year. For our fiscal year ending June 30, 2007, only, Mr. Caller will receive a minimum performance bonus of $160,000. For the period from July 1, 2009, to September 30, 2009, we will pay him a minimum bonus of $51,000. Starting in the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007, we may pay up to 30% of the amount of any performance bonus earned in shares of restricted stock.

If Mr. Caller's employment is terminated without Cause, as defined in the Caller Agreement, or if Mr. Caller terminates his employment as a result of a Diminution of Duties occurring within one year following a Change of Control, each as defined in the Caller Agreement, he shall continue to receive his salary for one year immediately following such termination, unless such termination occurs on or after September 30, 2008, in which case we will only make such payments until September 30, 2009.

In the event Mr. Caller terminates his employment as a result of a Diminution of Duties occurring within one year following a Change of Control, each installment of his options granted pursuant to the Caller Agreement that has not vested as of such date will be deemed to have vested on the date of such termination and shall be exercisable for one year from such date. If Mr. Caller's employment is terminated without Cause, any installment that would have vested within one year of the date of termination will vest and, along with any other previously vested options, shall be exercisable for one year thereafter. If Mr. Caller's employment is terminated with Cause or if he quits for any reason, he will have ninety days to exercise any options that have vested as of the date of such termination.

Pursuant to the Caller Agreement, and as a material inducement to accept his employment, Mr. Caller received 175,000 options, which grant was approved by the Board of Directors.

Mr. Caller received a one time signing bonus payment of $100,000, subject to certain relocation conditions, as well as reimbursement for expenses incurred in connection with trips related to his relocation to Las Vegas.

On April 1, 2006, Mr. Des Champs resigned as Chief Financial Officer and assumed the position of Senior Vice President of Business Analysis. On January 31, 2007, Mr. Des Champs' employment with the Company ended.

Luciano Employment Agreement. On March 2, 2004, we entered into a letter agreement with Robert Luciano (the Luciano Agreement) which provides for a base salary, which is currently set at $250,000 per year, an annual bonus of $50,000 and participation in our Management Incentive Program at the business unit head level in an amount determined by the Board of Directors. If Mr. Luciano is terminated without cause, as defined in the Luciano Agreement, he will receive severance benefits in an amount determined by annualizing the amount Mr. Luciano would have received in respect of the number of full months served in the fiscal year in which he is terminated.

On April 13, 2005, we entered into an amendment to Mr. Luciano's letter agreement providing for, among other things, the grant of 600,000 stock options, effective on July 1, 2005. The amendment also provides that if Mr. Luciano is terminated without cause, any stock options granted to Mr. Luciano that have vested at the time of termination shall remain outstanding and exercisable until the first anniversary of the date of termination, but in no event beyond the original term of such options.

If Mr. Srinivasan's employment is terminated without cause or resigns following a change of control or material diminution of duties, each as defined in Mr. Srinivasan's agreement, Mr. Srinivasan will receive an amount equal to his base salary for twelve months after the date of termination, offset by any compensation he receives that is attributable to other employment during the six-month period that begins six months after the date of termination. In addition, upon the occurrence of a change of control, Mr. Srinivasan shall be entitled to receive any additional (other than those described above) acceleration in benefits, financial packages, stock options and restricted stock, and compensation accorded to our other senior executives, except for those that may be accorded to our chief executive officer and chief financial officer.

If Mr. Isaacs' employment is terminated without Cause, as defined in the Isaacs Agreement, or if Mr. Isaacs terminates his employment as a result of and within one year of a reduction in salary, he shall continue to receive his salary for one year immediately following such termination. Mr. Isaacs shall also be entitled to one year of salary upon cessation of his employment if (i) Mr. Isaacs' salary is less than $490,000 at the second anniversary of the effective date of the Isaacs Agreement, (ii) Mr. Isaacs terminates his employment within 30 days of such second anniversary and (iii) we elect to make such payments as consideration for Mr. Isaacs' agreement not to compete for a period of one year from the date of termination. Pursuant to the Agreement, and as a material inducement to accept his employment, Mr. Isaacs received a grant of 150,000 options, which grant was approved by the Board of Directors.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Mr. Kirschbaum until his death in August 2006, was a director of the Company and the sole stockholder, director and officer of Kirkland Investment Corporation (KIC), which, effective July 1, 2004, was party to an Advisory Services Agreement that called for the Company to pay KIC $600,000 annually for advisory and related services for a period of three and one-half years. In August 2006, the Company made its last payment under the advisory agreement as a result of Mr. Kirschbaum's death.

The Company also leases a warehouse and office facility from an entity owned by Mr. Luciano. Rental payments for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2006 totaled $412,000.

Report on Executive Compensation

As of the end of the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the Compensation Committee consisted of Messrs. Jacques André, David Robbins, and Kevin Verner, each of whom is an independent director. The Compensation Committee's duties and responsibilities are set forth in a formal charter adopted by the Board of Directors and include, among others things:

- Review and approve executive compensation philosophy.
- Approve all executive compensation plans and structures.
- Approve annual and long-term incentive performance metrics, as well as determine and approve payouts.
- Approve compensation for the Company's management executive committee, consisting of certain members of senior management, as well as senior management of the Company's subsidiaries.
- Approve plan payouts to the members of the management executive committee that are outside of approved parameters.
- Recommend approval for all management incentive plans, including stock options, to the Board of Directors, and approve new change-in-control or special retention plans.
- Approve bonus criteria, incentives, including stock options and payouts for employee-directors.

General Compensation Philosophy. The Compensation Committee's general philosophy has been, and continues to be, providing a compensation package to attract and retain the most highly qualified executive officers while providing incentives to create stockholder value. To accomplish this objective, the Compensation Committee varies total cash compensation based on the Company's performance in achieving the financial and non-financial objectives, and aligns long-term incentive compensation closely with the stockholder's interests. However, the Compensation Committee believes that it will continue to be constrained by competitive factors as there continues to be demand from competing businesses to attract and retain management talent of the type the Company desires to recruit.

The Compensation Committee believes as a general matter, but particularly with respect to senior executive officers, that the most effective method of compensation, and the method that most closely aligns management's interest with those of the Company's stockholders, is long-term compensation tied to the creation of stockholder value. Thus, it has been the Company's policy where feasible and consistent with competitive market conditions, and unless otherwise obligated by contract, to attempt to limit base cash compensation while providing incentives for management to increase stockholder value. The Company hopes to achieve this goal of focusing on long-term compensation through the use of stock options and, where appropriate, restricted stock and RSUs. The Compensation Committee believes this compensation philosophy has the greatest probability of achieving significant returns to stockholders.

Pearl Meyer & Partners, a Clark Consulting Practice, has also been retained to advise the Compensation Committee on matters relating to executive compensation. Pearl Meyer & Partners was engaged by and reports directly to the Compensation Committee.

Base Salaries. Base salary levels are the fixed portion of an executive's compensation package. The Compensation Committee annually reviews and determines the base salaries of members of senior management, except as limited by contractual obligation. Where adjustable, salary levels reflect a combination of factors, including competitive pay levels, the executive's experience and tenure, and the Company's overall annual budget for merit increases and the executive's individual performance. In each case, the Compensation Committee takes into account the results achieved by the executive, his or her future potential, scope of responsibilities and experience, and competitive salary practices. However, the Company's compensation formulas for certain executives' salaries during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, were largely determined based on pre-existing contractual arrangements in place from the previous fiscal periods.

Bonuses. Annual performance bonuses are tied to the Company's overall performance, as well as the performance of each executive and of his or her area of responsibility. The Compensation Committee sets certain financial and operational objectives that are designed to promote key Company initiatives, such as achievement of specific strategic, operational or financial tasks or targets, including business unit performance, operating income and EPS, which the Board of Directors believes will result in increases in stockholder value. As a result of the Company's performance on many of these metrics during fiscal 2006 the Company did not pay any cash bonuses for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, other than as contractually obligated with respect to two executive officers. However, at the recommendation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and as approved by the Compensation Committee, reduced bonuses were paid to certain individuals in the form of restricted stock that vests over a one-year period.

Long-Term Compensation. Long-term compensation is provided by stock options and, from time to time, when appropriate, restricted stock or RSUs. The Compensation Committee believes that long-term compensation tied to stockholder value should constitute a significant portion of an executive's compensation as options are intended to provide long-term compensation specifically tied to increases in the price of the Company's common stock. Options are granted at the market price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, and provide compensation only to the extent the market price of the common stock increases between the date of grant and the date the option is exercised. Restricted stock and RSUs also tie compensation to the long term appreciation of the Company's common stock by restricting the holders' ability to receive and/or dispose of the related shares of common stock.

The total number of options granted in each year, which may vary, is tied to a number of factors including, but not limited to, overall Company performance, individual performance of the executive, and competitive and retention considerations.

The Compensation Committee continues to review its overall long-term incentive structure in light of the shifting competitive and regulatory environment. The Compensation Committee, with input from senior management and outside consultants, may decide to make changes to the long-term compensation program in the future.

401(k) Plan. The Company offers a 401(k) plan. Employees are eligible to participate after completion of six months of service. Employees may defer from 1% to 25% of eligible earnings up to the IRS maximum of $15,000 for 2006. Participating employees who have attained age 50 are allowed to contribute an extra $5,000 in the 401(k) plan as catch-up contributions. Employee contributions are 100% vested. Participants hired before November 1, 2001, are 100% vested in both employee and employer contributions. For participants hired on or after November 1, 2001, employer-matching contributions become vested based on a five-year vesting schedule, to vest 20% per year, for each year of service. The Company, on a discretionary basis, may make matching contributions at the end of each quarter. Matching contributions may be made each pay period in lieu of each quarter. The current match is 50% of the participant's contribution up to 6% of employee compensation. Bally Technologies, Inc., may make a discretionary profit sharing contribution to the 401(k) plan each year.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. On June 30, 2004, Mr. Hadrill and the Company entered into the Hadrill Agreement pursuant to which Mr. Hadrill began serving as the Company's Chief Executive Officer as of October 1, 2004. The Hadrill Agreement was amended on June 20, 2006, pursuant to which (i) Mr. Hadrill's term of employment was extended from October 1, 2007, to January 1, 2009, (ii) Mr. Hadrill's salary, beginning July 1, 2006, increased from $980,000 to $998,000, (iii) Mr. Hadrill received an additional week of vacation time, and (iv) subject to the approval of the Compensation Committee, Mr. Hadrill received a non-statutory stock option to purchase 200,000 shares of Company common stock at an exercise price per share equal to the fair market value of a share of Company common stock on the date of grant, as well as a number of restricted shares of Company common stock having a value equal to $1.4 million as of the date of grant.

The Hadrill Agreement, as amended, does not provide for an annual cash bonus. Additionally, during fiscal 2006, under the terms of the Hadrill Agreement, Mr. Hadrill was awarded a stock option grant covering 200,000 shares of common stock which vest as set forth under Option/SAR Grants in Last Fiscal Year and was also granted $1,400,000 in restricted stock. The first tranche of the restricted stock (28.6%) vests on July 1, 2008, with the remainder vesting on January 1, 2009.

Deductibility of Compensation Under Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Code places a limit of $1,000,000 on the amount of compensation that Bally may deduct in any one year with respect to its CEO and each of the next four most highly compensated executive officers. If the Company were to seek and obtain approval from stockholders for certain performance-based compensation, then such compensation would not be subject to the deduction limitation.

Respectfully submitted,

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

No director qualifies as independent unless the board of directors affirmatively determines that the director has no material relationship with the listed company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the company). Companies must identify which directors are independent and disclose the basis for that determination.

In addition, a director is not independent if:

- (i) The director is, or has been within the last three years, an employee of the listed company, or an immediate family member is, or has been within the last three years, an executive officer, of the listed company.
- (ii) The director has received, or has an immediate family member who has received, during any twelve-month period within the last three years, more than $100,000 in direct compensation from the listed company, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service).
- (iii) (A) The director or an immediate family member is a current partner of a firm that is the company's internal or external auditor; (B) the director is a current employee of such a firm; (C) the director has an immediate family member who is a current employee of such a firm and who participates in the firm's audit, assurance or tax compliance (but not tax planning) practice; or (D) the director or an immediate family member was within the last three years (but is no longer) a partner or employee of such a firm and personally worked on the listed company's audit within that time.
- (iv) The director or an immediate family member is, or has been within the last three years, employed as an executive officer of another company where any of the listed company's present executive officers at the same time serves or served on that company's compensation committee.
- (v) The director is a current employee, or an immediate family member is a current executive officer, of a company that has made payments to, or received payments from, the listed company for property or services in an amount which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 million, or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues.

An immediate family member includes a person's spouse, parents, children, siblings, mothers and fathers-in-law, sons and daughters-in-law, brothers and sisters-in-law, and anyone (other than domestic employees) who shares such person's home. However, for the purposes of applying the look-back provisions discussed above, individuals who are no longer immediate family members as a result of legal separation or divorce, or those who have died or become incapacitated, need not be considered.
