July Highlights:

- On July 29, CBOE moved closer to demutualization as the Delaware Chancery Court issued a final implementing order approving the settlement of the exercise right litigation between CBOE and former Chicago Board of Trade members. The Court's order is subject to potential appeal to the Delaware Supreme Court, and the deadline for appeals is Friday, August 28, 2009. For more information, see Information Circular IC09-219 at www.cboe.org/legal/crcInfo.aspx.

- On July 30, CBOE announced its unaudited second quarter financial results. Total revenues increased 12 percent to $109.4 million from $97.6 million in the second quarter of 2008. Net income rose 11 percent during the quarter to $28.1 million versus $25.4 million in second-quarter 2008. For an overview of CBOE's second quarter and six-month 2009 financial results, see the press release at www.cboe.com/AboutCBOE/PressReleases.aspx or Information Circular IC09-220 at www.cboe.org/legal/crcInfo.aspx.

- On July 17, CBOE Chairman and CEO William J. Brodsky testified before the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Financial Services regarding the Obama Administration's Financial Regulatory Reform Proposal. Brodsky was one of just seven financial industry spokespersons and the only exchange official to testify before the Committee. His testimony is available at www.cboe.com/AboutCBOE/WhatsNew.aspx.
