On April 13, 2011, CardioNet, Inc. (the Company) and Philip G. Leone, the Company's Senior Vice President, Reimbursement Services, Regulatory and Compliance, agreed that Mr. Leone would leave the Company. Mr. Leone's departure constituted a termination without cause under the employment agreement, dated November 25, 2008, between the Company and Mr. Leone.

Under his employment agreement, Mr. Leone is entitled to receive a severance payment of $375,852, to be paid in twelve (12) monthly installments of $31,321 each, that consists of the following: (i) an amount equal to $250,568, which represents one times (1.0x) Mr. Leone's base salary, plus (ii) an amount equal to $125,284, which represents one times (1.0x) his on-target annual performance incentive bonus (or sixty (50%) of his base salary). These payments are subject to applicable tax withholdings. The payment of these amounts is subject to Mr. Leone's execution and non-revocation of a Release and Waiver of Claims.

Mr. Leone will also be eligible for continued participation in our medical, dental and vision plans for a period ending on the earlier of: (i) April 11, 2012, or (ii) the date on which Mr. Leone becomes eligible to enroll in any similar plan offered by another employer, at the same premium rates and cost sharing as may be charged from time to time for our employees generally, as if Mr. Leone had continued to be employed by the Company during such period. Mr. Leone will bear any tax consequences of this arrangement. Mr. Leone will remain subject to the Company's Proprietary Information and Inventions Agreement, and remains subject to restrictions on disclosure of confidential information of the Company. In addition, Mr. Leone will be subject to a covenant not to compete with the Company during the twelve-month period in which his severance payments are made.

The foregoing description of certain terms of Mr. Leone's employment agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the employment agreement which was attached as Exhibit 10.39 to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 25, 2011.
