NEWPORT CORPORATION

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

June 29, 2013

NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Newport Corporation and its wholly owned subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the Company) and have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and with the instructions of Form 10-Q and Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal and recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements do not include certain footnotes and financial presentations normally required under generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and, therefore, should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related notes contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 29, 2012. The results for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results the Company will have for the full year ending December 28, 2013. The December 29, 2012 balances reported herein are derived from the audited consolidated financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 29, 2012.

Subsequent to the filing of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the six months ended June 30, 2012, management determined that certain debt repayments and borrowings were both overstated by $1.3 million in the Company's consolidated statement of cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2012. In the consolidated statement of cash flows included in the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements, the Company corrected the presentation of repayment of long-term debt and obligations under capital leases, repayment of short-term borrowings and proceeds from short-term borrowings to accurately report debt repayments and borrowings. The Company believes that the effect of this adjustment is not material to the consolidated statement of cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2012.

NOTE 2 RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In March 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2013-05, Foreign Currency Matters: Parent's Accounting for the Cumulative Translation Adjustment upon Derecognition of Certain Subsidiaries or Groups of Assets within a Foreign Entity or of an Investment in a Foreign Entity, which clarifies the guidance in Topics 810 and 830. Topic 810 requires companies to deconsolidate a subsidiary or derecognize a group of assets if the parent ceases to hold a controlling financial interest in that subsidiary or group of assets. Upon the loss of a controlling financial interest, the parent would recognize the cumulative translation adjustment in net income. The guidance in Topic 810 does not distinguish between a sale or transfer of an investment in a foreign entity and a sale or transfer of a subsidiary or group of assets within a foreign entity. Topic 830 requires the release of the cumulative translation adjustment into net income if a sale or transfer represented a complete or substantially complete liquidation of an investment in a foreign entity. ASU No. 2013-05 clarifies that companies that cease to have a controlling financial interest in a subsidiary or group of assets within a foreign subsidiary should release the cumulative translation adjustment into net income if the sale or transfer results in a complete or substantially complete liquidation of the foreign entity in which the subsidiary or group of assets had resided. ASU No. 2013-05 will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2013, and early adoption is permitted but has not been elected by the Company. The adoption of ASU No. 2013-05 will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 4 FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820-10, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, requires that for any assets and liabilities stated at fair value on a recurring basis in the Company's financial statements, the fair value of such assets and liabilities be measured based on the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Level 1 asset and liability values are derived from quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities and Level 2 asset and liability values are derived from quoted prices in inactive markets or based on other observable inputs.

Accrued Warranty Obligations

Unless otherwise stated in the Company's product literature or in its agreements with customers, products sold by the Company's Photonics and Optics Groups generally carry a one-year warranty from the original invoice date on all product materials and workmanship, other than filters and gratings products, which generally carry a 90-day warranty and laser beam profilers and dental CAD/CAM scanners, which generally carry a two-year warranty. Products of these groups sold to original equipment manufacturer (OEM) customers generally carry longer warranties, typically 15 to 19 months. Products sold by the Company's Lasers Group carry warranties that vary by product and product component, but generally range from 90 days to two years. In certain cases, such warranties for Lasers Group products are limited by either a set time period or a maximum amount of hourly usage of the product, whichever occurs first. Defective products will be either repaired or replaced, generally at the Company's option, upon meeting certain criteria. The Company accrues a provision for the estimated costs that may be incurred for warranties relating to a product (based on historical experience) as a component of cost of sales. Short-term accrued warranty obligations, which expire within one year, are included in accrued expenses and other current liabilities and long-term warranty obligations are included in deferred income taxes and other liabilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Short-term warranty obligations were $3.0 million and $3.4 million as of June 29, 2013 and December 29, 2012, respectively. As of June 29, 2013 and December 29, 2012, the amounts accrued for long-term warranty obligations were not material.

Developed technology is amortized on a straight line basis over 10 to 20 years, depending on the life of the product technology. Intangible assets related to customer relationships are generally amortized over a period of up to 10 years on an accelerated basis. In-process research and development is amortized on a straight line basis over the product's estimated useful life upon completion of the technology. Other intangible assets include acquired backlog, product trademarks and trade names, non-competition agreements and defensible assets. With the exception of product trademarks and trade names, such assets are amortized on a straight line basis over a period of three months to 10 years, depending on the asset. Trademarks and trade names associated with products are amortized on a straight line basis over the estimated remaining life of the product technology, which ranges from 10 to 20 years. Trademarks and trade names associated with a business have indefinite lives and are not amortized.

Amortization expense related to intangible assets totaled $2.6 million and $5.1 million for the three and six months ended June 29, 2013, respectively, and $5.0 million and $10.2 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, respectively.

At June 29, 2013, the total compensation cost related to unvested stock-based awards granted to employees, officers and directors under the Company's stock-based benefit plans that had not yet been recognized was $17.2 million (net of estimated forfeitures of $3.7 million). This future compensation expense will be amortized over a weighted-average period of 1.8 years using the straight-line attribution method. The actual compensation expense that the Company will recognize in the future related to unvested stock-based awards outstanding at June 29, 2013 will be adjusted for actual forfeitures and will be adjusted based on the Company's determination as to the extent to which performance conditions applicable to any stock-based awards have been or will be achieved.

At June 29, 2013, 0.7 million stock options with a weighted-average exercise price of $14.58 per share, intrinsic value of $0.2 million and remaining contractual term of 1.2 years were outstanding and were exercisable. At June 29, 2013, 2.0 million stock-settled stock appreciation rights with a weighted-average base value of $12.27 per share, intrinsic value of $5.4 million and remaining contractual term of 5.0 years were outstanding, and 1.0 million stock-settled stock appreciation rights with a weighted-average base value of $9.78 per share, intrinsic value of $5.2 million and remaining contractual term of 3.7 years were exercisable.

For the three and six months ended June 29, 2013, 0.4 million restricted stock units, and for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, 0.2 million restricted stock units, were excluded from the computations of diluted net income per share, as the amount of unrecognized future compensation expense associated with these restricted stock units would have resulted in assumed proceeds in excess of the amount required to repurchase the underlying shares under the treasury stock method and, therefore, their inclusion would have been antidilutive. For the three and six months ended June 29, 2013, an additional 0.7 million performance-based restricted stock units, and for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, 0.4 million performance-based restricted stock units, were excluded from the computations of diluted net income per share, as the performance criteria for their vesting had not been met as of the end of such periods.

NOTE 11 INCOME TAXES

Edgar Filing: NEWPORT CORP - Form 10-Q

Under ASC 740-270, Income Taxes - Interim Reporting, the Company is required to evaluate and make any necessary adjustments to its effective tax rate each quarter as new information is obtained that may affect the assumptions used to estimate its annual effective tax rate. The Company's assumptions relate to factors such as the projected level and mix of pre-tax earnings in the various tax jurisdictions in which it operates, valuation allowances against deferred tax assets, the recognition or derecognition of tax benefits related to uncertain tax positions, expected utilization of tax credits and changes in or the interpretation of tax laws in jurisdictions in which the Company conducts business. In addition, jurisdictions for which the Company has projected losses for the year, or a year-to-date loss, where no tax benefit can be recognized, are excluded from the calculation of the estimated annual effective tax rate. Changes in the assumptions and the inclusion or exclusion of certain jurisdictions could result in a higher or lower effective tax rate during a particular quarter. On July 30, 2013 the Israeli Parliament adopted Budget Law 2013-2014 and the Economic Arrangements Law, which will impact the corporate tax rate applicable to the Company's Israeli based operations effective January 1, 2014. These new tax laws will have a direct impact on valuing the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities, and the Company will be required to record an adjustment to the value of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities as a discrete item during the Company's quarter ending September 28, 2013.

Table of Contents

NEWPORT CORPORATION

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

June 29, 2013

Deferred income taxes are recognized for the future tax consequences of temporary differences using enacted statutory tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Temporary differences include the difference between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of existing assets and liabilities and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. The effect of a change in tax rates on deferred taxes is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. In accordance with the provisions of ASC 740, a valuation allowance for deferred tax assets is recorded to the extent the Company cannot determine that the ultimate realization of the net deferred tax assets is more likely than not. Realization of deferred tax assets is principally dependent upon the achievement of future taxable income, the estimation of which requires significant management judgment. As of June 29, 2013, the Company could not determine that it is more likely than not that deferred tax assets related to certain domestic and foreign net operating loss carryforwards and certain other miscellaneous domestic and foreign deferred tax assets would be realized. Therefore, the Company has maintained a valuation allowance of $3.3 million against its domestic and certain foreign subsidiaries' deferred tax assets.

The Company utilizes ASC 740-10-25, Income Taxes - Recognition, which requires income tax positions to meet a more-likely-than-not recognition threshold to be recognized in the financial statements. Under ASC 740-10-25, tax positions that previously failed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold should be recognized in the first subsequent financial reporting period in which that threshold is met. Previously recognized tax positions that no longer meet the more-likely-than-not threshold should be derecognized in the first subsequent financial reporting period in which that threshold is no longer met. As a multi-national corporation, the Company is subject to taxation in many jurisdictions, and the calculation of its tax liabilities involves dealing with uncertainties in the application of complex tax laws and regulations in various taxing jurisdictions. If the Company ultimately determines that the payment of these liabilities will be unnecessary, it reverses the liability and recognizes a tax benefit during the period in which it determines the liability no longer applies. Conversely, the Company records additional tax charges in a period in which it determines that a recorded tax liability is less than it expects the ultimate assessment to be. As a result of these adjustments, the Company's effective tax rate in a given financial statement period could be materially affected. In the first quarter of 2013, the Company reversed $0.7 million of unrecognized tax benefits related to a Japanese subsidiary, due to the expiration of the applicable audit statute of limitations. As of June 29, 2013, the Company had $14.5 million of gross unrecognized tax benefits and a total of $11.7 million of net unrecognized tax benefits, which, if recognized, would affect the effective tax rate. Interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits were not significant for the three and six months ended June 29, 2013.

NOTE 12 STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY TRANSACTIONS

In May 2008, the Board of Directors of the Company approved a share repurchase program, authorizing the purchase of up to 4.0 million shares of the Company's common stock. No purchases were made under this program during the six months ended June 29, 2013. As of June 29, 2013, 3.9 million shares remained available for purchase under the program. However, the terms of the Company's senior secured credit facility entered into in October 2011 restrict the Company's ability to purchase additional shares under this program during the term of such facility. The terms of the Company's new senior secured revolving credit facility entered into in July 2013, described more fully in Note 16, which replaced the October 2011 credit facility, permit the Company to purchase shares under the repurchase program during the term of such facility, subject to certain conditions and limitations.

Edgar Filing: NEWPORT CORP - Form 10-Q

In the second quarter of 2013, the Company cancelled 0.1 million restricted stock units in payment by employees of taxes owed upon the vesting of restricted stock units issued to them under the Company's stock incentive plans. The value of these restricted stock units totaled $2.0 million at the time they were cancelled.

NOTE 13 DEFINED BENEFIT PENSION PLANS

The Company has defined benefit pension plans covering substantially all full-time employees in France, Germany, Israel and Japan. In addition, the Company has certain pension liabilities relating to former employees of the Company in the United Kingdom. The German plan is unfunded, as permitted under the plan and applicable laws. For financial reporting purposes, the calculation of net periodic pension costs is based upon a number of actuarial assumptions, including a discount rate for plan obligations, an assumed rate of return on pension plan assets and an assumed rate of compensation increase for employees covered by the plan. All of these assumptions are based upon management's judgment, considering all known trends and uncertainties. Actual results that differ from these assumptions would impact future expense recognition and the cash funding requirements of the Company's pension plans.

NOTE 14 BUSINESS SEGMENT INFORMATION

The operating segments reported below are the segments of the Company for which separate financial information is available and for which operating results are evaluated regularly by the Chief Executive Officer, who is the chief operating decision maker, in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. Prior to 2013, the Company developed, manufactured and marketed its products within three distinct business segments: its Lasers Division, its Photonics and Precision Technologies Division and its Ophir Division. In January 2013, the Company reorganized its operations to create three new operating segments: its Photonics Group, its Lasers Group and its Optics Group. As a result, the Company has revised its reportable segments to correspond with its new operating segments, reflecting the manner in which it now assesses performance and allocates resources. The results of operations of the Company's reportable segments for the three and six months ended June 30, 2012 reported below have been restated to conform to the new reportable segments.

The Company measured income reported for each business segment, which included only those costs that were directly attributable to the operations of that segment, and excluded certain unallocated operating expenses, such as corporate overhead and intangible asset amortization, certain gains, interest and other expense, net, and income taxes.

NOTE 15 LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In November 2010, two former employees of Spectra-Physics, Linda Pope and Yvette Flores, together with their children, Tia Pope Hudson and Mark Flores, filed a complaint against Spectra-Physics and the Company in the Superior Court for Santa Clara County, California. Plaintiffs alleged that between 1975 and 1985 they were harmed by exposure to toxic substances at Spectra-Physics, and that Spectra-Physics failed to warn them about dangers associated with the substances and failed to implement adequate safeguards to protect them from the substances.

In November 2012, the Company reached an agreement with Linda Pope and Tia Pope Hudson to settle all claims related to their portion of the suit. In June 2013, the court granted the Company's motion for summary judgment of Yvette Flores' claims on the grounds that they were barred by the exclusivity of the State of California's workers' compensation system. In July 2013, the Company reached an agreement with Mark Flores to settle his claims, which were then the only claims remaining in the suit. Such settlement amounts will be paid from coverage by applicable insurance policies, and as such will not have any net impact on the Company's income, cash flows or stockholders' equity.

NOTE 16 SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On July 18, 2013, the Company entered into a new credit agreement with certain lenders (New Credit Agreement). The New Credit Agreement replaced the Company's prior credit agreement, which had consisted of an initial term loan of $185 million and a $65 million revolving line of credit. The New Credit Agreement consists of a senior secured revolving credit facility of $275 million with a term of five years (New Credit Facility). The New Credit Agreement also provides the Company with the option to increase the aggregate principal amount of loans in the form of additional revolving loans or a separate tranche of term loans, in an aggregate amount that does not exceed $50 million, in each case subject to certain terms and conditions contained in the New Credit Agreement. Concurrently with the closing of the New Credit Agreement, the Company terminated the prior credit agreement after repaying the entire outstanding principal amount of $152.6 million and all accrued interest and fees thereon, utilizing $120.0 million borrowed under the New Credit Facility together with a portion of the Company's existing cash balances.

The initial interest rates per annum applicable to amounts outstanding under the New Credit Facility are, at the Company's option, either (a) the base rate as defined in the New Credit Agreement (Base Rate) plus 1.0% per annum, or (b) the Eurodollar Rate as defined in the New Credit Agreement (Eurodollar Rate) plus 2.0% per annum. Following the filing of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 28, 2013, the margins over the Base Rate and Eurodollar Rate applicable to the loans outstanding under the New Credit Facility, and the commitment fee payable on the unused portion of the New Credit Facility, may be adjusted periodically based on the consolidated leverage ratio of the Company, as calculated pursuant to the New Credit Agreement. The maximum applicable margins are 1.25% per annum for Base Rate loans and 2.25% per annum for Eurodollar Rate loans, and the minimum applicable margins are 0.5% per annum for Base Rate loans and 1.5% per annum for Eurodollar Rate loans. The maximum commitment fee is 0.40% per annum, and the minimum commitment fee is 0.25% per annum.

The Company's obligations under the New Credit Agreement are secured by a lien on substantially all of the assets of Newport Corporation and certain of its domestic subsidiaries, which are guarantors under the New Credit Agreement, as well as by a pledge of certain shares of foreign subsidiaries of Newport Corporation. The terms and conditions of the New Credit Agreement and the related guaranty and security and pledge agreement are described in more detail in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 19, 2013.

Overview

We are a global supplier of advanced-technology products and systems, including lasers, photonics instrumentation, precision positioning and vibration isolation products and systems, optical components, subassemblies and subsystems, three-dimensional non-contact measurement equipment and advanced automated manufacturing systems. Our products are used worldwide in a variety of industries including scientific research, defense and security, microelectronics, life and health sciences and industrial markets. Prior to 2013, we operated within three distinct business segments: our Lasers Division, our Photonics and Precision Technologies Division and our Ophir Division. In January 2013, we reorganized our operations to create three new operating groups: our Photonics Group, our Lasers Group and our Optics Group. All of these groups offer a broad array of advanced technology products and services to original equipment manufacturer (OEM) and end-user customers across a wide range of applications in all of our targeted end markets.

The following is a discussion and analysis of certain factors that have affected our results of operations and financial condition during the periods included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of our financial statements requires that we make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. We evaluate these estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis. We base our estimates on our historical experience and on various other factors which we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the amounts of certain expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The accounting policies that involve the most significant judgments, assumptions and estimates used in the preparation of our financial statements are those related to revenue recognition, allowances for doubtful accounts, pension liabilities, inventory reserves, warranty obligations, asset impairment, income taxes and stock-based compensation. The judgments, assumptions and estimates used in these areas by their nature involve risks and uncertainties, and in the event that any of them prove to be inaccurate in any material respect, it could have a material effect on our reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and on the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. A summary of these critical accounting policies is included in Item 7 (Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations) of Part II of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2012. There have been no material changes to the critical accounting policies disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Net Sales

Net sales for the three months ended June 29, 2013 decreased by $19.4 million, or 12.6%, compared with the corresponding period in 2012. For the three months ended June 29, 2013, net sales by our Photonics Group decreased $5.0 million, or 8.3%; net sales by our Lasers Group decreased $5.3 million, or 11.9%; and net sales by our Optics Group decreased $9.1 million, or 18.7%, compared with the corresponding prior year period. Net sales for the six months ended June 29, 2013 decreased by $44.0 million, or 14.1%, compared with the corresponding period in 2012. For the six months ended June 29, 2013, net sales by our Photonics Group decreased $6.8 million, or 5.6%; net sales by our Lasers Group decreased $15.7 million, or 16.7%; and net sales by our Optics Group decreased $21.5 million, or 22.4%, compared with the corresponding prior year period. For the three and six months ended June 29, 2013, we experienced decreases in net sales to all of our end markets compared with the corresponding periods in 2012.

Net sales to the scientific research market for the three months ended June 29, 2013 decreased $0.7 million, or 2.3%, compared with the same period in 2012. Net sales to this market for the six months ended June 29, 2013 decreased $5.8 million, or 8.7%, compared with the same period in 2012. The decrease in sales to this market for the three month period was due primarily to decreased sales of photonics products, and the decrease in sales for the six month period was due primarily to decreased sales of lasers and photonics products. Net sales to the scientific research end market were negatively impacted in both periods in 2013 by adverse macroeconomic conditions, particularly in Europe and the Pacific Rim, as a result of budget constraints and uncertainty in future research spending levels. This negative impact was offset in part by stronger macroeconomic conditions in this market in the United States in the 2013 periods compared with the 2012 periods, as such conditions were significantly depressed in the 2012 periods due to the initial reaction to the anticipated fiscal cliff and budget sequestration in the United States, and the resulting extreme budget constraints and uncertainty at that time. Generally, our net sales to this market by each of our operating groups may fluctuate from period to period due to changes in overall research spending levels and the timing of large sales relating to major research programs and, in some cases, these fluctuations may be offsetting between our operating groups or between such periods.

Net sales to the defense and security markets for the three months ended June 29, 2013 decreased by $3.4 million, or 19.8%, compared with the same period in 2012. Net sales to these markets for the six months ended June 29, 2013 decreased by $5.4 million, or 15.5%, compared with the same period in 2012. The decreases in sales to these markets for both periods in 2013 were due primarily to decreased sales of optics products. Net sales to the defense and security end markets were negatively impacted in both periods in 2013 by adverse macroeconomic conditions, primarily in the United States, as a result of budget constraints and uncertainty in future defense spending levels. Generally, our net sales to these markets by each of our operating groups may fluctuate from period to period due to changes in overall defense spending levels and the timing of large sales relating to major defense programs and, in some cases, these fluctuations may be offsetting between our operating groups or between such periods.

Net sales to the microelectronics market for the three months ended June 29, 2013 decreased $12.2 million, or 29.6%, compared with the same period in 2012. Net sales to this market for the six months ended June 29, 2013 decreased $20.6 million, or 26.6%, compared with the same period in 2012. The decreases in sales for both periods in 2013 were due primarily to decreased sales of optics and precision motion products resulting from the continued cyclical downturn in the semiconductor equipment industry.

Net sales to the life and health sciences market for the three months ended June 29, 2013 decreased $2.1 million, or 6.5%, compared with the same period in 2012. Net sales to this market for the six months ended June 29, 2013 decreased $8.1 million, or 11.5%, compared with the same period in 2012. The decreased sales in both periods were due primarily to lower sales of lasers for bioimaging and surgical applications, and lower sales of optics products for analytical instrumentation applications.

Edgar Filing: NEWPORT CORP - Form 10-Q

Net sales to our industrial manufacturing and other end markets for the three months ended June 29, 2013 decreased $1.0 million, or 3.2%, compared with the same period in 2012. Net sales to these markets for the six months ended June 29, 2013 decreased $4.1 million, or 6.6%, compared with the same period in 2012. The decreases in sales for both periods in 2013 were due primarily to lower sales of products used for graphics and fiber optic communications applications due to weak macroeconomic conditions. The decreased sales for the six month period was also due to lower sales of products used for automotive safety.

The decreases in sales to customers in the United States for the three and six months ended June 29, 2013 compared with the corresponding periods in 2012 were attributable primarily to lower sales to our life and health sciences, microelectronics and defense and security end markets, offset in part by increased sales to our scientific research end market.

The decreases in sales to customers in Germany and in Pacific Rim countries other than Japan for the three and six months ended June 29, 2013 compared with the corresponding periods in 2012 were attributable primarily to lower sales to our scientific research and microelectronics end markets. In Germany, the decreases in sales for both periods in 2013 were also due to decreased sales to our life and health sciences end market, however in Pacific Rim countries other than Japan, sales to our life and health sciences end market increased in both periods in 2013.

The increases in sales to customers in other countries in Europe for the three and six months ended June 29, 2013 compared with the corresponding periods in 2012 were attributable primarily to higher sales to our life and health sciences end market, offset in part by decreased sales to our scientific research end market. For the three month period, the increase in sales was also due to higher sales to our industrial manufacturing and other end markets.

The decrease in sales to customers in Japan for the three and six months ended June 29, 2013 compared with the corresponding periods in 2012 were due primarily to lower sales to our industrial manufacturing and other end markets. For the six month period, the decrease in sales was also due to lower sales in our scientific research end market.

The increase in sales to customers in the rest of the world for the three months ended June 29, 2013 compared with the corresponding period in 2012 was due primarily to higher sales to customers in our scientific research and life and health sciences end markets, offset in part by decreased sales to customers in our microelectronics end market.

Table of Contents

Gross Margin

Gross margin was 42.6% and 43.5% for the three months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively, and gross margin was 42.1% and 43.4% for the six months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively. The decreases in gross margin in the current year periods compared with the prior year periods were due primarily to decreased absorption of manufacturing overhead in our Photonics and Optics Groups resulting from our lower overall sales and production levels, as well as a lower proportion of sales of higher margin products, offset in part by improved absorption of manufacturing overhead and a higher proportion of sales of higher margin products by our Lasers Group.

In general, we expect that our gross margin will vary in any given period depending upon factors such as our mix of sales, product pricing variations, manufacturing absorption levels, and changes in levels of inventory and warranty reserves.

Selling, General and Administrative (SG&A) Expenses

SG&A expenses totaled $38.1 million, or 28.4% of net sales, and $41.9 million, or 27.2% of net sales, for the three months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively. SG&A expenses totaled $75.7 million, or 28.4% of net sales, and $85.9 million, or 27.7% of net sales, for the six months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively. The decreases in SG&A expenses in absolute dollars for the three and six months ended June 29, 2013 compared with the prior year periods were due primarily to two factors: reductions in depreciation and amortization expense of $3.6 million and $7.2 million, respectively, resulting primarily from the write off of certain intangible assets of our Ophir subsidiaries during the fourth quarter of 2012; and decreases in personnel costs of $2.7 million and $5.6 million, respectively, resulting primarily from lower incentive compensation accruals, as well as headcount reductions as part of our 2012 cost reduction initiative. The decreases for both periods were offset in part by an increase in selling expenses due to a non-recurring charge associated with a change in our sales channel, and an increase in our allowance for doubtful accounts.

In general, we expect that SG&A expenses will vary as a percentage of net sales in the future based on our sales level in any given period. Because the majority of our SG&A expenses is fixed in the short term, changes in SG&A expenses will likely not be in proportion to changes in net sales. In addition, any acquisitions would increase our SG&A expenses, and such increases may not be in proportion to the changes in net sales.

Research and Development (R&D) Expense

R&D expense totaled $13.6 million, or 10.1% of net sales, and $13.7 million, or 8.9% of net sales, for the three months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively. R&D expense totaled $26.7 million, or 10.0% of net sales, and $27.5 million, or 8.8% of net sales, for the six months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively. The decreases in R&D expense in absolute dollars in the current year periods compared with the prior year periods were due primarily to headcount reductions in our Lasers Group, offset in part by increased headcount in our Optics Group to provide support for new projects.

Edgar Filing: NEWPORT CORP - Form 10-Q

We believe that the continued development and advancement of our products and technologies is critical to our success, and we intend to continue to invest in R&D initiatives, while working to ensure that our efforts are focused and the resources are deployed efficiently. In general, we expect that R&D expense as a percentage of net sales will vary in the future based on our sales level in any given period. Because of our commitment to continued product development, and because the majority of our R&D expense is fixed in the short term, changes in R&D expense will likely not be in proportion to changes in net sales. In addition, any acquisitions would increase our R&D expenses, and such increases may not be in proportion to the changes in net sales.

Interest and Other Expense, Net

Interest and other expense, net totaled $2.0 million and $2.8 million for the three months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively, and $4.2 million and $5.0 million for the six months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively. The decreases in interest and other expense, net for the three and six months ended June 29, 2013 compared with the same periods in 2012 were due primarily to increased gains on derivative instruments and lower interest expense on our term loan, resulting from the declining loan balance.

Income Taxes

Our effective tax rate was 26.6% and 34.4% for the three months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively, and 8.5% and 28.3% for the six months ended June 29, 2013 and June 30, 2012, respectively. Our effective tax rate for the three months ended June 29, 2013 was favorably impacted by the utilization of the federal research credit, which was signed into law on January 2, 2013, and a greater percentage of our earnings being reported in jurisdictions with lower statutory rates. Our effective tax rate for the six months ended June 29, 2013 was also favorably impacted by the retroactive extension of the federal research credit for 2012 and the reversal of an uncertain foreign tax position related to a Japanese subsidiary, due to the expiration of the applicable audit statute of limitations.

Under ASC 740-270, Income Taxes - Interim Reporting, we are required to evaluate and make any necessary adjustments to our effective tax rate each quarter as new information is obtained that may affect the assumptions used to estimate our annual effective tax rate. On July 30, 2013 the Israeli Parliament adopted Budget Law 2013-2014 and the Economic Arrangements Law, which will impact the corporate tax rate applicable to our Israeli based operations effective January 1, 2014. These new laws will have a direct impact on valuing our deferred tax assets and liabilities, and we will be required to record an adjustment to our deferred tax assets and liabilities as a discrete item during our quarter ending September 28, 2013.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and marketable securities balances increased to a total of $102.0 million as of June 29, 2013 from $100.4 million as of December 29, 2012. This increase was attributable primarily to cash provided by our operating activities and proceeds from the issuance of common stock under employee stock plans, offset in part by cash used for net repayments of debt and purchases of property and equipment and annual incentive compensation payouts.

Net cash provided by our operating activities of $29.3 million for the six months ended June 29, 2013 was attributable primarily to cash provided by our results of operations, a decrease in accounts receivable of $1.6 million due to lower sales and the timing of collections and an increase in accounts payable of $1.0 million due to the timing of payments, offset in part by an increase in gross inventory of $3.6 million.

Net cash used in investing activities of $8.6 million for the six months ended June 29, 2013 was attributable primarily to purchases of property and equipment of $8.3 million.

Net cash used in financing activities of $19.0 million for the six months ended June 29, 2013 was attributable to net repayments of borrowings of $21.2 million, which consisted primarily of principal payments on the term loan under our secured credit facility, and payments of $2.0 million in connection with the cancellation of restricted stock units for taxes owed by employees upon the vesting of restricted stock units issued under our stock incentive plans, offset in part by proceeds of $4.3 million from the sale of stock under employee plans.

In October 2011, we entered into a credit agreement with certain lenders (Credit Agreement). The Credit Agreement and the related security agreement provide for a senior secured credit facility consisting of a $185 million term loan and a $65 million revolving line of credit, each with a term of five years. The credit facility is secured by substantially all of our domestic assets as well as a pledge of certain shares of our subsidiaries. At June 29, 2013, we had a remaining balance of $152.6 million outstanding on the term loan, with an effective interest rate of 5.00%. At June 29, 2013, there was no balance outstanding under the revolving line of credit, with $63.4 million available for borrowing after considering outstanding letters of credit totaling $1.6 million.

On July 18, 2013, we entered into a new credit agreement with certain lenders (New Credit Agreement). The New Credit Agreement replaced the prior Credit Agreement. The New Credit Agreement consists of a senior secured revolving credit facility of $275 million with a term of five years (New Credit Facility). The New Credit Agreement also provides us with the option to increase the aggregate principal amount of loans in the form of additional revolving loans or a separate tranche of term loans, in an aggregate amount that does not exceed $50 million, in each case subject to certain terms and conditions contained in the New Credit Agreement. Concurrently with the closing of the New Credit Agreement, we terminated the prior credit agreement after repaying the entire outstanding principal amount of $152.6 million and all accrued interest and fees thereon, utilizing $120.0 million borrowed under the New Credit Facility together with a portion of our existing cash balances.

The initial interest rates per annum applicable to amounts outstanding under the New Credit Facility are, at our option, either (a) the base rate as defined in the New Credit Agreement (Base Rate) plus 1.0% per annum, or (b) the Eurodollar Rate as defined in the New Credit Agreement (Eurodollar Rate) plus 2.0% per annum. Following the filing of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 28, 2013, the margins over the Base Rate and Eurodollar Rate applicable to the loans outstanding under the New Credit Facility, and the commitment fee payable on the unused portion of the New Credit Facility, may be adjusted periodically based on our consolidated leverage ratio, as calculated pursuant to the New Credit Agreement. The maximum applicable margins are 1.25% per annum for Base Rate loans and 2.25% per annum for Eurodollar Rate loans, and the minimum applicable margins are 0.5% per annum for Base Rate loans and 1.5% per annum for Eurodollar Rate loans. The maximum commitment fee is 0.40% per annum, and the minimum commitment fee is 0.25% per annum.

Our obligations under the New Credit Agreement are secured by a lien on substantially all of the assets of Newport Corporation and certain of our domestic subsidiaries, which are guarantors under the New Credit Agreement, as well as by a pledge of certain shares of our foreign subsidiaries. The terms and conditions of the New Credit Agreement and related guaranty and security and pledge agreement are described in more detail in the Current Report on Form 8-K we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 19, 2013. Our ability to borrow funds under the revolving line of credit is subject to certain conditions, including compliance with certain covenants and making certain representations and warranties. In particular, our borrowing capacity under the facility is limited by our Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) for the preceding four fiscal quarters. At the time of closing of the New Credit Facility, based on our Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA, the $120.0 million borrowed under the facility, additional indebtedness (including capital leases) of $9.5 million and outstanding letters of credit of $1.6 million, we had approximately $83 million available for borrowing under the New Credit Facility.

During 2011, we issued 200 million yen ($2.0 million at June 29, 2013) in private placement bonds through a Japanese bank. These bonds bear interest at a rate of 0.62% per year, payable in cash semiannually in arrears on June 30 and December 31 of each year, and mature on June 30, 2014. The bonds are included in long-term debt in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

At June 29, 2013, we had (i) four revolving lines of credit with Japanese banks; (ii) two agreements with Japanese banks under which we sell trade notes receivable with recourse; (iii) six loans with Japanese banks; and (iv) three loans with Israeli banks, as follows:

Description	Principal Amount Outstanding (in millions)	Amount Available for Borrowing (in millions)	Interest Rate(s)	Expiration Date(s)
Japanese lines of credit	$ 3.0	$ 7.8	1.16% to 2.475%	Various dates through August 2013
Japanese agreements for sale of receivables	$ 0.1	$ 5.4	1.48%	No expiration dates
Japanese loans	$ 0.7	$ -	1.25% to 1.45%	Various dates through November 2016
Israeli loans	$ 2.9	$ -	2.97% to 3.28%	Various dates through October 2015

Edgar Filing: NEWPORT CORP - Form 10-Q

In May 2008, our Board of Directors approved a share repurchase program, authorizing the purchase of up to 4.0 million shares of our common stock. No purchases were made under this program during the six months ended June 29, 2013. As of June 29, 2013, 3.9 million shares remained available for purchase under the program. The terms of the New Credit Agreement permit us to purchase shares under the repurchase program, subject to certain conditions and limitations.

Table of Contents

During the remainder of 2013, we expect to use $6 million to $9 million of cash for capital expenditures.

We believe that our current working capital position, together with our expected future cash flows from operations and the borrowing availability under our lines of credit, will be adequate to fund our operations in the ordinary course of business, our anticipated capital expenditures, our debt payment requirements and other contractual obligations for at least the next twelve months. However, this belief is based upon many assumptions and is subject to numerous risks, including those discussed in Item 1A (Risk Factors) of Part I of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 29, 2012 and in Item 1A (Risk Factors) of Part II and elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Except for the aforementioned capital expenditures, we have no present agreements or commitments with respect to any material acquisitions of businesses, products, product rights or technologies or any other material capital expenditures. We will continue to evaluate acquisitions of and/or investments in products, technologies, capital equipment or improvements or companies that complement our business and may make such acquisitions and/or investments in the future. However, the New Credit Agreement only permits us to make investments and acquisitions under certain circumstances, and restricts our ability to incur additional indebtedness, which limits our ability to make such acquisitions and investments.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2013, the FASB issued ASU No. 2013-05, Foreign Currency Matters: Parent's Accounting for the Cumulative Translation Adjustment upon Derecognition of Certain Subsidiaries or Groups of Assets within a Foreign Entity or of an Investment in a Foreign Entity, which clarifies the guidance in Topics 810 and 830. Topic 810 requires companies to deconsolidate a subsidiary or derecognize a group of assets if the parent ceases to hold a controlling financial interest in that subsidiary or group of assets. Upon the loss of a controlling financial interest, the parent would release the cumulative translation adjustment into net income. The guidance in Topic 810 does not distinguish between a sale or transfer of an investment in a foreign entity and a sale or transfer of a subsidiary or group of assets within a foreign entity. Topic 830 requires the release of the cumulative translation adjustment into net income if a sale or transfer represented a complete or substantially complete liquidation of an investment in a foreign entity. ASU No. 2013-05 clarifies that companies that cease to have a controlling financial interest in a subsidiary or group of assets within a foreign subsidiary should release the cumulative translation adjustment into net income if the sale or transfer results in a complete or substantially complete liquidation of the foreign entity in which the subsidiary or group of assets had resided. ASU No. 2013-05 will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2013, and early adoption is permitted but has not been elected. The adoption of ASU No. 2013-05 will not have a material impact on our financial position or results of operations.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The principal market risks (i.e., the risk of loss arising from adverse changes in market rates and prices) to which we are exposed are changes in foreign exchange rates, which may generate translation and transaction gains and losses, and changes in interest rates.

Foreign Currency Risk

Edgar Filing: NEWPORT CORP - Form 10-Q

Operating in international markets sometimes involves exposure to volatile movements in currency exchange rates. The economic impact of currency exchange rate movements on our operating results is complex because such changes are often linked to variability in real growth, inflation, interest rates, governmental actions and other factors. These changes, if material, may cause us to adjust our financing and operating strategies. Consequently, isolating the effect of changes in currency does not incorporate these other important economic factors.

Table of Contents

We use foreign currency option and forward exchange contracts to mitigate the risks associated with certain foreign currency transactions entered into in the ordinary course of business, primarily foreign currency denominated receivables, payables and other expenses. These derivative instruments are used as an economic hedge. However, we have not elected hedge accounting treatment and therefore, all changes in value of these derivative instruments are reflected in interest and other expense, net in our consolidated statements of income. We do not engage in currency speculation. All of our foreign currency option and forward exchange contracts are entered into to reduce the volatility of earnings, primarily related to Israeli shekel-based expenses. If the counterparties to these contracts (typically highly rated banks) do not fulfill their obligations to deliver the contracted currencies, we could be at risk for any currency related fluctuations.

As currency exchange rates change, translation of the statements of income of international operations into U.S. dollars affects the year-over-year comparability of operating results. We do not generally hedge translation risks because cash flows from international operations are generally reinvested locally. Changes in currency exchange rates that would have the largest impact on translating our future international operating income include changes to the exchange rates of the U.S. dollar to the euro and Japanese yen.

The following table provides information about our foreign currency derivative financial instruments outstanding as of June 29, 2013. The information is presented in U.S. dollars, as presented in our consolidated financial statements:

(In thousands)	June 29, 2013
	Notional Amount	Average Strike Price
Foreign currency options
Israeli Shekel - call options	$ 12,266	3.91
Israeli Shekel - put options	(12,819)	3.74
	$ (553)
Fair value	$ 498

Interest Rate Risk

Our investments in cash, cash equivalents, restricted cash and marketable securities, which totaled $102.0 million at June 29, 2013, are sensitive to changes in the general level of interest rates. In addition, certain assets related to our pension plans are sensitive to interest rates and economic conditions in Europe.

Under our prior Credit Agreement, we had a term loan, which had an outstanding principal balance of $152.6 million at June 29, 2013, and a $65 million revolving line of credit, both in the United States. Under the New Credit Agreement, we have a $275 million revolving line of credit in the United States. We also have various lines of credit, private placement bonds and other loans throughout the world, primarily in Israel and Japan. Our revolving line of credit in the United States, and many of our other borrowings, carry variable interest rates and therefore are subject to interest rate risk.

The table below presents information about our debt obligations as of June 29, 2013, and consequently does not reflect the New Credit Agreement we entered into in July 2013:

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, after evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act)) as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (the Evaluation Date), have concluded that as of the Evaluation Date, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that information we are required to disclose in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms, and to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in such reports is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer where appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Hudson et al. v. Spectra-Physics, Inc. et al.

In November 2010, two former employees of Spectra-Physics, Linda Pope and Yvette Flores, together with their children, Tia Pope Hudson and Mark Flores, filed a complaint against Spectra-Physics and us in the Superior Court for Santa Clara County, California. Plaintiffs alleged that between 1975 and 1985 they were harmed by exposure to toxic substances at Spectra-Physics, and that Spectra-Physics failed to warn them about dangers associated with the substances and failed to implement adequate safeguards to protect them from the substances.

In November 2012, we reached an agreement with Linda Pope and Tia Pope Hudson to settle all claims related to their portion of the suit. In June 2013, the court granted our motion for summary judgment of Yvette Flores' claims on the grounds that they were barred by the exclusivity of the State of California's workers' compensation system. In July 2013, we reached an agreement with Mark Flores to settle his claims, which were then the only claims remaining in the suit. Such settlement amounts will be paid from coverage by applicable insurance policies, and as such will not have any net impact on our income, cash flows or stockholders' equity.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

Our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 29, 2012 contains a full discussion of the risks associated with our business. An updated discussion regarding risks associated with unfavorable economic and market conditions and risks associated with our secured credit facility is included hereinbelow. There have been no other material changes to the risks described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Our operating results may be adversely affected by unfavorable economic and market conditions.

Decreased consumer confidence, volatile corporate operating results, reduced capital spending, lower research and defense budgets, and the effects of reduced availability of credit, have in the recent past led to reduced demand and increased price competition for our products, increased risk of excess and obsolete inventory and higher overhead costs as a percentage of revenue, and could do so in the future. Weakness in our end markets could negatively impact our revenue, gross margin and operating expenses, and consequently have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our worldwide sales to customers in the scientific research, defense and life and health sciences markets rely to a large extent on government funding for research and defense-related programs. Any decline in government funding as a result of reduced budgets in connection with fiscal austerity measures or other causes could result in reduced sales of our products to these customers, which would have an adverse impact on our results of operations. In particular, in the United States, uncertainty over U.S. fiscal policy has likely had a recent adverse impact on U.S. financial markets and overall economic activity. The inability of the U.S. Congress to agree on a comprehensive, long-term solution for the country's budget concerns has created national and global uncertainty over the magnitude and impact of spending cuts or tax increases that have been or might be enacted. The spending cuts that have been enacted to date under the U.S. congressional sequestration budget legislation have caused a significant amount of uncertainty in our U.S. customer base in these markets, and has resulted in reduced demand for our products, as customers have delayed making purchases while they determine the magnitude of the impact of these cuts on their respective budgets. Any additional significant spending cuts that ultimately were to occur would likely similarly reduce the demand for our products purchased either directly or indirectly as a result of government funding. Further, the existing sequestration budget cuts and any additional spending cuts or tax increases in the U.S. will likely negatively impact U.S. economic activity as a whole, which could also impact the economic health of other regions. All of these factors would likely adversely impact the global demand for our products, and would likely have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, as a result of the acquisitions of Ophir Optronics Ltd. and High Q Technologies GmbH, our dependence upon the European market as a significant revenue source has increased. In the event the economies of European Union countries decline as a result of ongoing turmoil in the European financial markets over the uncertain repayment of debt obligations by various European Union members, or for any other reason, this decline could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Ongoing concerns regarding the global availability of credit also may make it more difficult for our customers to raise capital, whether debt or equity, to finance their projects and purchases of capital equipment. Delays in our customers' ability to obtain such financing, or the unavailability of such financing, could adversely affect sales of our products and systems, particularly high-value lasers and systems, and therefore harm our business and operating results.

The terms of our secured credit facility impose significant financial obligations and risks upon us, limit our ability to take certain actions, and could discourage a change in control.

On July 18, 2013, we entered into a credit agreement with certain lenders, by virtue of which we obtained a new secured credit facility (credit facility) to refinance our prior credit facility. The credit facility consists of a revolving credit facility of $275 million with a term of five years. The credit agreement also provides us with the option to increase the aggregate principal amount of our loans in the form of additional revolving loans or a separate tranche of term loans, in an aggregate amount that does not exceed $50 million, in each case subject to certain terms and conditions contained in the credit agreement. Upon the closing of the credit agreement, we initially borrowed $120 million under the credit facility, which we used, together with a portion of our existing cash balances, to repay our outstanding obligations under our prior credit facility. Our ability to borrow funds under the credit facility is subject to certain conditions, including compliance with certain covenants and the continued accuracy of certain representations and warranties. Our obligations under the credit facility are collateralized by a security interest in substantially all of our assets and the assets of our U.S. subsidiaries, as well as a pledge of certain shares we hold in our foreign subsidiaries.

The credit agreement requires compliance with certain financial covenants, including maintaining specific financial ratios. These ratios are based in part on our Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA, as defined in the credit agreement. Our ability to continue to meet these financial ratios and tests will be dependent upon our future performance, which will be subject to financial, business and other factors affecting our operations, many of which are beyond our control. In the event that we are unable to generate the levels of Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA required to maintain compliance with such financial covenants, our borrowing capacity under the facility will be reduced, and we may be required to dedicate a significant portion of our cash flow from operations and other capital resources to reduce our indebtedness under the credit facility, thereby reducing our ability to fund working capital, capital expenditures, research and development and other cash requirements.

The credit agreement and related documents also contain covenants that limit our ability to take certain actions, including, among other things, our ability to:

- materially change the nature of our business;
- enter into transactions with affiliates;

Edgar Filing: NEWPORT CORP - Form 10-Q

- incur or guarantee indebtedness;
- pay dividends or repurchase stock;
- merge, dissolve, liquidate or consolidate with or into another entity;
- consummate asset sales, acquisitions or mergers;
- prepay certain other indebtedness; or
- make investments.

These covenants restrict our ability to engage in or benefit from these actions, thereby limiting our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes and opportunities in the markets in which we compete, such as limiting our ability to engage in mergers and acquisitions. This could place us at a competitive disadvantage.

The credit agreement contains customary events of default, including:

- failure to make required payments;
- failure to comply with certain agreements or covenants;
- failure to pay, or default permitting acceleration of, certain other indebtedness;
- certain events of bankruptcy and insolvency; and
- failure to pay certain judgments.

Our ability to repay any amounts owed under the credit facility will depend upon our future cash balances. The amount of cash available for repayment of these amounts will depend on our usage of our existing cash balances and our operating performance and ability to generate cash flow from operations in future periods, which will be subject to financial, business and other factors affecting our operations, many of which are beyond our control. We cannot provide any assurances that we will generate sufficient cash flow from operations to service our debt obligations. Any failure to repay these obligations as they become due would result in an event of default under the credit agreement.

If an event of default occurs, the lenders may end their obligation to make loans to us under the credit facility, and the lenders may declare any outstanding indebtedness under the credit agreement immediately due and payable. In such case, we would need to obtain additional financing or significantly deplete our available cash, or both, in order to repay this indebtedness. Any additional financing may not be available on reasonable terms or at all, and significant depletion of our available cash could harm our ability to fund our operations or execute our broader corporate objectives.

Further, if we were unable to repay outstanding indebtedness following an event of default, then in addition to other available rights and remedies, the lenders could initiate foreclosure proceedings on substantially all of our assets. Any such foreclosure proceedings or other rights and remedies successfully implemented by the lenders in an event of default would likely have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.
