Risk Factors

Listing

Please see the Preliminary Offering Documents for a description of certain risks related to this investment, including, but not limited to, the following:

- Depending on the performance of the Market Measure as measured shortly before the maturity date, your investment may result in a loss; there is no guareturn of principal.
- Payments on the notes are subject to the credit risk of BNS, and actual or perceived changes in the creditworthiness of BNS are expected to affect the vathe notes. If BNS becomes insolvent or is unable to pay its obligations, you may lose your entire investment.
- The initial estimated value of the notes on the pricing date will be less than their public offering price.

Edgar Filing: BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA - Form FWP

- If you attempt to sell the notes prior to maturity, their market value may be lower than both the public offering price and the initial estimated value of the notes prior to maturity, their market value may be lower than both the public offering price and the initial estimated value of the notes prior to maturity, their market value may be lower than both the public offering price and the initial estimated value of the notes prior to maturity.
- You will have no rights of a holder of the securities represented by the Market Measure, and you will not be entitled to receive securities or dividends or o distributions by the issuers of those securities.
- Your return on the notes may be affected by factors affecting the international securities markets, specifically changes within the Eurozone. The Eurozone has been undergoing severe financial stress, and the political, legal and regulatory ramifications are impossible to predict. Changes within the Eurozone could adversely affect the performance of the Index and, consequently, the value of the notes. In addition, you will not obtain the benefit of any increase in the value euro against the U.S. dollar, which you would have received if you had owned the securities in the Index during the term of your notes, although the level of the may be adversely affected by general exchange rate movements in the market.

Final terms will be set on the pricing date within the given range for the specified Market-Linked Investment. Please see the Preliminary Offering Documents for complete product disclosure, including related risks and tax disclosure.
