Footnote (1)

The Reporting Person no longer holds shares of the Class B common stock of Citadel Broadcasting Corporation (the “Issuer”), which shares in any event are not equity securities of a class which is registered pursuant to section 12 of the Exchange Act and are therefore not subject to a separate reporting obligation on Schedule 13G. The Reporting Person does hold warrants to purchase 2,399,900 shares of Class B common stock, which the Reporting Person attempted to exercise a portion of in April 2011. Apparently based on its interpretation of the conditions in the warrant to such exercise, the Issuer refused to permit the Reporting Person to exercise its warrants.

The Class A common stock is an equity security registered under the Exchange Act. The Reporting Person has determined that it should report any Class B common shares that it may own in the future (a) only on its Schedule 13G for the shares of Class A common shares that it owns, and (b) only if the Reporting Person determines that the conditions for converting its shares of Class B common shares into Class A common shares can be satisfied such that the Reporting Person could be deemed to have the right to acquire beneficial ownership of shares of Class A common stock within sixty days. The conditions to conversion of shares of the Class B common stock into shares of the Class A common stock are similar, although not identical to, the conditions for exercising the warrants. Based on the Issuer’s refusal to permit the Reporting Person to exercise its warrants to purchase shares of Class B common stock as described above, the Reporting Person does not believe that the Issuer would permit the Reporting Person to convert any shares of Class B common stock into shares of Class A common stock. Therefore, the Reporting Person does not presently have the right to acquire beneficial ownership of shares of Class A common stock within sixty days.
