On February 16, 2015, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of 3D Systems Corporation (the “Company”) adopted an amendment and restatement of the Company’s By-Laws (as so amended, the “Amended Bylaws”) effective February 16, 2015, to, among other things:

- change the advance notice deadline for stockholder nominations and proposals of other business at the Company’s annual meeting of stockholders by requiring notice to be received no earlier than the 120th day and no later than the 90th day prior to the first anniversary of the date of the prior year’s annual meeting, subject to certain exceptions if the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after the first anniversary of the prior year’s annual meeting (Section 2.13),
- expand disclosure requirements for the nomination of directors and presentation of other proposals by stockholders at meetings of stockholders, including disclosure of derivative and short positions, certain interests and relationships in the Company or competitors, and updated disclosures at the record date and ten days prior to the meeting and the submission of a written questionnaire and agreement with respect to, among other things, the background and qualifications of any director nominees (Section 2.13),
- establish procedures governing stockholder action by written consent, including by providing that action by written consent of the stockholders shall be delayed until independent inspectors of election, to be appointed by the Company, have certified that the consents were properly delivered and represent at least the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take the corporate action (Section 2.12),
  - provide that, when a quorum is present at any meeting, the vote of the holders of a majority of the voting stock present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote shall decide any questions brought before such meeting, except as otherwise provided by the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation, the By-Laws or Delaware law (Section 2.08),
  - clarify the powers of the presiding officer to recess and adjourn meetings of stockholders (Section 2.11),
    - allow the Board to hold virtual meetings of stockholders (Section 2.01),
