State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Encorium Group, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file timely its Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, without unreasonable effort or expense, for the reasons summarized below.

The Company is completing its goodwill impairment analysis. Because of the complexity of issues related to that analysis, the Company needs additional time to finalize the analysis and reflect in its financial statements the impact of such impairment, if any. As a result, the Company is not in a position to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 within the prescribed time period for the filing of that Form 10-K. However, the Company expects to file that Form 10-K within fifteen calendar days following the prescribed due date.

Except for statements of historical fact, the statements in this form are forward-looking. The forward-looking statements include statements regarding the intended date of filing of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K. The forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the statements made. These factors include, but are not limited to: uncertainties related to the time required to complete the goodwill impairment analysis described above; uncertainties related to the time required to complete our Form 10-K; and other factors more fully detailed in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 and in other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Part IV(3) Explanation

The goodwill impairment analysis will likely result in a non-cash charge for the year ended December 31, 2008. The charge will be incremental to that which was reflected in the Company's financial statements as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2008. In the event the Company is required to take a substantial goodwill impairment charge, the Company believes that operating income (loss) for the year ended December 31, 2008 would be significantly lower than operating income (loss) for the year ended December 31, 2007. The Company is currently completing a goodwill impairment analysis, which has not yet been completed. Because of the complexity of issues related to that analysis, a reasonable estimate of the results can not be made at this time.
