early settlement offer to any increase in the consideration offered under the subsequent offer

JOHANNESBURG, SOUTH AFRICA November 24, 2004 Harmony Gold (NYSE: HMY ; JSE: HAR ) wishes to confirm that, in the event that Harmony were to increase the consideration to be offered under the subsequent offer after the early settlement closing date, those Gold Fields (NYSE: GFI ; JSE: GFI ) shareholders who had already accepted the early settlement offer ( accepting shareholders ) and received the offer consideration due under the early settlement offer would remain entitled to receive the full benefit of any increase by Harmony of the consideration offered under the subsequent offer ( top up consideration ), regardless of whether the accepting shareholders had subsequently disposed of their Harmony consideration shares.

Accepting shareholders would be unconditionally entitled to the top up consideration irrespective of whether the subsequent offer becomes or is declared unconditional. The top up consideration would be payable to accepting shareholders as soon as reasonably practicable following the announcement of any increase in the consideration offered under the subsequent offer and compliance with applicable laws and regulatory requirements, including the effective registration of the additional Harmony consideration shares comprising the top up consideration under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933. Harmony believes that the top up consideration would be paid in advance of expiration of the subsequent offer.
