UCN will receive the proceeds from exercise of the warrant, if exercised. UCN will not receive any proceeds or benefit from resale of the shares by the selling security holders.

On February 9, 2007, UCN issued to its primary secured lender a warrant to purchase 55,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $2.90 per share that expires May 23, 2011, which we refer to as the 2007 CV Warrant. The common shares underlying the warrant are being registered for resale through the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. UCN will receive the proceeds from exercise of the warrant, if exercised. UCN will not receive any proceeds or benefit from resale of the shares by the selling security holder.

Edgar Filing: UCN INC - Form S-1

In May 2006 we sold to CCM Master Qualified Fund, Ltd. and Crestview Capital Master, LLC, a total of 1,956,527 common shares at a price of $2.30 per share. We registered the shares for resale in July 2006. The registration agreement we made with CCM Master Qualified Fund and Crestview Capital Master at the time of their investment provides that we will use all commercially reasonable efforts to keep the registration statement we filed for the selling security holders continuously effective. In the event the registration statement ceases to be effective or we suspend the use of the prospectus for one or more periods that total 20 trading days, then we may be required to pay a fee to the selling security holders equal to one percent of the total purchase price of the shares purchased in the private placement on the day we exceed the 20-day maximum plus two percent of that amount per month for each subsequent 30 day period that the registration statement is not effective or use of the prospectus is suspended. In January 2007, we entered into an agreement to acquire a call center survey and analysis business, and at that time suspended use of the prospectus. In order to facilitate our acquisition of the business, CCM Master Qualified Fund and Crestview Capital Master agreed to waive any fees under the registration agreement resulting from suspension of the prospectus, so long as new prospectus is available for use in reselling their securities by April 30, 2007.

In May 2006, UCN entered into a revolving credit and term loan agreement with ComVest Capital LLC. Under the terms of the agreement ComVest loaned $4.5 million to UCN under a convertible term note and established a revolving credit line for UCN up to $7.5 million. The initial borrowings under the convertible term note was $4.5 million, which was paid down by UCN to $3.38 million under the terms of the agreement. At December 31, 2006, the total amount of advances outstanding under the revolving credit line was $3.258 million. The debt obligations are secured by substantially all the assets of UCN. In connection with providing the loans, UCN issued to ComVest Capital a warrant to purchase 330,000 shares at an exercise price of $2.75 per share that expires May 23, 2011. Under the terms of the revolving credit agreement, UCN was required to obtain ComVest's approval of the acquisition of the call center survey and analysis business. UCN agreed to pay ComVest a fee for its evaluation of the transaction in the amount of $40,000 and issue to ComVest the 2007 CV Warrant to purchase 55,000 shares of UCN common stock at an exercise price of $2.90 per share that expires May 23, 2011. The registration agreement we made with ComVest Capital at the time of closing the revolving credit and term loan agreement provides that we will use all commercially reasonable efforts to keep the registration statement we filed for ComVest Capital continuously effective. In the event the registration statement ceases to be effective or we suspend the use of the prospectus for one or more periods that total 30 days, then we may be required to pay a fee to ComVest Capital equal to $1,000 for each day after the expiration of the 30-day period that the registration statement is not effective or use of the prospectus is suspended. In January 2007, we entered into an agreement to acquire a call center survey and analysis business, and at that time suspended use of the prospectus. In order to facilitate our acquisition of the business, ComVest Capital agreed to waive any fees under the registration agreement resulting from suspension of the prospectus, so long as a new prospectus is available for use in reselling its securities by July 1, 2007.

any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling security holders may also sell shares under Rule 144 adopted under the Securities Act of 1933, if available, rather than under this prospectus.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling security holders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling security holders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The selling security holders do not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved, but in any event the maximum commission or discount that may be paid or received by any broker-dealer for sale or placement of the common stock for the selling security holders cannot exceed eight percent.

The selling security holders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell shares of common stock from time to time under this prospectus, or under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act of 1933 amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling security holders under this prospectus.

Upon UCN being notified in writing by a selling security holder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of common stock through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act of 1933, disclosing (i) the name of each such selling security holder and of the participating broker-dealer(s), (ii) the number of shares involved, (iii) the price at which such the shares of common stock were sold, (iv) the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealer(s), where applicable, (v) that such broker-dealer(s) did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, and (vi) other facts material to the transaction. In addition, upon UCN being notified in writing by a selling security holder that a donee or pledgee intends to sell more than 500 shares of common stock, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed if then required in accordance with applicable securities law.

The selling security holders also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

Table of Contents

The selling security holders and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act of 1933. Discounts, concessions, commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, that can be attributed to the sale of securities will be paid by the selling security holder and/or the purchasers. Each selling security holder has represented and warranted to UCN that it acquired the securities subject to this registration statement in the ordinary course of such selling security holder's business and, at the time of its purchase of such securities such selling security holder had no agreements or understandings, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute any such securities.

UCN has advised each selling security holder that it may not use shares registered on the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part to cover short sales of common stock made prior to the date on which the registration statement shall have been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission. If a selling security holder uses this prospectus for any sale of the common stock, it will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933. The selling security holders will be responsible to comply with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder, including, without limitation, Regulation M, as applicable to such selling security holders in connection with resales of their respective shares under this prospectus.

UCN is required to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares, but it will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock. UCN has agreed to indemnify the selling security holders against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

UCN's charter authorizes it to issue up to: (i) 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.0001 par value per share; and (ii) 15,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.0001 par value per share. As of the date of this prospectus, there are 27,150,447 shares of common stock outstanding, and no shares of preferred stock outstanding. In addition, there are outstanding options, warrants, and rights to acquire up to an additional 5,439,827 shares of common stock.

Common stock

Holders of the common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to the stockholders for a vote. There are no cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. The shares of common stock are entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared and paid by the board of directors out of funds legally available there for and to share, ratably, in the net assets, if any, of UCN upon liquidation. The stockholders have no preemptive rights to purchase any shares of our capital stock.

Preferred stock

The board of directors, without further action by the holders of the common stock, is authorized to classify any shares of our authorized but unissued preferred stock as preferred stock in one or more series. With respect to each series, the board of directors may determine:

The number of shares which shall constitute such series;

The rate of dividend, if any, payable on shares of such series;

Whether the shares of such series shall be cumulative, non-cumulative or partially cumulative as to dividends, and the dates from which any cumulative dividends are to accumulate;

Whether the shares of such series may be redeemed, and, if so, the price or prices at which and the terms and conditions on which shares of such series may be redeemed;

The amount payable upon shares of such series in the event of the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of UCN;

The sinking fund provisions, if any, for the redemption of shares of such series;

The voting rights, if any, of the shares of such series;

The terms and conditions, if any, on which shares of such series may be converted into shares of capital stock of UCN of any other class or series;

Whether the shares of such series are to be preferred over shares of capital stock of UCN of any other class or series as to dividends, or upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the affairs of UCN, or otherwise; and

Any other characteristics, preferences, limitations, rights, privileges, immunities or terms not inconsistent with the provisions of the Charter.

The availability of preferred stock, while providing desirable flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could have the effect of discouraging takeover proposals, and the issuance of preferred stock could have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control of UCN not approved by the board of directors.

Statutory business combinations provision

UCN is subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Section 203 provides, with certain exceptions, that a Delaware corporation may not engage in any of a broad range of business combinations with a person or an affiliate, or associate of such person, who is an interested stockholder for a period of three years from the date that such person becomes an interested stockholder unless: (i) the transaction resulting in a person becoming an interested stockholder, or the business combination, is approved by the board of directors of the corporation before the person becomes an interested stockholder; (ii) the interested stockholder acquired 85 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation in the same transaction that makes such person an interested stockholder (excluding shares owned by persons who are both officers and directors of the corporation, and shares held by certain employee stock ownership plans); or (iii) on or after the date the person becomes an interested stockholder, the business combination is approved at an annual or special meeting by the corporation's board of directors and by the holders of at least 66 2/3 percent of the corporation's outstanding voting stock, excluding shares owned by the interested stockholder. Under Section 203, an interested stockholder is defined as any person who is: (i) the owner of 15 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation; or (ii) an affiliate or associate of the corporation and who was the owner of 15 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation at any time within the three-year period immediately prior to the date on which it is sought to be determined whether such person is an interested stockholder.

A corporation may, at its option, exclude itself from the coverage of Section 203 by amending its certificate of incorporation or bylaws, through action of its stockholders, to exempt itself from coverage, provided that such bylaw or certificate of incorporation amendment shall not become effective until 12 months after the date it is adopted. UCN has not adopted such an amendment to its certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

Limitation on directors' liabilities

Pursuant to the certificate of incorporation and under Delaware law, directors and executive officers are not liable to UCN or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty, except liability in connection with a breach of duty of loyalty, acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, dividend payments or stock repurchases illegal under Delaware law, or any transaction in which a director has derived an improper personal benefit.

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that we will indemnify our directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law against liabilities and expenses incurred in connection with litigation in which these persons may be involved because of their offices with us if they acted in good faith or in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to our best interests. However, nothing in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws protects or indemnifies a director, officer, employee, or agent against any liability to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. To the extent that a director or officer has been successful in defense of any proceeding, our bylaws provide that he shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Transfer agent

The transfer agent for the common stock is Atlas Stock Transfer Company, Salt Lake City, Utah.

INDEMNIFICATION

Under the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of UCN the board of directors has the authority to indemnify officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Further, UCN has separate indemnification agreements with certain of its officers and directors. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to our directors, officers, and controlling persons, or to the extent any of the selling security holders are entitled to indemnification under their agreements with us, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters relating to the validity of the securities offered by this prospectus will be passed upon for UCN by Parsons Behle & Latimer, Salt Lake City, Utah.

ITEM 14. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

UCN's Charter provides that, to the fullest extent that limitations on the liability of directors and officers are permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), no director or officer of UCN shall have any liability to UCN or its stockholders for monetary damages. The DGCL provides that a corporation's charter may include a provision which restricts or limits the liability of its directors or officers to the corporation or its stockholders for money damages except: (1) to the extent that it is provided that the person actually received an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services, for the amount of the benefit or profit in money, property or services actually received, or (2) to the extent that a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the person is entered in a proceeding based on a finding in the proceeding that the person's action, or failure to act, was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and was material to the cause of action adjudicated in the proceeding. UCN's Charter and Bylaws provide that UCN shall indemnify and advance expenses to its currently acting and its former directors to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL and that UCN shall indemnify and advance expenses to its officers to the same extent as its directors and to such further extent as is consistent with law.

The Charter and Bylaws provide that UCN will indemnify its directors and officers and may indemnify employees or agents of UCN to the fullest extent permitted by law against liabilities and expenses incurred in connection with litigation in which they may be involved because of their offices with UCN. However, nothing in the Charter or Bylaws of UCN protects or indemnifies a director, officer, employee or agent against any liability to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. To the extent that a director or officer has been successful in defense of any proceeding, our Bylaws provide that he shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith.

UCN maintains an officer's and director's liability insurance policy insuring its officers and directors against certain liabilities and expenses incurred by them in their capacities as such, and insuring the UCN under certain circumstances, in the event that indemnification payments are made to such officers and directors.

UCN has also entered into indemnification agreements (the "Indemnification Agreements") with certain of its directors and officers (individually, the "Indemnitee"). The Indemnification Agreements, among other things, provide for indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by law against any and all expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement of any claim. The Indemnification Agreements provide for the prompt advancement of all expenses to the Indemnitee and for reimbursement to UCN if it is found that such Indemnitee is not entitled to such indemnification under applicable law. The Indemnification Agreements also provide that after a change in control (as defined in the Indemnification Agreements) of UCN, all determinations regarding a right to indemnity and the right to advancement of expenses shall be made by independent legal counsel selected by the Indemnitee.

ITEM 15. RECENT SALES OF UNREGISTERED SECURITIES

In May 2004 a noteholder converted his $300,000 promissory note into 150,000 shares of common stock at a conversion price of $2.00 per share. The shares were issued in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 or Regulation D promulgated there under. Based on information provided by the investor, we believe the investor was an accredited investor within the meaning of Rule 501 of Regulation D.

On January 5, 2005, UCN closed the acquisition of MyACD, Inc., a Utah corporation. In the transaction UCN purchased all of the outstanding capital stock of MyACD from its stockholders. The total capitalized cost was $6.4 million. Part of this was paid through promissory notes issued by UCN to MyACD's stockholders in the amount of $4.3 million, after imputing interest, along with cash of $427,000. UCN also paid one of the stockholders 562,985 restricted shares of UCN common stock. The shares were issued in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 and no commission was paid to any person in connection with the transaction.

In October and November 2005, UCN issued the following stock options:

On October 24, 2005, to Brian S. Moroney, UCN's newly elected Chief Financial Officer, options to purchase 150,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $2.00 per share that vest in equal portions over a term of three years and expire five years after issuance;

On November 8, 2005, compensatory options to officers, directors and employees as follows:

Issuance to Paul Jarman of fully vested options to purchase 150,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $2.50 per share over a term of five years, and options to purchase 75,000 additional shares at an exercise price of $2.00 per share exercisable over a term of five years that vest in three annual equal installments;

Issuance to each of Theodore Stern, Steve Barnett, Paul F. Koeppe, and Blake O. Fisher, Jr., directors of UCN, of fully vested options to purchase 20,000 shares of common stock, or a total of 80,000 shares for all of the named directors, at an exercise price of $2.00 per share exercisable over a term of five years;

Issuance to Steve Barnett as Chairman of the Audit Committee of fully-vested options to purchase 7,500 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $2.00 per share exercisable over a term of five years;

Issuance to Paul Koeppe as Chairman of the Compensation Committee of fully-vested options to purchase 5,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $2.00 per share exercisable over a term of five years; and Issuance to each of two other employees of options to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock, or a total of 50,000 shares for both employees, at an exercise price of $2.00 per share exercisable over a term of five years that vest in three annual equal installments.

The foregoing options were issued in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, based on the determination by UCN that each of the option recipients had access to all material information regarding UCN and its business and financial condition, and that each of the option recipients has such business experience and background that they can reasonably be considered to be sophisticated with respect to the equity interest represented by the options issued to each of them.

In November 2005 UCN sold 1,250,000 shares of common stock and 312,500 common stock purchase warrants at $2.00 per unit (one share and 1/4 warrant), or a total of $2.5 million, in a private placement to institutional

Net proceeds of the offering after expenses were approximately $2.45 million. The common stock purchase warrants are exercisable at a price of $2.00 per share and expire November 14, 2010. Roth Capital Partners, LLC acted as the placement agent for the offering and received a commission of $150,000 paid in the form of 75,000 shares of UCN common stock. UCN is registering under the Securities Act of 1933 the foregoing shares, including shares underlying warrants, for resale by the investors and Roth Capital Partners with this Registration Statement.

In connection with the establishment of the loan facility, UCN issued to ComVest a warrant to purchase 330,000 shares of UCN common stock that expires five years from closing and provides for an exercise price equal to $2.75 per share. The securities were offered and sold in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Rule 506 of Regulation D. ## ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

A. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of a prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in the volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

4. That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this Registration Statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424 (§230.424 of this chapter);

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

B. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in a successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by a director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issuer.
