PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

MAY 2, 2008

The Board of Directors of Tasty Baking Company (Tasty) is providing the enclosed proxy materials to you in connection with its solicitation of proxies to be voted at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) and any adjournment, postponement or continuation of the Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, May 2, 2008, at the Learning Center, Temple University Health System, 2450 W. Hunting Park Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19129. When Tasty asks for your proxy, it must provide you with a proxy statement that contains certain information specified by law.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING

Why did you send me this proxy statement?

Tasty sent you this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card because you are a Tasty shareholder and Tasty's Board of Directors is soliciting your proxy to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting. This proxy statement includes information about the issues to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting.

This proxy statement is being mailed on or about March 31, 2008 to all shareholders of record at the close of business on March 4, 2008. On this record date, there were 8,363,746 shares of Tasty common stock outstanding and entitled to vote.

The expense of this solicitation, including the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing the Notice of Annual Meeting, Proxy Card and Proxy Statement, will be borne by Tasty. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by use of the mails, some of the officers and regular employees of Tasty, without extra remuneration, may solicit proxies personally, by telephone or otherwise. In addition, arrangements will be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxies and proxy materials to their principals, and Tasty will reimburse them for their expenses in forwarding these materials.

How many votes do I have?

Each share of Tasty common stock that you own entitles you to one vote, except that cumulative voting rights may be exercised with respect to the election of directors.

What is cumulative voting?

Cumulative voting means that you may multiply the number of shares you are entitled to vote by the total number of directors to be elected (3) to determine the total number of votes you may cast for the election of directors. You may then distribute the total number of votes among one or more nominees in the proportion you desire. For example, if the election is for 3 directors and you hold 500 shares, you could choose to vote all

Edgar Filing: TASTY BAKING CO - Form DEF 14A

1,500 votes for one nominee, 1,000 for one nominee and 250 each for two other nominees, or otherwise divide your votes in any other manner you desire.

Table of Contents

The proxies will have the discretionary authority to vote cumulatively and to distribute votes among the nominees so as to assure the election of the nominees to the Board of Directors, except for nominees as to whom a shareholder withholds authority to vote and except where a shareholder has directed that votes be cast cumulatively by specific instructions to the proxies.

How do I vote?

You can vote by completing, signing, dating and mailing the enclosed proxy card in the envelope provided. When a proxy is returned properly, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. You are urged to specify your choice by marking the appropriate boxes on the enclosed proxy card. If a proxy card is dated, signed and returned without specifying choices, the shares will be voted as recommended by the proxies listed on the proxy card.

You may also come to the Annual Meeting and cast your vote there. Please bring the admission ticket that can be found on the back cover of this proxy statement. If your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to vote at the Annual Meeting, you must bring a legal proxy from the record holder of your shares indicating that you were the beneficial owner of the shares on March 4, 2008, the record date for voting, and that you have a right to vote your shares.

May I revoke my vote after I have sent in my proxy?

You may revoke your proxy after it has been submitted by notifying the Corporate Secretary in writing at Tasty's principal executive offices or at the Annual Meeting any time before it is voted.

How will my vote be counted?

Proxies marked as abstaining (including proxies containing broker non-votes) on any matter to be acted upon by shareholders will be treated as present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, but will not be counted as votes cast on such matters. Under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, and Tasty's Amended and Restated By-Laws, the presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders are entitled to cast on a particular matter constitutes a quorum to take action at a shareholders' meeting. Shares which are present, or represented by a proxy, will be counted for quorum purposes regardless of whether the holder of the shares or proxy fails to vote on a matter (Abstentions) or whether a broker or nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a matter because the beneficial owner has not provided voting instructions and the broker does not have discretionary authority to vote shares on the matter (Broker Non-Votes).

What vote is required to pass the proposals?

Election of Directors (Proposal 1) The 3 director nominees receiving the highest number of votes cast (up to number to be elected) will be elected.

Other Proposals (including Proposal 2) For any other proposal, the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by all shareholders entitled to vote thereon is required to approve the proposal, unless a proposal other than Proposal 2 is properly presented at the Annual Meeting which requires a different vote pursuant to applicable law or Tasty's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or Amended and Restated By-Laws.

For purposes of determining the number of votes cast at the Annual Meeting, only those votes cast FOR, AGAINST or, in the case of the election of directors, WITHHOLD, will be counted in determining whether a proposal is approved or a director is elected. Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes will not be counted as votes cast and, as a consequence, Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes will have no effect on the adoption of a proposal or the election of a director.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

Management has no reason to believe that any of the 3 nominees for election named below will be unable to serve. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Code of Business Conduct

Each of Tasty's directors, officers and employees are required to comply with its Code of Business Conduct. The Code of Business Conduct sets forth policies covering a broad range of subjects and requires strict adherence to laws and regulations applicable to Tasty's business. The Code of Business Conduct is available on Tasty's website at www.tastykake.com, under the Investors, Corporate Governance headings. A copy of Tasty's Code of Business Conduct may also be obtained, without charge, by any shareholder upon written request directed to the Corporate Secretary of Tasty at 2801 Hunting Park Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19129. Tasty will post to its website any amendments to the Code of Business Conduct, or waiver from its provisions for principal executive officers or directors, under the Investors, Corporate Governance headings.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Board of Directors has adopted the Tasty Baking Company Corporate Governance Guidelines which outline:

the responsibilities of the Board of Directors;

director selection criteria and procedures;

board composition criteria; and various policies and procedures designed to ensure effective governance.

These Guidelines are reviewed annually by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to determine effective compliance and implementation and may be revised from time to time. The Corporate Governance Guidelines are available on Tasty's website at www.tastykake.com, under the Investors, Corporate Governance headings, or upon written request directed to the Corporate Secretary of Tasty at 2801 Hunting Park Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19129.

Director Independence

The Board reviews the independence requirements under the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market (NASDAQ Listing Standards) to assist it in determining whether a director is independent. The Board has determined that, except for Charles P. Pizzi, President and Chief Executive Officer of Tasty, each of the directors, including those up for re-election at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, are independent under these NASDAQ Listing Standards. This determination is based upon the Board's opinion that none of the independent directors has a relationship which would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director.

Notwithstanding this determination required of the Board, the NASDAQ Listing Standards, as in effect at the time of the Board's determination, also prohibit a finding of director independence if certain relationships exist, such as:

the director accepted any compensation from Tasty in excess of $100,000 during any period of 12 consecutive months within the prior 3 years, other than certain payments such as (i) compensation for board or committee service, and (ii) benefits under a tax-qualified retirement plan, or non-discretionary compensation; or a director who is a partner in, or a controlling shareholder or an executive officer of, any organization to which Tasty made, or from which Tasty received, payments for property or services in the current or any of the past 3 fiscal years that exceed 5% of the recipient's consolidated gross revenues for that year, or $200,000, whichever is more.

Table of Contents

In the course of the Board's determination regarding the independence of each non-management director, it considered the following transactions, relationships and arrangements between the director and Tasty, all of which were determined to be immaterial and below the NASDAQ Listing Standards:

Mr. Aldridge: He resigned as counsel to Tasty in February 2003 and had no business relationship with Tasty (other than serving as a director) for the 4 years prior to his retirement. Mr. Aldridge retired as a director on May 10, 2007;

Mr. Hellauer: (1) He has not provided consulting services to Tasty since 2004, which is prior to him becoming a Tasty director in 2005, and (2) the total payments for consulting services for 2004 was below $60,000;

Mr. Kozich: The annual amount of sales to Tasty by a company where he serves as a director was below 5% of that company's annual gross revenues in each of the last 3 years;

Mr. Ksanskak: The annual amount of purchases from Tasty made by a company where he serves as a director was below 5% of Tasty's annual gross revenues in each of the last 3 years; and

Ms. von Seldeneck: (1) She serves as a director of a financial institution that is one of the financial institutions providing credit to Tasty, and (2) Tasty's loans from this financial institution are below 1% of the financial institution's total assets and the interest from the loans represent less than 5% of the financial institution's annual gross revenues in each of the last 3 years.

Executive Sessions

The Board of Directors meets at least twice annually in an executive session of the independent directors of the Board. Mr. Ksanskak, the independent Chairman of the Board, presides over the executive sessions of the independent directors.

Nomination Process and Qualifications for Director Nominees

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has established certain procedures and criteria for the selection of nominees for election to the Board of Directors. The Committee determines, and reviews with the Board on an annual basis, the desired skills and characteristics for directors as well as the composition of the Board as a whole. Nominees should satisfy at a minimum the following criteria in order to qualify for consideration to serve on the Board of Directors:

possess the highest personal and professional ethics, integrity and judgment;

have the ability and willingness to commit the necessary time and energy to prepare for, attend and participate in the meetings of the Board and one or more of its standing committees;

have relevant background and experience that complement the background and experience of the other directors;

have a proven record of competence and accomplishment through demonstrated leadership in a profession, business, education or government service as a director, chief executive officer or senior management executive, including financial, accounting, legal, sales, marketing, supply chain and other relevant experience, that will enhance the perspective and effectiveness of the Board, including perspectives resulting from diversity in the experience and background of such nominee;

be a shareholder or be willing to become a shareholder of Tasty; and have the willingness and ability to represent the interests of all shareholders rather than any special interest or constituency while keeping in perspective the interests of Tasty's employees, customers, local communities and other constituencies.

If nominations are required for election at an annual meeting of shareholders, the Committee will first consider the nomination of the current directors whose terms are expiring, including their past performance on the Board along with the criteria set forth above, in determining whether to nominate them for re-election. In connection with nominations for elections at annual meetings of shareholders or to fill vacancies in the Board at special or annual meetings of shareholders, the Committee may solicit the current members of the Board for the names of potentially qualified candidates. In addition, the Committee may ask the directors to pursue their own business contacts for the names of potentially qualified candidates. The Committee may also retain director search firms as it determines necessary in its own discretion.

The Committee will also consider director candidates recommended by shareholders in the same manner in which the Committee would evaluate director nominees recommended through the process described above; provided that the following requirements are met:

the shareholder provides documentation evidencing his or her ownership interest in Tasty;

the recommended individual meets the criteria set forth above;

the shareholder nomination provides at a minimum the following comprehensive written information relating to the recommended individual:

business experience and background, including but not limited to, his or her complete name, age, address, principal occupation, directorships, positions and offices held, name and principal business of any corporation or other organization in which such positions were held;

affiliation with Tasty;

family relationships with any director, executive officer or other nominee, and any arrangements or understandings between him or her and any other person pursuant to which he or she was recommended as a nominee for director;

additional written information regarding any legal proceedings in the preceding five years in which the recommended individual was involved as required in Regulation S-K, Item 401(f); and a written consent executed by the recommended individual stating that he or she desires to be considered as a nominee and, if elected, that he or she will serve as a director; and all shareholder nominations to be considered by the Committee must be received by the Corporate Secretary of Tasty not later than the close of business on the 90th day nor earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting of shareholders. In the event that no annual meeting was held in the previous year or the date of the annual meeting of shareholders is moved by more than 30 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting, or in the case of a special meeting of shareholders called for the purpose of electing directors, then notice must be given not later than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such annual or special meeting or the 10th day following the date on which Tasty first publicly announces the date of such annual or special meeting. In no event shall the adjournment of an annual or special meeting commence a new time period for the giving of shareholders' notice as described above.

Edgar Filing: TASTY BAKING CO - Form DEF 14A

The Committee will consider the director candidates derived from the foregoing process and make its recommendations to the full Board of Directors for approval.

The mailing envelope must contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a Shareholder-Board Communication. The Corporate Secretary has been authorized to screen commercial solicitations and materials which pose security risks, are unrelated to the business or governance of Tasty, or are otherwise inappropriate. All such letters must identify the author as a shareholder and clearly state whether the intended recipients are all or individual members of the Board. The Corporate Secretary will make copies of all such letters and circulate them to the appropriate director or directors.

Compensation Committee:

Members: Ms. von Seldeneck (Chair); Mr. Kozich; Mr. Ksansnak; and Mr. Nevels

During fiscal year 2007, the Compensation Committee held 4 meetings. The Compensation Committee is composed entirely of outside directors within the meaning of the regulations of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, non-employee directors under SEC Rule 16b-3 and independent directors as affirmatively determined by the Board of Directors pursuant to the applicable NASDAQ Listing Standards.

The Compensation Committee's responsibilities, discussed in detail in the charter, include, among other duties, the responsibility to:

review and recommend to the Board the base salary, incentive compensation and any other compensation for Tasty's executive officers;

evaluate the CEO's performance;

review and recommend to the Board compensation, equity-based plans and benefit programs for non-employee directors;

monitor Tasty's cash bonus and equity based compensation plans, retirement and welfare plans and discharge the duties imposed on the Compensation Committee by the terms of those plans; and perform other functions or duties deemed appropriate by the Board.

Compensation decisions for the Chief Executive Officer and all other executive officers are reviewed and approved by the Compensation Committee, subject to ratification by the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee may delegate authority to a subcommittee under its charter. The Compensation Committee relies upon Tasty's executive officers and outside compensation consultants in order to assist the Compensation Committee in performing its duties.

The Compensation Committee has authority under its charter to retain, approve fees for and terminate consulting firms, independent counsel or other advisors. In this regard, the Compensation Committee has engaged Towers, Perrin, Forster & Crosby, Inc. (Towers Perrin), a nationally recognized compensation consulting firm, to assist it in making compensation decisions. In addition to providing competitive information on all elements of executive compensation from a compensation survey, Towers Perrin also offers the Compensation Committee with information on compensation trends and alternatives to consider when making compensation decisions.

With regard to the compensation of executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee will review and consider the recommendation of Tasty's Chief Executive Officer as to the form and amount of compensation. The Chief Executive Officer generally obtains the assistance of Tasty management and Towers Perrin in formulating these recommendations.

With regard to director compensation, in 2007 the Compensation Committee retained Towers Perrin to review Tasty's director compensation and to provide the Compensation Committee with information regarding director compensation at comparable companies in order to identify market practices.

The agenda for meetings of the Compensation Committee is determined by its Chair with the assistance of Tasty management. The Chair will generally coordinate with management and/or Towers Perrin prior to meetings to obtain their assistance as described above, including the preparation and distribution of materials for review by the members of the Compensation Committee. At meetings of the Compensation Committee, the Compensation Committee usually conducts a portion of the meeting in executive session. The Compensation Committee's Chair reports the Compensation Committee's recommendations on executive compensation to the Board.

Table of ContentsCOMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Board compensation, equity-based plans and benefit programs for the non-employee directors. A director who is a Tasty employee does not receive payment for his services as a director. During fiscal year 2007, Tasty paid the following amounts which were prorated as appropriate:

$1,000 for each Board and committee meeting attended by a non-officer director;

an annual retainer fee of $15,000 to non-officer directors and the additional annual retainer fees set forth below;

$16,000 of equivalent value Deferred Stock Units (DSUs) that were credited in $4,000 increments on the last day of each quarter, provided the director was a director on the last day of such quarter. The number of DSUs that were credited for the quarter were determined by dividing $4,000 by the per share closing price of shares of Tasty's common stock on the last business day of the quarter. DSUs become vested upon the director completing five (5) years of continuous service on the Board (whether before or after the grant of DSUs);

$5,000 for the independent Chairman of the Board;

$4,000 for the Chair of the Audit Committee; and

$2,500 for the Chair of the Compensation Committee, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Strategic Planning Committee.

The following table discloses the actual compensation paid to or earned by each non-employee director in fiscal year 2007:

The amount reported above includes $3,056 recognized by Tasty for financial statement reporting purposes under FAS 123(R) for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 related to these restricted shares. The amount reported above includes $2,320 recognized by Tasty for financial statement reporting purposes under FAS 123(R) for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 related to these restricted shares. Assumptions used in the calculation of this amount are included in Notes 1 (under the heading "Share-based Compensation") and 13 to Tasty's audited consolidated financial statements included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007.

Until February 2007, Tasty maintained a Retirement Plan for Directors (the "Retirement Plan") that provided that non-officer directors who ceased to be directors and who reached age 65 with five or more years of service on the Board of Directors were entitled to receive an annual retirement benefit equal to the amount of the annual retainer fee in effect on the date the director ceases to be a director (but not less than $16,000 for directors serving on December 31, 1993). Under the terms of the Retirement Plan, retired directors receive this benefit in equal monthly installments until the earlier of the death of the retired director or for the number of years of credited service of such director as a member of the Board of Directors of Tasty.

In connection with the Retirement Plan, Tasty entered into a Trust Agreement with Wachovia Bank, N.A. for the benefit of directors. Under this Trust Agreement, in the event of a change in control of Tasty, Tasty is obligated to deposit sufficient funds with the Trustee to enable it to purchase annuity contracts to fund the directors' retirement benefits. Effective as of January 1, 2007, SEI Trust Company succeeded Wachovia Bank, N.A., as trustee under the Trust Agreement for the Retirement Plan.

Effective February 15, 2007, benefit accruals under the Retirement Plan were frozen for current directors and future directors were precluded from participating in the Retirement Plan. Participants are credited for service under the Retirement Plan after February 15, 2007, solely for vesting purposes. On February 15, 2007, the Board of Directors approved a Deferred Stock Unit Plan for Directors (the "DSU Plan"). The DSU Plan provides that for each fiscal quarter, Tasty will credit DSUs to the director's account equivalent in value to $4,000 on the last day of such quarter, provided that he or she is a director on the last day of such quarter. The number of DSUs that are credited for the quarter shall be determined by dividing $4,000 by the per share closing price of shares of Tasty's common stock on the last business day of the quarter. The DSU Plan also provides that a director's account will be credited with dividend equivalents on each date that Tasty pays dividends on its shares of common stock, which means that a director will receive additional DSUs equivalent in value to the dividends that would have been paid on shares equal to the number of DSUs credited to the director's account immediately prior to the record date of the dividends. Directors will be entitled to be paid in shares upon termination of Board service provided the director has at least five (5) years of continuous service on the Board. The shares may be paid out in a lump sum or, at the director's election, over a period of five (5) years.

Such amount is included as compensation on Mr. Marberger's W-2, and Mr. Marberger is responsible for paying income taxes on such amount; and membership in one business or country club.

- (10) The amounts shown in this Summary Compensation Table do not include awards of restricted stock granted on March 3, 2008 for performance in 2007 because these awards were not recognized for financial statement reporting purposes under FAS 123(R) for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007. The named executive officers received these awards of restricted stock as follows: Mr. Pizzi 25,000 shares; Mr. Marberger 10,500 shares; and Ms. Bayles 9,000 shares. The restricted stock will vest and become exercisable on March 3, 2011, except that Mr. Marberger's restricted stock award was forfeited upon his resignation from Tasty in March 2008.

In July 2006, Tasty instituted a three-year restricted stock award program (fiscal year 2006 - fiscal year 2008) under its 2006 Long Term Incentive Plan. The Compensation Committee allocated 250,000 shares to this program. Under the program, executive officers and certain other employees are eligible for an annual award of restricted stock based on Tasty's achievement of certain financial and operational performance measures that are set every year by the Compensation Committee. The performance measure for 2007 related to completion of various milestones relating to Tasty's strategic manufacturing plan. At the beginning of each fiscal year the Compensation Committee approves certain performance measures that it will generally consider in determining future awards under the restricted stock award program; however, at such time no determination is made regarding target awards, range of awards or other allocation of shares for named executive officers or other eligible employees. Awards under this program are made during the first quarter of the following year after analysis of the prior year's performance.

Tasty provides executives with an annual opportunity to earn cash incentive awards through the Annual Incentive Plan (the "AIP"). For each named executive officer, target AIP awards are determined by multiplying the executive's salary by a percentage based on the executive's level of responsibility. For fiscal year 2007, these target awards ranged from 30% to 60% of base salary for the named executive officers, and the potential payout ranged from 0% to 250% of the target award. The Compensation Committee may adjust any award to take into account extraordinary or unusual events occurring during the performance year, including the individual's performance or changes in the individual's duties and responsibilities. For awards for fiscal year 2007 performance, the actual payout was 71.5% of the target award. For fiscal year 2007, the performance measure for the named executive officers was Tasty's operating income before depreciation and amortization.

Retirement Plans and Employment and Change of Control Agreements

Retirement Plans. Until March 2005, Tasty maintained a traditional defined benefit pension plan (the DB Plan) for its employees, including the named executive officers. Benefits under the DB Plan are calculated as a percentage of the average of the 60 highest consecutive calendar months of pension-eligible earnings paid by Tasty during the last 120 calendar months of employment, which percentage depends on the employee's total number of years of service. For executives, the pension-eligible earnings generally includes salary and any cash bonus. Benefits under the DB Plan are coordinated with Social Security and are presently restricted under federal tax law to a maximum of $185,000 per year. Since Tasty froze the benefits in this pension plan in March 2005, Mr. Pizzi and Ms. Bayles do not earn further years of credited service for their service with Tasty after March 26, 2005, except for vesting purposes. Mr. Marberger, who also participated in the DB Plan, resigned from Tasty in March 2008. Each vested participant, including Mr. Marberger, will be eligible to commence receiving their pension benefits accrued through March 26, 2005, upon retirement on or after age 55 in accordance with the terms of the DB Plan.

In March 2005, when Tasty froze the benefits in the DB Plan, Tasty amended its existing defined contribution plan to provide for enhanced company contributions for participants. Under the Tasty Baking 401(k) and Company Funded Retirement Plan, all eligible employees receive cash contributions that range from 2% to 5% of eligible compensation with the exact amount dependent upon an employee's age and years of service. Long-service employees receive additional cash contributions that range from 1.5% to 3.5% of their eligible compensation. Tasty also makes matching contributions in cash of 50% of an employee's contributions that do not exceed 4% of eligible compensation up to a maximum of approximately $4,500. In addition, as described below, Tasty provides Mr. Pizzi an unfunded supplemental retirement plan.

Supplemental Retirement Plan for Mr. Pizzi The supplemental retirement plan (SERP) for Mr. Pizzi was converted from a defined benefit to a defined contribution agreement in 2004. In 2007, Tasty credited $295,565 to Mr. Pizzi's SERP. The following are the material terms of Mr. Pizzi's SERP Agreement, subject to the provisions of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code:

Tasty credited an initial amount equal to $172,500 to his account as a carryover from the defined benefit SERP on October 1, 2004.

Thereafter, Tasty credits a contribution to his account at the end of each month of an amount equal to 39% of the base salary and bonus paid to Mr. Pizzi in such month.

Interest is credited to the account on a monthly basis equal to the product of (i) one twelfth of the interest crediting rate for the calendar year and (ii) the account balance at the beginning of the month. RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT

REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Shareholders will be asked to ratify the selection by the Audit Committee of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2008. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP currently serves as Tasty's independent registered public accounting firm. Representatives of the firm will be present at the Annual Meeting, will be given an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions by shareholders concerning the accounts of Tasty.

Although the submission to shareholders of the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is not required by law or Tasty's Amended and Restated By-Laws, the Audit Committee believes it is appropriate to submit this matter to shareholders to allow a forum for shareholders to express their views with regard to the Audit Committee's selection. The Audit Committee retains the sole authority to select and replace Tasty's independent registered public accounting firm at any time. In the event shareholders do not ratify the selection, the Audit Committee may reconsider the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

Pre-Approval Policy for Services by Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Audit Committee has implemented procedures for the pre-approval of all engagements of Tasty's independent registered public accounting firm for both audit and permissible non-audit services, including the fees and terms of each engagement. The Audit Committee annually meets with the independent registered public accounting firm and reviews and pre-approves all audit-related services prior to the commencement of the audit engagement. For permissible non-audit services, the Audit Committee has delegated pre-approval authority to the Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Chairman reviews the nature and terms of any proposed engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm. The Chairman will discuss the matter with management and, as necessary, with the independent registered public accounting firm, prior to making any determination to approve or reject any such engagement. Any approvals of non-audit services are then reported by the Chairman at the next Audit Committee meeting for approval by the Committee.

The Board of Directors does not know of any other business to come before the meeting. However, if any additional matters are presented at the Annual Meeting, it is the intention of persons named in the accompanying Proxy to vote the Proxy in accordance with their judgment on those matters.

SHAREHOLDERS SHARING THE SAME ADDRESS

Pursuant to written requests that Tasty has received from certain shareholders sharing the same address, Tasty is sending only one copy of its annual report and proxy statement to these shareholders. This practice, known as householding, is designed to reduce duplicate mailings and printing and postage costs. However, if any shareholder residing at such address wishes to receive a separate annual report or proxy statement for this Annual Meeting or in the future, he or she may contact Tasty's Corporate Secretary. If you are receiving multiple copies of the annual report and proxy statement, you can request householding by contacting Tasty's Corporate Secretary. The Corporate Secretary may be contacted by writing to Tasty Baking Company, Attn: Corporate Secretary, 2801 Hunting Park Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19129 or by calling (215) 221-8500 and asking for the Corporate Secretary.
