Report about the Internal Review of the Appropriation of Funds by the Controlling

Shareholder and Its Affiliates

In accordance with the spirit of the announcement [2008][No.27] issued by China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC), Notice on Further Advancing the Special Activity of Corporate Governance and that of the special conference on the supervision and control of the listed companies as convened by CSRC Shanghai Regulatory Bureau, Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as Sinopec Shanghai or the Company) has conducted an internal review with respect to the funds appropriated by the controlling shareholder and its affiliates and hereby presents a report in respect of the relevant information.

I. The Implementation of the Internal Review of Appropriation of Funds by the Controlling Shareholder and Its Affiliates

The controlling shareholder of Sinopec Shanghai is China Petroleum & Chemical Corporation (hereinafter referred to as Sinopec Corp).

The time limit pertaining to the internal review of the appropriation of funds by the controlling Shareholder and its subsidiaries is from January 1, 2007 to June 30, 2008; the target of the internal review is the Company and its holding subsidiaries. The working group of the internal review consists of a leader, Chairman of the Board of Directors and President of the Company, a deputy leader, Director and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and such other members as are inclusive of the principals of the Board of Directors secretariat, the financial affairs department, the internal control office and other related personnel. The internal review will be practiced pursuant to the relevant laws and regulations of the state, the articles of association of the Company and the requirements regarding the internal control and other relevant systems of the Company with a view to gradually verifying the funds appropriation status.

II. The Establishment of a Mechanism by the Company to Prevent Funds Appropriation

Sinopec Shanghai has established a long-term mechanism to prevent the controlling shareholder and its subsidiaries from appropriating funds and impairing the interests of the Company.

The Company and its controlling shareholder, Sinopec Corp are financially independent of each other. With a separate financial department, the Company has established an independent and normative financial accounting system and an integrated accounting system and provides an explicit internal division of labor in respect of the accounting and financial management according to the internal control system. The Company owns independent bank accounts and assumes tax liabilities on its own according to law.

Table of Contents

Any and all related party transactions between the Company and Sinopec Corp are conducted in compliance with the regulatory requirements of the place for listing, the articles of association of the Company and the Interim Measures for the Administration of Related Party Transactions. Major related transaction and regular (continuous) related transaction shall be engaged into only after Board of Directors or Shareholders Meeting passing resolution approving the implementation thereof. In the event of reviewing major and regular (continuous) related party transactions, the related directors and shareholders abstain from voting, while the independent directors prudently review all the major and regular (continuous) related transactions and issue independent opinions thereafter. The supervisory committee supervises the major and regular (continuous) related party transactions of the Company. While auditing the final accounts, the auditing institute shall also carry out objective and impartial audit to the related party transactions. Disclosures will be made with regard to the related party transactions in the annual and interim report of the Company.

The outside auditing institution of the Company will, in accordance with the relevant requirements set forth by CSRC and the State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission, make special explanation on the appropriation of non-operating funds and the transaction of related capital at the time of disclosure of the annual report of the Company.

The above management model produces a relatively perfect external and internal audit and supervision mechanism for the Company, which effectively prevents the major shareholder and its affiliates from appropriating funds and impairing the interests of the Company.

III. Results of Internal Review of Appropriation of Funds

1 Details of Appropriation of Funds

In accordance with the results of internal review, from January 1, 2007 to June 30, 2008, no outstanding loan exists by the Company and holding subsidiaries to Sinopec and its affiliates; the Company and holding subsidiaries didn't provide guarantee to Sinopec and its affiliates. Hence, the controlling shareholders and its affiliates of Company didn't appropriate funds of the Company for purpose other than operation.

KMPG, the external auditing institution, has issued 2007 Special Explanation on the appropriation of non-operating capital and other related capital transaction of Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited on April 7, 2008 (published on the website of Shanghai Stock Exchange: www.sse.com.cn).
