On May 18, 2018, Abaxis, Inc. (the Company) first provided a communication in substantially the form set forth below to certain suppliers, vendors and business partners of the Company.

Dear _____,

On Wednesday, May 16, 2018, Abaxis announced it had entered into an agreement to be acquired by Zoetis, a leading animal health company with global scale in the discovery, development, manufacture and marketing of veterinary vaccines and medicines, complemented by diagnostic products, genetic tests, biodevices and a range of services.

While we work to close the transaction, which we expect to do before the end of this year, subject to customary closing conditions including regulatory approvals and the approval of Abaxis shareholders, Zoetis and Abaxis will continue to operate as separate companies and you should continue to work with your current business contacts at each company. We will provide ongoing updates and keep you informed as the acquisition process progresses.

We look forward to continuing our relationship with you and the additional opportunities that this transaction provides.

We are excited about the future and the opportunities ahead. As always, we value your partnership and thank you for your business.
