Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement
Agreement and Plan of Merger

Merger. On December 17, 2018, Colony Bankcorp, Inc., a Georgia corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with LBC Bancshares, Inc., a Georgia corporation (LBC), whereby LBC will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger). Pursuant to and simultaneously with entering into the Merger Agreement, the Company's wholly owned subsidiary bank, Colony Bank, and LBC's wholly owned subsidiary bank, Calumet Bank, entered into a Plan of Bank Merger whereby Calumet Bank will be merged with and into Colony Bank immediately following the merger of LBC with and into the Company (the Bank Merger).

The Merger Agreement has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of the Company and LBC. The transaction is expected to close in the first half of 2019, subject to customary conditions discussed below.

Merger Consideration. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each outstanding share of LBC common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of each LBC shareholder, either (i) $23.50 in cash, or (ii) 1.3239 of a share of the Company's common stock, provided that 55% of LBC shares will receive the stock consideration and 45% will receive the cash consideration, and at least 50% of the merger consideration will be paid in Company common stock. Each outstanding share of LBC common stock subject to vesting restrictions shall become vested immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger and will be converted into the right to receive the same merger consideration that other LBC shareholders are entitled to receive. Each option or warrant to purchase shares of LBC common stock shall be cancelled as of the effective time of the Merger and converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of LBC common stock subject to such option or warrant, as applicable, times (ii) the excess, if any, of $23.50 over the exercise price per share of LBC common stock subject to such option or warrant, as applicable.

Each outstanding share of the Company's common stock shall remain outstanding and unaffected by the Merger.

Representations and Warranties. The Merger Agreement contains usual and customary representations and warranties that the Company and LBC made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the Company and LBC and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating certain terms. Moreover, certain of the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between the Company and LBC rather than establishing matters of fact.

Covenants; No Solicitation. Each party also has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger. Additionally, LBC has agreed (i) not to initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage or take any action or facilitate any alternative acquisition transaction or, subject to certain exceptions, participate in discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish any non-public information relating to, any alternative acquisition transaction and (ii) subject to certain exceptions, not to withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to the Company, the recommendation of the LBC board of directors that LBC's shareholders approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. In the event that LBC receives a proposal with respect to an alternative acquisition transaction that the LBC board of directors determines is superior to the Merger, the Company will have an opportunity to match the terms of such proposal, subject to certain requirements.

Conditions to Closing. Consummation of the Merger is subject to various customary conditions, including (i) approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger by shareholders of LBC; (ii) the receipt of certain regulatory approvals; (iii) no injunctions or other legal restraints preventing the consummation of the Merger; (iv) the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) having declared effective the Company's registration statement covering the issuance of shares of the Company's common stock in the Merger; (v) the receipt by each party of a tax opinion to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; (vi) the accuracy of representations and warranties of the parties and compliance by the parties with their respective covenants and obligations under the Merger Agreement (subject to customary materiality qualifiers); and (vii) the absence of a material adverse effect with respect to either the Company or LBC.

Termination. The Merger Agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances, including: (i) by mutual written agreement of the parties, (ii) by either party if any regulatory approval required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement has been denied by final non-appealable action by the relevant governmental authority or an application for such approval has been permanently withdrawn at the request of a governmental authority, (iii) by either party if the approval of the shareholders of LBC is not obtained, (iv) by either party in the event of a material breach by the other party of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in the Merger Agreement and such breach is not cured within thirty days, (v) by either party if the Merger is not consummated on or before June 30, 2019, subject to automatic extension to September 30, 2019 if the only outstanding closing condition is the receipt of regulatory approvals, (vi) by the Company if LBC's board of directors breaches its obligation not to solicit any alternative acquisition transaction, changes its recommendation with respect to the Merger in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, or breaches its obligation to call a special LBC shareholder meeting to vote on the Merger, (vii) by LBC if the price of the Company's common stock over a specified period of time decreases in comparison to the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index and the Company elects not to increase the exchange ratio for the stock consideration, or (viii) by LBC in order to enter into an agreement to a superior proposal.

Termination Fee. LBC will pay the Company a termination fee equal to $1.432 million in the event (i) the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Company because LBC's board of directors breaches its obligation not to solicit any alternative acquisition transaction, changes its recommendation with respect to the Merger in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, or breaches its obligation to call a special LBC shareholder meeting to vote on the Merger, (ii) LBC terminates this agreement in order to accept a superior proposal, or (iii) the Merger Agreement is terminated (A) by either the Company or LBC because the required LBC shareholder approval is not obtained or (B) the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Company because of LBC's material breach of representations, warranties or covenants, LBC receives an acquisition proposal after the date of the Merger Agreement but before it is terminated, and LBC enters into an agreement for or completes an acquisition transaction within 12 months of the termination of the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement and certain exhibits attached thereto, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated by reference herein. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company, its affiliates and their respective businesses, and the information regarding the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the registration statement on Form S-4 of the Company that will include a proxy statement of LBC and a prospectus of the Company and that will be filed with the SEC.

Voting Agreements

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, the directors of LBC have entered into voting agreements (the Voting Agreements), pursuant to which each such director agreed to vote his, her or its shares of LBC common stock in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement and transactions contemplated therein and against certain other actions, proposals, transactions or agreements that would be detrimental to the consummation of the Merger. The Voting Agreements generally prohibit the sale or transfer of the shares held by each such shareholder until the earlier of (i) termination of the Merger Agreement or (ii) receipt of the approval of the shareholders of LBC. The Voting Agreements terminate upon the earlier of (i) the consummation of the Merger, (ii) the amendment of the Merger Agreement in any manner that materially and adversely affects any rights of the shareholder, (iii) the termination of the Merger Agreement or (iv) three years from the date of the Voting Agreements.

The foregoing summary of the Voting Agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such documents, forms of which are included as Exhibit A to the Merger Agreement, filed as Exhibit 2.1 attached hereto and which is incorporated herein by reference.

Director Non-Compete Agreements

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, each of the directors of LBC and Calumet Bank entered into a Non-Competition and Non-Disclosure Agreement with the Company, which contains provisions related to the non-disclosure of confidential information and trade secrets, non-solicitation of customers with whom such directors had material contact, non-competition within a restricted territory and non-recruitment of employees.

The foregoing summary of the Non-Competition and Non-Disclosure Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, a form of which is included as Exhibit C to the Merger Agreement, filed as Exhibit 2.1 attached hereto and which is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information.

This Current Report contains forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In general, forward-looking statements usually use words such as may, believe, expect, anticipate, intend, should, plan, estimate, predict, continue and potential or the negative of these terms or other comparable terms including statements related to the expected timing of the closing of the Merger, the expected returns and other benefits of the Merger, to shareholders, expected improvement in operating efficiency resulting from the Merger, estimated expense reductions resulting from the transactions and the timing of achievement of such reductions, the impact on and timing of the recovery of the impact on tangible book value, and the effect of the Merger on the Company's capital ratios. Forward-looking statements represent management's beliefs, based upon information available at the time the statements are made, with regard to the matters addressed; they are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements.

Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to (1) the risk that the cost savings and any revenue synergies from the Merger may not be realized or take longer than anticipated to be realized, (2) disruption from the Merger with customers, suppliers, employee or other business partners relationships, (3) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement, (4) the risk of successful integration of LBC's business into the Company, (5) the failure to obtain the necessary approval by the shareholders of LBC, (6) the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the Merger, (7) the ability by the Company to obtain required governmental approvals of the Merger, (8) reputational risk and the reaction of each of the companies' customers, suppliers, employees or other business partners to the Merger, (9) the failure of the closing conditions in the Merger Agreement to be satisfied, or any unexpected delay in closing of the Merger, (10) the risk that the integration of LBC's operations into the operations of the Company will be materially delayed or will be more costly or difficult than expected, (11) the possibility that the Merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events, (12) the dilution caused by the Company's issuance of additional shares of its common stock in the Merger transaction, and (13) general competitive, economic, political and market conditions. Additional factors which could affect the forward looking statements can be found in the cautionary language included under the headings

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and Risk Factors in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and other documents subsequently filed by the Company with the SEC.
