USE OF PROCEEDS

The selling shareholders will receive all of the proceeds from the sale of shares of Common Stock under this reoffer prospectus. The Company will not receive any proceeds from these sales. We have agreed to pay all expenses relating to registering the Common Stock covered by this reoffer prospectus. The selling shareholders will pay any brokerage commissions and/or similar charges incurred in connection with the sale of the Common Stock covered hereby.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

This reoffer prospectus covers the reoffer and resale by the selling shareholders listed below of an aggregate of up to 500,000 shares of Common Stock issued or issuable pursuant to the exercise of option grants made to such selling shareholders under the 2014 Plan, which shares constitute control securities within the meaning of Form S-8.

The following table sets forth, as of December 31, 2018, certain information regarding the selling shareholders, the shares of our Common Stock that may be reoffered and resold by this reoffer prospectus, and other Common Stock beneficially owned by them. Information with respect to beneficial ownership is based upon information obtained from the Selling Shareholders. Information with respect to Shares Beneficially Owned prior to Offering includes the shares issuable upon exercise of all stock options held by the selling shareholders that are exercisable within 60 days of December 31, 2018. Shares Offered by this Reoffer Prospectus includes the shares that may be acquired by the selling shareholders pursuant to the exercise of stock options granted or the vesting of Restricted Stock Units (RSUs) to the selling shareholders pursuant to the 2014 Plan, including some shares that are issuable upon the exercise of stock options that may be exercisable more than 60 days from December 31, 2018. Information with respect to Shares Beneficially Owned after Offering and Percentage of Shares Beneficially Owned after Offering assumes the sale of all of the shares offered by the selling shareholders under this reoffer prospectus but no other purchases or sales of our Common Stock by the selling shareholders and includes, with respect to each individual selling shareholder, any remaining shares which the selling shareholder has the right to acquire within 60 days of December 31, 2018 (but any such remaining shares are not deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of any other person). Each of the selling shareholders has voting and investment control power over the Common Stock issuable to them pursuant to such options and RSUs.

The RSUs vest on the first date prior to December 1, 2022 (the Termination Date), if any, that the average closing price of the Common Stock as reported on the Nasdaq Capital Market for any fifteen (15) consecutive trading days immediately prior to such date (15-Day Average Price) is greater than or equal to the corresponding Target Price set forth in the table below, provided that the recipient of the RSUs remains on the Board of the Company as of the applicable vesting date. If a Qualifying Event (as defined below) is completed prior to the Termination Date, any remaining RSUs immediately vest, provided that the director remains on the Board on the date the Qualifying Event is completed. All RSUs that have not vested on or before the Termination Date shall be forfeited.

The occurrence of any of the following with Board and, if required by law, shareholder approval shall constitute a Qualifying Event : (x) the Company publicly discloses its intent to terminate its registration of the Common Stock under Section 12(g) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934; (y) the Company shall have commenced a self-tender offer for not less than 33% of the Company's shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately preceding the self-tender offer at an offer price at least equal to the 15-Day Average Price applicable on the date the offer price is determined by the Company's Board of Directors; and (z) the Company shall have completed any other extraordinary transaction in which more than 15% of its current outstanding shares were issued as part of such transaction. Any dividends paid in cash, securities, or other property by the Company shall reduce the Target Price set forth in the table below by an amount equal to the value of the dividend.

The selling shareholders may offer and sell our Common Stock under this reoffer prospectus on a continuous or delayed basis, and may elect to sell none, some or all of the Common Stock set forth below. This reoffer prospectus does not constitute a commitment by the selling shareholders to sell any or all of the stated number of their shares of Common Stock, and the actual number of shares of Common Stock offered and sold shall be determined, from time to time, by each selling shareholder at their sole discretion. However, for the purposes of the table below, we have assumed that, after the completion of this offering, all Common Stock covered by this reoffer prospectus has been sold. In addition, a selling shareholder may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of all or a portion of such selling shareholder's Common Stock since the date of the information in the following table. Information concerning the selling shareholders may change, from time to time, and changed information will be presented in a supplement to this reoffer prospectus if and when required. If, subsequent to the date of this reoffer prospectus, we grant additional options to purchase Common Stock or RSUs to the selling shareholders or to other affiliates under the 2014 Plan, we may supplement this reoffer prospectus to reflect the additional Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of such additional options and RSUs and/or the names of such affiliates and the amounts of common stock to be reoffered by them. The table below sets forth, as of December 31, 2018, the following information regarding the selling shareholders:

the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by each selling shareholder prior to this offering; the number of shares of Common Stock to be offered by each selling shareholder in this offering;

the number of shares of Common Stock to be beneficially owned by each selling shareholder assuming the sale of all of the Common Stock covered by this reoffer prospectus; and the percentage of our issued and outstanding Common Stock to be owned by each selling shareholder assuming the sale of all of the Common Stock covered by this reoffer prospectus based on 3,994,545 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of December 31, 2018.

All information with respect to the Common Stock ownership of the selling shareholders has been furnished by or on behalf of the selling shareholders. We believe, based on information supplied by the selling shareholders, that except as may otherwise be indicated in the footnotes to the table below, the selling shareholders have sole voting and dispositive power with respect to the Common Stock reported as beneficially owned by them. Because the selling shareholders identified in the table may sell some or all of the Common Stock owned by them and covered by this reoffer prospectus, and because there are currently no agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to the sale of any of the Common Stock, no estimate can be given as to the number of shares of Common Stock available for resale hereby that will be held by the selling shareholders upon termination of this offering. In addition, the selling shareholders may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, or may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, at any time and from time to time, the Common Stock they hold in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act after the date on which they provided the information set forth in the table below. We have, therefore, assumed for the purposes of the following table, that the selling shareholders will sell all of the Common Stock owned beneficially by them that are covered by this reoffer prospectus, but will not sell any other Common Stock that they currently own.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholder and any of its pledgees, assignees and successors-in-interest (each, a selling shareholder, provided that a prospectus supplement naming any such pledgee, assignee or successor-in-interest has been filed with the Commission) may, from time to time, sell any or all of its securities covered hereby on the principal trading market or any other stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the securities are traded or in private transactions. The shares of Common Stock may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of the sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices. The selling shareholder may use any one or more of the following methods when selling securities:

on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;

in the over-the-counter market;

in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or systems or in the over-the-counter market;

through the writing of options, whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the securities as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

Table of Contents

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

settlement of short sales;

in transactions through broker-dealers that agree with the selling stockholders to sell a specified number of such securities at a stipulated price per security;

through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;

a combination of any such methods of sale; or any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling shareholder may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling shareholder (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of securities, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated, but, except as set forth in a supplement to this prospectus, in the case of an agency transaction not in excess of a customary brokerage commission in compliance with FINRA Rule 2440; and in the case of a principal transaction a markup or markdown in compliance with FINRA IM-2440.

In connection with the sale of the securities or interests therein, the selling shareholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the securities in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling shareholder may also sell securities short and deliver these securities to close out its short positions, or loan or pledge the securities to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The selling shareholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or create one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of securities offered by this prospectus, which securities such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The selling shareholder may pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of common stock from time to time pursuant to this reoffer prospectus or any amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, amending, if necessary, the list of selling shareholder to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus. The selling shareholder also may transfer and donate the shares of Common Stock in other circumstances in which case the transferees, donees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this reoffer prospectus.

The selling shareholder and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the securities may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the securities purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. The selling shareholder has informed us that it does not have any written or oral agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the securities.

The selling shareholder will be subject to the reoffer prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act including Rule 172 thereunder. In addition, any securities covered by this reoffer prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than under this reoffer prospectus. The selling shareholder has advised us that there is no underwriter or coordinating broker acting in connection with the proposed sale of the resale securities by the selling shareholder.

We intend to keep the registration statement of which this reoffer prospectus is a part effective until the earlier of the date on which (a) the shares of Common Stock have been sold or otherwise transferred pursuant to this reoffer prospectus; (b) such securities are sold in accordance with Rule 144 (or any successor provision) promulgated under the Securities Act; or (c) such securities become eligible for resale without volume or manner-of-sale restrictions and without current public information pursuant to Rule 144.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the resale securities may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to the common stock for the applicable restricted period, as defined in Regulation M, prior to the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the selling shareholder will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of the common stock by the selling stockholder or any other person. Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
 - (i) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
