Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 28, 2009, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of APAC Customer Services, Inc. (the "Company") approved the form of an Indemnification Agreement (the "Agreement") between the Company and each of its directors (each an "Indemnitee").

Subject to the express terms set forth in the Agreement, it generally provides that the Company will indemnify an Indemnitee from judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually incurred by Indemnitee and advance certain expenses resulting from an Indemnitee being a party to a proceeding that is brought in connection with any of the matters described in the following paragraph if such Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner such Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company.

The matters covered by the Agreement include any action, omission or inaction by the Indemnitee (whether occurring before or after the execution of the Agreement), or any other event or circumstance (whether occurring before or after the execution of the Agreement), relating to, arising out of or in connection with the fact that the Indemnitee is or was a director of the Company, or by reason of any acts or omissions by the Indemnitee in any such capacity.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, the Company is generally obligated to advance all reasonable expenses which are incurred by or on behalf of any Indemnitee in connection with such proceeding.

The rights of indemnification and to receive advancement of reasonable expenses as provided by the Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of the rights of any Indemnitee under the Company's Bylaws (as may be amended from time to time) or any other rights to which any Indemnitee may at any time be entitled under applicable law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, any agreement, any policy of insurance, a vote of stockholders or a resolution of directors, or otherwise.

The Agreement shall continue in effect and shall survive the termination of any Indemnitee's membership on the Board.
