Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On April 2, 2009, the HUGHES Telematics, Inc. (the "Company") received a delisting letter from NYSE Amex LLC (the "NYSE Amex") indicating that the Company was not in compliance with the public stockholder requirements of Section 102(a) of the NYSE Amex Company Guide (the "Company Guide") because the Company has fewer than 400 public stockholders. The delisting letter also indicated that the Company was not in compliance with the information submission requirements of Section 1003(d) of the Company Guide because the Company failed to submit a new listing application for the post-merger Company and, therefore, failed to satisfy the NYSE Amex's initial listing standards pursuant to Section 341, which were applicable at the time of the consummation of the merger between HUGHES Telematics Inc. and Polaris Acquisition Corp. The notification from the NYSE Amex indicates that the Company has until April 9, 2009 to appeal the NYSE Amex's determination by requesting an oral hearing or a hearing based on a written submission before the NYSE Amex's Listings Qualifications Panel.

The Company intends to appeal the NYSE Amex's determination as soon as practicable and no later than the April 9, 2009 deadline. There can be no assurance that the Company's appeal will be successful.

The Company issued a press release on April 6, 2009, announcing receipt of the NYSE Amex's letter as discussed above and the fact that the Company is not in compliance with certain listing standards. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.
