Description of Terms

- Linked to the iShares® MSCI Emerging Markets ETF

Unlike ordinary debt securities, the securities do not pay interest or repay a fixed amount of principal at maturity. Instead, the securities provide for a maturity payment amount that may be greater than, equal to or less than the original offering price of the securities, depending on the performance of the Fund from its starting price to its ending price. The maturity payment amount will reflect the following terms:

- If the value of the Fund increases:

You will receive the original offering price plus 150% participation in the upside performance of the Fund, subject to a maximum return at maturity of 40% to 45% (to be determined on the pricing date) of the original offering price. As a result of the maximum return, the maximum maturity payment amount will be $1,400.00 to $1,450.00.

- If the value of the Fund decreases but the decrease is not more than 25%:

You will be repaid the original offering price

- If the value of the Fund decreases by more than 25%:

You will have full downside exposure to the decrease in the value of the Fund from the starting price, and you will lose more than 25%, and possibly all, of the original offering price of your securities

- Investors may lose some, or all, of the original offering price

- All payments on the securities are subject to the credit risk of Wells Fargo & Company, and you will have no ability to pursue the shares of the Fund or any securities held by the Fund for payment; if Wells Fargo & Company defaults on its obligations, you could lose some or all of your investment

- No periodic interest payments or dividends

- No exchange listing; designed to be held to maturity

*To the extent that the issuer makes any change to the expected pricing date or expected issue date, the calculation day and stated maturity date may also be changed in the issuer's discretion to ensure that the term of the securities remains the same.

On the date of the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement, the estimated value of the securities is approximately $957.82 per security. While the estimated value of the securities on the pricing date may differ from the estimated value set forth above, the issuer does not expect it to differ significantly absent a material change in market conditions or other relevant factors. In no event will the estimated value of the securities on the pricing date be less than $937.82 per security. The estimated value of the securities was determined for the issuer by Wells Fargo Securities, LLC using its proprietary pricing models. It is not an indication of actual profit to the issuer or to Wells Fargo Securities, LLC or any of the issuer's other affiliates, nor is it an indication of the price, if any, at which Wells Fargo Securities, LLC or any other person may be willing to buy the securities from you at any time after issuance. See "Investment Description" in the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement.

The securities have complex features and investing in the securities involves risks not associated with an investment in conventional debt securities. See "Selected Risk Considerations" in this term sheet and "Risk Factors" in the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement.

This introductory term sheet does not provide all of the information that an investor should consider prior to making an investment decision.

Investors should carefully review the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement, market measure supplement, prospectus supplement and prospectus before making a decision to invest in the securities.

Hypothetical Payout Profile

The profile to the right is based on a hypothetical maximum return of 42.50% or $425.00 per $1,000 security (the midpoint of the specified range for the maximum return), a participation rate of 150% and a threshold price equal to 75% of the starting price.

This graph has been prepared for purposes of illustration only. Your actual return will depend on the actual ending price, the actual maximum return, and whether you hold your securities to maturity.

Assumes a hypothetical maximum return of 42.50%, or $425.00 per security (the midpoint of the specified range of the maximum return). Each security has an original offering price of $1,000.

(1) The annualized rates of return are calculated on a semi-annual bond equivalent basis with compounding.

(2) The hypothetical starting price of $100.00 has been chosen for illustrative purposes only and does not represent the actual starting price. The actual starting price will be determined on the pricing date and will be set forth under “Summary of Terms” above. For historical data regarding the actual closing prices of the Fund, see the historical information set forth under the section titled “The iShare® MSCI Emerging Markets ETF” in the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement.

The above figures are for purposes of illustration only and may have been rounded for ease of analysis. The actual amount you receive at stated maturity and the resulting pre-tax rate of return will depend on the actual starting price, ending price and maximum return.

How The Maturity Payment Amount Is Calculated

On the stated maturity date, you will receive a cash payment per security equal to the maturity payment amount. The maturity payment amount per security will equal:

- If the ending price is greater than the starting price: $1,000 plus the lesser of:

(i) $$1,000 \times \frac{\text{ending price} - \text{starting price}}{\text{starting price}} \times \text{participation rate}$; and

(ii) the maximum return;

If the ending price is less than or equal to the starting price, but greater than or equal to the threshold price: $1,000; or

- If the ending price is less than the threshold price: $1,000 minus

$$$1,000 \times \frac{\text{starting price} - \text{ending price}}{\text{starting price}}$$

If the ending price is less than the threshold price, you will lose more than 25%, and possibly all, of the original offering price of your securities at maturity.
