Note 4. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Factors used in determining the fair value of our financial assets and liabilities are summarized into three broad categories in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures":

Level 1 – quoted prices in active markets for identical securities as of the reporting date;

Level 2 – other significant directly or indirectly observable inputs, including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risk; and

Level 3 – significant inputs that are generally less observable than objective sources, including our own assumptions in determining fair value.

The factors and methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The Company had $30.5 million and $29.8 million of cash equivalents at June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively, which were primarily investments in money market funds. The Company has categorized its cash equivalents as a Level 1 financial asset, measured at fair value based on quoted prices in active markets of identical assets. The fair values of the Company's foreign currency forward contracts and interest rate swap contracts as of June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014 are disclosed in Note 5, "Derivative Financial Instruments," of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements below and are based on Level 2 inputs. The fair value of the Company's senior unsecured notes as described in Note 13, "Long-Term Debt," of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements is approximately $257.4 million based upon Level 2 inputs at June 30, 2015. The fair value of the Company's term loan, also described in Note 13, approximates the carrying value due to the variable market rate used to calculate interest payments. The Company does not have any other significant financial assets or liabilities that are measured at fair value.

Note 5. Derivative Financial Instruments

Note 15. Contingencies

FLIR Systems, Inc. and its subsidiary, Indigo Systems Corporation (now known as FLIR Commercial Systems, Inc.) (together, the “FLIR Parties”), were named in a lawsuit filed by Raytheon Company (“Raytheon”) on March 2, 2007 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. Raytheon's complaint, as amended, asserted claims for tortious interference, patent infringement, trade secret misappropriation, unfair competition, breach of contract and fraudulent concealment. The FLIR Parties filed an answer to the complaint on September 2, 2008, in which they denied all material allegations. On October 27, 2010, the FLIR Parties and Raytheon entered into a settlement agreement that resolved the patent infringement claims (the "Patent Claims") pursuant to which the FLIR Parties paid $3 million to Raytheon and entitles the FLIR Parties to certain license rights in the patents that were the subject of the Patent Claims. On October 28, 2014, a four-week trial began with respect to Raytheon's remaining claims of misappropriations of trade secrets and claims related to 31 alleged trade secrets. On November 24, 2014, a jury in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas rejected Raytheon's claims and determined that 27 of the alleged trade secrets were not in fact trade secrets and that neither Indigo, prior to its acquisition by FLIR Systems, Inc., nor FLIR Systems, Inc. infringed any of the trade secrets claimed and awarded Raytheon no damages. The court has yet to rule on any post-trial motion seeking to modify the jury verdict or on the FLIR Parties' motion for an award of attorney's fees in the amount of $28 million as a prevailing party under the Texas Theft Liability Act. The matter remains ongoing and is subject to appeal and the Company is unable to estimate the amount or range of potential loss or recovery, if any, which might result if the final determination of this matter is favorable or unfavorable, but an adverse ruling on the merits of the original claims against the FLIR Parties, while remote, could be material.

On October 22, 2014, the Company initially contacted the United States Department of State Office of Defense Trade Controls Compliance (“DDTC”), pursuant to International Traffic in Arms Regulation (“ITAR”) § 127.12(c), regarding the unauthorized export of technical data and defense services to dual and third country nationals in at least four facilities of the Company. On April 27, 2015, the Company submitted its initial report to DDTC regarding the details of the issues raised in the October 22, 2014 submission. DDTC subsequently notified the Company that it was considering administrative proceedings under Part 128 of ITAR and requested a tolling agreement, which the Company executed on June 16, 2015. DDTC continues its review and the Company is unable to reasonably estimate the time it may take to resolve the matter or the amount or range of potential loss, penalty or other government action, if any, that may be incurred in connection with this matter. However, an unfavorable outcome could potentially be material to the results of operations in the period in which such an outcome becomes estimable or known.

Note 16. Income Taxes

As of June 30, 2015, the Company had approximately $11.5 million of unrecognized tax benefits, all of which would affect the Company's effective tax rate if recognized. The Company anticipates an immaterial portion of its net unrecognized tax benefits will be recognized within 12 months as the result of settlements or effective settlements with various tax authorities, the closure of certain audits and the lapse of the applicable statute of limitations. The Company classifies interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense. As of June 30, 2015, the Company had approximately $1.3 million of net accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions.

The Company currently has the following tax years open to examination by major taxing jurisdictions:

	Tax Years:
US Federal	2012 – 2014
State of Oregon	2012 – 2014

State of Massachusetts	2011 – 2014

Note 18. Restructuring Costs

In 2013, the Company initiated a realignment plan that includes closing six sites in the United States and Europe and transferring those operations to the Company's larger facilities. The Company also consolidated its optics and laser manufacturing businesses to better realize the benefits of vertical integration in these areas. As of June 30, 2015, most of the restructuring activities have been completed, with remaining costs and accrued expenses primarily related to the closure of a European facility. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, the Company recorded net pre-tax restructuring expenses totaling $0.5 million and $0.8 million, respectively. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, the Company recorded net pre-tax restructuring expenses totaling $3.5 million and $12.0 million, respectively. The total cash payment of this dividend will be approximately $15.4 million.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (the "Report"), including "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part I, Item 2, contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 regarding future events and the future results of FLIR Systems, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries ("FLIR" or the "Company") that are based on management's current expectations, estimates, projections, and assumptions about the Company's business. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "sees," "estimates" and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements due to numerous factors including, but not limited to, those discussed in the "Risk Factors" section of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part I, Item 2, and elsewhere in this Report as well as those discussed from time to time in the Company's other Securities and Exchange Commission filings and reports. In addition, such statements could be affected by general industry and market conditions. Such forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Report or, in the case of any document incorporated by reference, the date of that document, and we do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this Report, or for changes made to this document by wire services or Internet service providers. If we update or correct one or more forward-looking statements, investors and others should not conclude that we will make additional updates or corrections with respect to other forward-looking statements.

Results of Operations

The following discussion of operating results provides an overview of our operations by addressing key elements in our Consolidated Statements of Income. The "Segment Operating Results" section that follows describes the contributions of each of our business segments to our consolidated revenue and earnings from operations. Our six operating segments are: Surveillance, Instruments, OEM and Emerging Markets, Maritime, Security and Detection. Given the nature of our business, we believe revenue and earnings from operations (including operating margin percentage) are most relevant to an understanding of our performance at a segment level as revenue levels are the most significant indicators of business conditions for each of the respective segments and earnings from operations reflect our ability to manage each of our segments as revenue levels change. Additionally, at the segment level we disclose backlog, which represents orders received for products or services for which a sales agreement is in place and delivery is expected within twelve months. See Note 17, "Operating Segments and Related Information," of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information on the six operating segments.

Revenue. Consolidated revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2015 increased by 6.4 percent year over year, from $369.4 million in the second quarter of 2014 to $393.0 million in the second quarter of 2015. Consolidated revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2015 increased by 2.3 percent year over year, from $720.9 million in the first six months of 2014 to $737.5 million in the first six months of 2015. Increases in revenues for both the three month and six month periods in our Instruments, Security and Detection segments were partially offset by declines in our Surveillance, OEM and Emerging Markets, and Maritime segments. The revenue increases were negatively impacted year over year by changes in currency exchange rates, particularly in our Instruments and Maritime segments.

The timing of orders, scheduling of backlog and fluctuations in demand in various regions of the world can give rise to quarter to quarter and year over year fluctuations in the mix of revenue. Consequently, year over year comparisons for any given quarter may not be indicative of comparisons using longer time periods. While we currently expect total annual revenue for 2015 to be slightly higher than 2014 revenue, unexpected changes in economic conditions from key customer markets or other major unanticipated events may cause total revenue, and the mix of revenue between our segments, to vary from quarter to quarter during the year.

International sales accounted for 49.0 percent and 48.3 percent of total revenue for the quarters ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and 50.6 percent and 51.1 percent for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively. The proportion of our international revenue compared to total revenue will fluctuate from quarter to quarter due to normal variation in order activity across various regions as well as specific factors that may affect one region and not another. Overall, we anticipate that revenue from international sales will continue to comprise a significant percentage of total revenue.

Cost of goods sold. Cost of goods sold for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 was $203.4 million and $372.0 million, respectively, compared to cost of goods sold for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 of $186.7 million and $369.7 million, respectively. The year over year increase in cost of goods sold primarily related to higher revenue for both the three month and six month periods.

Gross profit. Gross profit for the quarter ended June 30, 2015 was $189.6 million compared to $182.7 million for the same quarter last year. Gross profit for the six months ended June 30, 2015 was $365.5 million compared to $351.3 million for the same period last year. Gross margin, defined as gross profit divided by revenue, decreased from 49.5 percent in the second quarter of 2014 to 48.3 percent in the second quarter of 2015, and increased from 48.7 percent in the first six months of 2014 to 49.6 percent in the first six months of 2015. The decrease in gross margin for the three month period was primarily due to lower gross margin in our Maritime segment due to unfavorable exchange rate impacts on revenue and discounting due to promotional activities in certain markets, unfavorable product mix in our Security segment, and higher inventory scrap costs in our OEM and Emerging Markets segment. The increase in gross margin for the six month period was primarily due to improvements in our Surveillance and Instruments segments largely related to favorable product mix, which were partially offset by the negative impacts in our Maritime and Security segments that impacted the three month comparison.

Research and development expenses. Research and development expenses for the second quarter of 2015 totaled $35.2 million, compared to $36.3 million in the second quarter of 2014. Research and development expenses for the first six months of 2015 and 2014 were $69.8 million and $72.6 million, respectively. Research and development expenses as a percentage of revenue were 8.9 percent and 9.5 percent for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, respectively. Research and development expenses as a percentage of revenue were 9.8 percent and 10.2 percent for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, respectively. We have, and will continue to have, fluctuations in quarterly spending depending on product development needs and overall business spending priorities and believe that annual spending levels are more indicative of our commitment to research and development. Over the past five annual periods through December 31, 2014, our annual research and development expenses have varied between 8.4 percent and 9.9 percent of revenue, and we currently expect these expenses to remain within that range, on an annual basis, for the foreseeable future.

Selling, general and administrative expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses were $83.5 million for each of the quarters ended June 30, 2015 and 2014. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the first six months of 2015 and 2014 were $158.6 million and $165.4 million, respectively. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses year over year for the six month period was primarily related to a decrease in selling and administrative expenses in connection with favorable foreign exchange rates on expenses and lower corporate legal expenses, partially offset by an increase in marketing expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue were 21.2 percent and 22.6 percent for the quarters ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and 21.5 percent and 22.9 percent for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively. Over the past five annual periods through December 31, 2014, our annual selling, general and administrative expenses have varied between 20.5 percent and 23.6 percent of revenue, and we currently expect these expenses to remain within that range, on an annual basis, for the foreseeable future.

Restructuring expenses. During the quarters ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, we incurred $0.5 million and $3.5 million, respectively, in pre-tax restructuring expenses, all of which were recorded in operating expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Income. During the first six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, we incurred $0.8 million and $12.0 million, respectively, in pre-tax restructuring expenses; in 2014, $0.6 million of the restructuring charges were included in cost of goods sold.

Interest expense. Interest expense for the second quarter of 2015 and 2014 was $3.4 million and $3.6 million, respectively. Interest expense for the first six months of 2015 was $7.0 million, compared to $7.3 million for the same period of 2014. Interest expense was primarily associated with the $250 million aggregate principal amount of our 3.75 percent senior unsecured notes and our term loan that was drawn upon under our credit agreement.

Income taxes. The income tax provision of $15.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2015 represents 24.0 percent of pre-tax income in such period. We expect the annual effective tax rate for the full year of 2015 to be approximately 24.0 percent, excluding discrete items. The effective tax rate is expected to be lower than the US Federal tax rate of 35 percent because of the mix of lower foreign jurisdiction tax rates and the effect of federal, foreign and state tax credits.

Segment Operating Results

Effective January 1, 2015, the Personal Vision Systems product line was transferred from the OEM and Emerging Markets segment to the Surveillance segment. Certain of the following segment financial information has been reclassified for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 for comparative purposes.

Surveillance

Surveillance operating results are as follows (in millions, except percentages):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2015	2014 (as reclassified)	2015	2014 (as reclassified)
Revenue	$107.8	$113.6	$220.7	$236.7
Earnings from operations	26.4	22.6	56.5	45.9
Operating margin	24.5	% 19.9	% 25.6	% 19.4	%
Backlog, end of period			286	308

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 decreased by 5.1 percent and 6.8 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of 2014. The declines in revenue for both the three month and six month periods were primarily due to reduced deliveries to US Government customers and in the airborne product line. Earnings from operations improved year over year primarily due to reductions in operating expenses, improved product margins, favorable product mix and lower restructuring expenses for both the three month and six month periods. During the three months ended June 30, 2015, the segment did not incur any restructuring costs, compared to $0.6 million of restructuring expenses recorded during the three months ended June 30, 2014. During the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, the segment recorded $0.1 million and $4.7 million restructuring expenses, respectively.

Instruments

Instruments operating results are as follows (in millions, except percentages):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2015	2014	2015	2014
Revenue	$90.3	$84.0	$174.1	$168.0
Earnings from operations	28.3	21.0	56.4	41.5
Operating margin	31.4	% 25.1	% 32.4	% 24.7	%
Backlog, end of period			25	32

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 increased by 7.5 percent and 3.6 percent, respectively, compared to the same period of 2014. The year over year increase in revenue for the three month period was due to growth in most product lines and in the Europe and Asia Pacific regions. For the six month period, the revenue increase is due to growth in the Asia Pacific region, partially offset by a year over year revenue decline in the Americas; on a product basis, growth in our science, test and measurement, and fire product lines were offset by declines in our predictive and building product line. The revenue increases were partially offset by the negative impact of year over year changes in currency exchange rates.

The increases in earnings from operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, compared to the same period of 2014, were primarily due to the increases in revenue, higher gross margins, lower restructuring expenses, and cost savings associated with restructuring activities. As a large portion of segment expenses are incurred in Europe, the segment experienced a favorable impact on its operating expenses from the changes in foreign currency rates which largely offset the associated decline in revenues in that region. Restructuring expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 were $0.5 million and $2.7 million, respectively. Restructuring expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 were $0.7 million and $6.2 million, respectively.

OEM and Emerging Markets

OEM and Emerging Markets operating results are as follows (in millions, except percentages):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2015	2014 (as reclassified)	2015	2014 (as reclassified)
Revenue	$46.3	$51.1	$86.1	$99.0

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 decreased by 9.5 percent and 13.0 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of the prior year. The decrease in the three month period was primarily due to the loss of approximately $3.3 million of revenue from our optical components group which was sold in August 2014 and lower deliveries from our cores and components and traffic product lines; on a geographic basis, declines in Europe and the Americas were partially offset by an increase in the Asia Pacific region. For the six month period, the revenue decrease was primarily due to the same factors experienced in the three month period, including the loss of first half 2014 revenue from the optical components group of approximately $6.8 million. Segment earnings from operations and operating margin declined for the three month period primarily due to lower revenue and increased inventory scrap costs, partially offset by lower operating expenses. For the six month period, the decline in earnings from operations and operating margin were primarily due to the decrease in revenue, partially offset by lower operating expenses.

Maritime

Maritime operating results are as follows (in millions, except percentages):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2015	2014	2015	2014
Revenue	$52.0	$55.2	$103.0	$107.8

Operating margin	12.3	% 17.6	% 10.9	% 17.2
Backlog, end of period			21	15

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 decreased by 5.8 percent and 4.5 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of 2014, primarily due to the negative impact of changes in currency exchange rates on revenues in Europe. Since the majority of the segment's costs of goods sold are incurred in US dollars, those costs did not receive the favorable impact of changes in currency exchange rates. Consequently, the decrease in earnings from operations and operating margin for both the three month and six month periods were primarily due to the declines in year over year revenue, including discounting due to promotional activities.

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 increased by 34.2 percent and 33.5 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of the prior year. The increase in revenue for the three month period was primarily due to increased deliveries for all segment product families, particularly the retail and thermal product families, and across all geographic regions with the exception of the Middle East/Africa region. The increases in earnings from operations year over year for the three and six month periods were primarily due to the increases in revenues, partially offset by increases in sales and marketing support expenses.

Detection

Detection operating results are as follows (in millions, except percentages):

Revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 increased by 76.7 percent and 55.1 percent, respectively, compared to the same periods of 2014 which was primarily related to increased deliveries of our CBRNE threat response systems and related spare parts and services against orders received in the second half of 2014 on a large program with the United States government. The increase in earnings from operations and operating margins for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the same periods during the prior year were primarily due to the increases in revenue. Backlog at June 30, 2015 increased compared to the same date during the prior year primarily due to the receipt of a $51.1 million order for our CBRNE threat response systems and related spare parts and services during the first quarter of 2015, against which no shipments had been made as of June 30, 2015.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At June 30, 2015, we had a total of $560.2 million in cash and cash equivalents, of which $145.9 million was in the United States and $414.3 million was at our foreign subsidiaries, compared to cash and cash equivalents at December 31, 2014 of $531.4 million, of which $164.1 million was in the United States and $367.3 million was at our foreign subsidiaries. The increase in cash and cash equivalents during the six months ended June 30, 2015 was primarily due to increased cash from operations, partially offset by capital expenditures of $30.8 million, dividend payments of $30.8 million, repurchase of common stock of $31.4 million and the negative impact on cash from currency translation adjustments of $18.3 million.

Cash provided by operating activities totaled $123.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015, which primarily consisted of net earnings, adjusted for non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization, and stock-based compensation.

Cash used by investing activities totaled $30.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015, consisting of capital expenditures in the ordinary course of business.

Cash used by financing activities totaled $46.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015, which primarily consisted of the payment of dividends, repurchases of our common stock and the quarterly term loan principal payment, partially offset by amounts provided by our stock compensation plans.

On February 8, 2011, we signed a Credit Agreement ("Credit Agreement") with Bank of America, N.A., U.S. Bank National Association, JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. and other lenders. The Credit Agreement provides for a $200 million, five-year revolving line of credit. On April 5, 2013, the Credit Agreement was amended to extend the maturity of the revolving credit facility from February 8, 2016 to April 5, 2018 in addition to incorporating a $150 million term loan facility maturing April 5, 2019. We have the right, subject to certain conditions including approval of additional commitments by qualified lenders, to increase the line of credit by an additional $150 million until April 5, 2018. The Credit Agreement allows us and certain designated subsidiaries to borrow in US dollars, euros, Swedish Kronor, pound sterling and other agreed upon currencies. The Credit Agreement requires us to pay a commitment fee on the amount of unused credit at a rate, based on the Company's leverage ratio, which ranges from 0.25 percent to 0.40 percent. The Credit Agreement contains two financial covenants that require the maintenance of certain leverage ratios with which we were in compliance at June 30, 2015. The five-year revolving line of credit available under the Credit Agreement and the term loan facility are not secured by any of our assets.

As noted above, the Credit Agreement amendment of April 5, 2013 incorporates a $150 million term loan facility that matures on April 5, 2019. On April 5, 2013 we drew down $150 million under the term loan facility. Interest is accrued at the one-month LIBOR rate plus the scheduled spread and paid monthly. By entering into interest rate swap agreements, we have effectively fixed the basis for calculating the interest rate on the term loan. The effective interest rate paid is equal to the fixed rate in the swap agreements plus the credit spread then in effect. At June 30, 2015, the effective interest rate on the term loan was 2.49 percent. Principal payments of $3.75 million are made in quarterly installments which commenced on June 30, 2013 and will continue through December 31, 2018 with the final maturity payment including any accrued interest due on April 5, 2019.

At June 30, 2015, we had no amounts outstanding under our revolving credit facility pursuant to the Credit Agreement and the commitment fee on the amount of unused credit was 0.3 percent. We had $38.4 million of letters of credit outstanding at June 30, 2015, which reduced the total available credit under the revolving credit facility.

On August 19, 2011, we issued $250 million aggregate principal amount of our 3.75 percent senior unsecured notes due September 1, 2016 (the "Notes"). The interest on the Notes is payable semiannually in arrears on March 1 and September 1. The proceeds from the Notes are being used for general corporate purposes, which may include working capital and capital expenditure needs, business acquisitions and repurchases of our common stock.

On February 5, 2015, our Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 15.0 million shares of our outstanding common stock. As of June 30, 2015, 1.0 million shares had been repurchased under this authorization, which expires on February 5, 2017.

United States income taxes have not been provided for on accumulated earnings of certain subsidiaries outside of the United States as we intend to reinvest the earnings in operations outside the United States indefinitely. Should we subsequently elect to repatriate such foreign earnings, we would need to accrue and pay United States income taxes, thereby reducing the amount of our cash.

We believe that our existing cash combined with the cash we expect to generate from operating activities and our available credit facilities and financing available from other sources will be sufficient to meet our cash requirements for the foreseeable future. Except for approximately $17.0 million in building improvements to a facility we own, we do not have any significant capital commitments for the next twelve months nor are we aware of any significant events or conditions that are likely to have a material impact on our liquidity.

Off-Balance Sheets Arrangements

Through June 30, 2015, we do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future material effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" ("ASU 2014-09") which establishes new guidance under which companies will recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. ASU 2014-09 also provides for additional disclosure requirements. While ASU 2014-09 was to be effective for annual periods and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2016, on July 9, 2015, the FASB approved the deferral of the effective date to periods beginning on or after December 15, 2017. Accordingly, the Company currently intends to adopt ASU 2014-09 on January 1, 2018, and is currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of ASU 2014-09 will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In June 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-12, "Accounting for Share-Based Payments When the Terms of an Award Provide That a Performance Target Could be Achieved after the Requisite Service Period" ("ASU 2014-12") which requires that a performance target that affects vesting and that could be achieved after the requisite service period be treated as a performance condition. ASU 2014-12 is effective for annual periods and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2015. Accordingly, the Company currently intends to adopt ASU 2014-12 on January 1, 2016, and does not expect the adoption of ASU 2014-12 to have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In August 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-15, "Presentation of Financial Statements—Going Concern (Subtopic 205-40): Disclosure of Uncertainties about an Entity's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern" ("ASU 2014-15"). Under the new guidance, management will be required to assess an entity's ability to continue as a going concern, and to provide related footnote disclosures in certain circumstances. ASU 2014-15 is effective for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2016. Accordingly, the Company currently intends to adopt ASU 2014-15 on January 1, 2017, and does not expect the adoption of ASU 2014-15 to have any impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In April 2015, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2015-03, "Interest-Imputation of Interest (Subtopic 835-30)" ("ASU 2015-03") which simplifies the presentation of debt issuance costs by requiring that debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of that debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. ASU 2015-03 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2015, with early adoption permitted and should be applied retrospectively. The Company has adopted ASU 2015-03 on January 1, 2015 and the adoption of ASU 2015-03 did not have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.
