FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Teva Announces Appointment of Isaac Abravanel as Corporate Vice President, Human Resources

Jerusalem, Israel, September 16, 2007 - Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (Nasdaq:TEVA) announced today the appointment of Isaac Abravanel to the senior management position of Corporate Vice President, Human Resources, effective immediately.

Mr. Abravanel joins Teva after serving in the role of Deputy CEO of Bezeq, Israel's largest telecommunications service provider, where he was responsible for Operations, the Business and Private Sector Markets, and Human Resources. Previously, he held several positions in the Israeli business sector and served as head of the Planning Division of the Human Resources Branch of the IDF (Israeli Defence Forces)

Shlomo Yanai, Teva President and CEO, commented: "We are very happy that Mr. Abravanel is joining the Teva family. He brings to Teva extensive experience in human resources, operations and change process. As a member of Teva's senior leadership team, he will be partner to the implementation of our strategy in the coming years."

Mr. Abravanel holds a BA and MA in political science from Haifa University.

Safe Harbor Statement under the U. S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This release contains forward-looking statements, which express the current beliefs and expectations of management. Such statements are based on management's current beliefs and expectations and involve a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause Teva's future results, performance or achievements to differ significantly from the results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include risks relating to: Teva's ability to successfully develop and commercialize additional pharmaceutical products, the introduction of competing generic equivalents, the extent to which Teva may obtain U.S. market exclusivity for certain of its new generic products and regulatory changes that may prevent Teva from utilizing exclusivity periods, competition from brand-name companies that are under increased pressure to counter generic products, or competitors that seek to delay the introduction of generic products, the impact of consolidation of our distributors and customers, potential liability for sales of generic products prior to a final resolution of outstanding patent litigation, including that relating to the generic versions of Allegra[®], Neurontin[®], and Lotrel[®], the effects of competition on our innovative products, especially Copaxone[®] sales, the impact of pharmaceutical industry regulation and pending legislation that could affect the pharmaceutical industry, the difficulty of predicting U.S. Food and Drug Administration, European Medicines Agency and other regulatory authority approvals, the regulatory environment and changes in the health policies and structures of various countries, our ability to achieve expected results through our innovative R&D efforts, Teva's ability to successfully identify, consummate and integrate acquisitions, potential exposure to product liability claims to the extent not covered by insurance, dependence on the effectiveness of our patents and other protections for innovative products, significant operations worldwide that may be adversely affected by terrorism, political or economical instability or major hostilities, supply interruptions or delays that could result from the complex manufacturing of our products and our global supply chain, environmental risks, fluctuations in currency, exchange and interest rates, and other factors that are discussed in Teva's Annual Report on Form 20-F and its other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made and the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
