PROSPECTUS

THE FINISH LINE, INC.

6,518,971 Shares of Class A Common Stock

This prospectus relates to the distribution and/or resale of 6,518,971 shares of our Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, by the selling shareholder named in this prospectus or its successors in interest. See “About This Prospectus” on page 2 of this prospectus, and “Selling Shareholder” on page 7 of this prospectus.

The selling shareholder has agreed to distribute the shares to its shareholders as a dividend as soon as reasonably practicable following the registration of the shares. No fractional shares will be distributed to the shareholders. Instead, fractional shares that shareholders otherwise would be entitled to receive will be aggregated and sold by the selling shareholder, which will distribute the aggregate net cash proceeds of these sales ratably to such shareholders. The selling shareholder’s sale of the fractional shares may be effected directly to purchasers or through one or more underwriters, brokers, dealers or agents from time to time in one or more public or private transactions, at prevailing market prices, at prices related to prevailing market prices, at varying prices, or at negotiated or fixed prices. We will not receive any proceeds from the distribution and/or resale of the shares. All expenses of registration incurred in connection with this offering are being borne by us, but all distribution and other expenses incurred by the selling shareholder will be borne by the selling shareholder. See “Plan of Distribution” on page 7 of this prospectus.

Our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “FINL”. On June 6, 2008, the closing price for our common stock was $8.19 per share.

Investing in these shares involves risks. See “Risk Factors” beginning on page 4 of this prospectus for a discussion of certain matters that you should consider before investing in our common stock.

NEITHER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THESE SECURITIES OR PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OR ACCURACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

The date of this prospectus is June 9, 2008.

In this prospectus, unless otherwise indicated, the terms “we,” “us,” “our” and the “Company” refer to The Finish Line, Inc. and, where appropriate, our subsidiary companies.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

On March 3, 2008, the Company entered into a Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement Agreement”) with UBS Loan Finance LLC and UBS Securities LLC (collectively, “UBS”) and Genesco Inc. (“Genesco”) relating to the actions filed by UBS in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and filed by Genesco in the Chancery Court for the State of Tennessee (collectively, the “Litigation”). The parties have agreed to settle the Litigation and to terminate the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated June 17, 2007, among the Company, Headwind Inc. and Genesco, and the related debt commitment letter, dated June 17, 2007, as amended, and related agreements, between UBS and the Company. As consideration for these agreements, the Company and UBS agreed to make a cash payment to Genesco in the amount of $175 million, and the Company also agreed to issue to Genesco 6,518,971 shares of its Class A Common Stock. On March 7, 2008, the Company issued the shares to Genesco. The Company has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to register the shares issued to Genesco. Pursuant to that agreement, the Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. Genesco has agreed to distribute the shares to its shareholders as a dividend as soon as reasonably practicable following the effectiveness of the registration statement.

You should read this prospectus with the additional information described below under the headings “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation of Information We File with the Securities and Exchange Commission.” You may rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with different or additional information. No offer to sell or solicitation of an offer to buy our common stock is made in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is not permitted. The information contained in this prospectus is accurate only as of the date on the cover page of this prospectus, and the information contained in documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus is accurate only as of the date of those documents, regardless of the time of delivery of this prospectus or of any sale of our common stock.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

A “safe harbor” for forward-looking statements is provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (“Reform Act of 1995”). The Reform Act of 1995 was adopted to encourage such forward-looking statements without the threat of litigation, provided those statements are identified as forward-looking and are accompanied by meaningful cautionary statements identifying important factors that could cause the actual results to differ materially from those projected in the statement. Certain matters described in this prospectus and in the Company’s other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission are forward-looking statements. When used herein or therein, the words “believe,” “anticipate,” “endeavor,” “estimate,” “expect,” “objective,” “projection,” “forecast,” “goal” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those identified in the forward-looking statements include the following, among others: changing consumer preferences; the Company’s inability to successfully market its footwear, apparel, accessories and other merchandise; price, product and other competition from other retailers (including Internet and direct manufacturer sales); the unavailability of products; the inability to locate and obtain favorable lease terms for the Company’s stores; the loss of key employees, general economic conditions and adverse factors impacting the retail athletic industry; management of growth; uncertainties relating to the closing of the actions contemplated by, and the satisfaction of the conditions of, the Settlement Agreement; and the other risks detailed in the Company’s Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

These and other matters are difficult to predict and many are beyond our control, including those we discuss in this prospectus and our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, you should not rely on the accuracy of predictions contained in forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise these statements in the future, whether as a result of changes in actual results, changes in assumptions or other factors affecting such statements.

THE COMPANY

We are one of the largest mall-based specialty retailers in the United States. We operate under the Finish Line and Man Alive brand names. Finish Line is one of the largest mall-based specialty retailers of brand name athletic, lifestyle and outdoor footwear, and softgoods in the United States. Man Alive is one of the nation's leading street fashion retailers offering men's and women's name brand fashions from the industry's leading designers.

Our principal executive offices are located at 3308 N. Mitthoeffer Road, Indianapolis, Indiana 46235, and our telephone number is (317) 899-1022.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves certain risks. You should consider carefully the following information about these risks, together with the other information included in this prospectus, before investing in our common stock. If any of the risks, or other risks not known to us or that we believe are immaterial, actually occur, our business, results of operations and financial condition likely would suffer. In these circumstances, the market price of our common stock could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

Our operations may be adversely affected by general economic conditions.

General economic factors that are beyond our control impact our forecasts and actual performance. These factors include interest rates; recession; inflation; deflation; consumer credit availability; consumer debt levels; energy costs; tax rates and policy; unemployment trends; the threat or possibility of war, terrorism or other global or national unrest; political or financial instability; and other matters that influence consumer confidence and spending. Increasing volatility in financial markets may cause these factors to change with a greater degree of frequency and magnitude. Changes in the economic climate could adversely affect our performance.

Our business faces a great deal of competitive pressure.

The retail business is highly competitive. We compete for customers, associates, locations, merchandise, services and other important aspects of our business with many other local, regional and national retailers. Those competitors, some of whom have a greater market presence than us, include traditional store-based retailers, Internet and catalog businesses and other forms of retail commerce. Unanticipated changes in the pricing and other practices of those competitors may adversely affect our performance.

Our business is dependent on consumer preferences and fashion trends.

The athletic footwear and softgood industry is subject to changing fashion trends and customer preferences. We cannot guarantee that our merchandise selection will accurately reflect customer preferences when it is offered for sale or that we will be able to identify and respond quickly to fashion changes, particularly given the long lead times for ordering much of our merchandise from vendors. For example, we order athletic footwear four to six months prior to delivery to stores. If we fail to anticipate accurately either the market for the merchandise in the stores or customers' purchasing habits, we may be forced to rely on markdowns or promotional sales to dispose of excess, slow moving inventory, which may adversely affect our performance.

Various risks associated with catalog and Internet sales may adversely affect our business.

We sell merchandise over the Internet through our websites, www.finishline.com and www.manalive.com. Although our catalog and Internet operations encompass only a minor portion of our total sales, we anticipate that the percentage will continue to grow and thus the risks associated with these operations could have an impact on our overall operations. Our catalog and Internet operations are subject to numerous risks, including unanticipated operating problems, reliance on third party computer hardware and software providers, system failures and the need to invest in additional computer systems. Our catalog and Internet operations also involve other risks that could have an impact on our results of operations including hiring, retention and training of personnel to conduct our catalog and Internet operations, diversion of sales from our stores, rapid technological change, liability for online content, credit card fraud, risks related to the failure of the computer systems that operate the website and its related support systems, including computer viruses, telecommunication failures and electronic break-ins and similar disruptions. There can be no assurance that our catalog and Internet operations will continue to achieve sales and profitability growth or even remain at their current level.

Our operations are dependent on a single distribution center, and the loss of, or disruption in, our distribution center and other factors affecting the distribution of merchandise, could have a material adverse effect on our business and operations.

The distribution functions for all of our Finish Line and Man Alive stores and for their respective catalog and Internet sales are handled from a single facility in Indianapolis, Indiana. Any significant interruption in the operation of the distribution facility due to natural disasters, accidents, system failures or other unforeseen causes could delay or impair our ability to distribute merchandise to our stores and/or fulfill catalog and Internet orders, which could cause sales to decline.

We depend upon third party carriers for shipment of a significant amount of merchandise. An interruption in service by these third party carriers for any reason could cause temporary disruptions in our business, a loss of sales and profits, and other material adverse effects.

Our freight cost is impacted by changes in fuel prices through surcharges. Fuel prices and surcharges affect freight costs both on inbound freight from our distribution centers to our stores and wholesale customers. Increases in fuel prices and surcharges and other factors have increased and may continue to increase freight costs.

We may experience fluctuations in our results of operations due to seasonality of our business.

Our business is subject to seasonal influences, with a major portion of sales and income historically realized during the second and fourth quarter of the fiscal year, which includes the back-to-school and holiday seasons, respectively. This seasonality causes our operating results to vary considerably from quarter to quarter and could materially and adversely affect the market price of our securities.

Our business may be adversely affected by changes in our merchandise sourcing.

All of our vendors must comply with applicable laws and our required standards of conduct. Our ability to find qualified vendors and access products in a timely and efficient manner can be a challenge, especially with respect to goods sourced outside the United States. Political or financial instability, trade restrictions, tariffs, currency exchange rates, transport capacity and costs and other factors relating to foreign trade, and the ability to access suitable merchandise on acceptable terms are beyond our control and could adversely impact our performance.

Changes in labor conditions as well as our inability to attract and retain the talent required for our business, may negatively affect our operating results.

Future performance will depend upon our ability to attract, retain and motivate qualified employees, including store personnel and field management, to keep pace with our expansion schedule. Many of those associates are in entry level or part time positions with historically high rates of turnover. Our ability to meet our labor needs while controlling costs is subject to external factors such as unemployment levels, prevailing wage rates, minimum wage legislation and changing demographics. If we are unable to attract and retain quality associates, our ability to meet our growth goals or to sustain expected levels of profitability may be compromised. In addition, a large number of our retail employees are paid the prevailing minimum wage, which if increased would negatively affect our profitability and could, if the increase were material enough, require us to adjust our business strategy, which may include the closure of our less profitable stores. Minimum wages were increased in January 2008 by federal mandate and are scheduled to increase again in January 2009.

Our inability to implement our new store growth strategy may have an adverse impact on our future results.

Our plan to continue to increase the number of stores will depend in part upon the availability of new store sites on acceptable terms. Increases in real estate, construction and development costs could limit our growth opportunities and affect our return on investment. There can be no assurance that such sites will be available to us for lease, or that they will be available on terms acceptable to us. If we are unable to grow our retail business, our financial performance could be adversely affected.

Our inability to implement our strategic development of new concepts may have an adverse impact on our future results.

During fiscal 2007, we launched a new concept, Paiva, for which the product offering was focused on upscale, active women who seek a blend of fitness and fashion apparel, footwear and accessories. During fiscal 2007, we opened 13 Paiva stores and we opened two additional Paiva stores in March 2007. However, after determining that the Paiva concept had not demonstrated the potential necessary to deliver an acceptable long-term return on investment, we closed all 15 Paiva stores during the third quarter of fiscal 2008.

Our inability to successfully integrate acquired businesses may negatively affect our operations.

As part of our growth strategy, we acquired Man Alive on January 29, 2005. We completed the integration of Man Alive during fiscal 2007 including moving all Man Alive corporate personnel and distribution activities to our corporate office and distribution center. The integration of Man Alive and any future acquisitions may not be successful or generate anticipated sales increases. When we acquire businesses, we believe those businesses can enhance our business opportunities and growth prospects. All acquisitions involve risks that can adversely affect our business and operating results. These risks include:

- distracting management from our business operations;
 - losing key personnel and other employees;
- costs, delays and inefficiencies associated with integrating acquired operations and personnel;
 - the impairment of acquired assets and goodwill; and
- acquiring the contingent and other liabilities of the businesses acquired.

In addition, acquired businesses may not provide us with increased business opportunities, or result in the growth that we anticipate. Furthermore, integrating acquired operations is a complex, time-consuming, and expensive process. Combining acquired operations may result in lower overall operating margins, greater stock price volatility, and quarterly earnings fluctuations. Cultural incompatibilities, career uncertainties, and other factors associated with such acquisitions may also result in the loss of employees.

Failure to acquire and successfully integrate complementary practices, or failure to achieve the business synergies or other anticipated benefits, can adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business may be adversely affected by regulatory and litigation developments.

Various aspects of our operations are subject to federal, state or local laws, rules and regulations, any of which may change from time to time. Additionally, we are regularly involved in various litigation matters that arise in the ordinary course of our business. Litigation or regulatory developments could adversely affect our business operations and financial performance.

A major failure of our information systems could adversely affect our business.

The efficient operation of our business is dependent on our information systems. In particular, we rely on our information systems to effectively manage sales, distribution, merchandise planning and allocation functions. We possess offsite recovery capabilities for our information systems. The failure of our information systems to perform as designed could disrupt our business and adversely affect sales and profitability.

Unauthorized disclosure of sensitive or confidential customer information, whether through a breach of our computer system or otherwise, could severely harm our business.

As part of our normal course of business, we collect, process and retain sensitive and confidential customer information. Despite the security measures that we have in place, our facilities and systems, and those of our third party service providers, may be vulnerable to security breaches, acts of vandalism, computer viruses, misplaced or lost data, programming and/or human errors, or other similar events. Any security breach involving the misappropriation, loss or other unauthorized disclosure of confidential information, whether by us or our third party service providers, could severely damage our reputation, expose us to the risks of litigation and liability, disrupt our operations and harm our business.

Because our stock price may be volatile, our stock price could experience substantial declines.

The market price of our common stock has historically experienced and may continue to experience volatility. Our quarterly operating results, changes in general conditions in the economy or the financial markets, and other developments affecting us or our competitors, could cause the market price of our common stock to fluctuate substantially. In addition, in recent years, the stock market has experienced significant price and volume fluctuations. This volatility has affected the market prices of securities issued by many companies, often for reasons unrelated to their operating performance, and may adversely affect the price of our common stock.

Anti-takeover provisions under the Indiana Business Corporation Law and our Restated Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws may render more difficult the accomplishment of mergers or the assumption of control by a principal shareholder, making more difficult the removal of our management.

Certain provisions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law (the "IBCL"), specifically the constituent interests provision in Section 23-1-35-1 of the IBCL and the control share acquisitions provisions in Sections 23-1-42-1 to 23-1-42-11 of the IBCL, and certain provisions of our Restated Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, specifically the provisions creating high vote common stock (the Class B Common Stock), the provisions regarding preferred stock, the provisions requiring a supermajority vote for certain business combinations and for certain amendments to our Restated Articles of Incorporation, the provisions requiring approval of certain transactions by the continuing directors, the provisions for a staggered board and the provisions limiting removal of directors to removal for cause, may have the effect of discouraging an unsolicited attempt by another person or entity to acquire control of the Company. These provisions may make mergers, tender offers, the removal of management, and certain other transactions more difficult or more costly and could discourage or limit shareholder participation in such types of transactions, whether or not such transactions are favored by the majority of the shareholders. The provisions also could limit the price that investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of our common stock. Further, the existence of these anti-takeover measures may cause potential bidders to look elsewhere, rather than initiating acquisition discussions with us. Any of these factors could reduce the price of our common stock.

Other factors may negatively affect our business.

The foregoing list of risk factors is not exclusive. Other factors and unanticipated events could adversely affect the Company. You should carefully consider the specific risks set forth under the caption “Risk Factors” in any of our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference into this prospectus before making an investment decision. For more information, see “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation of Information We File with the Securities and Exchange Commission” in this prospectus.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the distribution and/or resale of shares offered by this prospectus. See “Selling Shareholder” and “Plan of Distribution” in this prospectus.

SELLING SHAREHOLDER

We are registering the shares of our Class A Common Stock covered by this prospectus for distribution and/or resale by Genesco, which acquired the shares pursuant to the Settlement Agreement. Except as discussed in this prospectus under the section entitled “About this Prospectus,” Genesco has not had any position, office or other material relationship with us or our predecessors or affiliates within the past three years.

The following table sets forth information with respect to ownership of the shares by Genesco as of the date of this prospectus, the number of shares owned by Genesco that may be offered by this prospectus, and the number of shares owned by Genesco assuming the distribution and/or resale of all shares offered hereby:

Name	Shares Beneficially Owned Before Offering		Number of Shares being Offered	Shares Beneficially Owned After Offering
	Number	Percent of Class		Number	Percent of Class
Genesco Inc.	6,518,971	13.1%	6,518,971	0	0.0%

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The shares offered by this prospectus were issued to Genesco pursuant to the Settlement Agreement. In that agreement, we agreed to register the shares, and Genesco agreed after such registration to use its reasonable best efforts to distribute the shares to its own common shareholders as a dividend for no consideration. Genesco shareholders whose shares of Genesco common stock are restricted pursuant to the terms of Genesco’s stock incentive plans will be required to hold shares of our common stock received in respect of such restricted shares as a dividend subject to the restrictions set forth in the applicable restricted stock award agreements between such shareholders and Genesco and the applicable incentive plans.

No fractional shares will be distributed to the Genesco shareholders. Instead, fractional shares that shareholders otherwise would be entitled to receive will be aggregated and sold by Genesco, which will distribute the aggregate net cash proceeds of these sales ratably to such shareholders. Genesco’s sale of the fractional shares may be effected by Genesco, or by any donee, pledgee, transferee, assignee or successors-in-interest of Genesco, directly to purchasers or through one or more brokers, dealers or agents from time to time in one or more public or private transactions by any legally available means, including:

- block trades;
- on the NASDAQ Global Select Market or in the over-the-counter market;
- otherwise than on the NASDAQ Global Select Market or in the over-the-counter market;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
 - privately negotiated transactions;
 - in options transactions;
- through a combination of these methods of sale; or

- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

Any of these transactions may be effected at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market prices, at varying prices or at negotiated or fixed prices.

To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended and supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution.

Any broker-dealer participating in such transactions as agent may receive commissions from the selling shareholder and/or purchasers of the shares offered hereby (and, if it acts as agent for the purchaser of such shares, from such purchaser). Usual and customary brokerage fees will be paid by the selling shareholder. Broker-dealers who acquire shares as principal may thereafter resell such shares from time to time in transactions (which may involve cross and block transactions and which may involve sales to and through other broker-dealers, including transactions of the nature described above) in the NASDAQ Global Select Market or over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions or otherwise at market prices prevailing at the time of sale or at negotiated prices, and in connection with such resales may pay to or receive from the purchasers of such shares commissions computed as described above.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the shares will be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the shares may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

We have advised the selling shareholder that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the selling shareholder and its affiliates.

We will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling shareholder and have informed it of the potential need for delivery of copies of this prospectus to purchasers at or prior to the time of any sale of the shares offered hereby.

We have agreed with the selling shareholder to keep the registration statement of which this prospectus constitutes a part effective until such time as all of the shares covered by this prospectus have been disposed of pursuant to and in accordance with the registration statement.

The selling shareholder and any broker, dealer or agent that assists in the sale of shares may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act of 1933. Accordingly, to the extent that the selling shareholder and any such broker, dealer or agent are deemed to be underwriters, any profit on the sale of the shares by them and any discounts, concessions or commissions received by any of them may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act of 1933.

We will pay all costs, expenses and fees incident to the registration of the shares offered by this prospectus. The selling shareholder is responsible for any costs, expenses and fees related to its distribution and/or resale of the shares, including brokerage commissions and fees of brokers, dealers and agents.

LEGAL MATTERS

Our counsel Barnes & Thornburg LLP, Indianapolis, Indiana, has passed upon the validity of the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus.

EXPERTS

Ernst & Young LLP, independent registered public accounting firm, has audited our consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 1, 2008, and the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of March 1, 2008 as set forth in their reports, which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus and elsewhere in the registration statement.
