Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 1, 2010, Dynamex Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among the Company, DashNow Holding Corp., a Delaware corporation (“Parent”), and DashNow Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the “Merger”). The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”), based on the recommendation of a special committee of the Board that was formed to evaluate and negotiate the terms of the Merger.

At the effective time of the Merger, each share of Company common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than shares owned by the Company, Parent or Merger Sub, and shares owned by Company stockholders who have perfected and not withdrawn a demand for appraisal rights under Delaware law) will be automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive $21.25 in cash, without interest (the “Merger Consideration”).

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants. Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including without limitation (a) approval by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company’s common stock entitled to vote on the Merger, (b) expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and other applicable competition or similar laws and (c) the absence of any law, order or injunction prohibiting the Merger. Moreover, each party’s obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including without limitation (a) the accuracy of the other party’s representations and warranties (subject to customary materiality qualifiers), (b) the other party’s compliance with its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to customary materiality qualifiers), (c) the absence of a material adverse effect on the Company since the execution of the Merger Agreement and (d) there not being holders of more than 15% of the shares of the Company’s common stock properly exercising appraisal rights.

During the period beginning on October 1, 2010 and continuing until 12:01 p.m. on November 10, 2010 (the “No-Shop Period Start Date”), the Company may initiate, solicit and encourage any alternative takeover proposals from third parties, provide non-public information and participate in discussions and negotiate with third parties with respect to takeover proposals. Starting on the No-Shop Period Start Date, the Company will become subject to customary “no-shop” restrictions on its ability to solicit alternative takeover proposals from third parties and to provide information to and engage in discussions with third parties regarding alternative takeover proposals. The no-shop provision, however, is subject to a customary “fiduciary-out” provision which provides that, prior to the time stockholder approval is obtained, the Board may under certain circumstances provide information to, and participate in discussions with, third parties with respect to unsolicited alternative takeover proposals.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for the Company and Parent, including the right of the Company under certain circumstances to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept an alternative takeover proposal that is more favorable to the Company's stockholders from a financial point of view than the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement (a "Superior Proposal"). Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including termination of the Merger Agreement to accept a Superior Proposal, the Company is required to pay Parent a termination fee of approximately $6.3 million; provided that if the termination resulted from a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal that the Company has entered into prior to the No Shop Period Start Date, the termination fee payable by the Company is reduced to approximately $4.2 million. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances (including a termination by the Company as a result of any breach of the Merger Agreement by Parent or Merger Sub), Parent is required to pay the Company a reverse termination fee of approximately $12.6 million; provided that if the termination resulted from the debt financing under the Debt Funding Letter or any alternative debt financing not being available to Parent or Merger Sub (other than in certain circumstances), the termination fee payable by the Parent is reduced to approximately $7.9 million.

Parent and Merger Sub have obtained equity and debt financing commitments for the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the proceeds of which will be used by Parent to pay the aggregate Merger Consideration and all related fees and expenses. Funds affiliated with Greenbriar Equity Group LLC have committed to purchase common equity interests in Parent amounting to $135 million in the aggregate on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in equity commitment letters dated October 1, 2010. Certain of these funds have each provided the Company with a limited guarantee in favor of the Company dated October 1, 2010 (each, a "Limited Guarantee"), guaranteeing, subject to the terms and conditions of such Limited Guarantee, the payment of certain monetary obligations that may be owed by Parent pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

PNC Bank, National Association, and certain other financial institutions (the "Debt Commitment Parties") have committed to provide up to $100 in senior secured credit facilities (comprised of a term loan facility of $60 million and a revolving credit facility of up to $40 million), on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in a commitment letter dated October 1, 2010 (the "Debt Funding Letter"). The obligations of the Debt Commitment Parties to provide debt financing under the Debt Funding Letter are subject to a number of conditions, which we believe are customary for financings of this type or are otherwise consistent with certain conditions in the Merger Agreement. The final termination date for the Debt Funding Letter is April 1, 2011.

The representations, warranties and covenants made in the Merger Agreement (a) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement, (b) have been qualified by confidential disclosures made to Parent and Merger Sub in connection with the Merger Agreement, (c) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors, (d) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement and (e) have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the contracting parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Company or its business. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other documents that the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.
