PRELIMINARY PROSPECTUS

Daktronics, Inc.

238,946 Shares of Common Stock

Acquired Under the Daktronics, Inc.

401(k) Plan

Rescission Offer

Under the terms and conditions described in this prospectus, we are offering to rescind (the “Rescission Offer”) the previous purchase of shares of Daktronics, Inc. common stock, no par value, by persons who acquired an interest in such shares as part of the units (the “Units”) issued through the Daktronics, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the “Plan”) from December 1, 2016 through November 30, 2017 (the “Purchase Period”). A Plan participant’s investment in our common stock is made through the purchase of Units in the Daktronics Stock Fund. Each Unit represents an interest in shares of our common stock plus a varying amount of short-term liquid investments.

The Rescission Offer applies to shares of our common stock included in Units purchased during the Purchase Period pursuant to the Plan at prices ranging from $6.45 per Unit to $7.87 per Unit.

If you purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period and accept the Rescission Offer, you will receive:

For such Units you have sold at a loss, an amount equal to the excess of the amount that you paid for the Units over the proceeds from your sale of the Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest on the amount you paid for the Units from (but excluding) the date of purchase through the date of sale and on the loss realized from the sale of the Units from (but excluding) the date of sale through the date that payment is made by us.

For such Units you now hold, upon your tender of such Units to us by accepting the Rescission Offer, the aggregate amount that you paid for the Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest from (but excluding) the date of the purchase through the date that payment is made by us. However, we will not repurchase Units if the aggregate amount that you paid for the Units, less any such dividends, plus interest, would be less than the value of the Units on the Expiration Date (defined below).

If you purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period and have rolled over or taken a distribution (or will roll over or take a distribution) from the Plan in the form of shares of our common stock at any time during or after the Purchase Period but before the Expiration Date and you accept the Rescission Offer, you will receive:

For such shares you have sold at a loss, an amount equal to the difference between the value of the shares included in the Units at the time such Units were acquired during the Purchase Period (the “original share value”) and the sales price of those shares (as set forth on a broker’s confirmation, monthly statement or other form of proof of loss acceptable to us), less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest on the amount of the original share value from (but excluding) the date of purchase of the Units through the date of sale and on the loss realized from the sale of the shares from (but excluding) the date of sale through the date that payment is made by us.

For such shares you now hold, upon your tender of such shares to us by accepting the Rescission Offer, an amount equal to the original share value of the shares, less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest from (but excluding) the date of purchase of the Units through the date that payment is made by us. However, we will not repurchase such shares if their original share value, less any such dividends, plus interest, would be less than the fair market value of such shares on the Expiration Date.

If you rolled over or took a distribution from the Plan in the form of shares of our common stock during the Purchase Period with respect to Units acquired before the Purchase Period and you accept the Rescission Offer, you will receive:

- For such shares you have sold at a loss, an amount equal to the difference between the purchase price of those shares on the date of the rollover or distribution (the “original purchase price”) and the sales price of those shares (as set forth on a broker’s confirmation, monthly statement or other form of proof of loss acceptable to us), less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest on the amount of the original purchase price from (but excluding) the date the shares were rolled over or distributed to you through the date of sale and on the loss realized from the sale of the shares from (but excluding) the date of sale through the date that payment is made by us.

For such shares you now hold, upon your tender of such shares to us by accepting the Rescission Offer, an amount equal to the original purchase price of those shares, less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest from (but excluding) the date the shares were rolled over or distributed to you through the date that payment is made by us. However, we will not repurchase such shares if the original purchase price paid, less any such dividends, plus interest, would be less than the fair market value of such shares on the Expiration Date.

The Rescission Offer will expire at 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018 (the “Expiration Date”). Please contact Daktronics Benefits with any questions regarding the Rescission Offer by calling 1-605-692-0200, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Central Time, or by emailing Benefits@Daktronics.com.

Our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol “DAKT.” The last reported sale price of our common stock (as reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market) on December 15, 2017 was $9.31 per share. The value of a Unit on that date was $6.69. You should obtain trading prices for our common stock before deciding whether or not to accept the Rescission Offer.

Our principal executive offices are located at 201 Daktronics Drive, Brookings, South Dakota 57006. Our telephone number is (605) 692-0200.

You may elect to accept the Rescission Offer by submitting a Rescission Offer Acceptance Form to Daktronics Benefits on or before the Expiration Date as set forth in this prospectus and in accordance with the instructions set forth in the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form. You do not need to take any action to reject the Rescission Offer. If you fail to return a legible, properly completed and signed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form by the deadline on the Expiration Date, you will be deemed by us to have rejected the Rescission Offer. Acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer may prevent you from maintaining any action against us based on a claim that we failed to register shares of our common stock included in the Units purchased pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period. In any event, any such claim may be barred by applicable statutes of limitations. See “Risk Factors - Your right of rescission, if any, under federal and state law may not survive if you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer.”

Investing in Units, and in the shares of our common stock included therein, involves risks. See “Risk Factors” beginning on page 14 of this prospectus.

The shares of our common stock included in the Units and subject to the Rescission Offer may not have been properly registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), with the Securities and Exchange Commission for offer and sale to participants under the Plan because we discovered that we inadvertently sold shares of our common stock to participants under the Plan in excess of the number of shares of our common stock registered under the Securities Act for offer and sale to participants under the Plan. The sale of these shares have now been registered by means of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. Accordingly, whether or not you accept this Rescission Offer, sales of shares of our common stock subject to this Rescission Offer are now properly registered under the Securities Act effective as of the date of this prospectus. We have not retained an underwriter in connection with this Rescission Offer.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus is December ____, 2017

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE RESCISSION OFFER

The following questions and answers are intended to briefly address some commonly asked questions regarding our offer to rescind (the “Rescission Offer”) the previous purchase of our shares of common stock, no par value, included in the Units (the “Units”) purchased through the Daktronics, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the “Plan”) from December 1, 2016 through November 30, 2017 (the “Purchase Period”). These questions and answers do not address all questions that may be important to you as a participant in the Plan who acquired Units during the Purchase Period. Please refer to the section under the heading “The Rescission Offer” beginning on page 17 and the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus, which you should read carefully.

Q: Why are you making the Rescission Offer?

Plan participants can purchase Units, which include indirect interests in Daktronics common stock, through the Plan. Units can be purchased by participants through, for example, participant salary deferrals, rollover contributions, loan repayments, transfers between intraplan investments and Company matching contributions. The trustee of the Plan, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Wells Fargo”), holds the Plan’s shares of Daktronics common stock in the Daktronics Stock Fund, and Plan participants who invest in Units have an indirect interest in those shares through their Unit investment. Although the shares of common stock included in the Units sold to the Plan

A: participants are purchased in the open market and are held by Wells Fargo as the Plan’s trustee on behalf of the Plan participants, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) takes the position that the participants’ investments in Units are investments in the shares of Daktronics common stock and that we are required to register the deemed sale of these shares to participants in the Plan with the SEC. During the second quarter of fiscal 2018, we discovered that we inadvertently sold shares of our common stock to participants under the Plan in excess of the number of shares of our common stock registered with the SEC on our Form S-8 registration statement for sale to participants under the Plan.

On December 1, 2017, we filed a registration statement on Form S-8 registering the potential sale of an additional 6,000,000 shares of our common stock included in our Units sold through the Plan. In addition, we are making the Rescission Offer with respect to 238,946 unregistered shares of our common stock included in Units sold pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period. We are making the Rescission Offer to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and to limit any contingent liability we may have as a result of possible noncompliance with applicable federal registration requirements in connection with the purchase of Units by participants in the Plan. Generally, the statute of limitations period applicable to potential claims for rescission under the Securities Act is one year, but in no event later than three years after the security was bona fide offered to the public. Accordingly, in determining the beginning and end of the Purchase Period, we selected a date after which no unregistered sales of Units were made under the Plan as the ending date of the Purchase Period, and a date that is 12 months earlier as the beginning date of the Purchase Period.

Only current or former Plan participants who acquired Units under the Plan during the Purchase Period are eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer. Non-employee members of our Board of Directors are not eligible to participate in the Plan and therefore are not eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer. Our current executive officers who purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period have informed us that they do not intend to participate in the Rescission Offer.

Q: When does the Rescission Offer expire?

A: The Rescission Offer expires at 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018 (the “Expiration Date”).

Q: What will I receive if I accept the Rescission Offer?

A: The answer to this question depends on whether you still hold the Units that you purchased pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period as of the Expiration Date:

If you have sold such Units in the Plan at a loss, we will pay you an amount equal to the excess of the amount you paid for such Units over the proceeds from the sale of the Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest at the rate of 1.0% per year. Interest will be paid on the amount you originally paid for the Units during the period from the date of your purchase of the Units through the date of your sale of the Units and on the loss you realized from your sale of the Units from (but excluding) the date of your sale through the date that payment is made by us.

If you now hold Units in the Plan, we will repurchase such Units for the aggregate amount that you paid for such Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest at the rate of 1.0% per year. However, we will not purchase your Units if the aggregate amount you paid for the Units, less earnings from any dividends, plus interest, is less than the value of the Units as of the Expiration Date because purchasing such Units would not be economically beneficial to you in that case.

Q: What if I rolled over or took a distribution of shares of Daktronics common stock from the Plan?

A: If you purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period and have rolled over or taken a distribution (or will roll over or take a distribution) from the Plan in the form of shares of our common stock at any time during or after the Purchase Period but before the Expiration Date and you accept the Rescission Offer, the answer to this question depends on whether you still hold such shares of Daktronics common stock as of the Expiration Date:

If you have sold such shares at a loss, we will pay you an amount equal to the difference between the original share value and the sales price of those shares (as set forth on a broker’s confirmation, monthly statement or other form of proof of loss acceptable to us), less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest at the rate of 1.0% per year. Interest will be paid on the amount of the original share value from (but excluding) the date of purchase of the Units through the date of sale and on the loss realized from the sale of the shares from (but excluding) the date of sale through the date that payment is made by us.

If you now hold such shares, we will repurchase those shares for an amount equal to the original share value of such shares, less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest at the rate of 1.0% per year. Interest will be paid from (but excluding) the date of purchase of the Units through the date that payment is made by us. However, we will not repurchase such shares if their original share value, less any such dividends, plus interest, would be less than the fair market value of such shares on the Expiration Date because purchasing such shares would not be economically beneficial to you. The repurchase will be made only upon our receipt of either the electronic transfer of your shares or your original stock certificate. If such certificate has been mutilated, lost, destroyed or stolen, you should promptly notify Wells Fargo Shareholder Services, which is the Company's transfer agent, at 1-800-468-9716, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m., Central Time. You will then be directed as to the steps that must be taken in order to replace the certificate.

If you rolled over or took a distribution from the Plan in the form of shares of our common stock during the Purchase Period with respect to Units acquired before the Purchase Period and you accept the Rescission Offer, again the answer to this question depends on whether you still hold such shares of Daktronics common stock as of the Expiration Date:

If you have sold such shares at a loss, we will pay you an amount equal to the difference between the original purchase price and the sales price of those shares (as set forth on a broker's confirmation, monthly statement or other form of proof of loss acceptable to us), less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest at the rate of 1.0% per year. Interest will be paid from (but excluding) the date the shares were rolled over or distributed to you through the date of sale and on the loss realized from the sale of the shares from (but excluding) the date of sale through the date that payment is made by us. Any such payments will be made only after you have delivered proof of the sale of your shares at a loss.

If you still hold such shares, we will repurchase those shares at their original purchase price on the date of the rollover or distribution, less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest at the rate of 1.0% per year. Interest will be paid on the original purchase price for your shares from (but excluding) the date the shares were rolled over or distributed to you through the date that payment is made by us. However, we will not repurchase your shares if the price you paid for the shares, less any such dividends, plus interest, would be less than the fair market value of our common stock on the Expiration Date. The repurchase will be made only upon our receipt of either electronic transfer of your shares or of your original stock certificate. If such certificate has been mutilated, lost, destroyed or stolen, you should promptly notify Wells Fargo Shareholder Services, which is the Company's transfer agent, at 1-800-468-9716, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m., Central Time. You will then be directed as to the steps that must be taken in order to replace the certificate.

Q: When and how will I receive payment if I properly accept the Rescission Offer?

A: If Daktronics receives a legible, properly completed and signed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form and any other required documents from you on or before 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on the Expiration Date, and Daktronics determines that you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer, Daktronics expects that you will receive payment on or before March 2, 2018.

If you still have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Daktronics, all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in accordance with your current deferral investment election as an earnings election. You may exchange the proceeds invested in accordance with your deferral investment election into other investment funds available under the Plan in accordance with the Plan's normal procedures.

If you do not have current investment elections on file, all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo Target CIT Fund that corresponds to your date of birth as indicated by the chart set forth in attached Appendix C (the “Wells Fargo CIT Fund”).

If you do not have a Plan account, a Plan account will be established for you, and all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo Target CIT Fund. Distributions will be managed in accordance with the terms of the Plan. To make a distribution election, contact Daktronics Benefits at 1-605-692-0200 or at Benefits@Daktronics.com.

Daktronics strongly encourages you to review the Summary Plan Description for the Plan, which contains additional information on elections and the distribution of account balances. To obtain a copy of the Summary Plan Description for the Plan, contact Daktronics Benefits at 1-605-692-0200 or at Benefits@Daktronics.com. No payments in connection with the Rescission Offer will be made to you directly, but will instead be made to your account under the Plan. The payment of proceeds directly to you may result in adverse tax consequences. See “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences.” If you have questions about the Rescission Offer, you may contact Daktronics Benefits by calling 1-605-692-0200 or by emailing Benefits@Daktronics.com.

Q: What interest rate will be used in calculating any amounts owed to me?

A: We will use an annual interest rate of 1.0%, which is calculated on the basis of the average daily six-month and 12-month Treasury yields in effect at any time during the Purchase Period.

Q: What effect do dividends paid on Daktronics common stock during the Purchase Period have on the value of my Units?

A: Cash dividends paid by us with respect to shares of our common stock included in the Units purchased through the Plan during the Purchase Period are credited to the Daktronics Stock Fund and result in an equivalent increase in the value to the holders of Units.

During the Purchase Period, we paid a cash dividend of $0.28 per share to holders of record of our common stock. In addition, on November 30, 2017, our Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $0.07 per share payable on December 21, 2017 to holders of record on December 11, 2017. The amount and timing of future dividends are determined by our Board of Directors in its sole discretion.

Q: Does it matter whether I purchased the Units pursuant to the Plan through salary deferrals, rollover contributions, loan repayments, company contributions or transfers between investment funds?

A: No. All purchases of Units made pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period will be included when determining whether you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer.

Q: Am I required to accept the Rescission Offer?

A: No. You are not required to accept the Rescission Offer. Your decision to accept or reject the Rescission Offer is completely voluntary and should be based on your assessment as to whether or not doing so would be economically beneficial to you. If you are an employee of Daktronics, your acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer will not have any bearing or effect on your employment status.

Q: Should I accept the Rescission Offer?

A: You must make your own decision whether to accept the Rescission Offer. In general, it may be economically beneficial to you to accept the Rescission Offer if:

• you sold Units that you purchased during the Purchase Period for a price that was less than what you paid for them; or

• you now hold Units that you purchased during the Purchase Period that on the Expiration Date are worth less than the Rescission Offer price for such Units (that is, the price that you paid for the Units, less any dividends, plus interest).

However, in making your decision whether to accept the Rescission Offer, you should consider all relevant factors in light of your particular circumstances, including the potential tax consequences of accepting the Rescission Offer (see “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” below) and, if you now hold Units that you purchased pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period, the possibility that the value of such Units may increase or decrease after the Expiration Date. See “Risk Factors.”

However, you should note that under the terms of the Rescission Offer, we will not repurchase or make payments relating to any Units unless our records indicate that (1) you sold Units that you purchased during the Purchase Period for a price that was less than what you paid for them and/or (2) you now hold Units that you purchased during the Purchase Period and that on the Expiration Date are worth less than the Rescission Offer price for the Units (that is, the price that you paid for the Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest). If you are unsure whether you sold Units at a loss or are unsure whether Units you continue to hold are likely to have a value on the Expiration Date that is less than the Rescission Offer price, you may accept the Rescission Offer by signing and returning the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form that accompanies this prospectus, and we will determine whether the criteria described above for repurchasing or making payment for your Units are satisfied. Unless these criteria are satisfied, we will not repurchase or make payment for your Units pursuant to the Rescission Offer. The Rescission Offer price is explained in more detail in the answer to the third question above, “What will I receive if I accept the Rescission Offer?”

In applying these criteria, we will use a “first-in, first-out,” or “FIFO,” principle in determining whether Units were sold at a loss and whether you now hold Units eligible for repurchase pursuant to the Rescission Offer. An example calculation using the FIFO principle is included with the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form that accompanies this prospectus.

WE URGE YOU TO REVIEW THIS PROSPECTUS CAREFULLY BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER OR NOT TO ACCEPT THE RESCISSION OFFER.

If you have questions about the Rescission Offer acceptance process, you can contact Daktronics Benefits by calling 1-605-692-0200, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Central Time, or by emailing Benefits@Daktronics.com.

Q: Will there be any restrictions on the future transfer of shares included in my Units if I do not accept the Rescission Offer?

The sale of the shares of common stock included in Units that are the subject of this Rescission Offer have now been registered under the Securities Act by virtue of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

A: We believe that these shares may be sold by Plan participants in the ordinary course, subject to restrictions on trading that may be applicable from time to time (for example, Daktronics' customary "blackout" periods for persons identified as "insiders" of Daktronics).

All other applicable general restrictions on the future sale of Daktronics common stock under the Plan may still apply. See "Will the Rescission Offer affect my ability to direct transactions in my Plan account?" in this section, "Notice of Blackout Period" and "The Rescission Offer - The Plan" for more information. Note that the Plan may be amended at any time, and any investment option offered under the Plan, including but not limited to Daktronics common stock, may be closed to new investments and/or eliminated as an available investment option.

Q: Where can I find information about my purchases and sales of Units?

Detailed information about your purchases of Units during the Purchase Period and any subsequent sales of such Units is available to you through your online account at www.wellsfargo.com. You can access your online account through www.wellsfargo.com using your username and password and view your Daktronics common stock "Transaction History" using December 1, 2016 to November 30, 2017 to identify your transactions. If you need further assistance with accessing your account, or if you do not have access to your online account, you may call Wells Fargo at 1-800-728-3123.

If your transaction history indicates that you sold Units at a loss, acceptance of the Rescission Offer may be economically beneficial to you. The historical transaction information available to you through your online account can also assist you in determining whether you should accept the Rescission Offer if you now hold Units that you bought during the Purchase Period. If you believe the value of your Units on the Expiration Date (taking into account the current market value of Daktronics common stock) will be less than the aggregate amount that you paid for the Units during the Purchase Period, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest, acceptance of the Rescission Offer may be economically beneficial to you. The value of a Unit in the Daktronics Stock Fund as of December 15, 2017 was $6.69. To obtain the current value of a Unit during the period that the Rescission Offer is open and before the Expiration Date, you can access your online account by following the procedures described above.

Q: Will the Rescission Offer affect my ability to direct transactions in my Plan account?

Yes. In order to ensure smooth processing of the Rescission Offer, all transactions related to the Daktronics Stock Fund in your Plan account will be temporarily suspended for a period of time beginning shortly before the expiration of the Rescission Offer, whether or not you accept the Rescission Offer and whether or not we make a payment to you in the Rescission Offer. During this time, if you have elected to accept the Rescission Offer, we will determine whether you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer and, if so, we will credit your Plan account with any amounts due under the Rescission Offer. This temporary suspension is called a "blackout period." As a result, you will be subject to the risk that, due to events in the securities markets, the value of your Plan account could significantly decline during this period, and you would not be able to transfer funds out of the Daktronics Stock Fund to avoid this result.

The blackout period will begin at 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018 and, if you accept the Rescission Offer, will end on the date that the proceeds from the Rescission Offer are credited to your Plan account, which we expect to occur on or before March 2, 2018. You will be notified if the blackout period is extended past such date. If you do not accept the Rescission Offer, the blackout period is expected to end on or before February 23, 2018. The blackout period will be shorter if you do not accept the Rescission Offer or if you are not eligible to accept the Rescission Offer because we will not need to process any transactions in your Plan account. For more information about the blackout period, see "Notice of Blackout Period."

Q: What is the effect of the Rescission Offer on my ability to assert claims?

A: The rights remaining to the recipients of a rescission offer are not clearly delineated under applicable federal or state securities laws. The staff of the SEC takes the position that a person's federal right of rescission may survive a rescission offer.

For a more detailed description of the effect of the Rescission Offer on any applicable federal securities law claims, see "Risk Factors - The Rescission Offer may not bar claims relating to our possible non compliance with securities laws, and we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages in an indeterminate amount" and "Risk Factors - Your right of rescission, if any, under federal and state law may not survive if you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer."

Q: May I accept the Rescission Offer in part?

A: No. If you accept the Rescission Offer, then you must accept it for all Units that were purchased during the Purchase Period that you still hold, as well as all Units that you purchased during the Purchase Period that were sold at a loss. However, if you accept the Rescission Offer, we will repurchase only those Units that you purchased during the Purchase Period and you still hold if they have an aggregate value, as of the Expiration Date, that is less than the aggregate amount that you paid for the Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest.

If you do not accept the Rescission Offer in full, you will be deemed to have rejected the Rescission Offer, and you will retain ownership of all of your Units you still hold through the Plan and will not receive any payment for the Units subject to the Rescission Offer.

Q: What happens if I accept the Rescission Offer for Units purchased during the Purchase Period that I now hold in my Plan account but the amount I would receive for the Units is less than the value of the Units on the Expiration Date?

A: If you submit a Rescission Offer Acceptance Form to Daktronics and currently own Units purchased during the Purchase Period, we will not repurchase those Units if the aggregate amount you paid for the Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest, is less than the value of the Units as of the Expiration Date because it would not be economically beneficial to you.

Accordingly, you will continue to hold those Units in your Plan account and, except as set forth in this prospectus, the Rescission Offer will not affect your ability to sell such Units.

Q: What do I need to do now to accept the Rescission Offer?

If you want to accept the Rescission Offer, you must complete, sign and date the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form which accompanies this prospectus (and a template of which is also included as Appendix A) and return it A: and any other required documents to us by mail or fax as described below so they are received by us on or before 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018, which is the Expiration Date. Q: What do I need to do now to reject the Rescission Offer?

A: You do not need to take any action to reject the Rescission Offer.

If you have already accepted the Rescission Offer by returning a Rescission Offer Acceptance Form and now want to reject the Rescission Offer, see below, "- Can I change my election after I have submitted my signed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form?"

A: If you do not return a legible, signed and properly signed and completed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form and any other required documents to us on or before 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018, which is the Expiration Date, you will be deemed to have rejected the Rescission Offer.

If you reject the Rescission Offer, you will not receive any payment with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units subject to the Rescission Offer, and the Units you hold in your Plan account will remain in your account. In addition, the sale to you of the shares included in the Units that you now own and that are subject to the Rescission Offer, for purposes of applicable federal securities law, was registered as of the date of this prospectus.

Q: Can I change my election after I have submitted my signed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form?

A: Yes. You can change your decision about accepting the Rescission Offer at any time before 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018, which is the Expiration Date.

Q: Does the Rescission Offer affect any loan repayments I am currently making to the Plan?

A: If you have an outstanding loan from the Plan, the amount that you are required to repay and the repayment schedule will not change as a result of your acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer.

Q: Does the Rescission Offer affect any new loan or distribution request I might make?

Yes. Any, requests for a new loan or a distribution, including a hardship withdrawal, that is made during the A: blackout period which will be derived in whole or in part out of the Daktronics Stock Fund will not be processed and must be resubmitted after the blackout period ends. See "Notice of Blackout Period."

Q: Does the Rescission Offer affect my ability to invest in Daktronics common stock through the Plan in the future?

A: No. The Rescission Offer will not affect your ability to invest in Daktronics common stock through the Plan in the future.

Other than prohibiting transfers out of the Daktronics Stock Fund and not processing requests for a loan,

Q: withdrawal, distribution, including a hardship withdrawal, are there any other new restrictions on my right to exercise control over my Plan account during the blackout period?

A: No.

Q: How will the Rescission Offer be funded?

The Rescission Offer will be funded from Daktronics, Inc.'s existing cash balance. Even if all persons eligible to A: participate in the Rescission Offer accept our offer to the full extent, we do not expect that this Rescission Offer would have a material impact on our results of operations, financial condition or liquidity.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

If you have questions about the Rescission Offer, you may contact Daktronics Benefits by calling 1-605-692-0200, A: Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Central Time, or by emailing Benefitis@Daktronics.com.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock through the Units involves risks. In deciding whether to accept or reject the Rescission Offer, you should consider all of the information we have included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. In particular, you should carefully consider the following risk factors relating to the Rescission Offer in addition to the risks identified in “Forward-Looking Statements” above and the risks identified in the sections of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 29, 2017 entitled “Item 1A. Risk Factors” and “Item 7. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and those factors discussed in detail in our other filings with the SEC. Please see “Where You Can Find More Information.”

The Rescission Offer may not bar claims relating to our possible non compliance with securities laws, and we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages in an indeterminate amount.

It is not certain that the Rescission Offer will have the effect of barring claims relating to our possible non compliance with applicable federal securities laws. If a person accepts the Rescission Offer, we believe our potential liability to that person will be eliminated. If a person rejects or fails to respond to the Rescission Offer, we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages, which could result in an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition. In addition, the Rescission Offer will not prevent regulators from pursuing enforcement actions or imposing penalties and fines against us with respect to any potential violations of securities laws. In any event, we do not expect the Rescission Offer to have a material impact on our results of operations, financial condition or liquidity. Your right of rescission, if any, under federal and state law may not survive if you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer.

The rights remaining to the recipients of a rescission offer are not clearly delineated under applicable federal or state securities laws. If you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer, it is unclear whether your federal right of rescission, if any, will be preserved. The staff of the SEC takes the position that a person’s federal right of rescission may survive a rescission offer. However, the few federal courts that have addressed this issue in the past have suggested that, at least in certain circumstances, a person who rejects or fails to accept a rescission offer may be precluded from later seeking similar relief.

The Rescission Offer may also affect your right of rescission and your right to damages, if any, under state law. We believe that the sale of the shares of our common stock included in the Units that are the subject of the Rescission Offer was exempt from registration under state laws. Furthermore, we believe that the Rescission Offer is exempt from registration under the laws of such states and thus need not comply with the laws of such states regulating such offers. However, we do not make any representation as to the compliance of this Rescission Offer with applicable state law. Under most state laws, acceptance or rejection of rescission offers may preclude offerees from initiating an action against the rescission offeror in connection with the registration of securities that are the subject of the rescission offer. We may assert, among other defenses, in any litigation initiated by a person eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer who accepts or rejects (or is deemed to reject) the Rescission Offer that such person is legally barred from asserting such claims as a result of the Rescission Offer.

Generally, the statute of limitations for enforcement of federal statutory rights by a security holder is one year commencing on the date of the sale of the security sold in violation of the federal registration requirements, but in no event later than three years after the security was bona fide offered to the public. Statutes of limitations under state laws vary by state, with the limitation time period under many state statutes not typically beginning until the facts giving rise to a violation are known. Our Rescission Offer is not an admission that we did not comply with any federal and state registration or disclosure requirements nor is it a waiver by us of any applicable statute of limitations or any potential defense we may have. Determining when a statute of limitations expires under federal or state law can be a difficult issue, and you should consult with an attorney if you have any questions regarding how federal or state statutes of limitations may apply to any claims you have.

You will not be permitted to conduct any transactions in the Daktronics Stock Fund within your Plan account for a period of time following the Expiration Date.

Because you will not be permitted to conduct any transactions in the Daktronics Stock Fund during the blackout period commencing at 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018, you will be subject to the risk that due to events in the securities markets, the value of your Plan account could significantly decline during this period and you would not be able to make transfers out of the Daktronics Stock Fund to avoid or mitigate this result. In addition, any proceeds that you receive for the sale of Units in the Rescission Offer will not be deposited into your Plan account until after the Expiration Date. If you still have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Daktronics, these proceeds will be allocated to your Plan account and invested in accordance with your current deferral investment election as an earnings election. If you do not have current investment elections on file, these funds will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo Target CIT Fund. If you do not have a Plan account, a Plan account will be established for you, and all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo Target CIT Fund. Distributions will be managed in accordance with the terms of the Plan. In all cases, you will be subject to the risk that the purchase price of the applicable investment could increase in value before the reinvestment of proceeds in your Plan account, resulting in a higher unit cost for such investment. See “Notice of Blackout Period” below for additional information. We cannot predict whether the amounts you would receive in the Rescission Offer for Units that you still own would be greater than the value of the Units.

Our common stock is traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol “DAKT.” The amount you would receive in the Rescission Offer is fixed and is not tied to the market value of our common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market at the time the Rescission Offer closes on 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018, which is the Expiration Date. However, eligibility for Units tendered in the Rescission Offer is tied to the market value of our common stock on the Expiration Date, and we will not accept your Rescission Offer Acceptance Form for Units you currently own if the original aggregate purchase price of such Units at the time of your acquisition under the Plan, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest, is less than the value of the Units as of the Expiration Date because it would not be economically beneficial to you.

Even if accepting the Rescission Offer would be economically beneficial to you at the time of the Expiration Date (and therefore you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer), we cannot anticipate subsequent market developments, whether at the time or after payment is made, and we cannot predict whether accepting the Rescission Offer would continue to be economically beneficial to you after the Expiration Date.

You need to consider certain U.S. Federal Income Tax consequences.

See “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations.”

THE RESCISSION OFFER

The Plan

The Plan is a qualified defined contribution plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). The purpose of the Plan is to provide a voluntary, systematic method for participants to save a specified percentage of the participants’ compensation for retirement and to defer federal income tax and, where allowed, state, city and county income tax, on such compensation. Daktronics, Inc. is the Plan administrator and named fiduciary of the Plan with authority to direct the Plan’s trustee. Wells Fargo is the trustee of the Plan.

One of the investment choices in the Plan is the Daktronics Stock Fund through which Plan participants can invest amounts deposited in their Plan accounts in Daktronics common stock. A participant’s investment in the Daktronics Stock Fund is measured in Units. Each Unit represents an interest in shares of our common stock plus a varying amount of short-term liquid investments. To effectuate purchases and sales of Units, Wells Fargo, as the trustee of the Plan, purchases and sells shares of our common stock on the open market at market prices.

Background and Reasons for the Rescission Offer

We are required to register the sale of shares of Daktronics common stock to participants in the Plan through the Plan with the SEC. During the second quarter of fiscal 2018, we discovered that we inadvertently exceeded the number of shares of our common stock registered with the SEC for offer and sale to participants in the Plan. On December 1, 2017, we filed a registration statement on Form S-8 covering the sale of 6,000,000 shares of our common stock included in Units sold through the Plan. Our inadvertent sale of shares of our common stock to participants under the Plan in excess of the number of shares of our common stock registered with the SEC for sale to participants under the Plan may have constituted violations of Section 5 of the Securities Act (which generally requires registration of offers and sales of securities) and may give rise to liability under Section 12 of the Securities Act (which generally provides a rescission remedy for offers and sales of securities in violation of Section 5).

We are making this Rescission Offer with respect to 238,946 unregistered shares of common stock included in the Units sold pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period. We are making the Rescission Offer to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and to limit any contingent liability we may have as a result of possible noncompliance with applicable federal registration requirements in connection with the purchase of such shares by participants in the Plan. In determining the beginning and end of the Purchase Period, we selected a date after which no unregistered sales of Units were made under the Plan as the ending date of the Purchase Period, and a date that is 12 months earlier as the beginning date of the Purchase Period. Only Plan participants who acquired Units under the Plan during the Purchase Period are eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer.

Non-employee members of our Board of Directors are not eligible to participate in the Plan and therefore are not eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer. Our current executive officers who purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period have informed us that they do not intend to participate in the Rescission Offer.

Effect of the Rescission Offer

If you reject, or fail to timely accept in full, the Rescission Offer in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this prospectus and the instructions set forth in the Rescission Offer Acceptance

Form by 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018, which is the Expiration Date, or if you accept the Rescission Offer but we determine that you are not eligible to accept the Rescission Offer under the terms set forth in this prospectus, you will be deemed to have rejected the Rescission Offer, and you will retain ownership of the Units that you own and will not receive any payment for the Units subject to the Rescission Offer. In addition, the sale of the shares of common stock included in the Units that you now own that are subject to the Rescission Offer, for purposes of applicable federal securities law, was registered as of the date of this prospectus.

Generally, the statute of limitations under the Securities Act for enforcement of your federal statutory rescission rights in connection with our failure to register the Daktronics common stock included in the Units is one year commencing on the date the common stock was allocated to your Plan account, but in no event later than three years after the security was bona fide offered to the public. Statutes of limitations under state laws vary by state, with the limitation period under many state statutes not typically beginning until the facts giving rise to the violation are known.

Determining when a statute of limitations expires under federal or state law can be a difficult issue, and you should consult with an attorney if you have any questions regarding how federal or state statutes of limitations may apply to any claims you may have or regarding any of your legal rights and remedies before deciding whether to accept or reject the Rescission Offer.

Your acceptance of the Rescission Offer may preclude you from later seeking similar relief, if any is available. We may assert, among other defenses, in any litigation initiated by a person eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer who accepts or rejects (or is deemed to reject) the Rescission Offer that such person is legally barred from asserting such claims as a result of the Rescission Offer. For federal securities law purposes, rejection of or the failure to accept a rescission offer may not terminate an offeree's right to bring a civil action against the offeror for failure to register securities under the Securities Act before expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. The staff of the SEC takes the position that a person's federal right of rescission may survive a rescission offer. However, the few federal courts that have addressed this issue in the past have suggested that, at least in certain circumstances, a person who rejects or fails to accept a rescission offer may be precluded from later seeking similar relief. Each person is urged to consider this possibility with respect to our Rescission Offer. Our Rescission Offer is not an admission that we did not comply with applicable federal or state requirements, nor is it a waiver by us of any applicable statute of limitations or any potential defense we may have.

The above discussion relates primarily to your potential rescission rights and does not address the antifraud provisions of federal securities laws or rights under state securities laws, common law or equity. We believe that the sale and issuance of the shares of our common stock included in the Units that are the subject of the Rescission Offer were exempt from registration under state laws. Furthermore, we believe that this Rescission Offer is exempt from registration under state laws and thus need not comply with state laws regulating such offers. However, we do not make any representation as to the compliance of this Rescission Offer with any applicable state law. Under most state laws, acceptance or rejection of rescission offers may preclude offerees from initiating an action against the rescission offeror in connection with the registration of securities that are the subject of the rescission offer.

The sale of the shares of common stock included in the Units that are the subject of this Rescission Offer have now been registered under the Securities Act by virtue of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. We believe that these shares may be sold by Plan participants in the ordinary course, subject to restrictions on trading that may be applicable from time to time (for example, Daktronics' customary "blackout" periods for persons identified as "insiders" of Daktronics).

Terms of the Rescission Offer

If you purchased Units through the Plan during the Purchase Period and have already sold such Units at a loss, you may accept the Rescission Offer with respect to such Units, in which case you will receive an amount equal to the excess of the amount that you paid for the Units less the proceeds of the sale of the Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest at the rate of 1.0% per year. Interest will be paid on the amount that you originally paid for the Units from the date you purchased the Units until the date you sold the Units. Interest will also be paid on the loss that you realized from your sale of the Units from (but excluding) the date of such sale through the date that payment is made by us.

If you currently hold Units purchased through the Plan during the Purchase Period, you may accept the Rescission Offer with respect to such Units, in which case your Plan account will be credited with any excess of the aggregate amount you paid for the Units over the aggregate value of the Units as of the Expiration Date, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest at the rate of 1.0% per year for the period from the date you purchased the Units to the date payment is made by us. If you accept the Rescission Offer, we will repurchase only those Units that you purchased during the Purchase Period and you still hold if they have an aggregate value, as of the Expiration Date, that is less than the aggregate amount you paid for the Units, less any dividends paid by us with respect to the shares of our common stock included in the Units, plus interest.

Units are deemed sold in the order in which you purchased them pursuant to the Plan. In order to determine which Units purchased pursuant to the Plan are eligible for repurchase and which, if any, of such Units were sold at a loss, all Units acquired on your behalf pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period will be matched against all sales of Units during or after the Purchase Period by matching the first Unit acquired with the first Unit sold. This principle, commonly called “first-in, first-out,” or “FIFO,” will be used in determining which Units you sold at a loss and which Units you now hold are eligible for repurchase and should be used by you to help determine whether or not you wish to accept the Rescission Offer. An example of the application of the FIFO principle is included in the instructions set forth in the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form that accompanies this prospectus.

We will use an annual interest rate of 1.0%, which is calculated on the basis of the average daily six-month and 12-month Treasury yields in effect at any time during the Purchase Period.

During the Purchase Period, we paid a cash dividend of $0.28 per share to holders of record of our common stock. In addition, on November 30, 2017, our Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $0.07 per share payable on December 21, 2017 to holders of record on December 11, 2017. The amount and timing of future dividends are determined by our Board of Directors in its sole discretion. Cash dividends paid by us with respect to our shares of common stock included in the Units purchased through the Plan during the Purchase Period are credited to the Daktronics Stock Fund and result in an equivalent increase in the value of the Unit.

The Rescission Offer will expire at 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018, which is the Expiration Date. If we receive a legible and properly signed and completed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form from you on or before the deadline specified in the preceding sentence, we determine that you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer, and we have not received from you a completed Rescission Offer Withdrawal Form, we expect that any proceeds to which you are entitled will be credited to your Plan account, or a Plan account established for you, on or before March 2, 2018.

If you still have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Daktronics, all proceeds resulting from your acceptance of the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in accordance with your current deferral investment election as an earnings election. If you do not have current investment elections on file, all proceeds resulting from acceptance of the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo CIT Fund. If you do not have a Plan account, a Plan account will be established for you, and all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo Target CIT Fund. Distributions will be managed in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Plan's distribution rules vary based on your personal circumstances such as your account balance, age and employment status. As a result, you should review the Summary Plan Description for the Plan for more information on your Plan distribution options. No payments in connection with the Rescission Offer will be made to you directly, but will instead be made to your account under the Plan. Payment of proceeds directly to you may result in adverse tax consequences (see "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences").

Neither we nor any of our executive officers or directors make any recommendations to any person with respect to our Rescission Offer. We urge you to read this prospectus carefully and to make an independent evaluation with respect to our Rescission Offer. We also urge you to consult with your advisors before accepting or rejecting our Rescission Offer.

As of December 15, 2017, the closing sale price of our common stock (as reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market) was $9.31 per share. The value of a Unit on such date was $6.69.

Treatment of Rollover or Distribution of Common Stock of the Company from the Plan

If you purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period and have rolled over or taken a distribution (or will roll over or take a distribution) in the form of Daktronics common stock from the Plan at any time during or after the Purchase Period but before the Expiration Date, you accept the Rescission Offer, and you still hold some or all of the shares you received through such rollover or distribution, then we will repurchase those shares at the original share value of the shares included in the Units at the time such Units were acquired during the Purchase Period, less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest. Interest at the rate of 1.0% per year will be paid on the original share value for your shares from (but excluding) the date the Units were acquired by you through the date that payment is made by us. However, if the original share value of the shares to be repurchased, less any such dividends, plus applicable interest, would be less than the fair market value of our common stock on the Expiration Date, we will not repurchase the shares because it would not be economically beneficial to you. The repurchase will be made only upon our receipt of either electronic transfer of your shares or your original stock certificate. If your stock certificate has been mutilated, lost, destroyed or stolen, you should promptly notify Wells Fargo Shareholder Services, which is the Company's transfer agent, at 1-800-468-9716, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m., Central Time. You will then be directed as to the steps that must be taken in order to replace the certificate.

If you have since sold, at a loss, the shares of our common stock that you received through a rollover or distribution, then we will pay you an amount equal to the difference between the original share value of those shares and the sale price of those shares (as set forth on a broker's confirmation, monthly statement or other form of proof of loss acceptable to us), less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest. Interest at the rate of 1.0% per year will be paid on the original share value of your shares from (but excluding) the date the Units were acquired by you to the date of sale and on the loss realized from the sale of the shares from (but excluding) the date of sale through the date that payment is made by us. Any payments due to you will only be made after you have delivered proof of the sale of your shares at a loss.

If you rolled over or took a distribution in the form of shares of our common stock from the Plan during the Purchase Period with respect to Units acquired before the Purchase Period, and you still hold some or all of the shares you received through such rollover or distribution, then we will repurchase those shares at their original purchase price on the date of the rollover or distribution, less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest. Interest at the rate of 1.0% per year will be paid on the original purchase price for your shares from (but excluding) the date the shares were rolled over or distributed to you through the date that payment is made by us. However, if the price paid for the shares to be repurchased, less any such dividends, plus interest, would be less than the fair market value of our common stock on the Expiration Date, we will not repurchase the shares because it would not be economically beneficial to you. We will repurchase the shares only upon our receipt of either electronic transfer of your shares or your original stock certificate. If such certificate has been mutilated, lost, destroyed or stolen, you should promptly notify Wells Fargo Shareholder Services, which is the Company's transfer agent, at 1-800-468-9716, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m., Central Time. You will then be directed as to the steps that must be taken in order to replace the certificate.

If you have since sold, at a loss, the shares you received through a rollover or distribution, then we will pay you an amount equal to the difference between the original purchase price and the sales price of those shares (as set forth on a broker's confirmation, monthly statement or other form of proof of loss acceptable to us), less any dividends paid by us with respect to such shares, plus interest. Interest at the rate of 1.0% per year will be paid on the original purchase price for your shares from (but excluding) the date of such rollover or distribution to the date of sale and on the loss realized from the sale of the shares from (but excluding) the date of sale through the date that payment is made by us. Any payments owed hereunder will only be made after you have delivered proof of the sale of your shares at a loss.

If you still have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Daktronics, all proceeds resulting from your acceptance of the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in accordance with your current deferral investment election as an earnings election. If you do not have current investment elections on file, all proceeds resulting from acceptance of the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo CIT Fund. If you do not have a Plan account, a Plan account will be established for you, and all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo Target CIT Fund. Distributions will be managed in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Plan's distribution rules vary based on your personal circumstances such as your account balance, age and employment status. As a result, you should review the Summary Plan Description for the Plan for more information on your Plan distribution options. No payments in connection with the Rescission Offer will be made to you directly, but will instead be made to your account under the Plan. Payment of proceeds directly to you may result in adverse tax consequences (see "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences").

Accounting for the Rescission Offer

We intend to account for the Rescission Offer by recording the fair market value of the shares of our common stock included in the Units purchased by us as a charge to treasury stock based on the quoted market price of our common stock at the close of business on the Expiration Date. Any amounts paid by us pursuant to the Rescission Offer in excess of the fair market value of such shares purchased will be recorded as compensation expense in our consolidated statement of income.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the Rescission Offer. This discussion is based on current law. The following discussion is not exhaustive of all possible tax consequences. It does not give a detailed discussion of any state, local or foreign tax consequences, nor does it discuss all of the aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances and applies only if you are an individual citizen or resident of the United States.

You are urged to consult with your own tax advisor regarding the specific consequences to you of the Rescission Offer, including the U.S. federal, state, local, foreign and other tax consequences and the potential changes in applicable tax laws.

Your acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer, or the sale of Units pursuant to the Rescission Offer, or the receipt of the specified payment if you had previously sold your Units at a loss, is not considered to be a taxable event before withdrawal or distribution of funds from your Plan account. If you currently have a Plan account, whether or not you are an active employee of Daktronics, your proceeds from the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in accordance with your current deferral investment election as an earnings election. If you do not have current investment elections on file, your proceeds from the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo CIT Fund. If you do not have a Plan account, a Plan account will be established for you, and all proceeds to which you are entitled by accepting the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and invested in the Wells Fargo Target CIT Fund. Distributions will be managed in accordance with the terms of the Plan. Upon any later withdrawal or distribution, any gain resulting from the Rescission Offer will generally be taxable to you as ordinary income. An additional 10 percent income tax may be imposed in cases of early withdrawal.

The Plan's distribution rules vary based on your personal circumstances such as your account balance, age and employment status. As a result, you should review the Summary Plan Description for the Plan for more information on your distribution options. A direct rollover into an individual retirement account or other qualified retirement plan is not considered to be a taxable event. If the proceeds from the Rescission Offer are not rolled over, however, and you receive a distribution from the Plan that includes the proceeds from the Rescission Offer, such distribution (including amounts attributable to the Rescission Offer) will generally be taxable as ordinary income to you as described above. Also, if the amounts are not rolled over into an individual retirement account or other qualified plan, an additional 10 percent income tax may be imposed depending on your age at the time of distribution.

To ensure compliance with U.S. Treasury Department Circular 230, we inform you that the preceding discussion (and any other discussion of U.S. federal tax issues herein) is written in connection with the promotion or marketing of the Rescission Offer and is not intended to be relied upon, and cannot be relied upon) by a participant in such Rescission Offer for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed under the Internal Revenue Code. Each prospective participant in the Rescission Offer should seek advice based on his or her own particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will receive no proceeds from the Rescission Offer.

NOTICE OF BLACKOUT PERIOD

This notice is intended to comply with the requirements of Department of Labor Final Regulation Relating to Notice of Blackout Periods to Participants and Beneficiaries, 29 C.F.R. Section 2520, to the extent such requirements apply to the Rescission Offer. Accordingly, this notice is intended to inform affected participants (and beneficiaries) of the Plan of a “blackout period” during which their right to direct or diversify their Plan investments may be temporarily suspended.

If you are being offered the opportunity to participate in this Rescission Offer and you hold Units in the Daktronics Stock Fund in your Plan account on the Expiration Date, all transactions in the Daktronics Stock Fund related to your Plan account will be temporarily suspended. The temporary suspension is called a “blackout period” and applies whether or not you accept the Rescission Offer. The blackout period will begin at 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018 and, if you accept the Rescission Offer, will end on the date that the proceeds from the Rescission Offer are credited to your Plan account, which we expect to occur on or before March 2, 2018. If you do not accept the Rescission Offer, the blackout period is expected to end on or before February 23, 2018. You will be notified if the blackout period is extended past March 2, 2018.

The blackout period is required to ensure smooth processing of the Rescission Offer. All transactions in the Daktronics Stock Fund related to your Plan account will be temporarily suspended. This means:

• you will be unable to direct or diversify your investments in your Plan account in the Daktronics Stock Fund during the blackout period; and

• all requests for new loans and distributions (including hardship withdrawals) made during the blackout period which will be derived in whole or in part out of the Daktronics Stock Fund will not be processed and must be resubmitted.

You will need to initiate any requests for new loans or distributions prior to 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on the date the blackout begins for those requests to take effect.

It is important that you review and consider the appropriateness of your current investments in light of your inability to direct or diversify investments in your Plan account during the blackout period. For your long-term retirement security, you should give careful consideration to the importance of a well-balanced and diversified investment portfolio, taking into account all your assets, income and investments. You should be aware that there is a risk to holding substantial portions of your assets in the securities of any one company, such as Daktronics, as individual securities tend to have wider price swings, up and down, in short periods of time, than investments in diversified funds. Our common stock may have a wide price swing during the blackout period resulting in a large loss, and you will not be able to direct the sale of Units from your Plan account during the blackout period.

If you have any questions concerning this notice or the blackout period, including whether the blackout period has ended, you should contact Daktronics Benefits by calling 1-605-692-0200, Monday through Friday (except holidays), 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Central Time, or by emailing Benefits@Daktronics.com. Whether or not you are planning retirement in the near future, we encourage you to consider how this blackout period may affect your retirement planning, as well as your overall financial plan.

For additional information and limitations on investments in the Plan and how to direct investment of your Plan account, see the Summary Plan Description for the Plan. To obtain a copy of the Summary Plan Description for the Plan, please contact Daktronics Benefits as described above.

(THE "COMPANY") BY 4:00 P.M., CENTRAL TIME, ON FEBRUARY 16, 2018 (THE "EXPIRATION DATE"). WE URGE YOU TO CAREFULLY REVIEW THE COMPANY'S PROSPECTUS DATED December ____, 2017 (THE "PROSPECTUS") BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE RESCISSION OFFER.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned acknowledges receipt of the Company's Prospectus pursuant to which the Company offers to rescind (the "Rescission Offer") the purchase of shares of the Company's common stock included in units (the "Units") in the Daktronics Stock Fund acquired by the undersigned between December 1, 2016 and November 30, 2017 (the "Purchase Period"). The Daktronics Stock Fund is an investment alternative under the Daktronics, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the "Plan"), and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") is the trustee of the Plan. A participant's investment in the Company's common stock through the Plan is measured in Units. Each Unit represents an interest in shares of the Company's common stock plus a varying amount of short-term liquid investments.

Effective as of the Expiration Date, the undersigned hereby accepts the Rescission Offer for all Units purchased by the undersigned during the Purchase Period upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Prospectus. To the extent that the undersigned continues to hold such Units, the undersigned authorizes the sale of such Units held in the undersigned's Plan account that are being repurchased effective as of the Expiration Date. If the undersigned has received an in-kind distribution from the Plan in the form of shares of the Company's common stock and continues to hold such shares, the undersigned authorizes the sale of such shares held in the undersigned's Plan account that are being repurchased effective as of the Expiration Date.

The undersigned directs the Company to credit all proceeds pursuant to the Rescission Offer to the undersigned's Plan account for investment or distribution in accordance with the terms of the Prospectus. The undersigned acknowledges that he or she will not be eligible to accept the Rescission Offer with respect to Units purchased by the undersigned during the Purchase Period unless they or the shares of the Company's common stock distributed to the undersigned from the Plan were sold at a loss or, if the undersigned currently holds the Units or shares, they will have a value on the Expiration Date that is less than the Rescission Offer price.

If the undersigned is a current participant in the Plan, whether or not an active employee of the Company, the undersigned acknowledges that payments to the undersigned pursuant to the Rescission Offer will be credited to the undersigned's Plan account and invested in accordance with the undersigned's current deferral investment election as an earnings election. The undersigned further acknowledges that transactions in the Daktronics Stock Fund related to the undersigned's Plan account will be temporarily suspended during the blackout period that begins at 4:00 p.m., Central Time, on February 16, 2018 and is expected to end on or before March 2, 2018. Information regarding the exact ending date of the blackout period, once known, will be readily available, without charge, by contacting Daktronics Benefits by calling 1-605-692-0200, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Central Time, or by emailing Benefits@Daktronics.com.

If the undersigned has previously directed and caused a prior distribution of all of his or her investment in the Plan and no longer holds an individual account in the Plan, a Plan account will be created for the undersigned,

The undersigned further acknowledges that an additional 10 percent income tax may be imposed on such distribution depending on the undersigned's age. You may confirm that the proceeds have been disbursed to your Plan account by viewing your online account history as described under “Questions and Answers about the Rescission Offer - Where can I find information about my purchases and sales of Units?” in the Prospectus.

Questions: All determinations with respect to the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form and the Rescission Offer (including issues relating to the timeliness or effectiveness of any election) will be made by the Company, which determinations shall be final and binding. All questions regarding the Rescission Offer can be directed to Daktronics Benefits by calling 1-605-692-0200, Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Central Time, or by emailing Benefits@Daktronics.com.

2. Applying the FIFO principle to Unit purchases and sales:

In order to follow the First-In, First-Out (FIFO) principle in determining whether Units were sold at a loss and whether you now hold Units eligible for repurchase pursuant to the Rescission Offer, the Company must match up each participant’s purchases of Units purchased through the Plan during the Purchase Period (the “Rescission Offer Units”) to the sale of such Units. Rescission Offer Units are those purchased from December 1, 2016 through November 30, 2017. An example of a hypothetical FIFO calculation is shown below.

Appendix A

Let’s assume that Smith had 100 Units of the Daktronics Stock Fund at November 1, 2016.

Additionally, Smith has the following transaction history:

Type of Transaction	Date of Transaction	Number of Units Purchased/(Sold)
Sale 1	12/02/2016	(50)
Purchase 1	12/12/2016	20
Sale 2	02/01/2017	(30)
Sale 3	03/15/2017	(40)
Purchase 2	04/02/2017	30
Sale 4	10/30/2017	(10)

In order to follow the FIFO calculation, Smith first identifies the date and number of Units of the first sale of Rescission Offer Units. This is done by chronologically reducing Smith’s opening balance by each sale until that remaining balance is zero. Smith’s calculation looks like this:

	Date	Sales of Pre-Purchase Period Units	Balance of Pre-Purchase Period Units After Transaction	Rescission Offer Unit Purchases	Rescission Offer Unit Sales	Rescission Offer Unit Balance After Transaction
Opening Balance	11/01/2016		100			0
Sale 1	12/02/2016	50	50		0	0
Purchase 1	12/12/2016		50	20		20
Sale 2	02/01/2017	30	20		0	20
Sale 3	03/15/2017	20	0		20	0
Purchase 2	04/02/2017		0	30		30
Sale 4	10/30/2017		0		10	20

Given the data shown in the attached example, Smith would apply the formulas described on the first page of the Rescission Offer Prospectus to those sales that are under the Rescission Offer Unit Sales column. This will determine whether the Units were sold at a loss.

For example, in Smith’s transaction on 03/15/2017, Smith sold 20 Rescission Offer Units that were purchased on 12/12/2016. Suppose that Smith purchased those Units at a Net Asset Value (NAV) of $100, and then sold them at a NAV of $110. In this case, Smith benefited from a gain on the sale, and no Rescission Offer would apply for that transaction. However, if Smith had purchased those Units at a NAV of $100 and sold them at a NAV of $90, then Smith would have sold at a loss. In this case, the Rescission Offer would apply.

Finally, the Company will need to determine for Smith what Rescission Offer Units are still being held. The eligible Units are those Rescission Offer Unit purchases that were not subsequently sold. The aggregate number will be shown in the last row under the Rescission Offer Unit Balance After Transaction column. The Company would then apply the formulas described on the first page of the Rescission Offer Prospectus to those Units to determine if the Rescission Offer is financially beneficial to Smith.

For example, Smith bought 30 Rescission Offer Units on 04/02/2017 and subsequently sold 10 of them on 10/30/2017, leaving 20 Units remaining. These 20 Units are still being held by Smith. Suppose Smith bought these

Appendix A

20 Units at a NAV of $85. With interest for the period from the date Smith purchased the Units (that is, 04/02/2017) to the date payment is made by the Company and with cash dividends paid by the Company with respect to shares of common stock included in these Rescission Offer Units, the NAV per Unit increases to approximately $100. If the final NAV on the Expiration Date is $110, then Smith is holding Rescission Offer Units at a gain, and the Rescission Offer would not apply. If the final NAV on the Expiration Date is $90, then Smith is holding Rescission Offer Units at a loss, and the Rescission Offer would apply.

What is a target date fund?

A target date fund is a practical, easy-to-understand choice for retirement investing. Each fund is diversified across stocks, bonds, and cash equivalents, invested according to the fund's target date. The target date represents the year you may be considering to begin withdrawing your money. As the target date approaches, the fund slowly becomes more conservative, with less invested in stocks and more in bonds and cash equivalents. While a target date fund offers a convenient investment solution, it's important to remember that the principal value of the fund is not guaranteed at any time, including at the target date.

Item 14. Other Expenses of Issuance and Distribution.

The following is an itemized statement of the expenses expected to be incurred by Daktronics in connection with the Rescission Offer. With the exception of the SEC registration fee, the amounts set forth below are estimates.

SEC registration fee	$321
Accounting fees and expenses	20,000
Printing and mailing fees	6,000

Miscellaneous	2,000
Total	$131,321

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Article 8 of our Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the “Articles of Incorporation”) and Article VI of our Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Bylaws”) provide that the Company shall indemnify its officers and directors to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the South Dakota Business Corporation Act (“SDBCA”). Section 47-1A-851 and Section 47-1A-856(1) of the SDBCA provide that the Company may indemnify its officers and directors against liability incurred in connection with proceedings in which such persons are parties by reason of being an officer or director of the Company if they (1) acted in good faith; (2) reasonably believed: (a) in the case of conduct in an official capacity, that the conduct was in the best interests of the Company, and (b) in all other cases, that the conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the Company; and (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. This indemnification may be available for any liabilities arising in connection with this offering. In addition, Section 47-1A-856(2)(b) of the SDBCA permits the Company to indemnify an officer of the Company who is a party to a proceeding by reason of being an officer of the Company against liability, except for liability in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Company other than for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding; liability arising out of conduct that constitutes receipt of a financial benefit to which the officer is not entitled; an intentional infliction of harm on the Company or its shareholders; or an intentional violation of criminal law. Section 47-1A-857 of the SDBCA permits the Company to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of its officers and directors against any liability which may be asserted against or incurred by such persons in their capacities as officers and directors of the Company, whether or not the Company would have power to indemnify or advance expenses to the person against the same liability under the provisions of the SDBCA.

Article 8 of our Articles of Incorporation and Article VI of our Bylaws also provide that the Company may indemnify other persons, for such expenses and liabilities, in such manner and under such circumstances, as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time.

Section 7.3 of Article 7 of our Articles of Incorporation provides that the liability of our directors to the Company or its shareholders shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the SDBCA. Section 47-1A-202.1(4) of the SDBCA permits a corporation to provide in its articles of incorporation that its directors will not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as directors, except for liability for receipt of a financial benefit by a director to which the director is not entitled; an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or its shareholders; a violation of Section 47-1A-833 of the SDBCA (relating to a director's liability for unlawful distributions by a South Dakota corporation); or an intentional violation of criminal law.

Under Section 47-1A-831 of the SDBCA, the Company's directors are not liable to it or its shareholders for any decision to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as a director, unless the party asserting liability establishes that (1) the indemnification provisions in the Company's Articles of Incorporation and the SDBCA do not preclude such liability and (2) the challenged conduct consisted or was the result of (a) action not in good faith; (b) a decision (i) which the director did not reasonably believe to be in the Company's best interests or (ii) as to which the director was not properly informed to an extent the director reasonably believed appropriate in the circumstances; (c) a lack of objectivity due to the director's familial, financial, or business relationship with, or a lack of independence due to the director's domination or control by, another person having a material interest in the challenged conduct (i) which relationship or which domination or control could reasonably be expected to have affected the director's judgment respecting the challenged conduct in a manner adverse to the Company and (ii) after a reasonable expectation to such effect has been established, the director has not established that the challenged conduct was reasonably believed by the director to be in the best interests of the Company; (d) a sustained failure of the director to devote attention to ongoing oversight of the business and affairs of the Company, or a failure to devote timely attention, by making, or causing to be made, appropriate inquiry, when particular facts and circumstances of significant concern materialize that would alert a reasonably attentive director to the need therefor; or (e) receipt of a financial benefit to which the director was not entitled or any other breach of the director's duties to deal fairly with the Company and its shareholders that is actionable under applicable law.

The Company also maintains insurance on its directors and officers, which covers liabilities under federal securities laws.

Item 16. Exhibits.

The exhibits to this Registration Statement are listed in the Exhibit Index that follows the signature pages to this Registration Statement, which Exhibit Index is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a) (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act; to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or

(ii) decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) of this section do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment (2) shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided,

(4) however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been (c) advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
