NEXT, INC.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Organization and Operations of Company

Next, Inc., (NEXT or the Company) is the parent company of (i) Next Marketing Inc., (Next Marketing), (ii) Blue Sky Graphics, Inc., (Blue Sky), and (iii) CMJ Ventures, Inc. (CMJ). The Company is a creative and innovative sales and marketing organization that designs, develops, markets and distributes licensed and branded promotional products and imprinted sportswear primarily through key licensing agreements and the Company's own proprietary designs.

2. Basis of Presentation and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The condensed consolidated financial statements contained herein have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial statements, the instructions to Form 10-QSB and Item 310 of Regulation S-B. Accordingly, these financial statements do not include all the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for annual financial statements. In addition, certain comparative figures presented have been reclassified to conform the prior year's data to the Company's current financial statements. In the opinion of management, the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements contain all the adjustments necessary (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) to fairly present the financial position of the Company at February 28, 2003, and its results of operations and cash flows for the three months ended February 28, 2002 and 2003. Operating results for the three months ended February 28, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year ending November 30, 2003. The information included herein should be read in conjunction with the notes to the consolidated financial statements included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-KSB filed on March 12, 2003.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Customer Base

NEXT has, over the last two years, developed a large, diverse, and distinguished customer base of traditional retailers, ranging from national as well as large regional chains, specialty retailers, corporate accounts, college bookstores, motor sports, souvenir and gift shops, and golf shops. This expansion has been achieved through the acquisition of CMJ, which sells to over one thousand five hundred specialty retailers, and the introduction of additional major product lines and distribution channels, such as its Motor Sports Division, which sells to a national auto dealer network, as well as expansion of its traditional national retail merchant customer base. As a result of the expansion, the Company has lessened its dependence on any one large customer or distribution channel. During the three months ended February 28, 2003, the Company's sales to one of its largest customers, which have been operating as a debtor in possession under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, were $1,424,184 (38.4% of sales) compared to $665,884 (33.6% of sales) for same period last year. While the Company expects that the dependency on this customer will decrease in future periods, there can be no assurance that the Company's efforts will be successful. At February 28, 2003, accounts receivable from such customer was $1,199,000, all of which is within its terms and of which $834,995 has been collected in March 2003. The lag of collections from this customer was primarily due to the upgrade of the Company's electronic transmission system, which will benefit future periods. The Company's management believes that its credit risk exposure, based on current information available on the financial strength of its customers and previously recorded reserves, is limited. Such estimate could change in the future.

Edgar Filing: NEXT INC/TN - Form 10QSB

Table of Contents*New Pronouncements*

SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets ; SFAS No. 145, Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44 and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections ; SFAS No. 141, Business Combinations, SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities and SFAS No.148, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation, FASB Interpretation No. 145, Guarantor s Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others , FASB Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation for Variable Interest Entities all became effective for the Company during 2002. The provisions and interpretations of these pronouncements, that are applicable to the Company, had no material effect on the Company s financial statements.

SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets became effective for the Company during 2002. SFAS 142 requires, among other things, the discontinuance of goodwill amortization. In addition, the standard includes provisions for the reclassification of certain existing recognized intangibles as goodwill, reassessment of the useful lives of existing recognized intangibles, reclassification of certain intangibles out of previously reported goodwill and the identification of reporting units for purposes of assessing potential future impairment of goodwill. SFAS 142 also requires the Company to complete a transitional goodwill impairment test six months from the date of adoption. The provisions of these interpretations that are applicable to the Company were implemented on a prospective basis as of January 1, 2002, which had no material effect on the Company s financial statements.

3. Inventories

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined by the first-in, first-out method, and market represents the lower of replacement cost or net realizable value. Inventories as of February 28th, 2002 consisted of the following:

Raw materials	$ 3,774,184
Work in process	394,293
Finished goods	687,276
	<hr/>
	$ 4,855,753

4. Deferred and Income Taxes

Income taxes have been computed in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes (SFAS 109). This standard requires, among other things, recognition of future tax expenses or benefits, measured using enacted tax rates, attributable to taxable or deductible temporary differences between financial statements and income tax reporting bases of assets and liabilities.

The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the attainment of forecasted results of operations. Management has taken these and other factors into consideration in recording the deferred tax estimate. The tax effects of temporary differences that give rise to significant portions of the deferred tax asset and liabilities at February 28, 2003 are as follows:

Edgar Filing: NEXT INC/TN - Form 10QSB

Deferred tax assets:
Accounts receivable reserves	$ 279,873
Net operating loss carryforwards	158,746
	<hr/>
Total deferred tax assets	$ 438,619
	<hr/>
Deferred tax liabilities:
Adoption of tax depreciation method	206,424
Goodwill and other intangibles	11,591
	<hr/>
Total deferred tax liabilities	$ 218,015

Table of Contents5. Short-term and Long-term Debt

Short-term and long-term debt at February 28th, 2003 consisted of the following:

	Short Term	Long Term
Revolving credit facility	$	$ 4,995,346
Notes payable	352,167	3,080,151
Capital lease obligations	72,774	68,751
Total	$ 424,941	$ 8,144,248

All of the Company's debt is collateralized by various assets and guaranteed by certain of its principal stockholders.

The Company has a $5,000,000 revolving credit facility agreement with AmSouth Bank (Credit Facility), which expires on March 31, 2004. The agreement calls for monthly payments of interest at a nationally published prime rate plus .5% (4.75% at February 28, 2003) collateralized by accounts receivable and inventory. The Credit Facility is further collateralized by certain assets of and by personal guarantees of the Company's major stockholders.

On January 16, 2003, the Company refinanced certain of its notes payable to First Federal Saving Bank and Frances Slocum Bank aggregating $2,534,663 for and aggregate principal of $3,000,000 with First Federal Saving Bank (New Note). The net proceeds of the refinancing of approximately $425,745 were reinvested in the Company. The New Note bears interest at 6.5% and has a monthly payment of principal and interest of $26,000 with a balloon payment of $2,647,805 due on January 15, 2006. The refinancing provided positive cash flow compared to the cash outlay required by the notes prior to refinancing.

On February 12, 2003 the Company entered into an agreement with First Federal Savings for a capital expenditure note of $225,000 bearing interest at 7% (Cap Ex). The Cap Ex note is payable in monthly installments of $3,417 consisting of principal and interest through February 15, 2010.

6. Stockholders Equity

Stockholders Equity is comprised of the following:

At February 28,
2003

Edgar Filing: NEXT INC/TN - Form 10QSB

	(unaudited)

The Company assumed the 2001 Next Stock Option Plan (the Next Plan) and all pre-existing options granted thereunder. Pursuant to the terms of the Next Plan and the assumption agreement, any options to acquire shares of Next s common stock previously granted under the plan shall be replaced with options to acquire shares of the Company s common stock. 503,000 options have been granted under the Plan, with each option vesting on the two-year anniversary of the grant date. These options are subject to forfeiture should the grantee fail to be employed by the Company on the vesting date and are being amortized over a two-year period.

Table of Contents7. Earnings Per Share

The Company accounts for earnings per share (EPS) in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 128, Earnings Per Share . SFAS 128 requires the presentation of basic and fully diluted EPS. Basic and diluted EPS for the three-months ended February 28, 2002 and 2003 were calculated on the basis of the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the three-month period, divided by the income available to common stockholders. Outstanding stock options have not been considered in the computation of diluted earnings per share amounts since the effect of their inclusion would not be material.

8. Acquisition of CMJ Ventures, Inc.

Effective June 1, 2002, the Company acquired all the issued and outstanding equity capital of CMJ Ventures, Inc. The results of operations of CMJ are included in the condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company commencing June 1, 2002. The following pro-forma condensed combined statement of operations has been prepared as if the acquisition of CMJ was consummated as of the beginning of each of the periods presented herein. The pro-forma results of operations are not necessarily indicative of the combined results that would have been achieved had the acquisition occurred at the beginning of the period, nor is it necessarily indicative of the results of operations that may occur in the future:

Overview

NEXT is a creative and innovative sales and marketing organization that designs, develops, markets, and distributes licensed and branded promotional products and imprinted sportswear primarily through key licensing agreements and the Company's own proprietary designs. Management believes that there are substantial growth opportunities in the promotional products and imprinted sportswear industries. Management believes that NEXT is well positioned to take advantage of such growth opportunities. Management believes that the Company has an excellent reputation in the marketplace as a result of its ability to provide quality products and services, on-time delivery, at competitive prices. In recent years, licensed imprinted sportswear has become very popular. Licensing agreements are available for branded products and services, professional sports teams, and many other promotional areas. According to the 26th annual licensing industry survey published in The Licensing Letter, a publication of EPM Communications in New York, sales of the sports licensing sector increased by 8% during the year ended December 31, 2002 to $11.3 billion. To maximize its potential, the Company has, over the last two years, significantly expanded its license program to include the following:

- NEXT has accumulated about 200 licenses and agreements to distribute its College Wear USA line for every major college and university;
- NEXT has entered into licensing agreements with Chevy[®], Pontiac[®], Dodge[®], GMC[®], and Ford[®] to utilize their respective branded logos for the RPM Sports USA Motor Sports line, targeting the automotive dealership network consisting of approximately 6,000 auto dealers, and the NASCAR market, the largest spectator sport in the nation;
- NEXT's proprietary designs include: American Biker, American Wildlife, Ragtops Sportswear and Cadre Athletic among others;
- NEXT has acquired the exclusive license for distribution of the Kentucky Derby products;
- NEXT has major licenses through a teaming agreement with Corona[®], Miller[®], Mike's Hard Lemonade[®] to utilize their branded logos for the Beer Wear USA product line.

Operations and Expansion

NEXT is one of the significant companies in the highly fragmented licensed promotional products and imprinted sportswear industries. The Company has implemented its strategy of "The Total Solution Company" to meet its customers' key requirements including: art design and development, manufacturing (for imprinted sportswear), sourcing (for distributed products), warehousing and fulfillment. NEXT has, over the last two years, developed a large, diverse, and distinguished customer base of traditional retailers, ranging from national as well as large regional chains, specialty retailers, corporate accounts, college bookstores, motor sports, souvenir and gift shops, and golf shops.

NEXT is actively engaged in discussions with various potential acquisition targets and expects to grow through strategic acquisitions of complementary businesses. The Company has embarked on an aggressive acquisition program that targets companies servicing other segments of the promotional products and imprinted sportswear industry not currently serviced by the Company, especially the souvenir, gift shop and corporate segment. It is anticipated that such strategic acquisition targets will enable the Company to more effectively utilize its marketing and sales expertise, acquire the ability to cross distribute its branded products and licenses throughout a wider distribution base, lessen its dependency on the seasonality of retail customers and reduce overall operating costs by consolidating its services and distribution facilities, to the extent feasible.

Table of ContentsAcquisition of CMJ Ventures Inc.

As discussed above, effective June 1, 2002, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding equity capital of CMJ. CMJ, a sales and marketing company, distributes products primarily under its proprietary license programs, the American Biker® line, which specializes in motorcycle merchandizing, and the Rag Tops Sportswear® line, a premier line in the gift and souvenir markets. Additionally, CMJ operates a promotional products division that services major corporate clients and national retailers. CMJ's customers, distribution network and licenses diversify, complement, and bolster the Company's existing customer and distribution base. The Company expects that future sales and earnings will continue to show strong growth. The Company has fully integrated the operations, accounting and administrative functions of CMJ, thereby resulting in cost savings to the ongoing operations.

Results of Operations

The following table sets forth certain items in the Company's condensed consolidated statement of operations for the three months ended February 28, 2002 and 2003. These statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Next as filed in the Form 10-KSB.

Net Sales

Edgar Filing: NEXT INC/TN - Form 10QSB

Net sales increased 86.8% to $3,705,310 for the three months ended February 28, 2003 from $1,983,045 for the three months ended February 28, 2002. This growth in sales is primarily attributable to (a) the inclusion of Motor Sports sales (b) expansion of the Next Marketing customer base of new national retail merchants and (c) the successful introduction of E-Commerce sales. Management believes that future sales growth will continue primarily through the diversification and expansion of the Company's customer base and its expanded product offerings.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales was 67.5% of the Company's net sales for the three months ended February 28, 2003 compared to 75.0% for the three months ended February 28, 2002. This reduction in cost resulted chiefly from a reduction in the prices paid by the Company for raw materials, combined with the favorable product mix of sales, and efficiencies of management processes.

Table of Contents

Expenses included in cost of sales were primarily raw materials, labor, shipping supplies, and the depreciation of both the Company's principal manufacturing facility in Indiana and its equipment. Depreciation amounts included in the cost of sales were $53,754 for the three months ended February 28, 2003 compared to $43,402 for the three months ended February 28, 2002.

Operating and Other Expenses

General and administrative expenses were $568,960 (15.3% of net sales) for the three months ended February 28, 2003 compared to $362,269 (18.3% of sales) for the three months ended February 28, 2002. This increase in expenses primarily resulted from the addition of new sales and customer service personnel to further expand and diversify the Company's existing customer base.

Royalty and commission expenses were $385,242 (10.4% of net sales) for the three months ended February 28, 2003 compared to $155,040 (7.8% of net sales) for the three months ended February 28, 2002. The increase in expense was directly related to sales increase and sales mix with higher royalty expense percentages.

To effectively implement its growth and acquisition plan, along with enabling the Company to meet its expanded public reporting requirements, the Company finalized the initial implementation of its information system and expanded its corporate capabilities. Total expenses incurred by the Company for such internal and outside professional services for the three months ended February 28, 2003 and 2002 were $168,490 and $329,734, respectively. The reduction in expenses was directly related to the Company's concerted effort to minimize expenses from professional fees related to the public requirements, while increasing its productivity through its utilization of systems and greater internal capability.

Interest expense relates to the Company's short- and long-term debt. Interest expense was $109,251 for the three months ended February 28, 2003 compared to $73,839 for the three months ended February 28, 2002. The primary reason for the increased interest expense was an increase of approximately $3,657,409 in additional short and long debt to finance the company's expansion.

The benefit of income taxes for the three months ended February 28, 2003 was $18,845, which is attributable to the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from the Company's year-to-date net operating loss adjusted by book and income tax recognition of temporary differences. Benefit of income taxes as of February 28, 2002 was $186,498, which was higher relating to the pre-tax loss and recognition of book and tax temporary differences.

Financial Position, Capital Resources, and Liquidity February 28, 2003 and November 30, 2002:

At February 28, 2003 working capital was $7,323,929, representing an increase of $1,355,184 from working capital at November 30, 2002 of $5,968,745. This increase in working capital was primarily due to increase in inventories and receivables associated with planned business growth.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company has historically financed its operations through a combination of earnings and debt. The Company's principal sources of debt financing are its revolving line of credit with AmSouth Bank and promissory notes issued by First Federal Bank. The AmSouth credit facility has a maximum limitation of $5,000,000 of which the Company as of February 28, 2003 has drawn upon $4,995,346. This credit facility matures on March 31, 2004 and is governed by various financial covenants. The First Federal Bank Promissory Notes consist of one principal sum of $3,000,000 paid in monthly installments of $26,000 of principal and interest with a principal sum of $2,647,805 due January 16, 2006.

The Company is presently in discussions with several lending institutions that have indicated a desire to replace the Company's current revolving credit facility. In addition, the Company believes that its relationship with its existing banks is such that they would be willing to extend their facilities beyond the due date if necessary.

Table of Contents

Should the Company fail to secure a new credit facility following maturity or default on any of its promissory notes, it would have a materially adverse effect on the Company's liquidity and ability to finance operations.

The Company's principal use of cash is for operating expenses, interest and principal payments on its long-term debt, working capital and capital expenditures. Cash used in operations for the three months ended February 28, 2003 was $1,344,489 as compared to $300,399 of cash provided by operations for the three months ended February 28, 2002. The increase in cash used stemmed primarily from increased working capital expenses. The lag in receivable collections from one of the company's larger customers during the first quarter of 2003 was primarily related to the upgrade of the Company's electronic transmission capability. These information systems enhancements were completed in March of 2003 and corresponding receivables collected.

Cash used for investing activities was $145,411 for the three months ended February 28, 2003 compared to $15,286 for the three months ended February 28, 2002. The Company's investing activities during these periods was primarily the purchase of new equipment.

Net cash provided by financing activities was $1,548,865 for the three months ended February 28, 2003 compared to $267,589 used in financing activities for the three months ended February 28, 2002. This net increase of $1,816,454 related to proceeds from bank loans and the revolving credit facility that were partially offset by repayment of debt.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures

Within the 90 days prior to the date of this report, the Company's management, including the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rules 13a-14(c) and 15d-14(c). Based upon the evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective, in all material respects, to ensure that the information required to be disclosed in the Company's periodic SEC filings is recorded, processed, summarized and reported as and when required.

There have been no significant changes in the company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer carried out this evaluation.
