DOLLAR TREE STORES ANNOUNCES PROMOTION OF BOB SASSER TO CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

CHESAPEAKE, VA October 1, 2003 Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. (Nasdaq: DLTR), the nation's leading $1.00 discount variety store chain, today announced the promotion of Bob Sasser, age 51, to the position of Chief Executive Officer, effective January 1, 2004. Sasser will retain the title of president. Macon Brock, Jr., one of the original founders of the Company, will remain active as Chairman of the Board. He also will remain in his role as a key employee, focusing on strategic issues.

The Board of Directors and I have worked together to ensure a clear and smooth succession plan, Brock said. I am thrilled to see Bob succeed me as CEO. As President and COO, he has demonstrated outstanding leadership and superb business judgment, and he has been a major contributor to our growth and success. Among his many notable achievements are the integration of all of our acquisitions and the successful rollout of our point-of-sale and supply-chain technology. He has built an outstanding professional management team, and I am certain that he will continue to chart a course for Dollar Tree that will ensure its ongoing, profitable growth. I will continue to be involved in the company and look forward to providing guidance and input, Brock added.

Sasser is a graduate of Florida State University, and his background includes senior-level merchant positions with Roses and Michaels Stores. He joined Dollar Tree in 1999 as Chief Operating Officer and was promoted to President in 2001.

I am extremely excited about the opportunities before us, Sasser said. We have a concept that customers love and we have built an infrastructure that is solid and scalable. My vision is to continue this great tradition of successful and profitable growth. My thanks go to Macon and the Board for the confidence that they have placed in me.

Brock continued, I will work with Bob and the entire management team on long-term, strategic issues. Bob and I have forged an excellent working relationship, and we will continue to be in close communication, as we are today. Bob is a seasoned merchant and operator with excellent instincts and a passion for this business. It is my pleasure to see the Company's succession plan fulfilled, and I plan to lend my full support as Dollar Tree continues on to even greater heights.

Dollar Tree Stores, Inc., the nation's largest $1.00 discount variety store chain, operates 2,468 stores in 47 states as of August 2, 2003. The Company also operates a coast-to-coast logistics network of eight distribution centers, with two more presently under construction.
