On all matters considered at the Meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as neither a vote “for” nor “against” the matter, although they will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present.

Proxies for use at the Meeting are being solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on Thursday, March 28, 2013 will be entitled to vote at the Meeting. Proxies are being mailed to shareholders on or about March 28, 2013 and will be solicited mainly by mail. However, certain officers, directors, employees and agents of the Company, none of whom will receive additional compensation therefor, may solicit proxies by telephone, e-mail or other personal contact. Voting Restrictions under our Telecommunications Licenses

We provide our cellular services under a non-exclusive general license granted to us by the Ministry of Communications of the State of Israel. We also hold several other licenses for the provision of certain telecommunications services. According to our licenses, investors are prohibited from acquiring or transferring (alone or together with relatives or with other parties who collaborate on a regular basis) our Ordinary Shares, directly or indirectly (including by way of creating a pledge which if foreclosed, would result in the transfer of shares), in one transaction or a series of transactions, if such acquisition or transfer will result in a holding or transfer of 10% or more of any of our means of control, or from transferring any of our means of control if as a result of such transfer control over our Company will be transferred from one party to another, without the prior approval of the Ministry of Communications. Our specific licenses also require approval of the Minister of Communications before acquiring the ability to exercise significant influence over us. In this context, holding 25% or more of our means of control is presumed to confer significant influence. In addition, according to our licenses, if you hold more than 5% of our means of control, you may not (i) hold, directly or indirectly, more than 5% of the means of control in Bezeq – The Israeli Telecommunications Corporation Ltd., or Bezeq, which is the incumbent landline operator in Israel, or in another cellular operator in Israel (subject to certain exceptions), (ii) serve as an office holder of one of our competitors, other than in specific circumstances and subject to the approval of the Ministry of Communications, or (iii) be party to any arrangement whatsoever with Bezeq or another cellular operator that is intended or is likely to restrict or harm competition in Israel in the field of cellular services, cellular handsets or other services provided through the cellular network. For more details relating to these restrictions, please see “Item 4.B – Business Overview – Government Regulations—Our Principal License” and “Other Licenses” of our Annual Report for 2012 on Form 20-F, which was filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on March 4, 2013, and our principal license, a convenience English translation of which is an exhibit to our Annual Reports. The holding and transfer restrictions under our licenses are posted on our website at www.cellcom.co.il under “Investor Relations – Corporate Governance – Company Profile - Legal & Corporate.”

As required under our license, our Articles of Association provide that any holdings of our Ordinary Shares that contravene the holding or transfer restrictions contained in our licenses will not entitle the holder thereof to voting rights. In addition, our licenses and our Articles of Association require that as a condition to voting by any shareholders, in person or by proxy, at any meeting of our shareholders, such shareholder must certify that his, her or its holdings of our Ordinary Shares do not contravene any of the restrictions contained in our licenses.

Since it is highly unlikely that any of the Company’s shareholders has lost the right to vote his, her or its Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Company’s licenses, and to avoid confusion, the enclosed form of proxy includes a certification that your holdings of our Ordinary Shares do not contravene any of the holding or transfer restrictions set forth in our licenses. If your holdings of Ordinary Shares do so contravene, then you are not entitled to vote such shares and you should not sign or send the form of proxy. If only a portion of your holdings of Ordinary Shares so contravenes, you may be entitled to vote the portion that does not contravene. In that case, please contact the Company's VP Legal at +972-52-998-9595 for instructions on how to vote your non-contravening Ordinary Shares or, if you hold your shares in "street name", you may also contact the representative managing your account, who could then contact the Company on your behalf.

Share Ownership

Unless specified otherwise, the following table sets forth information regarding beneficial ownership of our shares as of February 15, 2013, by each person, or group of affiliated persons, known to us to be the beneficial owner of 5% or more of our outstanding shares.

In accordance with the rules of the SEC, beneficial ownership includes voting or investment power with respect to securities and includes any shares issuable pursuant to options that are exercisable within 60 days of February 15, 2013. Any shares issuable pursuant to options are deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of the person holding such options but are not outstanding for computing the percentage of any other person. The percentage of beneficial ownership for the following table is based on 99,481,487 ordinary shares outstanding as of February 15, 2013. To our knowledge, except as indicated in the footnotes to this table and pursuant to applicable community property laws, our major shareholders do not have different voting rights and the persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all ordinary shares held by them.

*DIC, a public Israeli company traded on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange, is a majority-owned subsidiary of IDB Development Corporation Ltd., or IDB Development. Includes 29,501,780 ordinary shares held by DIC directly, 12,188,355 ordinary shares held by a wholly-owned subsidiary of DIC (namely, DIC Communication and Technology Ltd., an Israeli company) and 3,412,500 ordinary shares, representing approximately 3.43% of our issued and outstanding shares, held by two shareholders whose voting rights are vested in DIC. Does not include 59,347 ordinary shares (representing approximately 0.06% of our issued and outstanding shares) held as of February 15, 2013 by indirect subsidiaries of IDB Development for their own account and a total of 2,559,191 ordinary shares (representing approximately 2.57% of our issued and outstanding shares) held as of that date for members of the public through, among others, provident funds, mutual funds, pension funds, insurance policies and unaffiliated third-party client accounts, which are managed by indirect subsidiaries of IDB Development, a few of which are also indirect subsidiaries of DIC.

IDB Development, an Israeli company, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of IDB Holding Corporation Ltd., or IDB, a public Israeli company traded on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange.

IDB is controlled as follows:

- Ganden Holdings Ltd., or Ganden, a private Israeli company controlled by Nochi Dankner (who is also the Chairman of the boards of directors of IDB, IDB Development and DIC and one of our directors) and his sister Shelly Bergman, held as of February 15, 2013, directly and through a wholly-owned subsidiary, approximately 47.20% of the outstanding shares of IDB;
- Nochi Dankner held as of February 15, 2013, directly and through a company controlled by him, approximately 7.65% of the outstanding shares of IDB;
- Shelly Bergman held as of February 15, 2013, through a wholly-owned company, approximately 3.80% of the outstanding shares of IDB;
- Avraham Livnat Ltd., or Livnat, a private Israeli company controlled by Avraham Livnat, held as of February 15, 2013, directly and through a wholly-owned subsidiary, approximately 11.79% of the outstanding shares of IDB; and
- Manor Holdings B.A. Ltd., or Manor, a private Israeli company controlled by Ruth Manor (whose husband, Isaac Manor, and their son, Dori Manor, are directors of IDB, IDB Development and DIC), held as of February 15, 2013, directly and through a majority-owned subsidiary, approximately 9.94% of the outstanding shares of IDB.

Subsidiaries of Ganden, Livnat and Manor have entered into a shareholders agreement with respect to most of their holdings in IDB for the purpose of maintaining and exercising control of IDB as a group. Their additional holdings in IDB are not subject to the shareholders agreement. The term of the shareholders agreement expires in May 2023.

A portion of the foregoing holdings in IDB have been pledged to financial institutions as collateral for loans taken to finance the purchase of IDB's shares. Upon certain events of default, these financial institutions may foreclose on the loans and assume ownership of or sell such holdings.

Based on the foregoing, IDB and IDB Development (by reason of their control of DIC), Ganden, Manor and Livnat (by reason of their control of IDB) and Nochi Dankner, Shelly Bergman, Ruth Manor, and Avraham Livnat (by reason of their control of Ganden, Manor and Livnat, respectively) may be deemed to share with DIC the power to vote and dispose of our shares beneficially owned by DIC. Each of these entities (other than DIC) and persons disclaims beneficial ownership of such shares, and all of these entities and persons disclaim beneficial ownership of our shares held under management of subsidiaries of IDB Development for others. According to an investment agreement between Ganden and an entity controlled by Mr. Eduardo Elzstain (which, as of December 31, 2012, held 10% of Ganden's outstanding share capital), such entity received an option to increase its holding in Ganden to up to approximately 30.8% of Ganden's outstanding share capital. The option is exercisable until April 10, 2013 subject to certain conditions. In case of full exercise of the option, and subject to obtaining of regulatory approvals and other conditions, certain shareholders arrangements shall become effective, including that material decisions in Ganden would require the consent of both Nochi Dankner and Eduardo Elzstain. With entry into force of these shareholders arrangements, Mr. Elzstain may be considered as one of IDB's controlling shareholders and one of our indirect controlling shareholders.

Represents shares beneficially owned for the benefit of owners of portfolio accounts exchange traded notes, and for the members of mutual funds, provident funds, and pension funds managed by wholly-owned subsidiaries of Psagot Investment House Ltd. Psagot Investment House Ltd. disclaims beneficial ownership of any such shares. The foregoing information is based on a Schedule 13G filed by Psagot Investment House Ltd. on February 11, 2013.

Includes the 45,102,635 ordinary shares held, directly or indirectly, by DIC and 59,347 ordinary shares held by indirect subsidiaries of IDB Development for their own account, which may be deemed to be beneficially owned by Nochi Dankner by virtue of his control of IDB. Does not include an aggregate of 2,559,191 of our ordinary shares held, as of February 15, 2013, by members of the public through, among others, provident funds, mutual funds, pension funds, insurance policies and unaffiliated third-party client accounts, which are managed by indirect subsidiaries of IDB Development a few of which are also indirect subsidiaries of DIC. Each of our directors who is affiliated with IDB or DIC disclaims beneficial ownership of such shares. Also includes 230,829 ordinary shares issuable upon the exercise of stock options that are exercisable on, or within 60 days following February 15, 2013, and 54,647 ordinary shares held by Mr. Ami Erel as of February 15, 2013.

Item 2 – Re-election of External Directors

Companies incorporated under the laws of the State of Israel whose securities have been offered to the public, such as the Company, are required by the Israeli Companies Law, 1999 (the “Companies Law”) to appoint at least two external directors. The Companies Law provides that a person may not be appointed as an external director of a company that has a controlling shareholder if the person is a relative of the controlling shareholder, or if the person, or the person’s relative, partner, employer, direct or indirect supervisor or any entity under the person’s control, has or had during the two years preceding the date of appointment, any affiliation with the company or any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with the company. In addition, no individual may serve as an external director if the individual’s position or other activities create or may create a conflict of interest with his or her role as an external director. For a period of two years from termination of an external director’s service, the Company may not appoint such former external director as a director or employee of the Company or receive professional services from such former external director for pay.

Pursuant to the Companies Law, the external directors are required to be elected by the shareholders for a term of three years, which may be renewed for two additional three-year terms. Further extensions are possible under certain conditions. All of the external directors of a company must be members of its audit committee and compensation committee. and each other committee of a company’s board of directors which is authorized to exercise powers of the board of directors must include at least one external director. Our external directors are also considered independent directors under the rules of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act applicable to audit committee members.

Our external directors, Ronit Baytel and Joseph Barnea, were elected to our board of directors in our 2007 annual meeting of shareholders for an initial term of three years, which was extended in our 2010 annual meeting of shareholders for an additional term of three year that will end on May 8, 2013. On March 14, 2013, our Board of Directors nominated Ronit Baytel and Joseph Barnea for re-election as external directors for an additional term of three years. Our Board of Directors confirmed that each of these nominees possesses the professional qualifications required under the Companies Law and designated Ms. Baytel as our “audit committee financial expert” under the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act and SEC rules.

The remuneration for external directors is established by regulations promulgated under the Companies Law. Our Board of Directors resolved that each of our external directors be paid the maximum amount of statutory compensation to an external director of a dual-listed company allowed by the applicable law and regulations, which is in the amount of NIS 115,400 per year and NIS 3,470 per meeting which such external director attends (including meetings of committees of the Board of Directors), adjusted for changes in the Israeli Consumer Price Index for December 2007. In 2012, after giving effect to the CPI adjustments, these amounts equaled approximately NIS 132,500 (approximately $35,500) per year and approximately NIS----- 4,000 (approximately $1,070) per meeting.

Ronit Baytel has served as a member of our Board of Directors since 2007. Ms. Baytel is a director in the finance department of Ormat Technologies, Inc., a company listed on the NYSE, in charge of SOX internal controls in the preparation of financial statements and tax and special projects. From 1998 to 2005 she served as senior manager at Kesselman & Kesselman, a certified public accountants firm in Israel, which is a member of the international PriceWaterhouseCoopers Accountants firm. Ms. Baytel is a certified public accountant and holds a B.A. in economics and accountancy from Tel Aviv University and an M.B.A. from the Hebrew University.

Joseph Barnea has served as a member of our Board of Directors since 2007. Mr. Barnea is a retired businessman. From October 2012, Mr. Barnea served as an external director of Imagesat International Ltd. He served as the Chief Executive Officer of Oxygen & Argon Works Ltd. from 1987 to 2005 and continued to serve as a member of its management until 2006. From 1985 to 1987, he served as the Chief Executive Officer of Telkoor Ltd. From 1980 to 1985, he served as a Vice President of Elscint Medical Imaging Ltd. Mr. Barnea is a member of the executive committee of the Israeli Industrialists Association and until 2007 he served as the Chairman of its Chemistry and Environment Association. From 2004 to 2009 Mr. Barnea served as a member of the board of the Israeli Export & International Cooperation Institute, from 2005 he serves as a member of the standard committee of the Israeli Standards Institute and prior to that, as a member of its board. From 2002 to 2004 he served first as President and then as Chairman of the International Oxygen Manufacturers Association (IOMA) USA. He served as Deputy Commander of the signal, electronics and computer corps of the Israeli Defense Forces. Mr. Barnea holds a B.Sc. in electrical engineering from the Technion, Israel Institute of Technology and an M.Sc. in electrical engineering from Columbia University, New York, USA.

At the Meeting, shareholders will be asked to re-elect Ronit Baytel and Joseph Barnea as external directors, each for a term of three years commencing on May 8, 2013, the expiration date of their current term.

Required Approval

The election of an external director requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power in the Company present, in person or by proxy, and voting on the matter, provided that either (i) at least a majority of the shares of non-controlling shareholders or shareholders who do not have a personal interest in the approval of the election of the external director (other than a personal interest that is not the result of the shareholder's connections with a controlling shareholder) voted at the meeting vote in favor of the election of the external director; or (ii) the total number of shares among the shareholders described in section (i) above voted against the election of the external director does not exceed 2% of the aggregate voting rights in the Company. According to the Companies Law, for this purpose, "control" means the ability to direct the Company's actions, except such ability deriving solely from holding the office of director or officer in the Company, and any person who holds (including through a subsidiary and/or an affiliate) 50% or more of the voting rights or the right to appoint directors or a CEO, shall be deemed a controlling shareholder; and a "personal interest" of a shareholder (i) includes a personal interest of any members of the shareholder's family (or spouses thereof) or a personal interest of a Company with respect to which the shareholder (or such family member) serves as a director or the CEO, owns at least 5% of the shares or has the right to appoint a director or the CEO, (ii) excludes an interest arising solely from the ownership of our Ordinary Shares and (iii) in the case of a person voting by proxy for another person, a personal interest of either the proxy holder or the shareholder granting the proxy, whether the proxy holder has discretion to vote or not.

Since it is highly unlikely that any of the Company's public shareholders is a "controlling shareholder" of the Company or has a "personal interest" in this matter arising from connections with a controlling shareholder, and to avoid confusion, the enclosed form of proxy includes a certification that you are not a "controlling shareholder" and do not have a personal interest in this matter arising from connections with a controlling shareholder. If you are unable to make this certification, please contact the Company's General Counsel for guidance on how to vote at +972-52-998-9595 or, if you hold your shares in "street name" you may also contact the representative managing your account.
