PART II

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware ("GCL") permits each Delaware business corporation to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents against liability for each such person's acts taken in his or her capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company if such actions were taken in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action, if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. ARTICLE VII, Section 6 of the Registrant's Restated By-laws provides that the Registrant, to the extent permitted by Section 145 of the GCL, shall indemnify the officers, directors, employees, trustees and agents of the Registrant.

As permitted by Section 102(b) (7) of the GCL, Article ELEVENTH of the Registrant's Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that no director of the Registrant shall have any personal liability to the Registrant or its shareholders for any monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Registrant or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the GCL, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Article ELEVENTH does not eliminate or limit the liability of the director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when the Article became effective.

The Company also has Indemnification Agreements with its officers and directors. The Indemnification Agreements require that the Company advance to any covered officer or director the expenses to investigate, defend, settle or appeal any proceeding. The Indemnification Agreements also require the Company, with limited exceptions, to maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance to cover actions of the officers and directors who are parties to such agreements. Where the Company is obligated to indemnify an officer or director under the Indemnification Agreement, the Company may assume the defense of such proceeding, with counsel approved by the officer or director. An officer or director has the right to employ counsel in any such proceeding at his own expense. If the Company has not assumed the defense of an officer or director where obligated, the fees and expenses of the officer's or director's counsel become those of the Company. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by the director or officer in such indemnification proceeding was frivolous or not made in good faith, the Company will not be required to indemnify the officer or director. Additionally, unless the Company has consented to a settlement agreement entered into by the officer or director (which consent may not be unreasonably withheld), the Company will not be obligated to indemnify the officer or director for the amount received in the settlement. An officer or director may enforce his rights under the Indemnification Agreement in any court of competent jurisdiction if (i) the claim for indemnification or advances is denied, in whole or in part or (ii) no disposition of such claim is made within ninety (90) days of such request.

The Registrant also has a policy insuring it and its directors and officers against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.
