PEROT SYSTEMS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

1. General

The accompanying unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The interim condensed consolidated financial statements include the consolidated accounts of Perot Systems Corporation and its wholly-owned subsidiaries with all significant intercompany transactions eliminated. In our opinion, all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair statement of the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods presented have been made. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such SEC rules and regulations. We have evaluated subsequent events for recognition or disclosure through August 4, 2009, which was the date we filed this Form 10-Q with the SEC. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008, in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on February 25, 2009. Operating results for the three and six month period ended June 30, 2009, are not necessarily indicative of the results for the year ending December 31, 2009.

Adoption of significant accounting standards

In May 2009, the FASB issued SFAS No. 165, Subsequent Events. This Statement sets forth: 1) the period after the balance sheet date during which management of a reporting entity should evaluate events or transactions that may occur for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements; 2) the circumstances under which an entity should recognize events or transactions occurring after the balance sheet date in its financial statements; and 3) the disclosures that an entity should make about events or transactions that occurred after the balance sheet date. This Statement is effective for interim and annual periods ending after June 15, 2009. We adopted this Statement in the quarter ended June 30, 2009. This Statement did not impact the condensed consolidated financial statements.

In April 2009, the FASB issued FSP FAS 107-1 and Accounting Principles Board (APB) 28-1, Interim Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments. The FSP amends SFAS No. 107, Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments to require an entity to provide disclosures about fair value of financial instruments in interim financial information. This FSP is to be applied prospectively and is effective for interim and annual periods ending after June 15, 2009. We adopted this FSP in the quarter ended June 30, 2009. There was no impact on the condensed consolidated financial statements as it relates only to additional disclosures.

In June 2009, the Financial Accounting Standard Board issued Financial Accounting Standard No. 168, The FASB Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles – a Replacement of FAS No. 162. FAS 168 provides for a single Accounting Codification and modifies the hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Procedures to consist of two levels of GAAP: authoritative and nonauthoritative. This statement is effective for all interim and annual periods ending after September 15, 2009. As a result of this statement, the references to authoritative GAAP in our footnotes will change to reflect this new codification. This Statement will not impact the condensed consolidated financial statements.

2. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined under FAS 157 as the price that would be paid upon sale of an asset or upon transfer of a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date and in the principal or most advantageous market for that asset or liability. Fair value is calculated based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, not on assumptions specific to us. In addition, the fair value of assets and liabilities includes consideration of non-performance risk, including credit risk.

 (UNAUDITED)

Financial assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis

FAS 157 utilizes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels. The following is a brief description of those three levels:

Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions.

The following table summarizes the basis used to measure certain financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value on a recurring basis in the balance sheet:

	Balance at June 30, 2009	Basis of Fair Value Measurements
		Quoted Prices In Active Markets for Identical Items (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
		(in millions)
Cash equivalents – money market funds	$ 164	$ 164	$	$
Short-term investments	$ 38	$ 38	$	$
Interest rate swaps	$ (2)	$	$ (2)	$
Foreign currency derivative financial instruments:
Forward contracts	$ (11)	$	$ (11)	$
Options	$ (3)	$	$ (3)	$

Fair value of credit facility

The estimated fair value of our amounts outstanding under our credit facility as of June 30, 2009 is $165 million and is determined in accordance with the disclosure requirements of FAS No. 107, Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments. We estimated the fair value of the credit facility by discounting future cash flows using interest rate spreads currently available for a credit facility with similar terms and maturity to our existing outstanding borrowings. The outstanding borrowings are recorded in our condensed consolidated balance sheets at the carrying value of $177 million.

3. Derivative Financial Instruments

Effective January 1, 2009, we adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (FAS) No. 161, Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, an amendment to FAS 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. FAS 161 requires that objectives for using derivative financial instruments be disclosed in terms of the underlying risk and accounting designation. Additionally, FAS 161 requires that the fair value of derivative financial instruments and their gains and losses be presented in tabular format in order to present a more complete picture of the effects of using derivative financial instruments.

As part of our risk management strategy, we enter into derivative financial instruments to mitigate certain financial risks related to foreign currencies and interest rates. We have a risk management policy defining the conditions under which we can enter into derivative financial instrument transactions. To date, our use of derivative financial instruments has been limited to interest rate swaps that hedge our exposure to floating rates on certain portions of our debt and forward contracts and options that hedge a portion of our exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates.

We account for certain foreign currency derivative financial instruments under FAS 133 and have designated them as cash flow hedges. We hedge the variability of a portion of our anticipated foreign currency cash flows using forward contracts and zero cost collars. These derivative financial instruments are designated as cash flow hedges of forecasted revenues related to our operations in India. The remaining foreign currency derivative financial instruments are being marked to market, with changes in fair value being reported in other income, net, in the condensed consolidated income statements. As of June 30, 2009, the notional amount of foreign currency derivative financial instruments outstanding totaled approximately $177 million, of which approximately $131 million relates to derivative financial instruments for which we elected hedge accounting. These derivative financial instruments expire at various dates over the next 30 months. At June 30, 2009, the estimated net amount of loss that is expected to be reclassified into earnings within the next 12 months is $9 million ($8 million, net of tax). As of June 30, 2009, the unrealized loss on our foreign currency hedges, reflected in accumulated other comprehensive loss, was approximately $16 million ($12 million, net of tax).

We have two interest rate swaps, which are designated as cash flow hedges under FAS 133. The first interest rate swap effectively converts $75 million of our borrowings under our credit facility from a variable-rate instrument into a fixed-rate instrument with an interest rate of 5.28%. The second interest rate swap effectively converts an additional $55 million of our borrowings under our credit facility from a variable-rate instrument into a fixed-rate instrument with an interest rate of 5.33%.

As of June 30, 2009, the unrealized loss on our interest rate swaps, reflected in accumulated other comprehensive loss, was approximately $1 million ($1 million, net of tax). Both interest rate swaps will expire in August 2009.

By using derivative financial instruments, we are exposed to credit and market risk. If a counterparty fails to fulfill its performance obligations under a derivative contract, our credit risk will equal the fair-value gain in a derivative financial instrument. Generally, when the fair value of a derivative financial instrument is positive, this indicates that the counterparty owes us, thus creating a repayment risk for us. When the fair value of a derivative financial instrument is negative, we owe the counterparty and, therefore, assume no repayment risk. We minimize the credit (or repayment) risk in derivative financial instruments by entering into transactions with high-quality counterparties that are reviewed periodically by our Treasurer.

The fair values of our derivative financial instruments are reflected in the condensed consolidated balance sheets as follows:

	As of June 30,

The following tables summarize activities related to our derivative financial instruments that are classified as cash flow hedges in accordance with FAS 133:

The (gain) or loss in fair value recognized in accumulated other comprehensive loss, net of tax (effective portion):

	Three months ended June 30,		Six months ended June 30,
	2009	2008	2009	2008
	(in millions)
Interest rate swaps	$	$ (4)	$	$ (1)
Forward contracts	(4)	13		13
Option contracts	(1)	3	(1)	4
Total (gain) loss in accumulated other comprehensive loss	$ (5)	$ 12	$ (1)	$ 16

The (gain) or loss in fair value reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive loss into earnings, net of tax (effective portion):

	Income Statement Location	Three months ended June 30,		Six months ended June 30,
		2009	2008	2009	2008

Forward contracts	Revenue			1
Option contracts	Revenue	1		2
Total (gain) loss reclassified to earnings		$ 2	$ (1)	$ 5	$ (1)

The change in fair value resulting from ineffectiveness is insignificant for the three and six months ended June 30, 2009 and 2008.

For the three months ended June 30, 2009 and 2008, we recognized a $1 million gain and an insignificant loss, respectively, on our forward contracts that are not designated as hedging instruments under FAS 133. For the six months ended June 30, 2009 and 2008, we recognized a $1 million gain and a $1 million loss, respectively, on our forward contracts that are not designated as hedging instruments under FAS 133.

4. Goodwill

The changes in the carrying amount of goodwill for the six months ended June 30, 2009, by reportable segment are as follows:

	Industry Solutions	Government Services (in millions)	Total
Balance as of December 31, 2008	$ 431	$ 299	$ 730
Reduction of goodwill resulting from Tellurian acquisition		(1)	(1)

Total amortization expense for identifiable intangible assets was $9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 and the six months ended June 30, 2008. Amortization expense is estimated at $18 million, $16 million, $13 million, $4 million, and $2 million for the years ending December 31, 2009 through 2013, respectively. Identifiable intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives, ranging from one to ten years.

6. Comprehensive Income

Total comprehensive income, net of tax, was as follows:

	Three months ended June 30,		Six months ended June 30,
	2009	2008	2009	2008

7. Stockholders Equity

At June 30, 2009, there were 120,541,000 shares of our Class A Common Stock outstanding. At December 31, 2008, there were 119,429,000 shares of our Class A Common Stock outstanding.

8. Stock Options and Stock-Based CompensationStock-based compensation

We account for our stock-based compensation under FAS No. 123R, Share-Based Payment, which requires stock-based awards to be accounted for under the fair value method.

Our 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan allows us to grant stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock or cash awards to employees, directors or consultants. As of January 1, 2009, we began granting stock-settled stock appreciation rights (SSARs) in place of stock options in order to reduce the number of shares issued under our stock-based compensation plans. SSARs permit a holder the right to receive the value in shares of the appreciation in the price of our stock that occurred from the date the right was granted to the date of exercise.

Stock based compensation expense	5	5	9	9
Total stock compensation expense, net of tax	3	3	6	6

At June 30, 2009, there was $43 million of total unrecognized compensation cost, net of expected forfeitures, from unvested stock-based compensation awards, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 1.96 years.

We utilize the Black-Scholes option pricing model to calculate our actual stock-based employee compensation expense of stock options and SSARs, and the assumptions used were as follows:

	Six months ended June 30,
	2009	2008
Weighted average risk free interest rates	1.86%	2.78%

9. Income Taxes

Our effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2009 was 33.0% as compared to 37.0% for the six months ended June 30, 2008. Income tax expense for six months ended June 30, 2009 was lower primarily due to a $3 million tax benefit attributable to the resolution of certain tax issues with the Internal Revenue Service related to our consolidated federal income tax returns for the tax years 2003 and 2004.

The gross balance of reserves for uncertain tax positions was $14 million at June 30, 2009, which excludes $7 million of offsetting tax benefits, primarily from international tax treaties that provide for relief from double taxation. The net unrecognized tax benefits of $7 million, if recognized, would benefit our effective income tax rate. We are currently under examination by the Internal Revenue Service for taxable years ended December 31, 2005 through December 31, 2007, and believe that we will reach resolution on certain issues under audit within the next twelve months.

Consequently, we anticipate a change to the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits within the next twelve months, the amount of which cannot be determined at this time.

We recognize accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense. Interest and penalties recorded as a component of income tax expense were insignificant for the six months ended June 30, 2009 and June 30, 2008. Accrued interest and penalties, net of tax benefit, related to unrecognized tax benefits were approximately $2 million as of June 30, 2009 and $5 million as of December 31, 2008.

12. Commitments and ContingenciesLitigation

We are, from time to time, involved in various litigation matters. We do not believe that the outcome of the litigation matters in which we are currently a party, either individually or taken as a whole, will have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. However, we cannot predict with certainty any eventual loss or range of possible loss related to such matters.

We currently purchase and intend to continue to purchase the types and amounts of insurance coverage customary for the industry and geographies in which we operate. We have evaluated our risk and consider the coverage we carry to be adequate both in type and amount for the business we conduct.

IPO Allocation Securities Litigation

In July and August 2001, we, as well as some of our current and former officers and directors and the investment banks that underwrote our initial public offering, were named as defendants in two purported class action lawsuits seeking unspecified damages for alleged violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Securities Act of 1933. These cases focus on alleged improper practices of investment banks. Our case, which is pending in the Southern District of New York, has been consolidated for pretrial purposes with approximately 300 similar cases in the IPO Allocation Securities Litigation and certain issues, including class certification issues, are being considered in a limited number of test cases. On June 9, 2009, the trial court issued an order granting preliminary approval of the settlement of our case (and the other cases in the IPO Allocation Securities Litigation). Notice of the proposed settlement has been sent to the class members and the trial court has scheduled a hearing to consider the final approval of the proposed settlement in September 2009. Under the proposed settlement, our insurers (along with the insurers of the other issuers in the IPO Allocation Securities Litigation) would fund the issuers' portion of the settlement, and we would not make any payment in connection with the settlement.

Other

In addition to the matters described above, we have been, and from time to time are, named as a defendant in various legal proceedings in the normal course of business, including arbitrations, class actions and other litigation involving commercial and employment disputes. Certain of these proceedings include claims for substantial compensatory or punitive damages or claims for indeterminate amounts of damages. We are contesting liability and/or the amount of damages, in each pending matter.

AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

This quarterly report contains forward-looking statements. These statements relate to future events or our future financial performance. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as may, will, should, could, forecasts, expects, plans, anticipates, believes, estimates, predicts, potential, see, target, projects, position, or continue or the negative of such terms and other comparable terminology. These statements reflect our current expectations, estimates, and projections. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Actual events or results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in these forward-looking statements. In evaluating these statements, you should specifically consider various factors, including the risks described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, which have not materially changed. These risk factors describe reasons why our actual results may differ materially from any forward-looking statement. We disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward-looking statement.

Item 2: Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and related notes included elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and with our Consolidated Financial Statements and the information under the heading Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, which are included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008.

Lines of Business

We offer our services under two primary lines of business: Industry Solutions and Government Services. Industry Solutions, our largest line of business, provides services to our customers primarily under long-term contracts in strategic relationships. These services include technology, applications, and business process services, as well as industry domain-based, short-term project and consulting services. Industry Solutions also provides software-related services, including the implementation of prepackaged software applications, application development and maintenance, and application systems migration and testing under short-term contracts related to specific projects. The Government Services segment provides information technology infrastructure and application services, consulting, engineering support, and technology-based business process solutions for the Department of Defense, the Department of Homeland Security, various civilian agencies including the Department of Education and NASA, various federal intelligence agencies, and other governmental agencies. Based on a quantitative and qualitative analysis of varying factors, we may increase or decrease the amount of ongoing investment in both of these business areas, make acquisitions that strengthen our market position, or divest, exit, or downsize aspects of a business area.

Overview of Our Financial Results for the Second Quarter of 2009

Our financial results are affected by a number of factors, including broad economic conditions, the amount and type of technology spending by our customers, and the business strategies and financial condition of our customers and the industries we serve, which could result in increases or decreases in the amount of services that we provide to our customers and the pricing of such services. Our ability to identify and effectively respond to these factors is important to our future financial growth.

We continue to monitor current macroeconomic and credit market conditions and levels of business confidence and their potential effect on our clients and on us. The current general economic downturn has adversely affected the levels of business activities in the industries and geographies where we operate, and has reduced demand and pressured pricing for our services, especially with respect to discretionary project services. In a severe or prolonged economic downturn, more of our clients could become unable to meet their financial obligations to us under the terms of our existing services agreements, could decide to downsize, or could defer or cancel contracts, all of which could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations or financial condition.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

We evaluate our consolidated performance on the basis of several performance indicators. The four key performance indicators we use are revenue growth, earnings growth, free cash flow, and the value of contracts signed. We compare these key performance indicators to both annual target amounts established by management and to our performance for prior periods. We establish the targets for these key performance indicators primarily on an annual basis, but we may revise them during the year. We assess our performance using these key indicators on a quarterly and annual basis.

Revenue Growth

Revenue growth is a measure of the growth we generate from sales of services to new customers, expansion and extension of existing contracts, acquisitions, and sales of discretionary services to existing customers. Revenue for the second quarter of 2009 decreased by 10.9% compared to the second quarter of 2008. As discussed in more detail below, this decrease in revenue came primarily from:

A reduction in project work caused by project completions and cancellations in excess of new project starts, projects that did not reach target operating levels in the quarter, and reduced staffing levels on existing projects.

A reduction of pass-through revenue as a result of transitioning the contract management function back to a client.

An unfavorable impact from foreign currency movements.

The decrease was partially offset by:

Revenue from new contracts signed during the twelve-month period following the second quarter of 2008.

Earnings Growth

We measure earnings growth using diluted earnings per share, which is a measure of our effectiveness in delivering profitable growth. Diluted earnings per share increased to $0.25 per share from $0.24 per share for the second quarter of 2008. Improved profitability on existing accounts, primarily resulting from the effects of cost reduction activities and higher volumes and utilization, was partially offset by reductions in discretionary short-term project work and by an increase in selling, general and administrative costs.

Free Cash Flow

We calculate free cash flow on a year to date basis as net cash provided by operating activities less purchases of property, equipment and purchased software, as stated in our Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. We use free cash flow as a measure of our ability to generate cash for both our short-term and long-term operating and business expansion needs. We believe this measure provides important supplemental information to investors and allows them to assess our ability to meet our working capital requirements and business expansion needs. Free cash flow was a source of cash of $47 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 and $53 million for the same period in 2008. Free cash flow, which is a non-GAAP measure, can be reconciled to Net cash provided by operating activities as follows (in millions):

	Six Months Ended June
	30,
	2009	2008
Net cash provided by operating activities	$ 76	$ 80
Purchases of property, equipment and software	(29)	(27)
Free cash flow	$ 47	$ 53

See Liquidity and Capital Resources below for additional discussion of net cash provided by operating activities (under Operating Activities).

TCV of Contracts Signed

The amount of Total Contract Value (commonly referred to as TCV) that we sell during a twelve-month period is a measure of our success in capturing new business in the various outsourcing and consulting markets in which we provide services. TCV includes contracts with new customers and new and previously uncommitted services with existing customers. We measure TCV as our estimate of the total expected revenue from contracts that are expected to generate revenue in excess of a defined amount during a contract term that exceeds a defined length of time.

Various factors may impact the timing of signing contracts with customers, including the complexity of the contract, competitive pressures, and customer demands. As a result, we generally measure our success in this area over a twelve-month period because of the significant variations that typically occur in the amount of TCV signed during each quarterly period. During the twelve-month period ending June 30, 2009, the amount of TCV signed was $1.0 billion, as compared to $1.8 billion for the twelve-month period ending June 30, 2008.

Additional Measurements

Both of our primary lines of business have distinct economic factors, business trends, and risks that could affect our results of operations. As a result, in addition to the four metrics discussed above that we use to measure our consolidated financial performance; we use similar metrics for each of these lines of business and for certain industry groups and operating units within these lines of business.

Comparison of the Three Months Ended June 30, 2009 and 2008Revenue

Revenue for the second quarter of 2009 decreased from revenue for the second quarter of 2008 across both segments. Below is a summary of our revenue for the second quarter of 2009 as compared to the second quarter of 2008 (amounts in millions):

	Three Months Ended June 30,
	2009	2008	$ Change	% Change
Industry Solutions	$ 475	$ 546	$ (71)	(13.0)%
Government Services	155	161	(6)	(3.7)%
Elimination of intersegment revenue	(2)	(2)
Total	$ 628	$ 705	$ (77)	(10.9)%

Industry Solutions

The net decrease in revenue from the Industry Solutions segment for the second quarter of 2009 as compared to the second quarter of 2008 was primarily attributable to:

$80 million net decrease from existing accounts largely resulting from completing task orders in the normal course of business in excess of new project starts, a reduction of discretionary project services, and a renegotiated contract with less pass-through revenue as a result of transitioning a contract management function back to the client. The discretionary services that we provide, which include short-term project work, can vary from period-to-period depending on many factors, including specific customer and industry needs and economic conditions.

An unfavorable impact from foreign currency movements of $10 million.

This decrease was partially offset by these increases:

$15 million increase from new contracts signed during the twelve-month period following the second quarter of 2008 in the Healthcare group. The services that we are providing to these new customers are primarily the same services that we provide to the majority of our other long-term outsourcing customers.

$4 million increase from revenue related to an acquisition within our Healthcare group during the fourth quarter of 2008.

Government Services

The decrease of $6 million, or 3.7%, for Government Services for the second quarter of 2009 as compared to the second quarter of 2008 was primarily attributable to reductions in pass-through revenue and reductions in scope of services and task orders. These decreases were partially offset by revenue contributions from new business and increased volumes, primarily relating to an outsourcing contract that moved past the transition phase in 2009. Our business with the federal government will fluctuate due to annual federal funding limits and the specific needs of the federal agencies we serve.

Gross Margin

Gross margin, which is calculated as gross profit divided by revenue, for the second quarter of 2009, was 19.9% of revenue, which is higher than the gross margin for the second quarter of 2008 of 17.0%. This year-to-year increase in gross margin was primarily due to the following:

Increased contract profitability on existing accounts in Industry Solutions resulting from contract efficiencies on fixed-priced outsourcing contracts, volume increases on unit-priced contracts, and cost containment activities.

Increased gross margin in Industry Solutions due to a reduction of pass-through revenue and expenses, as a result of transitioning a contract management function back to a customer.

Increased gross profit for Government Services related to a contract that was in transition during first and second quarters of 2008.

These improvements were partially offset by a reduction in project work caused by project completions and cancellations in excess of new project starts.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the second quarter of 2009 increased 5.5% to $77 million from $73 million for the second quarter of 2008. As a percentage of revenue, SG&A for the second quarter of 2009 was 12.3% of revenue as compared to SG&A for the second quarter of 2008 of 10.4% of revenue. The increase is primarily attributable to sales force and marketing expansion.

Other Income Statement Items

Our effective tax rate for the second quarter of 2009 was 35.4% as compared to 36.2% for the second quarter of 2008. The reduction in the rate is primarily due to a reduction in taxes and valuation allowances attributable to our foreign operations. Income tax expense was $17 million for the second quarter of 2009 and 2008.

Comparison of the Six Months Ended June 30, 2009 and 2008Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2009 decreased from revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2008 in both segments. Below is a summary of our revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2009 as compared to the six months ended June, 2008 (amounts in millions):

	Six Months Ended June 30,			%
	2009	2008	$ Change
Industry Solutions	$ 942	$ 1,065	$ (123)	(11.5)%
Government Services	310	322	(12)	(3.7)%
Elimination of intersegment revenue	(3)	(2)	(1)	(50.0)%
Total	$ 1,249	$ 1,385	$ (136)	(9.8)%

Industry Solutions

The net decrease in revenue from the Industry Solutions segment for the six months ended June 30, 2009 as compared to the six months ended June 30, 2008 was primarily attributable to:

$130 million net decrease from existing accounts largely resulting from completing task orders in the normal course of business in excess of new project starts, a reduction of discretionary project services, and a renegotiated contract with less pass-through revenue as a result of transitioning a contract management function back to the client. The discretionary services that we provide, which include short-term project work, can vary from period-to-period depending on many factors, including specific customer and industry needs and economic conditions.

An unfavorable impact from foreign currency movements of $23 million.

This decrease was partially offset by these increases:

$22 million increase from new contracts signed during the twelve-month period following the second quarter of 2008 in the Healthcare group. The services that we are providing to these new customers are primarily the same services that we provide to the majority of our other long-term outsourcing customers.

$8 million increase from revenue related to an acquisition within our Healthcare group during the fourth quarter of 2008.

Government Services

The decrease in revenue of $12 million for Government Services for the six months ended June 30, 2009, as compared to the six months ended June 30, 2008, was primarily attributable to reductions in pass-through revenue. Our business with the federal government will fluctuate due to annual federal funding limits and the specific needs of the federal agencies we serve.

Gross Margin

Gross margin, which is calculated as gross profit divided by revenue, for the six months ended June 30, 2009, was 19.5% of revenue, which is higher than the gross margin for the six months ended June 30, 2008 of 17.2%. This year-to-year increase in gross margin was primarily due to the following:

Increased contract profitability on existing accounts in Industry Solutions resulting from contract efficiencies on fixed-priced contracts, volume increases on unit-priced contracts, and cost containment activities.

Increased gross margin in Industry Solutions due to a reduction of pass-through revenue and expenses, as a result of transitioning a contract management function back to a customer.

Increased gross profit for Government Services related to a contract that was in transition during the first and second quarter of 2008.

These improvements were partially offset by a reduction in project work caused by project completions and cancellations in excess of new project starts and increased expenses related to transitioning and globalizing certain functions.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2009 increased 6.1% to $156 million from $147 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008. As a percentage of revenue, SG&A for six months ended June 30, 2009 was 12.5% of revenue as compared to SG&A for the six months ended June 30, 2008 of 10.6% of revenue. The increase is primarily attributable to $6 million of expenses related to cost reduction activities implemented in the first quarter of 2009 and increased expenses in the second quarter of 2009 related to sales force and marketing expansion.

Other Income Statement Items

Our effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2009 was 33.0% as compared to 37.0% for the six months ended June 30, 2008. Income tax expense for six months ended June 30, 2009 was lower primarily due to a $3 million tax benefit attributable to the resolution of certain tax issues with the Internal Revenue Service related to our consolidated federal income tax returns for the tax years 2003 and 2004.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At June 30, 2009, we have cash and cash equivalents of $291 million, of which $121 million was held by our foreign subsidiaries. We also had short-term investments of $38 million at June 30, 2009, which were held in the U.S. While we are aware of no restrictions on access to our cash balances in any foreign jurisdiction, it is our intent to permanently reinvest our foreign earnings or to remit such earnings to the U.S. in a tax-free manner, and we do not provide for U.S. income tax on the undistributed earnings of our foreign subsidiaries.

In addition, we currently have a credit facility that allows us to borrow up to $275 million. As of June 30, 2009, we have borrowings of $177 million under the credit facility and $98 million available. The credit facility requires certain financial covenants of which we are in compliance as of June 30, 2009.

PEROT SYSTEMS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

We believe that we will be able to meet our liquidity and cash needs for the foreseeable future through a combination of cash flows from operating activities, existing cash balances, our available line of credit, and other financing activities. However, during this current economic downturn, we continue to actively monitor the financial markets. Although the condition of these markets continues to be volatile, we believe we will continue to have access to them if the need arises. Continued market volatility could directly affect the cost and terms of any future debt financing, which could in turn impact our decisions to make acquisitions, purchase shares of our Class A common stock, or make other investments in our business.

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities was $76 million and $80 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 and for the six months ended June 30, 2008, respectively. This decrease was primarily attributable to the following:

Cash used due to changes in accrued compensation was $30 million in the six months ending June 30, 2009, as compared to $16 million cash provided by changes in accrued compensation for the same period of 2008. The changes in accrued compensation in the six months ended June 30, 2009 were driven by the compensation accrued as of December 31, 2008 that was paid during the six months ended June 30, 2009, partially offset by our compensation accrual that will be paid during the first six months of 2010. Bonuses paid to associates under our bonus plans in the first six months of 2009 and 2008 (including payments of annual bonuses relating to the previous year's bonus plan) were $58 million and $21 million, respectively.

During the six months ended June 30, 2009, there was a decrease of $10 million in net deferred revenue received from customers as compared to an increase of $16 million for the same period in 2008. The decrease is primarily attributable to payments received in 2008 related to transition services on long-term outsourcing contracts.

Cash used by changes in accounts payable and accrued liabilities was $20 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009, as compared to cash provided of $2 million for the same period of the prior year. This decrease is primarily due to the timing of vendor payments.

These reductions to net cash provided by operating activities were partially offset by the following:

Cash provided by changes in accounts receivable was $44 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009, as compared to $10 million cash used in accounts receivable for the same period of the prior year. Our accounts receivable balance at the end of each period can change based on the amount of revenue for that period and the timing of collection from our customers, which may vary significantly from period to period.

During the six months ended June 30, 2009, we made net cash payments for income taxes of $20 million as compared to $46 million in the six months ended June 30, 2008.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was $30 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009, as compared to net cash used in investing activities of $24 million for the same period in 2008. During the six months ended June 30, 2009, we purchased $29 million of property, equipment and software, as compared to $27 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008. During the six months ended June 30, 2009, we made net purchases of short-term investments of $2 million. During the six months ended June 30, 2008, we liquidated short-term investments of $23 million, net and used $20 million in the acquisitions of businesses.

Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities was $9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009, as compared to net cash used in financing activities of $46 million for the six months ended June 30, 2008. This increase is primarily attributable to a $30 million payment against our credit facility and a $24 million purchase of treasury stock in 2008. We routinely maintain cash balances in certain European and Asian currencies to fund operations in those regions. During the six months ended June 30, 2009, foreign exchange rate fluctuations had a net positive impact on our non-domestic cash balances of $2 million, as the U.S. dollar weakened against the Euro, Singapore Dollar, and other currencies. We manage exchange exposures that are likely to significantly impact net income or working capital. At June 30, 2009, we had derivative financial instruments to purchase and sell various currencies in the notional amount of $177 million, which expire at various times before the end of 2011.

FORM 10-Q

For the Quarter Ended June 30, 2009

Item 3: Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

For a discussion of our market risk associated with foreign currencies as of December 31, 2008, see Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk in Part II, Item 7A, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year then ended. There have been no material changes in these market risks.

Item 4: Controls and Procedures

Our management, with the participation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in SEC Rule 13a-15(e)) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of the end of the period covered by this report, such controls and procedures were effective. There were no changes in internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that occurred during our most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, internal control over financial reporting.

PART II: OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1: Legal Proceedings

We are, from time to time, involved in various litigation matters. We do not believe that the outcome of the litigation matters in which we are currently a party, either individually or taken as a whole, will have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. However, we cannot predict with certainty any eventual loss or range of possible loss related to such matters.

We currently purchase and intend to continue to purchase the types and amounts of insurance coverage customary for the industry and geographies in which we operate. We have evaluated our risk and consider the coverage we carry to be adequate both in type and amount for the business we conduct.

IPO Allocation Securities Litigation

In July and August 2001, we, as well as some of our current and former officers and directors and the investment banks that underwrote our initial public offering, were named as defendants in two purported class action lawsuits seeking unspecified damages for alleged violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Securities Act of 1933. These cases focus on alleged improper practices of investment banks. Our case, which is pending in the Southern District of New York, has been consolidated for pretrial purposes with approximately 300 similar cases in the IPO Allocation Securities Litigation and certain issues, including class certification issues, are being considered in a limited number of test cases. On June 9, 2009, the trial court issued an order granting preliminary approval of the settlement of our case (and the other cases in the IPO Allocation Securities Litigation). Notice of the proposed settlement has been sent to the class members and the trial court has scheduled a hearing to consider the final approval of the proposed settlement in September 2009. Under the proposed settlement, our insurers (along with the insurers of the other issuers in the IPO Allocation Securities Litigation) would fund the issuers' portion of the settlement, and we would not make any payment in connection with the settlement.

Other

In addition to the matters described above, we have been, and from time to time are, named as a defendant in various legal proceedings in the normal course of business, including arbitrations, class actions and other litigation involving commercial and employment disputes. Certain of these proceedings include claims for substantial compensatory or punitive damages or claims for indeterminate amounts of damages. We are contesting liability and/or the amount of damages, in each pending matter.

Item 1A: Risk Factors

In evaluating all forward-looking statements, you should specifically consider various factors that may cause actual results to vary from those contained in the forward-looking statements. Please refer to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, as filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and available at www.sec.gov, for additional information regarding risk factors. There have been no material changes to these risk factors.

Item 4: Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

We held our annual meeting of shareholders on May 13, 2009. The purpose of the meeting was to elect twelve nominees to serve as our directors and ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009. The number of shares voted with respect to each nominee was as follows:

Nominees	For	Withheld
Ross Perot	111,877,888	1,736,833
Ross Perot, Jr	111,845,608	1,769,113
Peter Altabef	112,078,687	1,536,034
Steven Blasnik	111,802,466	1,812,255
John S.T. Gallagher	112,293,533	1,321,188
