State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Visteon Corporation's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 could not be filed within the prescribed time period because Visteon could not complete the preparation of the required information without reasonable effort and expense. As previously announced in a Current Report on Form 8-K of Visteon filed on May 10, 2005, during the preparation of Visteon's first quarter 2005 Form 10-Q, the company's management identified errors in its accruals for costs principally associated with freight and material surcharges that relate to prior periods. During the course of the company's internal review, allegations of potential improper conduct by a former senior finance employee responsible for the accounting oversight for North American purchasing activities were raised. As a result of these allegations, the Audit Committee intends to conduct an independent review of the accounting for certain transactions originating primarily in the company's North American purchasing activity. Consequently, Visteon will not be in a position to file a Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q without unreasonable effort or expense prior to the time at which the Audit Committee's review is completed.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

No  Yes

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Explanation:

Visteon reported a net loss of $188 million for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2005 compared with net income of $20 million for the comparable fiscal period in the prior year. Visteon's press release reporting these first quarter 2005 results was furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Item 2.02 in Visteon's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on April 27, 2005. At this time due to the very preliminary stage of the Audit Committee's independent review, Visteon is unable to determine whether accounting corrections, if any, will result in significant change in the results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year included in the subject report.
