This Amendment No. 3 amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO, initially filed by Allergan, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Allergan) and Banner Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Offeror) and a wholly owned subsidiary of Allergan, with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on November 21, 2005, and subsequently amended by Amendment No. 1 and Amendment No. 2 (as amended from time to time, the Schedule TO), relating to the exchange offer by Offeror (the Offer) to exchange for each outstanding share of common stock of Inamed Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Inamed), including the associated preferred stock purchase rights (collectively, Inamed Shares), at the election of the holder thereof: (a) $84.00 in cash, without interest, or (b) 0.8498 of a share of Allergan common stock, including the associated preferred stock purchase rights, upon the terms and subject to the conditions described in the Prospectus (as defined below) and the related letter of election and transmittal, including in each case the proration and election procedures described therein.

Allergan has filed with the SEC Amendment No. 2 to its Registration Statement on Form S-4 (file no. 333-129871) relating to the offer and sale of the Allergan common stock to be issued to holders of Inamed Shares in the Offer (as amended, the Registration Statement). The terms and conditions of the Offer are set forth in the prospectus, which is a part of the Registration Statement (as amended, the Prospectus), and the related letter of election and transmittal, which are filed as Exhibits (a)(4)(A) and (a)(1)(A), respectively, hereto.

Items 1 through 11.

Items 1 through 11 of the Schedule TO are hereby amended and supplemented to add the following:

Execution of the Allergan Merger Agreement

On December 20, 2005, Allergan, Offeror and Inamed entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Allergan Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Offeror will continue its previously announced exchange offer for all outstanding Inamed Shares, except that the terms of the exchange offer will be amended to conform to the offer terms set forth in the Allergan Merger Agreement (as amended, the Offer). After the completion of the Offer, Offeror will be merged with and into Inamed (the Inamed Merger), with Inamed surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Allergan. The Allergan Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit (d) and is incorporated herein by this reference.

Conditions of the Offer

Pursuant to the terms of the Allergan Merger Agreement, Offeror is hereby amending the conditions to the consummation of the Offer. Under the amended conditions provided in the Allergan Merger Agreement, Offeror is not required to accept for exchange or exchange any Inamed Shares, may postpone the acceptance for exchange, or exchange, of tendered Inamed Shares, if at the scheduled expiration date of the Offer any of the following conditions are not met, and Offeror may, in its reasonable discretion (but subject to the requirements of applicable laws) terminate or amend the Offer in accordance with the Allergan Merger Agreement if, the following conditions are not met:

- (a)(i) the representations and warranties of Inamed contained in the Allergan Merger Agreement shall be true and correct, except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or Company Material Adverse Effect set forth therein) would not, individually or in the aggregate, result in a Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Allergan Merger Agreement);
- (ii) Inamed shall have performed in all material respects all of its obligations required to be performed by it under the Allergan Merger Agreement at or prior to the time Offeror accepts for exchange Inamed Shares validly tendered pursuant to the Offer;
- (b) there shall have been validly tendered and not properly withdrawn prior to the expiration of the Offer, a number of Inamed Shares which, together with any Inamed Shares that Allergan or Offeror beneficially owns, will constitute at least a majority of the total number of outstanding Inamed Shares on a fully diluted basis (as though all options or other securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Inamed Shares had been so converted, exercised or exchanged) as of the date that Offeror accepts the Inamed Shares for exchange;

- (c)(i) any mandatory waiting periods barring consummation of the Inamed Merger as established by the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, as amended (the HSR Act) and any other applicable similar foreign laws or regulations will have expired or been terminated;
- (ii) such expiration or termination has been granted or occurred without the imposition of any material condition or restriction, other than, to the extent required to obtain any necessary consents, approvals or authorizations required to complete the Offer, the Inamed Merger or the Post-Closing Merger under applicable antitrust laws (x) the license, divestment, disposition of or holding separate of (A) the Reloxin Assets (as defined in the Allergan Merger Agreement), including Inamed's distribution rights and all related rights to the Reloxin/ Dysport products in all markets, and (B) such other assets and businesses as do not constitute material assets or businesses of Allergan or Inamed or their respective subsidiaries.
- (d)(i) the shares of Allergan's common stock to be issued to Inamed stockholders in the Offer and the Inamed Merger shall have been authorized for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance;
- (ii) the registration statement pursuant to which the offer and sale of the shares of Allergan common stock to be issued in the Offer and the Inamed Merger will be registered shall have become effective under the Securities Act, and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement shall have been issued nor shall there have been proceedings for that purpose pending before the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), and Allergan shall have received all material state securities law or blue sky authorizations;
- (iii) no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order or decree issued by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the completion of the Offer, the Inamed Merger or the Post-Closing Merger shall be in effect; and no statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any court, administrative agency or commission or other governmental entity that prohibits or makes illegal the completion of the Offer, the Inamed Merger or the Post-Closing Merger;
- (iv) no statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any court, administrative agency or commission or other governmental entity that materially restricts the completion of the Offer, the Inamed Merger or the Post-Closing Merger other than any license, divestment, disposition of or holding separate of (A) the Reloxin Assets, including Inamed's distribution rights and all related rights to the Reloxin/ Dysport products in all markets, and (B) such other assets and businesses of Allergan or Inamed as do not constitute material assets or businesses of Allergan or Inamed or their respective subsidiaries;
- (v) there shall not be pending any suit, action or proceeding by any governmental entity:
 - seeking to prohibit the completion of the Offer;
 - seeking to prohibit the ownership or operation by Inamed or Allergan or any of their respective subsidiaries of any material business or assets of Inamed or Allergan (other than those contemplated in the Allergan Merger Agreement relating to the Reloxin Assets and other non-material assets or businesses of Allergan or Inamed or their respective subsidiaries);
 - seeking to prohibit Allergan from effectively controlling in any material respect the business or operations of Inamed (other than those contemplated in the Allergan Merger Agreement relating to the Reloxin Assets and other non-material assets or businesses of Allergan or Inamed or their respective subsidiaries);

- (vi) since the date of the Allergan Merger Agreement, there will not have been any state of facts, events, changes, effects, developments, conditions or occurrences that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Allergan Merger Agreement).

The conditions to the Offer set forth in the Allergan Merger Agreement (i) are for the sole benefit of Offeror, (ii) may be asserted by Offeror regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any of these conditions and (iii) may be waived by Offeror, provided that the conditions described in clauses (c)(i) and (d)(i) through (iii) are not waivable. Under the Allergan Merger Agreement, Inamed must consent before (A) Offeror waives the minimum tender condition described above, (B) Offeror adds any conditions to the Offer, or (C) Offeror modifies any condition to the Offer in any manner adverse to the holders of Inamed Shares or (D) Offeror changes the form of consideration.

Termination of Medicis Merger Agreement

On March 20, 2005, Inamed, Medicis Pharmaceutical Corporation (Medicis) and Masterpiece Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Medicis, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, pursuant to which Inamed would merge into Masterpiece Acquisition Corp. On December 13, 2005, Medicis and Inamed announced the termination of their Agreement and Plan of Merger.

Recommendation of the Inamed Board

On December 13, 2005, Inamed filed an amendment to its Solicitation/ Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 initially filed with the SEC on December 5, 2005 and subsequently amended. That amendment disclosed that on December 13, 2005 Inamed's board of directors determined that the terms of the exchange offer set forth in the Allergan Merger Agreement and the Allergan Merger Agreement are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Inamed stockholders, and resolved to recommend that the Inamed stockholders tender their Inamed Shares pursuant to the Offer upon Inamed's execution of the Allergan Merger Agreement and the amendment of the Offer to conform to the terms of the exchange offer set forth in the Allergan Merger Agreement.

At meetings held on December 13 and 14, 2005, Inamed's board of directors:

determined that the Offer and Allergan Merger Agreement are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Inamed's stockholders;

formally and unanimously approved and adopted the terms of the Allergan Merger Agreement;

approved the exchange offer and the mergers contemplated by the Allergan Merger Agreement such that Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law would not apply to such transactions;

approved the amendment of Inamed's stockholder rights agreement to provide that the execution of the Allergan Merger Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Allergan Merger Agreement would not trigger the rights plan; and resolved to recommend that Inamed Stockholders tender their shares pursuant to the Offer.

Antitrust Filings

On December 15, 2005, Allergan received a request for additional information and documentary material, referred to as a second request, from the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), pursuant to the HSR Act, in connection with the Offer and the Inamed Merger. The second request extends the waiting period imposed by the HSR Act until thirty days after Allergan has substantially complied with such request. Allergan has been working with the FTC staff concerning the divestiture of Reloxin[®] and had anticipated the issuance of the second request as part of that process. Allergan does not expect the second request to result in a material delay in consummation of the transaction.

Extension of Expiration Date

On December 16, 2005, Allergan announced that it has extended the expiration date of the Offer. The Offer will now expire at 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on Monday, January 9, 2006, unless further extended. The Offer was previously scheduled to expire at 12:00 midnight, Eastern Time, on Tuesday, December 20, 2005.
