All candidates should have a reputation for integrity, have experience in positions with a high degree of responsibility, be leaders in the companies, institutions, or professions with which they have been affiliated, and be capable of making a contribution to the Company. Shareholders wishing to recommend a director candidate for consideration by the Nominating Committee should send all relevant information with respect to the individual to the Chairman of the Committee. The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm (independent auditors). The Audit Committee is also responsible for overseeing the administration of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which is available on the Company's website located at www.uslm.com; reviewing and approving all related-party transactions; and administering the Company's procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters and for the confidential anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. The Audit Committee has adopted a written charter, which is available on the Company's website located at www.uslm.com. The Audit Committee reviews and assesses the adequacy of the charter on an annual basis. The Report of the Audit Committee is set forth below.

The Compensation Committee is composed of three independent directors, Messrs. Odishaw (Chairman), Irmscher, and Doumet. The Compensation Committee is responsible for the evaluation, approval, and administration of salary, incentive compensation, bonuses, benefit plans, and other forms of compensation for the Company's officers and directors. The Compensation Committee is responsible for administering the 1992 Plan and the 2001 Plan. The Report of the Compensation Committee follows the Report of the Audit Committee.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the following reports of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee and the Performance Graph set forth below shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference the Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference. This information shall not otherwise be deemed to be filed under such Acts.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee is composed of three independent directors as defined under the applicable rules of The NASDAQ Stock Market, Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). The Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm (independent auditors). Management has primary responsibility for the Company's financial statements and reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. Grant Thornton LLP, the Company's independent auditors, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with standards established by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, expressing an opinion, based on its audit, as to the conformity of such financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. In the performance of its oversight function, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended. In addition, the Audit Committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures required by the pronouncements on the Independence Standards Board and discussed with them their independence from the Company and its management. The Audit Committee has considered whether the independent auditors' provision of non-audit services to the Company is compatible with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended and the Board of Directors has approved the inclusion of the Company's audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the SEC.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors,

Richard W. Cardin, Chairman

Wallace G. Irmscher

Edward A. Odishaw

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") has the responsibility for administering the executive compensation program of the Company. The Compensation Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the full Board of Directors regarding the base salaries and annual incentive compensation for executive officers, and administers the Company's 1992 Stock Option Plan, as Amended and Restated (the "1992 Plan"), and the Company's 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "2001 Plan").

Compensation Policies. The principal executive compensation policy of the Company, which is endorsed by the Committee, is to provide a compensation program that will attract, motivate, and retain persons of high quality and will support a long-standing internal culture of loyalty and dedication to the interests of the Company and its shareholders. In administering the executive compensation program, the Committee is mindful of the following principles and guidelines, which are supported by the full Board:

Base salaries for executive officers should be competitive. A sufficient portion of annual compensation should be at risk in order to align the interests of executives with those of the shareholders of the Company. This variable part of annual compensation should reflect both individual and corporate performance. As a person's level of responsibility increases, a greater portion of total compensation should be at risk, and the mix of total compensation should be weighted more heavily in favor of stock-based compensation. Stock options, restricted stock, and other stock-based compensation provide executives long-term incentives and help align the interests of executives and shareholders in the enhancement of shareholder value.

As discussed elsewhere in the Proxy Statement, the Company has entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Byrne, Hughes, and Bowers. These agreements provide for an annual base salary, bonuses, the use of a Company car, reimbursement of business expenses, participation in the Company's 401(k) plan, severance arrangements, and other benefits. The Committee has determined that such agreements are appropriate means to achieve the Company's overall compensation policies.

2005 Compensation. The Company's executive compensation packages have three separate elements consisting of base salary, annual incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation. The compensation packages of Mr. Byrne and the other executive officers are designed to be competitive within the industry and to provide incentives for both short- and long-term performance in line with the financial interests of the shareholders.

Base Salaries. The Committee determines levels of the executive officers' base salaries so as to be competitive with amounts paid to executives performing similar functions in comparable size non-durable manufacturing companies. The amount of each executive's annual increase in base salary, if any, will be based on a number of largely subjective factors, including the personal performance of such executive officer, the performance of the Company, cost-of-living increases, and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate, including the individual's overall mix between fixed and variable compensation and between cash and stock-based compensation. Executive officers, other than Mr. Byrne, received raises in 2005 averaging approximately 2.4%. Mr. Byrne's 2005 base salary was $265,000, an increase of 6% from his 2003 base salary.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Each of the Company's executive officers is eligible to receive annual cash bonus awards based on determinations made by the Committee. Except in the case of Mr. Byrne, the Company has not adopted a formal annual bonus plan. Rather, the determination to pay a cash bonus, if any, is based on the Committee's subjective judgment with respect to the past performance of the individual or on the individual's attainment of objective performance goals. In either such case, the bonus may be based on the specific accomplishments of the individual or on the overall success of the Company. The Committee awarded the following bonuses for 2005, which were paid in 2006: Mr. Hughes, $40,000; Mr. Owens, $27,500; Mr. Bowers, $12,000; and Mr. Murray, $40,000. As described elsewhere in the Proxy Statement, Mr. Byrne's employment agreement provides for an objective annual cash bonus based on the Company's EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization) compared to certain EBITDA levels set forth in Mr. Byrne's employment agreement, as well as the possibility of a subjective cash bonus in the discretion of the Committee. For 2005, the increase in the Company's EBITDA resulted in Mr. Byrne's earning an objective bonus of $250,000, which was paid in 2006. A subjective bonus of $75,000 was also awarded for 2005 and paid in 2006 based on the Company's improved operating and financial results for 2005.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. The Committee also administers the 1992 Plan and the 2001 Plan to provide long-term incentives to its key employees, including executive officers. Grants of stock options, restricted shares of stock, and other stock-based compensation are based on each individual's position within the Company, level of responsibility, past performance, and expectation of future performance. Stock options granted during 2005 were: Mr. Byrne, 30,000; Mr. Hughes, 2,000; Mr. Owens, 4,500; and Mr. Murray, 3,000.

Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Code) Section 162(m) generally limits the corporate income tax deduction for compensation paid to certain named executive officers to $1 million per year, except for certain qualified and performance-based compensation. The Committee has not seen any need to adopt a policy with regard to qualifying bonus awards for tax deductibility under Code Section 162(m) since Company cash compensation is well below the level at which this tax limitation would apply, and options that were granted in 1999 and thereafter under the 1992 Plan, as amended and restated in 1999, and that were or will be granted under the 2001 Plan are intended to constitute performance-based compensation not subject to the Code Section 162(m) limitation.

Executive Employment and Termination Agreements

The Company has employment agreements with Messrs. Byrne, Hughes, and Bowers. Such employment agreements are designed to ensure that the Company will be able to attract, motivate, and retain highly qualified talent, which is critical to both the short- and long-term success of the Company.

The employment agreements provide for a base salary to be reviewed annually. Mr. Byrne's amended and restated employment agreement, dated as of May 2, 2003, provides him with an annual base salary of at least $250,000. In addition to base salary, the agreements for Messrs. Byrne, Hughes, and Bowers provide for a discretionary bonus to be determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. In addition to the possibility of a discretionary bonus, Mr. Byrne is eligible to receive an objective bonus based on the Company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (EBITDA) compared to certain levels set forth in Mr. Byrne's employment agreement. Mr. Byrne is also entitled to an annual $30,000 contribution to fund a life insurance or retirement arrangement and a country club membership. In the event of a change of control of the Company, and Mr. Byrne's termination, Mr. Byrne is entitled to severance payments equal to his then-current annual base salary, benefits, and bonuses for at least one and a half years, depending on the reason for and date of his termination in relation to the change of control. Mr. Byrne is entitled to severance payments equal to his then-current annual base salary, benefits, and bonuses for one and a half years if he is terminated without cause. In the case of Mr. Bowers, his severance payment would be six months' compensation. Mr. Hughes does not have a severance arrangement, but is generally entitled to one-year's notice before termination. Mr. Byrne's and Mr. Hughes' agreements contain certain post-termination covenants not to compete. The employment agreements also provide for use of a Company car, reimbursement of business expenses, participation in the Company's 401(k) plan and other benefit programs on the same basis as other salaried employees. Mr. Hughes' and Mr. Bowers' agreements have no expiration dates. Mr. Byrne's agreement expires on December 31, 2008, and is thereafter renewable for successive one-year periods, unless the agreement is terminated earlier by him or the Company. Pursuant to Mr. Byrne's employment agreement, the Company agreed to use its best efforts to cause Mr. Byrne to remain on the Board and to be appointed a member of the Executive Committee of the Board.

Compensation of Directors

The following table sets forth the compensation for Company directors who are not also employees:

Annual Retainer	$15,000
Daily Meeting Fee	1,000
Telephonic Meeting Fee	500
Additional Annual Retainers:
Audit Committee Chairman	12,000
Compensation Committee Chairman	5,000

Non-employee directors of the Company are also granted 2,000 stock options annually under the Company's 2001 Plan. During 2005, each non-employee director was granted a ten-year stock option exercisable immediately for 2,000 shares at an exercise price of $13.31 per share.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

On June 10, 2005, Mr. Odishaw filed a Form 4, which was late, reporting that on May 3, 6 and 9, 2005 he had sold a total of 5,900 shares of the Company's Common Stock.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS
Change in Independent Auditors

On May 31, 2005, the Company dismissed Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst) as the independent auditors of the Company. The reports of Ernst on the financial statements of the Company for each of the past two fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. The decision to change independent auditors was made by the Audit Committee of the Company s Board of Directors.

During the Company s two then most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period from January 1 to May 31, 2005, the Company had no disagreements with Ernst on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst would have caused them to make reference to the matter in their report. During such period, the Company had no reportable events (as that term is described in Item 304 (a)(1)(v) of SEC Regulation S-K).

Effective May 31, 2005, the Audit Committee engaged Grant Thornton LLP (Grant) to audit and report on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 and to perform a review of the Company s interim financial information for the 2005 second and third quarters. Prior to the engagement of Grant, the Company had not consulted with them during its two then most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the subsequent interim period from January 1 to May 31, 2005, on any matter regarding: (a) either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company s financial statements or (b) any matter that was the subject of either a disagreement or a reportable event as described above.

The Company has provided each of Grant and Ernst with a copy of the foregoing disclosures and given each of them the opportunity to provide a statement to be included in this Proxy Statement if they believe that the disclosures are incorrect or incomplete. Neither firm has expressed any disagreement with the disclosures.

Representatives of Grant are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Fees for Independent Auditors

Fees for professional services provided by the Company s independent auditors, Grant, from May 31, 2005 through December 31, 2005, in each of the following categories, are:

Audit	$209,000
Audit-Related	16,500
Tax
 Total	 $225,500

Audit Fees. Fees for audit services include fees associated with the 2005 annual audit, the reviews of the Company s quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and audit services related to the acquisition of U.S. Lime Company St. Clair.

Audit-Related Fees. Audit-related fees principally include fees relating to an employee benefit plan audit and accounting consultations.

Tax Fees. Grant did not provide any tax services in 2005.

The Audit Committee has adopted a pre-approval policy relating to the providing of services by the Company s independent auditors. Under the Committee s pre-approval procedures, all services to be provided by the auditors must be approved in advance by the Committee. The Committee has delegated to the Chairman of the Committee the authority to approve such services up to $25,000 each in the case of either a change in the scope or cost of previously approved services, or an additional type of services that was not covered by a prior Committee approval. The Audit Committee does not delegate any of its approval authority to management.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board does not intend to present any other matters at the Annual Meeting and knows of no other matters that will be presented. However, if any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons designated as proxies on the enclosed Proxy Card intend to vote thereon in accordance with their best judgment.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Shareholder proposals submitted to the Company under SEC Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for its 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must be received by the Company at its office in Dallas, Texas, addressed to Timothy W. Byrne, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, not later than December 8, 2006. Such Rule 14a-8 shareholder proposals must comply with SEC rules.

The Company must receive notice of other matters, including non-Rule 14a-8 proposals, that shareholders may wish to raise at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders by February 21, 2007. If the Company does not receive timely notice of such other matters, the persons designated as proxies for such meeting will retain general discretionary authority to vote on such matters under SEC rules. Such notices should be addressed to Timothy W. Byrne, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The costs of solicitation of Proxies for the Annual Meeting will be borne by the Company. Solicitation may be made by mail, personal interview, telephone, and/or facsimile by officers and regular employees of the Company who will receive no additional compensation therefor. The Company may specifically engage a firm to aid in the solicitation of Proxies, for which services the Company would anticipate paying a standard reasonable fee plus out-of-pocket expenses. The Company will bear the reasonable expenses incurred by banks, brokerage firms, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners.
