Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On August 11, 2008, Tronox Incorporated (the Company) was notified by the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) that it is not in compliance with the NYSE's continued listing standards. The NYSE's notice indicated that the Company's average market capitalization over the 30 trading-day period preceding August 8, 2008 was $67.4 million, which was below the NYSE's quantitative listing standard requiring NYSE listed companies to have an average market capitalization of at least $75 million over any consecutive 30 trading-day period.

Under applicable rules and regulations of the NYSE, the Company must respond to the NYSE within forty-five (45) days from the receipt of the notice with a business plan that demonstrates its ability to achieve compliance with the continued listing standards within eighteen (18) months from the receipt of the notice. If the Company does not submit a business plan demonstrating the ability to achieve such continued listing standards, the NYSE will commence suspension and delisting procedures.
