ITEM 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER.

This Amendment No. 2 ("Amendment No. 2") to Schedule 13D relates to the common stock, $1.00 par value (the "Common Stock"), of Synovus Financial Corp. ("Synovus"), a Georgia business corporation. The address of Synovus' principal executive offices is 901 Front Avenue, Suite 301, Columbus, Georgia 31901.

ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND.

This Amendment No. 2 amends and restates that certain Schedule 13D filed on November 14, 1986, as amended by Amendment No. 1 filed on March 13, 1995 (the "Schedule 13D"), on behalf of TB&C Bancshares, a Georgia corporation ("TB&C"), whose principal business and office address is 1017 Front Avenue, Columbus, Georgia 31901.

TB&C was formed in 1986 by William B. Turner, Sarah T. Butler and Elizabeth T. Corn, to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals.

TB&C has not, during the last five years, been convicted in any criminal proceeding, excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors.

TB&C has not, during the last five years, been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding become subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

The information required by Item 2 with respect to each executive officer, director and controlling person of TB&C is set forth on Exhibit D to this Schedule 13D and is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION.

Amendment No. 2 is being filed pursuant to Rule 13d-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to report a recent transaction that reduced by 13,311,843 the shares of Synovus Common Stock that TB&C may be deemed to beneficially own. This reduction resulted from the termination of an agreement (the "Voting Lease") pursuant to which TB&C had leased certain rights in all shares of Synovus Common Stock held in trust by Synovus Trust Company ("STC"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Synovus, under each of the following trusts (collectively, the "Series 600 Trusts"): (a) STC as Trustee u/w/o W.C. Bradley 6/22/45 for Sarah T. Butler; (b) STC as Trustee u/w/o W.C. Bradley 6/22/45 for Elizabeth T. Corn; and (c) STC as Trustee u/w/o W.C. Bradley 6/22/45 for William B. Turner.

The only funds or other consideration that has been or will be given in connection with the termination of the Voting Lease described above was a refund by each of the 600 Series Trusts of a pro rata portion ($51,074.95 by each of the three trusts or $153,224.85 in the aggregate) of the quarterly lease payments that had been paid by TB&C in advance as required under the Voting Lease, for the three-month period ending March 1, 2001. The Series 600 Trusts funded these payments with cash on hand.

TB&C was formed in 1986 by William B. Turner, Sarah T. Butler and Elizabeth T. Corn, to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals. Since 1986, there have been six three-for-two splits of Synovus Common Stock, as a result of which each share of Synovus Common Stock outstanding in 1986 now represents approximately 11 shares of Synovus Common Stock (disregarding any cash settlements of fractional shares). These stock splits account for the vast majority of increases since 1986 in the number of shares shown as beneficially owned by TB&C.

As of the date of this report, the voting stock of TB&C is beneficially owned primarily by: (1) Mr. Turner and his wife, who together own 28.9% through grantor retained annuity trusts ("GRATs") that they established, (2) Mrs. Butler and her husband, who together own 30.8% through GRATs that they established and (3) Mrs. Corn and her husband, who together own 29.4% through GRATs that they established.

As of the date of this report, TB&C beneficially owns 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock directly. Prior to January 22, 2001, TB&C may also have been deemed to be the beneficial owner of 13,311,843 shares of Common Stock indirectly under the Voting Lease, pursuant to which TB&C leased from STC the right to vote and the right to tender all, but not less than all, of the Common Stock of Synovus held by the Series 600 Trusts. The TB&C Board of Directors made all decisions as to the voting of these shares under the Voting Lease, and if it had become relevant, would have made any decision as to any tender offer.

The Voting Lease had an initial five-year term and was renewed on February 29, 2000 for another five years. In exchange for the lease of such rights, TB&C was required to make quarterly payments to STC for the initial lease term of five years, equal to $.03 per share of Synovus Common Stock, which was .17% of $19.50, the closing price of a share of Synovus Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange on March 2, 1995. The quarterly lease payments during the renewal term of the Voting Lease were equal to $.0265625 per share of Synovus Common Stock, which was .17% of $15.625, the closing price of a share of Synovus Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange on March 2, 2000. TB&C used the quarterly cash dividends that it received with respect to the shares of Synovus Common Stock it owned directly as the source of funds to pay these lease payments. On January 22, 2001, TB&C terminated the Voting Lease for the reasons described in Item 4. As a result, no person, other than STC as trustee of each of the Series 600 Trusts, continues to have any beneficial ownership as a result of sharing voting or investment power as to the Synovus shares held on behalf of the Series 600 Trusts.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

As indicated under Item 3, TB&C was formed to allow Mr. Turner, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Corn to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals for themselves and their lineal descendants. Mr. Turner, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Corn and the other family members who are directors of TB&C concluded, based on their continuing evaluation of the families' circumstances and on the advice of their professional advisors, that achievement of these goals would be advanced by the termination of the Voting Lease and the reorganization of TB&C described below. Accordingly, the Voting Lease was terminated on January 22, 2001.

In addition, on January 17, 2001, the Board of Directors of Synovus approved a plan of reorganization involving TB&C and Synovus pursuant to which TB&C would transfer all of its assets, consisting primarily of 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock, to Synovus in exchange for 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock. Following the transfer, TB&C would liquidate and distribute all of its assets to its shareholders. This transaction is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization pursuant to Section 368(a)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The completion of the transaction would be subject to numerous conditions precedent, including execution of a definitive agreement, approval of TB&C's shareholders and various regulatory approvals.

Except for the proposed reorganization and related liquidation of TB&C described above, neither TB&C, nor any executive officer, director or controlling person of TB&C, currently has any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (a) any person acquiring additional securities of Synovus or disposing of securities of Synovus, other than through the participation of certain of such persons in Synovus' Director Stock Purchase Plan and in Synovus' Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction involving Synovus; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of the assets of Synovus or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of Synovus; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of Synovus; (f) any other material change in Synovus' business or corporate structure; (g) any changes in Synovus' charter or bylaws or other actions that might impede the acquisition of control of Synovus; (h) the delisting of Synovus Common Stock from the New York Stock Exchange; (i) the eligibility of Synovus Common Stock for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated in items (a) through (i) above.

ITEM 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

(a) and (b) The percentages set forth below and on pages 2-3 hereof are based on 285,584,009 shares of Synovus Common Stock outstanding on January 30, 2001, as provided by Synovus.

TB&C

TB&C beneficially owns 14,309,182 shares (5.0%) of Synovus Common Stock. Voting power and investment power with respect to these shares is exercised on behalf of TB&C by the Board of Directors of TB&C. The Bylaws of TB&C provide that voting power over all of the shares owned or otherwise voted by TB&C shall be shared by the directors of TB&C. The exercise of certain investment power with respect to these shares would, to the extent such exercise involves major transactions requiring approval by TB&C's shareholders, be subject to the concurrence of at least the six principal shareholders of TB&C.

Edgar Filing: SYNOVUS FINANCIAL CORP - Form SC 13D/A

The total number of shares of Synovus Common Stock deemed to be beneficially owned by each of the six directors of TB&C and each of the six individuals who, as trustees of their respective GRATs, are the controlling shareholders of TB&C, includes all of the Synovus Common Stock owned by TB&C. The reason for this is the participation by each director of TB&C in TB&C's voting and investment decisions with respect to its Synovus Common Stock and the potential participation by each of the six principal shareholders of TB&C in any of TB&C's investment decisions with respect to its Synovus Common Stock, to the extent any such investment decisions involve major transactions requiring approval by TB&C's shareholders.

William B. Turner. Mr. Turner could be construed to be the beneficial owner of 16,970,539.6644 shares (5.9%) of Synovus Common Stock. Mr. Turner has sole voting and investment power as to 73,335.6644 shares of Synovus Common Stock, all of which he owns directly. Mr. Turner has shared voting and investment power as to 16,897,204 shares of Synovus Common Stock, consisting of: (a) 19,817 shares owned directly by his wife, Sue Marie T. Turner, as to which voting power and investment power are shared by Mr. Turner with his wife; (b) 2,568,205 shares owned by the Bradley-Turner Foundation (the "B-T Foundation"), a charitable foundation of which both Mr. and Mrs. Turner are trustees and as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of such foundation; and (c) 14,309,182 shares owned by TB&C, as to which voting power and investment power are shared by Mr. Turner (as a TB&C director) with the other directors of TB&C and as to which certain investment power (involving major transactions requiring approval by TB&C's shareholders) may be deemed to be shared by Mr. Turner (as sole trustee of his GRAT) with the other principal shareholders of TB&C.

Sue Marie T. Turner. Mrs. Turner could be construed to be the beneficial owner of 16,897,204 shares (5.9%) of Synovus Common Stock. Mrs. Turner has shared voting and investment power as to 2,588,022 of these shares, as follows: (a) 19,817 shares owned directly by Mrs. Turner, as to which voting power and investment power are shared with Mr. Turner; and (b) 2,568,205 shares owned by the B-T Foundation, as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of the B-T Foundation. In addition, as a principal shareholder of TB&C, Mrs. Turner (as sole trustee of her GRAT) may be deemed to share certain investment power (involving major transactions requiring approval by TB&C's shareholders) with the directors and five other principal shareholders of TB&C as to the 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock owned by TB&C. Based on the active and long-standing relationship of Mr. Turner and his ancestors with Synovus and its predecessor and on other considerations, Mr. and Mrs. Turner do not believe that Mrs. Turner shares any voting or investment power over the 73,335.6644 shares of Synovus Common Stock owned directly by Mr. Turner. Accordingly, such shares have been excluded from the total shares shown as beneficially owned by Mrs. Turner and she disclaims beneficial ownership of such shares.

investment power are shared also with STC, as trustee of such trust; (d) 2,568,205 shares owned by the B-T Foundation, of which both Mrs. and Dr. Butler are trustees, and as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of such foundation; and (e) 14,309,182 shares owned directly by TB&C, as to which voting power and investment power are shared by Mrs. Butler (as a TB&C director) with the other directors of TB&C and as to which certain investment power (involving major transactions requiring approval by TB&C's shareholders) may be deemed to be shared by Mrs. Butler (as sole trustee of her GRAT) with the other principal shareholders of TB&C.

As a principal shareholder of TB&C, Dr. Butler (as sole trustee of his GRAT) may be deemed to share certain investment power (involving major transactions requiring approval by TB&C's shareholders) with the directors and other principal shareholders of TB&C as to the 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock owned by TB&C.

Elizabeth T. Corn. Mrs. Corn could be construed to be the beneficial owner of 17,431,766.3114 shares (6.1%) of Synovus Common Stock. Corn; (b) 424,003.3114 shares owned by Mr. Corn, as to which Mrs. Corn shares voting and investment power with her husband; (c) 2,568,205 shares owned by the B-T Foundation, of which both Mrs. Corn and Mr. Corn are trustees, and as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of such foundation; (d) 14,309,182 shares owned by TB&C, as to which voting power and investment power are shared by Mrs. Corn (as a director of TB&C) with the other directors of TB&C and as to which certain investment power (involving major transactions requiring approval by TB&C's shareholders) may be deemed to be shared by Mrs. Corn (as sole trustee of her GRAT) with the other principal shareholders of TBC and (e) 127,095 shares owned by Beloco, Inc., a not-for-profit charitable corporation ("Beloco"), as to which both Mrs. and Mr. Corn are trustees and as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of Beloco.

Lovick P. Corn. Mr. Corn could be construed to be the beneficial owner of 17,431,766.3114 shares (6.1%) of Synovus Common Stock. Mr. Corn has shared voting and investment power as to 3,122,584.3114 of these shares, as follows: (a) 424,003.3114 shares owned directly by Mr. Corn, as to which Mr. Corn shares voting and investment power with his wife; (b) 3,281 shares owned directly by Mrs. Corn, as to which voting power and investment power are shared by Mr. Corn with Mrs. Corn; (c) 2,568,205 shares owned by the B-T Foundation, as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of the B-T Foundation; and (d) 127,095 shares owned by Beloco, as to which voting power and
