Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 23, 2008, Fentura Financial, Inc. (the Company) effected certain amendments to its Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan, a summary of which are described below. In addition, on October 24, 2008, the Company entered into a Supplement Executive Retirement Plan in connection with the employment of a new senior credit officer, Daniel J. Wollschlager. Mr. Wollschlager most recently served as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Credit Officer of Main Street Bank, Northville, Michigan (2007-2008), Manager of the Corporate Advisory Group for BBK, Ltd's Southfield, Michigan Office (2004-2007), and Executive Vice President of National City Bank, Cleveland, Ohio (1990-2002).

Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan

The Company has established the Fentura Financial, Inc. Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan (the Plan) for certain key executives not covered under a supplemental executive retirement plan. The Plan is designed to encourage highly compensated officers to remain long-term employees of the Company and its affiliates, and to provide the officers with supplemental retirement income. Discretionary contribution to the Plan may be granted each Plan year by the Company's Board of Directors based on financial performance of the Company. Discretionary contributions under the Plan are credited to a deferred compensation account established and maintained for each participant. The deferred compensation account is credited with interest based on the U.S. Treasury 5 year rate at the end of each calendar year.

The Plan was amended and restated to adopt certain changes to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. Pursuant to this amendment, payments to participants under the Plan will be delayed for a period of six months to the extent that the participant is considered a key employee. The Plan was also amended to provide that payments of deferred compensation will commence within 120 days after the end of the calendar year following the earlier of the date the Participant attains age 65 or terminates employment. The Plan was further amended so that participants electing installments will receive distribution over 5 years. Finally, the Plan was amended to permit the Company to make discretionary contributions in the amount it determines to be appropriate. Prior to the amendment, such contributions were limited to 5% of the participant's annual compensation.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements with Daniel Wollschlager

The Company has entered into a Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreement with Daniel J. Wollschlager (the SERP Agreement). The SERP Agreement is designed to encourage Mr. Wollschlager to remain a long-term employee of the Company, and to provide specified benefits to Mr. Wollschlager for his contributions to the continued growth, development and future business success of the Company. The retirement benefits are an unsecured obligation of the Company.

The SERP Agreement provides that upon each of the first five anniversaries of Mr. Wollschlager's date of hire, Mr. Wollschlager shall earn a benefit equal to $35,000 so that on the 5th anniversary, provided he is employed by Company or its Affiliates, Mr. Wollschlager shall be entitled to a benefit equal to $175,000. In the case of Mr. Wollschlager's voluntary termination of employment prior to the 5th anniversary of his date of hire, the amount payable to the Mr. Wollschlager under the SERP Agreement is equal to the benefit earned as of the date of his termination of employment. In the event of Mr. Wollschlager's involuntary termination of employment without cause or termination of employment for good reason, the amount payable to him is $175,000. Upon separation from service due to disability, the benefit is equal to the benefit earned as of the date of Mr. Wollschlager's termination of employment. In the event of death, the benefit is $175,000. The benefits earned in this SERP Agreement are payable in a single lump sum.

Table of Contents

Cause means (i) Gross negligence or gross neglect of duties to the Company or its affiliates; or (ii) Conviction of a felony or of a gross misdemeanor involving moral turpitude in connection with the Mr. Wollschlager's employment with the Company or its affiliates; or (iii) fraud, disloyalty, dishonesty or willful violation of any law or significant policy committed in connection with the Mr. Wollschlager's employment and resulting in a material adverse effect on the Company or its affiliates.

Good reason means the occurrence of any of the following: (i) a material diminution of Mr. Wollschlager's duties, responsibilities, or authority with the Company or its affiliates or a change adverse in Mr. Wollschlager's reporting responsibilities, titles, terms of employment (including bonus, compensation, fringe benefits and vacation entitlement) or (ii) the Company or its affiliates requiring Mr. Wollschlager's employment to be based anywhere other than within fifty (50) miles of his present office location, or (iii) a material breach of the SERP Agreement including the failure by the Company to obtain the assumption of the SERP Agreement in the event of a reorganization of the Company.

The Company intends that the SERP Agreement comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. Payments under the SERP Agreement to Mr. Wollschlager will be delayed for a period of six months to the extent that he is considered a key employee and the delay is required by Section 409A

Summary of Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan and SERP Agreement

The amounts payable to the executives pursuant to the Plan and SERP Agreement are generally not included in the executives' income for federal income tax purposes until they are actually paid to the executives. The Plan and SERP Agreement are subject to certain requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code which include rules regarding the timing of payments to the executives. If an executive is considered a key employee pursuant to Section 416 of the Internal Revenue Code, then payments to the executive must not be made until six months following the executive's termination of employment. If the Plan and SERP Agreement do not comply with Section 409A, the executive would incur an excise tax equal to 20% of the amounts payable under the Plan and SERP Agreement, plus interest in certain cases. The Company intends that the Plan and SERP Agreement comply with Section 409A.
