PRESS RELEASE
For immediate release

AETERNA ZENTARIS APPOINTS A BOARD VICE CHAIRMAN, A NEW CHAIR OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE, TWO NEW SCIENTIFIC ADVISORY BOARD MEMBERS AND AN IR DIRECTOR

QUEBEC CITY, CANADA, NOVEMBER 21, 2005 - Aeterna Zentaris Inc. (TSX: AEZ; Nasdaq: AEZS) today announced the appointment of Jurgen Ernst, former worldwide General Manager, Pharmaceutical Sector of Solvay S.A. as Vice Chairman of the Board. Mr. Ernst had joined Aeterna Zentaris' Board last February. In addition, Pierre MacDonald, Chairman, Eurocopter Canada Ltd. and a current five-year member of Aeterna Zentaris' Board, will also act as new Chair of the Corporate Governance Committee.

"As former worldwide General Manager, Pharmaceutical Sector of Solvay, Mr. Ernst has solid international expertise in strategic planning, corporate development, product development and marketing. Mr. MacDonald's keen sense of business and managerial skills have enabled him to hold senior executive functions at some of Canada's largest corporations. Both of them will no doubt contribute greatly in building value for our Company and its shareholders," commented Dr. Eric Dupont, Aeterna Zentaris Chairman.

The Company also announced the appointment of Dr. Daniel Douglas Von Hoff, Director of Translational Drug Development Division, Translational Genomics Institute (TGen) in Scottsdale, Arizona, to its Scientific Advisory Board (SAB). In June 2004, Dr. Von Hoff was appointed to President George Bush's National Cancer Advisory Board. Dr. Ulf Rapp, Professor of Molecular Cell Biology, Director of the Institute of Medical Radiation and Cell Research at Wurzburg University in Germany and Chairman of the German Cancer Society, was also appointed to Aeterna Zentaris' SAB.

"We are very proud to welcome such eminent scientists to our Scientific Advisory Board," stated Dr. Jurgen Engel, Executive Vice President, Global R&D and Chief Operating Officer at Aeterna Zentaris. "Their extensive knowledge and experience in cancer therapy along with the expertise of our other Scientific Advisory Board members will be very valuable in enhancing our oncology clinical programs."

Finally, the Company announced the appointment of Jenene Thomas as Director, Investor Relations. "Our Investor Relations strategy involves gaining greater visibility for our Company on the financial markets in the United States," underlined Gilles Gagnon, President and Chief Executive Officer at Aeterna Zentaris. "We are, therefore, convinced that having an experienced person such as Ms. Thomas on a permanent basis in New York, will help us achieve this goal."

JURGEN ERNST

Mr. Ernst, a seasoned executive, has recently retired from his position as worldwide General Manager, Pharmaceutical Sector of Solvay S.A. For more than

A graduate of Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons (New York), Dr. Von Hoff is an internationally recognized expert in the field of oncology, providing guidance to industry and academic institutions. In the area of clinical drug development, he was involved in the early development of many of the agents now used routinely, including: Paclitaxel, Docetaxel, Gemcitabine, CPT-11, Iressa and Tarceva. Dr. Von Hoff has served in the past as the President of the American Association for Cancer Research from 1999 to 2000. He is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians and a member and past Board Member of the American Society of Clinical Oncology. He has published over 500 papers, as well as over 850 abstracts.

ULF RAPP, MD

Dr. Rapp is Professor of Molecular Cell Biology, as well as Director of the Institute of Medical Radiation and Cell Research at Wurzburg University in Germany. A pioneer of signal transduction in oncology, he identified Raf which, among others, is a target for perifosine, Aeterna Zentaris' lead anti-cancer product. He is also the leader of a current tumor vaccine project for Aeterna Zentaris.

He worked at various research laboratories including twenty years at the National Cancer Institute in the United States before joining the Institute of Medical Radiation and Cell Research of Wurzburg University in 1993.

A graduate of the Medical School at the University of Freiburg in Germany, Dr. Rapp has been the recipient of many awards in the scientific community including the 1998 Max Planck International Research Award, the 2001 Cancer Prize of the German Cancer Society, the 2002 American Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology Award and 2003 Honorary member of the Japanese Biochemical Society.
