(b) Tender Offer.

This Schedule 14D-9 relates to the tender offer by Wichita Bio Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Purchaser) and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Genzyme Corporation, a Massachusetts corporation (Genzyme), to purchase (i) all of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock, at a purchase price of $5.60 per share of Company Common Stock, net to the selling stockholders in cash, without interest thereon and less any required withholding taxes (the Offer Price), and (ii) all of the outstanding shares of Company Preferred Stock, for the sum of (a) the product of (x) two (2) multiplied by (y) the Offer Price plus (b) all accrued but unpaid dividends with respect to such shares as of the Acceptance Date (as defined below), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated June 4, 2007 (the Offer to Purchase), and in the related Letter of Transmittal (which, together with the Offer to Purchase, constitutes the Offer). The Offer is described in a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the Schedule TO), filed by Genzyme and Purchaser with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on June 4, 2007.

The Offer is being made pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 29, 2007, by and among Genzyme, Purchaser and the Company (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that, among other things, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, following completion of the Offer, and in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), Purchaser will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger). Following the consummation of the Merger, the Company will continue as the surviving corporation (the Surviving Corporation), as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Genzyme. At the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each issued and outstanding Share (other than Shares owned by the Company, Genzyme, any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company or Genzyme (including Purchaser), and Shares held by stockholders who have perfected their statutory dissenters' rights of appraisal under Section 262 of the DGCL) will be automatically converted into (i) in the case of the Company Common Stock, the right to receive an amount in cash, without interest thereon and less any required withholding taxes, equal to the Offer Price, or (ii) in the case of the Company Preferred Stock, the right to receive the sum of (a) the product of (x) two (2) multiplied by (y) the Offer Price plus (b) all accrued but unpaid dividends with respect to such shares as of the Acceptance Date (the amounts described in clauses (i) and (ii) hereof are referred to collectively as the Merger Consideration). The Merger Agreement is summarized in Section 12 of the Offer to Purchase.

Genzyme has formed Purchaser in connection with the Merger Agreement, the Offer and the Merger. The Schedule TO states that the principal executive offices of each of Genzyme and Purchaser are located at 500 Kendall Street, Cambridge, MA 02142.

Item 3. Past Contacts, Transactions, Negotiations and Agreements.

Except as set forth in this Schedule 14D-9, including in the Information Statement of the Company attached to this Schedule 14D-9 as Annex I hereto, which is incorporated by reference herein (the Information Statement) and in the Company s Proxy Statement in Schedule 14A filed with the SEC on October 20, 2006, as incorporated in this Schedule 14D-9 by reference, as of the date of this Schedule 14D-9, there are no material agreements, arrangements or understandings and no actual or potential conflicts of interest between the Company or its affiliates and (i) its executive officers, directors or affiliates, or (ii) Genzyme, Purchaser or their respective executive officers, directors or affiliates. The Information Statement is being furnished to the Company s stockholders pursuant to Section 14(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and Rule 14f-1 promulgated under the Exchange Act, in connection with Genzyme s right pursuant to the Merger Agreement to designate persons to the board of directors of the Company (the Company Board or the Company s Board of Directors) after acquiring a majority of the Company Common Stock pursuant to the Offer (such time hereinafter referred to as the Acceptance Date).

(a) Arrangements with Current Executive Officers, Directors and Affiliates of the Company.

In considering the recommendation of the Company Board as set forth in Item 4 below, the Company s stockholders should be aware that certain executive officers, directors and affiliates of the Company have interests in the Offer and the Merger, which are described below, which may present them with certain potential conflicts of interest. The Company Board is aware of these potential conflicts and has considered them along with the other factors described in this Item 3 and Item 4 below.

Information Statement.

Certain agreements, arrangements or understandings between the Company or its affiliates and certain of its directors, executive officers and affiliates are described in the Information Statement attached as Annex I hereto.

Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance.

Section 145 of the DGCL permits a Delaware corporation to include in its charter documents, and in agreements between a corporation and its directors and officers, provisions expanding the scope of indemnification beyond that specifically provided by current law. The Company has included in its Amended and Restated By-Laws of the Company (the Bylaws) provisions to limit or eliminate the personal liability of its directors to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law, as it now exists or may in the future be amended. In addition, the Amended Certificate of Incorporation (the Charter) provides that the Company s directors will not be personally liable for monetary damages to the Company or its stockholders for breaches of their fiduciary duty as directors, except (a) for any breach of the director s duty of loyalty to the Company or the Company s stockholders, (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith of law, (c) for any liability under Section 174 of the DGCL (unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions) and (d) for any transaction in which the director derives an improper benefit. In addition, the Bylaws provide that the Company (and any successor to the Company by merger or otherwise) is required to indemnify and hold harmless its directors and officers to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, as it now exists or may in the future be amended, against any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees), liabilities or other matters covered by rights to which the directors and officers are entitled under the Bylaws, any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, to any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether by or in the right of the Company or otherwise, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director or executive officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan. Expenses for the defense of any action for which indemnification may be available may be advanced by the Company under certain circumstances. The Company maintains liability insurance which insures the Company's directors and officers against certain losses and insures the Company with respect to its obligations to indemnify its directors and officers.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Genzyme has agreed that any rights to indemnification or exculpation existing in favor of the directors or officers of the Company as provided in its Charter or Bylaws, in effect as of the date of the Merger Agreement, with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the Acceptance Date shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect for a period of six (6) years after the Acceptance Date, and Genzyme guarantees any such obligations of the Surviving Corporation. Unless required by law, Genzyme has agreed not to amend, repeal or otherwise modify such provisions for indemnification in a manner that would materially and adversely affect the rights of indemnification or exculpation thereunder in favor of the individuals who at the Acceptance Date were directors or officers of the Company until expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that Genzyme will cause the Surviving Corporation to honor the obligations of the Company to comply with the indemnification and exculpation provisions under the Charter and Bylaws in effect as of the date of the Merger Agreement between the Company and any of its directors or officers until expiration of the applicable statute of limitations.

The Merger Agreement further provides that at or prior to the Acceptance Date, the Company will purchase a tail directors and officers liability insurance policy for its directors and officers that will provide the Company's directors and officers with coverage for six (6) years following the Acceptance Date of not less than the existing coverage under, and have other terms not materially less favorable to the insured persons than the coverage provided in, the directors and officers liability insurance policy presently maintained by the Company, so long as the aggregate cost is not greater than $1.80 million. Prior to purchasing any such tail insurance policy with an aggregate cost equal to or exceeding $1.35 million, the Company shall afford Genzyme the opportunity to purchase a substitute policy with the same coverage limits and substantially similar terms as in the tail insurance policy proposed to be purchased by the Company.

Executive Agreements.

Christopher B. Wood, David P. Luci, James S. Scibetta, Ian Abercrombie, Hugh S. Griffith, Kristen M. Dunker and Robert Sterling, each of whom is an executive officer of the Company (Executive Officer), previously entered into an executive employment agreement with the Company and/or Bioenvision, Ltd., the Company's wholly-owned sales and marketing subsidiary (the Executive Agreements). The Executive Agreements generally provide that if an Executive Officer resigns for good reason or within a certain time period following a change of control, or is terminated without cause

(as each such term is defined in each respective Executive Agreement), then the Executive Officer will be entitled to receive certain severance payments and certain benefits. The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement constitute a change of control under the Executive Agreements, where applicable.

For more detailed descriptions of these Executive Agreements, see the Section entitled Executive Compensation of the Company's Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the SEC on October 20, 2006 filed as Exhibit (e)(10) hereto, which is incorporated herein by reference. The following descriptions of the Executive Agreements are qualified in their entirety by reference to the respective employment agreements filed as Exhibits (e)(2), (e)(3), (e)(5), (e)(6), (e)(7) and (e)(8) hereto, which are incorporated herein by reference.

Severance.

If any Executive Officer terminates his or her employment after a change of control during the requisite time period, or the Executive Officer resigns for good reason or his or her employment is terminated without cause (as each such term is defined in each respective Executive Agreement), then the Executive Officer would receive the following: Mr. Wood would receive a lump sum payment equal to one year of base salary. Mr. Luci would receive a lump sum payment equal to 1.50 multiplied by the sum of his base salary plus the average value of his last two annual bonuses. Mr. Luci would also receive a make whole payment on an after-tax basis for any and all income or excise taxes, interest or penalties that may be imposed on him under applicable tax laws in connection with or incurred as a result of a change of control (as defined in his Executive Agreement). Mr. Scibetta would receive a lump sum payment equal to the sum of one year of base salary and the average value of the two most recent bonuses received. Mr. Griffith would receive a lump sum payment equal to one year of base salary. Mr. Abercrombie would receive a lump sum payment equal to six months of base salary. Ms. Dunker would receive a lump sum payment equal to 12 months of her base salary plus the average of her last two year-end bonuses. If Mr. Sterling's employment is terminated without cause (as defined in his Executive Agreement), then Mr. Sterling would receive a lump sum payment equal to one year of his base salary plus bonus. The severance payments and benefits are conditioned upon the Executive Officer's compliance with certain restrictive covenants.

In addition, under the terms of their respective Executive Agreements (as defined in each respective Executive Agreement), if a change of control occurs during the employment of Messrs. Wood, Luci or Griffith and such change of control prevents any incentive stock options held by any such Executive Officer from receiving favorable tax treatment under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, each such Executive Officer will receive gross-up payments to address such loss of favorable tax treatment.

Edgar Filing: BIOENVISION INC - Form SC 14D9

In the event of such a severance-qualifying termination, as described above, the following table shows the amount of potential cash severance payable to each Executive Officer following termination of employment, based on compensation and benefit levels in effect on the date of this Schedule 14D-9, assuming the Executive Officer's employment terminates under circumstances that entitle the Executive Officer to severance.

The Company has granted stock options in accordance with the terms of the Executive Agreements, as described under the headings Executive Compensation And Other Information Concerning Executive Officers and Employment Agreements in the Information Statement. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company is required to use reasonable efforts to ensure that at the Effective Time, each outstanding option to purchase Company Common Stock granted by the Company under the Company's 2003 Stock Incentive Plan (each, a Company Option) whether vested or unvested, shall be cancelled and will thereafter represent the right to receive, in consideration for such cancellation, an amount in cash equal to the product of (x) the excess, if any, of the Offer Price over the exercise price of each such Company Option multiplied by (y) the number of unexercised shares of Company Common Stock subject thereto. The information contained in Section 12 of the Offer to Purchase regarding treatment of the Options in the Merger is incorporated in this Statement by reference. The summary of the Merger Agreement contained in Section 12 of the Offer to Purchase filed as Exhibit (d)(1) to the Schedule TO and the description of the conditions of the Offer contained in Section 14 of the Offer to Purchase are incorporated herein by reference. Such summary and description are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit (e)(1) hereto and is incorporated herein by reference to provide information regarding its terms.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties that the Company and Purchaser made solely for purposes of the Merger Agreement and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties. Moreover, some of those representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specific date, may be subject to a standard of materiality provided for in the Merger Agreement or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk among the Company, Genzyme and Purchaser rather than establishing matters as facts.

Mutual Nondisclosure Agreement.

The Company and Genzyme entered into a mutual nondisclosure agreement, dated April 24, 2007, in connection with the consideration of a possible negotiated transaction involving the Company. Under the mutual nondisclosure agreement, the parties agreed, subject to certain exceptions, to keep confidential any non-public information concerning the Company. Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation.

(a) Recommendation of the Company Board of Directors.

At a meeting of the Company's Board of Directors held on May 28, 2007, the Company Board unanimously: (i) determined and declared that the Merger Agreement, the Offer and the Merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby are advisable, and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, (ii) approved the Offer and the Merger in accordance with the DGCL, (iii) approved the Merger Agreement, (iv) recommended that the Company's stockholders accept the Offer, tender their shares of Company Common Stock into the Offer, and, if required by applicable law, approve the Merger and adopt the Merger Agreement, and (v) approved the Tender and Voting Agreements (as defined in paragraph (c) below) for purposes of satisfying the requirement of prior approval contained in Section 203(a)(1) of the DGCL in order to exempt the Tender and Voting Agreements from the restrictions of Section 203 of the DGCL on business combinations with interested stockholders. Based on the foregoing, the Company Board hereby recommends that the Company's stockholders accept the Offer, tender their Shares under the Offer to Purchase and, if necessary, approve the Merger and the Merger Agreement.

A copy of the letter to the Company's stockholders communicating the Company Board's recommendation is filed as Exhibit (a)(1)(A) to this Schedule 14D-9 and is incorporated herein by reference.

(b) Background and Reasons for the Company Board of Directors' Recommendation.

Background of the Offer.

1. Commercial Arrangement with Genzyme.

The Company and Genzyme (as successor-in-interest to Ilex Oncology, Inc. as of December 2004) are parties to a Co-Development Agreement, dated March 12, 2001, as amended (the Co-Development Agreement). The Co-Development Agreement grants Genzyme exclusive rights to a class of purine nucleoside analogues including clofarabine in North America for human cancer indications. Clofarabine is a novel chemotherapeutic agent with the potential to treat a range of malignancies, including leukemia, lymphoma and solid tumors. Pursuant to this agreement, Genzyme obtained approval in late 2004 to market clofarabine in the United States for the treatment of acute lymphoblastic leukemia (ALL) in relapsed or refractory pediatric patients. Genzyme thereafter provided the New Drug Application (NDA) supporting the US approval to the Company in increments over time and the Company converted the NDA into a Common Technical Document (CTD) over several months and ultimately filed the CTD for approval in Europe in mid-2004. Following the unanimous recommendation of the Committee for Human Medicinal Products (CHMP), the Company obtained full approval from the European Medicines Evaluation Agency (EMA) in May 2006. Genzyme and the Company are currently pursuing additional development programs to expand clofarabine's label into larger therapeutic indications, including use as a first-line therapy for the treatment of adult acute myeloid leukemia (AML).

In connection with the Co-Development Agreement, Genzyme has made quarterly royalty payments on sales of clofarabine in North America, beginning with the quarter ended March 31, 2005, the first quarter in which Genzyme generated commercial sales, in the aggregate amount of approximately $3,624,000 through the quarter ending March 31, 2007.

With regard to upfront payments for further marketing and distribution partners, the Company paid Genzyme approximately $46,880 in June 2006, representing one-third of the amount the Company received from Mayne Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Mayne) in connection with the Company granting to Mayne the exclusive rights to distribute clofarabine for certain cancer indications in Australia and New Zealand.

The parties to the Co-Development Agreement have disputed certain of the rights and obligations of the parties at times or from time to time during the partnering relationship.

2. Acquisition Discussions with Genzyme and Other Target Partner Companies.

Since 2003, the Company's management has periodically explored and assessed, and discussed with the Company Board, strategic alternatives for the Company. These alternatives included strategies to grow and expand the Company's business and operations through partnering arrangements and licensing agreements as well as opportunities to merge or combine the Company's operations with those of a company within the pharmaceutical sector with a focus on products to treat cancer (each, a Target Partner Company and, collectively, the Target Partner Companies). At many of the regularly scheduled meetings of the Company Board, the Company Board reviewed the Company's short and long term business strategies, market trends in the industry and the significant challenges the Company then confronted and in the future would likely confront in attaining its strategic objectives.

In connection with the Company Board's assessment of the Company's prospects with regard to each of these challenges, in July 2003 the Company Board retained a nationally recognized investment banking firm to serve as a financial advisor to the Company and to assist in exploring potential strategic alternatives for the Company. Between July 2003 and June 2004, the Company's management and the Company's financial advisor met with several Target Partner Companies. Certain of the Target Partner Companies expressed an interest in receiving additional information about the Company, and the Company's management and the Company's financial advisor provided more detailed information relating to the Company's various drug candidates, including clofarabine. During this time, the Company's management and the Company's financial advisor regularly met with the Company Board to review the status of these discussions. The Company did not receive any proposals during this period and closed the data room in late May 2004. Thereafter, in June 2004, the Company's management met with Genzyme's management to discuss potential licensing opportunities. At that time, Genzyme indicated verbally that it was interested in the Company providing Genzyme the worldwide rights to clofarabine in exchange for certain royalty and milestone payments. The Company Board discussed Genzyme's verbal proposal and decided, after consulting with the Company's management and the Company's financial advisor, that Genzyme's valuation of the clofarabine rights was substantially below expectations and therefore decided not to make any counter-proposal. In June 2004, the Company Board, after consulting with the Company's management and the Company's financial advisor, determined to discontinue this process of seeking out potential Target Partner Companies because of the insufficiency of Genzyme's verbal proposal and a lack of interest among any of the Target Partner Companies in exploring a strategic transaction with the Company.

In mid-2005, Genzyme informed the Company that it was interested in discussing a potential acquisition of the Company. Genzyme indicated that it had retained a nationally recognized investment banking firm to act as its financial advisor in connection with such a transaction. The Company subsequently retained UBS Securities LLC (UBS) to serve as the Company's financial advisor in connection with a possible strategic transaction with Genzyme or another Target Partner Company.

Beginning in August 2005, various due diligence matters relating to the Company were discussed between the Company's and Genzyme's financial advisor. During September 7, 2005 and September 8, 2005, the Company's management, members of Genzyme's management, and the Company's and Genzyme's financial advisors met to discuss due diligence matters and other matters relating to a potential transaction involving the Company and Genzyme. On October 17, 2005, the Company and Genzyme executed a confidentiality agreement pursuant to which they each agreed to keep confidential nonpublic information shared in the course of their discussions and diligence review and pursuant to which Genzyme agreed for a period of time not to acquire shares of the Company's capital stock or take certain actions with respect to the control of the Company without the consent of the Company Board. During this period, the Company established a due diligence data room and members of Genzyme's management and other advisors to Genzyme reviewed documents relating to the Company included in such data room.

On October 28, 2005, members of the Company's management, members of Genzyme's management and the Company's and Genzyme's financial advisors met to discuss further due diligence matters and other matters relating to a potential transaction between the Company and Genzyme. In November and December 2005, Genzyme continued its due diligence review of the Company, and the Company provided Genzyme with various documents and other information relating to the Company and its business. On December 14, 2005, the Company's management, members of Genzyme's management, and the Company's and Genzyme's financial advisors met to review due diligence matters and the status of ongoing developments relating to potential transactions.

In early 2006, Genzyme indicated that it was withdrawing from its discussions with the Company regarding a strategic transaction between Genzyme and the Company due principally to three concerns: (i) Genzyme stated that the risk was significant enough that the Company would be unable to obtain regulatory approval from the European Medicines Evaluation Agency based upon the clinical data and other information included in the Company's regulatory filing in Europe (the European Filing); (ii) Genzyme stated that even if the Company were able to obtain such approval for the European Filing in pediatric acute lymphoblastic leukemia indications in relapsed or refractory patients with at least two prior regimens, Genzyme did not believe the Company would receive such approval for at least another year beyond the Company's expectations at that time; and (iii) Genzyme did not believe the Company would be able to command the pricing and reimbursement levels which the Company articulated and since has obtained.

In April 2006, the Company Board determined that the Company should consider a potential sale, and accordingly, instructed UBS to approach a select number of Target Partner Companies regarding the possibility of a potential strategic transaction with the Company. The Company's management, with the assistance of UBS, identified approximately 20 Target Partner Companies that were believed to be potentially interested in pursuing a possible strategic transaction with the Company.

During May and June 2006, in accordance with the Company's instructions, UBS contacted these 20 Target Partner Companies. Four of these companies expressed an interest in discussing with the Company a possible strategic transaction, and each of these four companies executed a confidentiality agreement with the Company. The Company also prepared a due diligence data room in case the Company decided to move forward on a potential transaction with an interested Target Partner Company.

Between May 26, 2006 and June 16, 2006, the Company's management, together with UBS, met with these four Target Partner Companies (referred to herein as Company A, Company B, Company C and Company D). At each of these meetings, the Company's management presented detailed information relating to the Company and its products.

On June 19, 2006, the Company received a preliminary non-binding indication of interest from Company A indicating that Company A was interested in acquiring the Company for a price in the range of $6.25 to $6.75 per share (the Company A Proposal). The Company A Proposal was subject to various conditions, including, without limitation, Company A completing its due diligence review of the Company and its products. The Company Board reviewed the Company A Proposal with the Company's management and UBS. The Company Board determined to continue pursuing other indications of interest from other Target Partner Companies in an effort to determine the relative value of the Company A Proposal.

Between June 21, 2006 and June 26, 2006, each of Company B, Company C and Company D indicated that they were not interested in submitting any indication of interest relating to a possible strategic transaction with the Company.

At a meeting of the Company Board on July 27, 2006, the Company Board and the Company's management discussed the status of discussions with interested Target Partner Companies. The Company Board directed the Company's management and UBS to engage in further discussions and negotiations concerning a potential strategic transaction with Company A. In August and September 2006, in accordance with the Company's directives, the Company's management updated the due diligence data room and UBS contacted representatives of Company A about the possibility of pursuing a strategic transaction with the Company. As a result of such contacts, in early September 2006, UBS organized a meeting between the Company's management and the management of Company A at an industry conference held in Geneva, Switzerland. Following this meeting, Company A indicated to UBS that it remained interested in considering a possible strategic transaction with the Company. On October 13, 2006, the Company's management and UBS and the financial advisor and management team of Company A met and the Company's management presented detailed information relating to the Company and its products.

During this time, as instructed by the Company, UBS also contacted other Target Partner Companies that the Company Board and the Company's management and financial advisor believed might express an interest in pursuing a strategic transaction with the Company. None of such Target Partner Companies indicated they were interested in pursuing such a transaction.

In early November 2006, Company A indicated to UBS and the Company's management that Company A was not prepared to pursue a strategic transaction with the Company at the price per share set forth in the Company A Proposal (i.e., $6.25 to $6.75 per share) because Company A was concerned about the risks associated with the Company's regulatory strategy and commercialization prospects.

In December 2006, the Company Board directed the Company's management to begin undertaking a strategic planning process to assess the Company's assets and business opportunities. In connection therewith, the Company's management began to define the parameters of such strategic planning process, and in February 2007, the Company retained the services of a third party to assist the Company's management in undertaking this process.

In early 2007, a representative of Genzyme contacted Dennis Purcell, Senior Managing Director of Aisling Capital, an investment fund that manages Perseus-Soros Biopharmaceutical Fund, LP (which beneficially owns approximately 13% of the Company's outstanding shares of capital stock), about Genzyme's potential interest in acquiring the Company. Mr. Purcell indicated that Genzyme would need to talk to the Company regarding such matters. Mr. Purcell then contacted Dr. Christopher Wood, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, regarding these conversations.

Thereafter, Dr. Wood was contacted by Banc of America Securities LLC (BOA), Genzyme's new financial advisor, seeking to discuss matters pertaining to the Company, its business model and the Company's potential interest in pursuing a strategic transaction with Genzyme. After this call, BOA sent the Company a due diligence request list relating to the Company and the Company's products.

Dr. Wood informed the Company Board of the telephone call with BOA and the subsequent due diligence request, and the Company Board determined, after discussion with the Company's management, that it was premature to respond to Genzyme's due diligence request and that the Company Board would first need to consider whether pursuing discussions with Genzyme would be in the Company's best interests.

On April 4, 2007, the Company closed an equity financing with certain investors in which the Company raised approximately $30 million at $3.75 per share. As of that date, the Company had not received any formal indication of interest from Genzyme regarding a potential strategic transaction involving the Company.

On or about April 6, 2007, Dr. Wood received a telephone call from BOA indicating that Genzyme might be inclined to deliver a written non-binding indication of interest within the next several days. Dr. Wood reiterated his suspicion that such indication of interest was either not forthcoming or was likely intended as a fact-finding mission rather than any bona fide interest in exploring strategic alternatives.

On April 11, 2007, Genzyme sent to the Company Board a non-binding written indication of interest (the Genzyme Offer) that indicated, among other things, that Genzyme would be willing to acquire the Company for $5.25 per share, which, at that time, represented approximately (i) a 28% premium to the trailing 30-day average closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market; (ii) an 18% premium to the trailing 60-day average closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market; and (iii) a 15% premium to the trailing 90-day average closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market.

On April 12, 2007, the Company Board held a special telephonic meeting to discuss the Genzyme Offer. The Company Board decided to reconvene a meeting on April 13, 2007, at which time the Company's legal and financial advisors would be present to discuss the Genzyme Offer in detail.

On April 13, 2007, the Company Board held a special telephonic meeting to further discuss the Genzyme Offer, in which the Company's management and representatives of UBS and Goodwin Procter LLP (Goodwin Procter), legal counsel to the Company, participated. The Company Board further discussed the Genzyme Offer as well as discussed the Company's strategic direction and business. Representatives of Goodwin Procter reviewed at length with the Company Board its fiduciary duties in the context of a sale transaction. The Company Board instructed the Company's management to continue the strategic planning process that was previously authorized. Between April 13, 2007 and April 19, 2007, the Company's management and a third party continued working on such process.

On April 19, 2007, the Company Board held a special telephonic meeting to further discuss the Genzyme Offer, in which the Company's management and representatives of UBS and Goodwin Procter participated. The Company Board discussed, among other things, the preliminary results of the strategic planning process and considered the preliminary results therefrom relative to the Genzyme Offer. At the request of the Company Board, representatives of UBS outlined for the Company Board possible next steps in connection with moving forward with Genzyme on a potential strategic transaction, and representatives of Goodwin Procter further discussed the Company Board's fiduciary duties in the context of a sale transaction. The Company Board decided to pursue two parallel paths: (i) have the Company's management and UBS continue discussing with Genzyme the possibility of a strategic transaction between the companies; and (ii) have the Company's management continue working on the strategic planning process.

Edgar Filing: BIOENVISION INC - Form SC 14D9

On April 24, 2007, the Company and Genzyme executed and delivered a new confidentiality agreement pursuant to which they each agreed to keep confidential nonpublic information shared in the course of their discussions and diligence review.

On May 1, 2007, the Company Board held a regularly scheduled meeting at the Company's offices. The Company Board discussed the current status of the strategic planning process with the Company's management. The Company Board also created a committee (the Committee) which was authorized to work with the Company's management, UBS and Goodwin Procter to assist in facilitating possible negotiations with Genzyme as well as assisting the Company's management and UBS in conducting a market check. Dr. Wood, Dr. Andrew Schiff and Mr. Joseph Cooper, all members of the Company Board, were appointed to serve on the Committee.

In order to assist the Company Board in evaluating any proposal from Genzyme, and mindful of the Company Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law with respect to any potential acquisition of the Company, the Committee determined to explore the possibility of negotiating a transaction at a higher share price and on other terms more favorable to the Company than the terms set forth in the Genzyme Offer. In accordance with that instruction from the Committee, the Committee, the Company's management, with the assistance of UBS, identified a list of 10 Target Partner Companies (including Company A and some of the other Target Partner Companies previously approached by the Company and/or, on the Company's behalf, UBS) to determine if such companies would be interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with the Company (the Market Check). The 10 Target Partner Companies that were identified were those that were believed to be most likely to (i) be interested in undertaking a transaction with the Company due to these other companies' industry focus, product lines and current research and development efforts and (ii) represent the possibility of a potentially more favorable per share price for the Company's stockholders than the price set forth in the Genzyme Offer.

Between May 2, 2007 and May 23, 2007, in accordance with the Company's directives, UBS contacted each such Target Partner Company. Of the 10 Target Partner Companies contacted, and after further discussions with these companies, only one of these companies (Company E) expressed serious interest in engaging in further discussions with the Company regarding a possible strategic transaction with the Company, and Company E executed a confidentiality agreement with the Company.

On May 2, 2007, Genzyme requested additional due diligence materials. Between May 2, 2007 and May 10, 2007, the Company responded to Genzyme's due diligence request and Genzyme continued its due diligence review of the Company and its business.

On May 10, 2007, UBS and BOA had a telephone call to discuss the status of Genzyme's due diligence review. BOA indicated that, even though Genzyme had some reservations about some of the matters raised in its due diligence review, the purchase price set forth in the Genzyme Offer remained unchanged.

On May 11, 2007, per the Company's request, UBS had a telephone call with Company E to discuss the possibility of the Company's management making a presentation to Company E's management team.

On May 15, 2007, the closing price of the Company Common Stock on the NASDAQ Global Market was $3.35. On May 16, 2007, Genzyme held an analyst and investor meeting at which a Genzyme representative indicated that Genzyme would be interested in acquiring the worldwide rights to clofarabine. Over the next several trading days, the trading volume of the Company Common Stock increased substantially and the trading price began to increase significantly.

On May 17, 2007, the Company's management and UBS met with the management team of Company E and its financial advisor (the Company E Advisor). At this meeting, the Company's management presented detailed information relating to the Company and its products. During this meeting, process and timing were also discussed with Company E and the Company E Advisor.

On May 18, 2007, BOA informed UBS that a draft of the Merger Agreement would be delivered later that day. In the early evening, Ropes & Gray LLP (Ropes & Gray), legal counsel to Genzyme, distributed the initial draft of an Merger Agreement to Goodwin Procter. Ropes & Gray also circulated a proposed schedule of events which indicated that Genzyme wanted to execute the Merger Agreement on May 29, 2007.

In the morning of May 19, 2007, the Company's management and UBS had a conference call with Company E's management team and the Company E Advisor regarding the Company's clinical programs and products.

Later that day, the Company's management, UBS and Goodwin Procter had a telephonic meeting to discuss preliminary views on the first draft of the Merger Agreement delivered by Genzyme's legal counsel. This group also discussed the status of conversations with Company E.

In light of a concern about Genzyme withdrawing the Genzyme Offer if the Company were to significantly delay discussions with Genzyme in connection with undertaking the Market Check, on May 20, 2007, in accordance with the Company's directives, UBS and the Company E Advisor had a telephonic meeting during which UBS indicated that the Company had received a written indication of interest from an unnamed third party and emphasized to the Company E Advisor the urgency of promptly receiving a preliminary indication of interest from Company E regarding a potential strategic transaction with the Company.

On May 21, 2007, the Committee held a telephonic meeting in which the Company's management and representatives of UBS and Goodwin Procter participated. At the request of the Committee, representatives of UBS reviewed the activities that had been undertaken on behalf of the Company since May 1, 2007 relating to the Market Check. The representatives of UBS also updated the Committee on their conversations with Genzyme and their conversations with Company E. The Committee decided to continue discussions with Genzyme and to allow Company E more time to provide an indication of interest.

Also on this day, in accordance with the Company's directives, UBS spoke to the Company E Advisor and reiterated the need for Company E to express an interest in moving forward with a transaction if, in fact, it had such interest. The Company E Advisor acknowledged the timing issue and requested additional due diligence materials. Later that day, the Company provided to Company E such additional due diligence materials.

On May 22, 2007, the Company E Advisor informed UBS that Company E was continuing its due diligence review of the Company and it was working on a preliminary valuation of the Company.

On the morning of May 23, 2007, the Company E Advisor informed UBS that Company E was not interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with the Company because of a number of due diligence concerns.

Later that day, the Company Board held a special telephonic meeting, at which the Company's management and representatives of UBS and Goodwin Procter were present. The Company Board discussed, among other things, the Market Check, the Genzyme Offer and the status of conversations with Company E. UBS informed the Company Board that Company E had indicated that it was not interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with the Company because of due diligence concerns. The Company Board also discussed the proposed amendment to the Company's agreement with Southern Research Institute (the SRI Amendment) and the potential benefits to the Company associated with this amendment. The Company Board, with the assistance of the Company's legal and financial advisors, also again discussed the price set forth in the Genzyme Offer, as well as certain key features of any definitive agreement should the Company agree to be acquired by Genzyme. The Company Board discussed the desire to obtain from Genzyme a higher price per share than the price currently set forth in the Genzyme Offer. Based, in part, on the foregoing, the Company Board directed the Company's management and legal and financial advisors to continue with their discussions with the representatives of Genzyme about a possible sale transaction and to pursue efforts to cause Genzyme to increase the per share purchase price because of, among other things, the benefits associated with the SRI Amendment.

A special meeting of the Company Board was held telephonically on the late afternoon of May 24, 2007 to discuss the status of discussions with Genzyme as well as the recent increase in the trading volume and market price of the Company Common Stock.

Also on May 24, 2007, Goodwin Procter sent a revised draft of the Merger Agreement to Ropes & Gray reflecting the Company's preliminary comments.

On May 25, 2007, the Company Board held a special telephonic meeting, at which the Company's management and representatives of UBS and Goodwin Procter were present. The Company's management updated the Company Board on the status of Genzyme's due diligence review and indicated that such review was substantially complete. Representatives of UBS indicated that, as previously requested by the Company, they had ongoing conversations with representatives of BOA regarding, among other things, the price set forth in the Genzyme Offer. UBS also reported that BOA was continuing to indicate that Genzyme would not increase its offer price (despite, among other things, the benefits of the SRI Amendment). The Company Board discussed with UBS and Goodwin Procter various strategies for seeking an increase in Genzyme's offer price as well as the propriety of undertaking another market check. After discussion, the Company Board determined that conducting another market check would not be productive in light of the Company's market check activities to date. At the request of the Company Board, representatives of Goodwin Procter again reviewed at length with the Company Board its fiduciary duties in the sale context and summarized certain of the proposed terms of the Merger Agreement. The Company Board also again discussed the possibility of remaining independent and compared this against the value of the Genzyme Offer (in both its original form as well as with an increased offer price). In doing so, the Company Board considered, among other things, the various risks and benefits relating to remaining independent, including the regulatory, development and other risks related to commercializing clofarabine and the Company's other drug products, the need for substantial amounts of additional capital to support the significant commercial build-up necessary to support the marketing and sale of clofarabine and the Company's other drug products, against the benefits of the Genzyme Offer, including the premium, the amount of that premium in light of the estimated value of the opportunity to develop and commercialize clofarabine and the Company's other drug products opportunity on its own (and the risks relating to fully realizing such opportunity) and the results of the Market Check. The Company Board determined that in order for the Company Board to further pursue a potential transaction with Genzyme, Genzyme would need to increase the $5.25 offer price reflected in the Genzyme Offer. The Company Board designated Joseph Cooper, an independent member of the Company Board, to work with UBS to discuss with representatives of Genzyme the terms of the Genzyme Offer with an emphasis on seeking an increase in Genzyme's offer price.

Later that day, as instructed by the Company, UBS and Mr. Cooper had a telephone conversation with Earl M. Collier, Jr. and Mark Enyedy of Genzyme and BOA during which Mr. Cooper explained that the Company Board was not prepared to move forward with a proposed transaction with Genzyme unless Genzyme increased its price. Immediately after this initial call, UBS and BOA had a separate telephone call to further discuss Genzyme's offer. A short time after these telephone calls, BOA contacted UBS and indicated that Genzyme was willing to pay $5.60 per share (the Improved Genzyme Offer) provided that the parties adhere to Genzyme's proposed timeline and negotiated, finalized and executed the Merger Agreement by no later than the open of market on Tuesday, May 29, 2007. At $5.60 per share, the Improved Genzyme Offer represented approximately (i) a 50% premium to the trailing 30-day average closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market; (ii) a 44% premium to the trailing 60-day average closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market; and (iii) a 34% premium to the trailing 90-day average closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market.

In the early evening of May 25, 2007, the Company Board held a special telephonic meeting in which the Company's management and representatives of UBS and Goodwin Procter participated. The Company Board discussed the Improved Genzyme Offer as well as Genzyme's demand that the Merger Agreement be fully negotiated and executed by the morning of May 29, 2007. The Company Board also discussed whether or not Genzyme would further improve upon the Improved Genzyme Offer as well as the feasibility of meeting the schedule proposed by Genzyme. In order to enhance the possibility that a competing bidder might emerge and be prepared to offer a materially higher price per share after announcement of any transaction with Genzyme, the Company Board instructed the Company's management and legal and financial advisors to attempt to negotiate downward the termination fee in any transaction with Genzyme as well as seek Genzyme's agreement to termination provisions more favorable to the Company than those presented in the current draft of the Merger Agreement. The Company Board also instructed the Company's management and the Company's legal and financial advisors to continue working on the Merger Agreement and related agreements in an effort to meet the timetable proposed by Genzyme.

Later that evening, Ropes & Gray sent a revised draft of the Merger Agreement to Goodwin Procter. This revised draft of the Merger Agreement was forwarded that night to the Company Board for its review and consideration. Over the course of the next three days, the parties' respective management teams and legal and financial advisors negotiated the terms of the Merger Agreement. During this period, a number of drafts of the Merger Agreement and related documentation were negotiated and exchanged between the parties. As a result of these negotiations, Genzyme agreed to the following material changes (i) a termination fee that was substantially lower than the termination fee initially proposed by Genzyme (Genzyme had initially proposed a termination fee equal to approximately 3.75% of the value of the transaction); (ii) a fiduciary out to the non-solicitation provisions that was more favorable to the Company than the fiduciary out initially proposed by Genzyme; and (iii) termination provisions that were more favorable to the Company than the provisions initially proposed by Genzyme.

A special meeting of the Company Board was held telephonically on the late afternoon of May 28, 2007 to discuss the proposed terms of the transaction, with the Company's management and representatives of UBS and Goodwin Procter present. In advance of this telephonic meeting, a revised draft of the Merger Agreement and related materials were circulated to the Company Board. At this meeting, UBS delivered to the Company Board an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated May 28, 2007, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions, matters considered and limitations described in its opinion, the $5.60 per share cash consideration to be received in the Offer and the Merger, taken together, by holders of the Company Common Stock (other than Genzyme, Purchaser, holders who have entered into a stockholders agreement with Genzyme and Purchaser, and their respective affiliates) was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The Company Board also engaged in a review with Goodwin Procter of the key provisions of the Merger Agreement. The Company Board again discussed the possibility of remaining independent and compared this against the value of the Improved Genzyme Offer. In doing so, the Company Board again considered, among other things, the various risks and benefits relating to remaining independent, including the regulatory, development and other risks related to commercializing clofarabine and the Company's other drug products, the need for substantial amounts of additional capital to support the significant commercial build-up necessary to support the marketing and sale of clofarabine and the Company's other drug products, against the benefits of the Genzyme Offer, including the premium, the amount of that premium in light of the estimated value of the opportunity to develop and commercialize clofarabine and the Company's other drug products opportunity on its own (and the risks relating to fully realizing such opportunity).

The Company Board also reviewed with Goodwin Procter again the Company Board's obligations under applicable law with respect to its fiduciary duties in a sale transaction. In that regard, on the basis of the Company's activities to date (including, without limitation, the Market Check) and the Company Board's previous efforts over the preceding four years to assess the possible interest of all third parties reasonably likely to be interested in undertaking with the Company a potential strategic transaction, and after extensive discussion, the Company Board determined that the price then being proposed by Genzyme for each share of Company Common Stock outstanding was the best per share price then obtainable.

After further discussion among the participants on the call to address questions from the Company Board, the Company Board, by a unanimous vote, approved the proposed Merger Agreement, the Offer and Merger. The Merger Agreement and other transaction-related documents were signed and their execution was announced on May 29, 2007 in a joint press release.

Reasons for the Recommendation of the Company Board.

In evaluating the Merger and the Merger Agreement, the Company Board consulted with the Company's management, legal counsel and financial advisor and, in reaching its recommendation described in Section (a) of this Item 4 regarding the Offer, the Merger and the Merger Agreement, the Company Board considered a number of factors, including the following:

- The Company's Operating and Financial Condition; Prospects of the Company. The Company Board considered its knowledge and familiarity with the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations, as well as the Company's financial plan and prospects if it were to remain an independent company and the Company's short-term and long-term capital needs. The Company Board discussed the Company's current financial plan, including the risks associated with achieving and executing upon the Company's business plan. The Company Board considered, among other factors, that the holders of Shares would continue to be subject to the risks and uncertainties of the Company's financial plan and prospects unless the Shares were acquired for cash. These risks and uncertainties included risks relating to the Company's ability to successfully develop and market its current products, potential difficulties or delays in its clinical trials, obtaining regulatory approval in Europe and elsewhere for the Company's products, regulatory developments involving current and future products and its effectiveness at managing and raising sufficient financial resources (including financing its research and development activities and the commercialization of any products approved by governmental authorities through licensing and other agreements), as well as the other risks and uncertainties discussed in the Company's filings with the SEC. Additionally, the Company considered that although the Company expects an opinion from the EMEA as early as late 2007, the Company does not expect to market clofarabine in adult AML in Europe until 2008.
- Strategic Alternatives. The Company Board considered trends in the industry in which the Company's business operates and the strategic alternatives available to the Company, including remaining an independent public company, acquisitions of or mergers with other companies in the industry, leveraged buyouts by financial sponsors or private equity firms, as well as the risks and uncertainties associated with such alternatives.
- Transaction Financial Terms; Premium to Market Price. The Company Board considered the relationship of the Offer Price and the Merger Consideration to the historical market prices of the Company Common Stock. In light of the Company's activities to date (including, without limitation, the Market Check) and the Company's communications about a potential strategic transaction over the past four years with other companies determined to be most likely to be interested in engaging in a possible strategic transaction with the Company, the Company Board determined that the Offer Price and Merger Consideration to be paid in the Offer and the Merger represented the best per share price currently obtainable for the Company's shareholders. In making that determination, the Company considered that the Offer Price and Merger Consideration, respectively, represents a premium of approximately:
 - (i) 6.7% over $5.25, the closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on May 25, 2007, the last trading day prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement;

- (ii) 40% over $4.00, the closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on May 18, 2007, one week prior to the last trading day prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement;
- (iii) 49% over $3.75, the closing price of the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on April 25, 2007, one month prior to the last trading day prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement; and
- (iv) 34% over $4.18, the average 90 trading day average of the Company Common Stock on Nasdaq Global Market as of the last trading day prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement.

- Ability to Respond to Unsolicited Takeover Proposals and Terminate the Merger Agreement to Accept a Superior Proposal. The Company Board considered the provisions in the Merger Agreement that provide for the ability of the Company, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, to provide information to and engage in negotiations with third parties that make an unsolicited proposal, and, subject to payment of a termination fee and the other conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, to enter into a transaction with a party that makes a superior proposal.

- Termination Fee Provisions. The Company Board considered the termination fee provisions of the Merger Agreement and determined that they likely would not be a deterrent to competing offers that might be superior to the Offer Price and the Merger Consideration. The Company Board considered that the termination fee of $9,000,000 was equal to approximately 2.6% of the Company's equity value, which the Company Board believed to be a reasonable fee to be paid to Genzyme should a superior offer be accepted by the Company.

- Conditions to the Consummation of the Offer and the Merger; Likelihood of Closing. The Company Board considered the reasonable likelihood of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement in light of the limited conditions in the Merger Agreement to the obligations of Purchaser to accept for payment and pay for the Shares tendered pursuant to the Offer, including that the consummation of the Offer and the Merger was not contingent on Genzyme's ability to secure financing commitments.

- Cash Consideration; Certainty of Value. The Company Board considered the form of consideration to be paid to holders of Shares in the Offer and the Merger and the certainty of the value of such cash consideration compared to stock or other consideration.

- Timing of Completion. The Company Board considered the anticipated timing of consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the structure of the transaction as a cash tender offer for all of the Shares, which should allow stockholders to receive the transaction consideration in a relatively short timeframe, followed by the Merger in which stockholders would receive the same consideration as received by stockholders who tender their Shares in the Offer. The Company Board considered that the potential for closing in a relatively short timeframe could also reduce the amount of time in which the Company's business would be subject to the potential uncertainty of closing and related disruption.

- Results of Process Conducted. The Company Board considered the results of the process that had been conducted by the Company, with the assistance of the Company's management and advisors, to evaluate strategic alternatives, including the discussions with the Target Partner Companies contacted by the Company's management and/or its advisors (including, without limitation, Company A, Company B, Company C, Company D and Company E) and the solicitation of interest on behalf of several other Target Partner Companies thought to be interested in a business combination transaction with the Company, and the fact that none of them determined to make an offer to acquire the Company or to enter into discussions or negotiations regarding such a transaction. The Company Board also considered the ability of other bidders to make, and the likelihood that other bidders would make, a proposal to acquire the Shares at a higher price per share than the Offer Price. Based on the results of the Company's prior efforts and the Company's extended arm's-length negotiations with Genzyme, the Company Board believed that the Offer Price represented the highest price per share of Shares that was reasonably attainable.

- Opinion of the Company's Financial Advisor. The Company Board considered the opinion of UBS, dated May 28, 2007, to the Company Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the $5.60 per share cash consideration to be received in the Offer and the Merger, taken together, by holders of the Company Common Stock (other than Genzyme, Purchaser, holders who have entered into a stockholders agreement with Genzyme, and their respective affiliates). The full text of UBS' written opinion, dated May 28, 2007, is attached hereto as Annex II and is incorporated herein by reference. Holders of the Company Common Stock are encouraged to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. UBS' opinion was provided for the benefit of the Company Board in connection with, and for the purpose of, its evaluation of the $5.60 per share cash consideration from a financial point of view and does not address any other aspect of the Offer and the Merger. The opinion does not address the relative merits of the Offer and the Merger as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to the Company or the Company's underlying business decision to effect the Offer and the Merger. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to whether to tender shares in the Offer or how to vote or act with respect to the Merger.
- Appraisal Rights. The Company Board considered the availability of appraisal rights with respect to the Merger for the Company's stockholders who properly exercise their rights under Delaware law, which would give such stockholders the ability to seek and be paid a judicially determined appraisal of the fair value of their Shares upon the completion of the Merger.

The Company Board also considered a number of uncertainties and risks in their deliberations concerning the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Offer and Merger, including the following:

- Restrictions; Termination Fee. The Company Board considered the restrictions that the Merger Agreement impose on actively soliciting competing bids, and the insistence of Genzyme as a condition to its offer that the Company would be obligated to pay a termination fee of $9 million under certain circumstances, and the potential effect of such termination fee in deterring other potential acquirers from proposing alternative transactions.
- Failure to Close. The Company Board considered that the conditions to Genzyme's and Purchaser's obligation to accept for payment and pay for the Shares tendered pursuant to the Offer and to consummate the Merger were subject to conditions, and the possibility that such conditions may not be satisfied, including as a result of events outside of the Company's control. The Company Board also considered the fact that, if the Offer and Merger are not completed, the market's perception of the Company's continuing business could potentially result in a loss of customers, vendors, business partners, collaboration partners and employees and that the trading price of the Company's Common Stock could be adversely affected. The Company Board considered that, in that event, it would be unlikely that another party (including, without limitation, the Target Partner Companies contacted by the Company's management and/or its advisors (including, without limitation, Company A, Company B, Company C, Company D and Company E)) would be interested in acquiring the Company. The Company Board also considered the fact that, if the Offer and Merger are not consummated, the Company's directors, officers and other employees will have expended extensive time and effort and will have experienced significant distractions from their work during the pendency of the transaction, and the Company will have incurred significant transaction costs, attempting to consummate the transaction.

- Public Announcement of the Offer and Merger. The Company Board considered the effect of a public announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Offer and Merger contemplated thereby, including effects on the Company's operations, stock price and employees and the Company's ability to attract and retain key management and personnel. The Company Board also considered the effect of these matters on Genzyme and the risks that any adverse reaction to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement could adversely affect Genzyme's willingness to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.
- Pre-Closing Covenants. The Company Board considered that, under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Company agreed that it will carry on its business in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and, subject to specified exceptions, that the Company will not take a number of actions related to the conduct of its business without the prior written consent of Genzyme. The Company Board further considered that these terms of the Merger Agreement may limit the ability of the Company to pursue business opportunities that it would otherwise pursue.
- Tender and Voting Agreements. The Company Board noted that certain executive officers, directors and stockholders of the Company, who together control approximately 20% of the voting power of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company (calculated as if the Company Common Stock and Company Preferred Stock are treated together as a single class on an as-if converted to Company Common Stock basis and assuming the exercise of all in the money options and warrants held by such executive officers, directors and stockholders), have agreed to tender their Shares in the Offer pursuant to the Tender and Voting Agreements. The Company Board also noted that the Tender and Voting Agreements terminate if the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.
- Cash Consideration. The Company Board considered the fact that, subsequent to completion of the Merger, the Company will no longer exist as an independent public company and that the nature of the transaction as a cash transaction would prevent the Company stockholders from being able to participate in any value creation that the Company could generate going forward, as well as any future appreciation in value of the combined company, unless they separately acquired Genzyme common stock.
- Tax Treatment. The Company Board considered the fact that gains from this transaction would be taxable to the Company stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes.
- Potential Conflicts of Interest. The Company Board was aware of the potential conflicts of interest between the Company, on the one hand, and certain of the Company's executive officers and directors, on the other hand, as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Offer and the Merger as described in Item 3 above.

The Company Board believed that, overall, the potential benefits of the Offer and the Merger to the Company stockholders outweigh the risks of the Offer and the Merger and provide the maximum value to shareholders. In analyzing the Offer and the Merger, the Company Board and the Company's management were assisted and advised by the Company's financial advisor and legal counsel.

The foregoing discussion of information and factors considered by the Company Board is not intended to be exhaustive. In light of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Offer and the Merger, the Company Board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determinations and recommendations. Moreover, each member of the Company Board applied his own personal business judgment to the process and may have given different weight to different factors.

(c) Tender and Voting Agreements.

In connection with the Offer, Genzyme, Purchaser and certain of the Company's stockholders, consisting of Christopher B. Wood, David P. Luci, Kristen M. Dunker, Robert Sterling, Ian Abercrombie, Hugh S. Griffith, Andrew N. Schiff, Steven A. Elms, Perseus-Soros Biopharmaceutical Fund, L.P., Michael G. Kauffman, Joseph Cooper, James S. Scibetta and Thomas Scott Nelson, have entered into Tender and Voting Agreements, dated as of May 29, 2007 (collectively, the Tender and Voting Agreements), pursuant to which such stockholders have agreed, among other things, subject to the termination of the Tender and Voting Agreement (i) to tender in the Offer (other than Shares for which such stockholder does not have discretionary authority) all Shares beneficially owned or hereafter acquired by them, (ii) to vote such Shares in favor of or give their consent to a proposal to adopt or approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger at any stockholder meeting, (iii) to appoint Genzyme as their proxy to vote their Shares in connection with the Merger Agreement, and (iv) not to otherwise transfer any of their Shares. Each Tender and Voting Agreement will terminate upon the termination of the Merger Agreement. The foregoing does not include any Shares over which, or with respect to which, any such stockholders as executive officer or director acts in a fiduciary or representative capacity or is subject to the instructions of a third party with respect to such tender.

The form of Tender and Voting Agreement was previously filed as Exhibit 4.1 to the Company's report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on May 29, 2007 and is incorporated by reference herein. The description of the Tender and Voting Agreements set forth above does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of such agreements.

Item 5. Person/Assets, Retained, Employed, Compensated or Used.

The Company has retained UBS to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible sale transaction, including the Offer and the Merger, and the Company selected UBS as its financial advisor because UBS is an internationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in similar transactions. Under the terms of UBS' engagement, the Company has agreed to pay UBS an aggregate fee of approximately $3.1 million for its financial advisory services in connection with the Offer and the Merger, a portion of which was payable in connection with its opinion and approximately $2.3 million of which is payable contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse UBS for its expenses, including fees, disbursements and other charges of legal counsel, and to indemnify UBS and related parties against liabilities, including liabilities under federal securities laws, relating to, or arising out of, its engagement. In the past, UBS has provided investment banking services to the Company unrelated to the Offer and the Merger for which UBS received compensation, including having acted as joint bookrunning manager in connection with an equity offering of the Company in 2005. Genzyme has informed us that since 2005, Genzyme has paid UBS approximately $5.6 million in fees, continues to engage UBS for investment banking services and anticipates that Genzyme may do so in the future, and expects to pay UBS reasonable and customary fees for such services.

Neither the Company nor any person acting on its behalf has employed, retained or compensated any person to make solicitations or recommendations to the Company's stockholders on its behalf concerning the Offer or the Merger, except that such solicitations or recommendations may be made by directors, officers or employees of the Company, for which services no additional compensation will be paid.

Item 6. Interest in Securities of the Subject Company.

Other than in the ordinary course of business in connection with the Company's employee benefit plans, no transactions in the Shares have been effected during the past 60 days by the Company, or, to the best of the Company's knowledge, any of the Company's directors, executive officers or affiliates of the Company, except for on May 2, 2007, Perseus-Soros Biopharmaceutical Fund, L.P. exercised warrants to purchase an aggregate of 3,000,000 shares of Company Common Stock at a purchase price of $2.00 per share. All of these warrants were issued in connection with a private placement of preferred stock and warrants in May 2002 and would have expired if not exercised by May 7, 2007.

Item 7. Purposes of the Transaction and Plans or Proposals.

Except as indicated in Items 2, 3 and 4 of this Schedule 14D-9, (a) the Company is not undertaking or engaged in any negotiations in response to the Offer that relate to, or would result in: (i) a tender offer for or other acquisition of the Company's securities by the Company, any of its subsidiaries, or any other person; (ii) any extraordinary transaction such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (iii) any purchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; or (iv) any material change in the present dividend rates or policy, or indebtedness or capitalization of the Company and (b) there are no transactions, resolutions of the Company Board or agreements in principle or signed contracts in response to the Offer that relate to, or would result in, one or more of the events referred to in clause (a) of this Item 7.

Item 8. Additional Information.

(a) Information Statement

The Information Statement attached as Annex I hereto is being furnished in connection with the possible designation by Purchaser, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, of certain persons to be appointed to the Company Board other than at a meeting of the Company's stockholders and is incorporated herein by reference.

(b) Appraisal Rights.

No appraisal rights are available in connection with the Offer. However, if the Offer is successful and the Merger is consummated, stockholders of the Company who have not properly tendered in the Offer and have neither voted in favor of the Merger nor consented thereto in writing, and who otherwise comply with the applicable procedures under DGCL Section 262, will be entitled to receive appraisal rights for the fair value of their shares as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery. Any stockholder contemplating the exercise of such appraisal rights should review carefully the provisions of DGCL Section 262, particularly the procedural steps required to perfect such rights.

The obligations of the Company to notify stockholders of their appraisal rights will depend on how the Merger is effected. If a meeting of the Company's stockholders is held to approve the Merger, the Company will be required to send a notice to each stockholder of record not less than 20 days prior to the Merger that appraisal rights are available, together with a copy of Section 262. Within 10 days after the closing of the Merger, the Surviving Corporation will be required to send a notice that the Merger has become effective to each stockholder who delivered to the Company a demand for appraisal prior to the vote and who did not vote in favor of the Merger. Alternatively, if the Merger is consummated through a short-form procedure, the Surviving Corporation will be required to send a notice within 10 days after the date the Merger has become effective to each stockholder of record on the effective date of the Merger. The notice will inform stockholders of the effective date of the Merger and of the availability of, and procedure for demanding, appraisal rights, and will include a copy of Section 262. FAILURE TO FOLLOW THE STEPS REQUIRED BY DGCL SECTION 262 FOR PERFECTING APPRAISAL RIGHTS MAY RESULT IN THE LOSS OF SUCH RIGHTS. The foregoing summary of appraisal rights under DGCL is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to DGCL Section 262 and the Offer.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS CANNOT BE EXERCISED AT THIS TIME. THE INFORMATION SET FORTH ABOVE IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY WITH RESPECT TO ALTERNATIVES AVAILABLE TO STOCKHOLDERS IF THE MERGER IS COMPLETED. STOCKHOLDERS WHO WILL BE ENTITLED TO APPRAISAL RIGHTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER WILL RECEIVE ADDITIONAL INFORMATION CONCERNING APPRAISAL RIGHTS AND THE PROCEDURES TO BE FOLLOWED IN CONNECTION THEREWITH BEFORE SUCH STOCKHOLDERS HAVE TO TAKE ANY ACTION RELATING THERETO.

STOCKHOLDERS WHO SELL SHARES IN THE OFFER WILL NOT BE ENTITLED TO EXERCISE APPRAISAL RIGHTS WITH RESPECT THERETO BUT, RATHER, WILL RECEIVE THE OFFER PRICE.

(c) Anti-Takeover Statute.

As a Delaware corporation, the Company is subject to Section 203 of the DGCL (Section 203). In general, Section 203 would prevent an interested stockholder (generally defined as a person beneficially owning 15% or more of a corporation's voting stock) from engaging in a business combination (as defined in Section 203) with a Delaware corporation for three years following the date such person became an interested stockholder unless: (i) before such person became an interested stockholder, the board of directors of the corporation approved the transaction in which the interested stockholder became an interested stockholder or approved the business combination, (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the interested stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced (excluding for purposes of determining the number of shares of outstanding stock held by directors who are also officers and by employee stock plans that do not allow plan participants to determine confidentially whether to tender shares), or (iii) following the transaction in which such person became an interested stockholder, the business combination is (x) approved by the board of directors of the corporation and (y) authorized at a meeting of stockholders by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation not owned by the interested stockholder. In accordance with the provisions of Section 203, the Company's Board of Directors has approved the Merger Agreement and the Tender and Voting Agreements, as described in Item 4 above and, therefore, the restrictions of Section 203 are inapplicable to the Merger and the transactions contemplated under the Merger Agreement and the Tender and Voting Agreements.

(d) Regulatory Approvals.

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act) and the rules that have been promulgated thereunder by the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC), certain acquisition transactions may not be consummated unless certain information has been furnished to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (the Antitrust Division) and the FTC and certain waiting period requirements have been satisfied. The initial waiting period for a cash tender offer is 15 days, but this period may be shortened if the reviewing agency grants early termination of the waiting period, or it may be lengthened if the reviewing agency determines that an investigation is required and asks the filing person voluntarily to withdraw and refile to allow a second 15-day waiting period, or issues a formal request for additional information and documentary material. The purchase of Shares pursuant to the Offer may be subject to such requirements. The Antitrust Division and the FTC scrutinize the legality under the antitrust laws of transactions such as the acquisition of Shares by Purchaser pursuant to the Offer. At any time before or after the consummation of any such transactions, the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take such action under the antitrust laws of the United States as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the purchase of Shares pursuant to the Offer or seeking divestiture of the Shares so acquired or divestiture of substantial assets of Genzyme or the Company. Private parties (including individual States of the United States) may also bring legal actions under the antitrust laws of the United States. The Company does not believe that the consummation of the Offer will result in a violation of any applicable antitrust laws. However, there can be no assurance that a challenge to the Offer on antitrust grounds will not be made, or if such a challenge is made, what the result would be.

The Company is not aware of any other filings, approvals or other actions by or with any governmental authority or administrative or regulatory agency other than the forgoing filings under the HSR Act that would be required for Genzyme's or Purchaser's acquisition or ownership of the Shares.

(e) Vote Required to Approve the Merger.

The Company Board has approved the Offer, the Merger and the Merger Agreement in accordance with the DGCL. Under Section 253 of the DGCL, if Purchaser acquires, pursuant to the Offer or otherwise, a number of Shares representing at least 90% of the outstanding Company Common Stock, Purchaser will be able to effect the Merger after consummation of the Offer without a vote by the Company's stockholders. If Purchaser acquires, pursuant to the Offer or otherwise, a number of Shares representing less than 90% of the outstanding Company Common Stock, the affirmative vote of the holders of a number of Shares representing a majority of the outstanding Company Common Stock will be required under the DGCL to effect the Merger. In the event the minimum tender condition required to be met under the Merger Agreement has been satisfied, after the purchase of the Shares by Purchaser pursuant to the Offer, Purchaser will own a number of Shares representing a majority of the outstanding Company Common Stock and be able to effect the Merger without the affirmative vote of any other stockholder of the Company. The Company has granted an option to Purchaser to purchase Company Common Stock if, after the exercise of the option, Purchaser would hold enough shares to effect a short form merger pursuant to Section 253. See the description of the option agreement in paragraph (f) below.

(f) Top-Up Option.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Company granted the Purchaser an irrevocable option, exercisable only on the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, to purchase, at a price per share of Company Common Stock equal to the Offer Price, newly issued shares of Company Common Stock in an amount up to the lowest number of Company Common Stock that, when added to the number of Company Common Stock that is then directly or indirectly owned by Genzyme or the Purchaser, constitutes one share of Company Common Stock more than 90% of the shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately after the issuance of the new Company Common Stock sold to the Purchaser (determined on a fully diluted basis on the date of determination), provided that this option shall not be exercisable for a number of Company Common Stock in excess of the Company Common Stock authorized and unissued at the time of the exercise of the option. This option is exercisable only once (i) at any time following the Acceptance Date and prior to the earlier to occur of (a) the Effective Time and (b) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, and (ii) at such time as Genzyme and the Purchaser, directly or indirectly, collectively own at least 85% of the shares of Company Common Stock. The purchase price owed by the Purchaser to the Company for the newly issued shares of Company Common Stock shall be paid to the Company (i) in cash, by wire transfer or cashier's check or (ii) by issuance by the Purchaser to the Company of a promissory note on terms reasonably satisfactory to the Company. The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit (e)(1) hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

(g) Section 14(f) Information Statement.

The Merger Agreement provides that, following the acceptance for payment of, and the payment by Purchaser for, shares of Company Common Stock representing at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Offer, Genzyme will be entitled to designate that number of directors of the Company's Board as will give Genzyme, subject to compliance with Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 thereunder, pro rata representation on the Company Board (based on the ratio of (i) the number of shares of Company Common Stock that are so accepted for payment and paid for pursuant to the Offer plus the number of shares of Company Common Stock owned by Parent, the Purchaser or any other subsidiary of Genzyme to (ii) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock outstanding). The Company is obligated pursuant to the Merger Agreement to promptly take all action necessary to effect any such election or appointment, including (1) increasing the size of the Company Board and (2) obtaining the resignation of such number of its current directors as is, in each case, necessary to enable such designees to be so elected or appointed to the Company Board in compliance with applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, prior to the Effective Time, the Company Board shall always have at least three members who are not officers, directors, employees or designees of the Purchaser or any of its affiliates (Purchaser Insiders). If the number of directors who are not Purchaser Insiders is reduced below three prior to the Effective Time, the remaining directors who are not Purchaser Insiders shall be entitled to designate a person to fill such vacancy who is not a Purchaser Insider and who shall be a director not deemed to be a Purchaser Insider for all purposes of the Merger Agreement. The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit (e)(1) hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Company intends to furnish separately to its stockholders an Information Statement pursuant to Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 thereunder within the time period required by such Rule. The Information Statement will be furnished in connection with the possible election of persons designated by Genzyme, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, to a majority of the seats on the Company s Board of Directors, other than at a meeting of the Company s stockholders.

(h) The Rights Agreement Amendment.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, the Company amended the Rights Agreement on May 30, 2007, in order to make various provisions of the Rights Agreement inapplicable to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including (i) the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement or any amendment thereto, (ii) the acceptance for payment or purchase by Purchaser of Company Common Stock and Company Preferred Stock pursuant to the Offer and, if applicable, the Top-Up Option, (iii) the Merger, (iv) the execution and delivery of any tender and voting agreements with certain Company stockholders, and (v) the consummation of any other transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The amendment to the Rights Agreement also provided that shortly before the Effective Time, the Rights Agreement shall terminate and be of no further legal force or effect.

The foregoing summary of this amendment to the Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to Amendment No. 1 to Rights Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit (e)(11) hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

INFORMATION STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 14(f) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934 AND RULE 14f-1 THEREUNDER

This Information Statement is being mailed on or about June 7, 2007, as a part of the Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 (the Schedule 14D-9) of Bioenvision, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Bioenvision or the Company), with respect to the tender offer by Wichita Bio Corporation (Purchaser), a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Genzyme Corporation, a Massachusetts corporation (Genzyme), to the holders of record of (a) all outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Company Common Stock) and all outstanding shares of the Company's Series A Convertible Participating Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Company Preferred Stock). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Schedule 14D-9. Unless the context indicates otherwise, in this Information Statement, we use the terms us, we and our to refer to Bioenvision. You are receiving this Information Statement in connection with the possible election of persons designated by Genzyme to a majority of the seats on the board of directors of the Company (the Company Board). Such designation would be made pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 29, 2007 (the Merger Agreement), by and among Genzyme, Purchaser and the Company.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Purchaser commenced a cash tender offer (the Offer) on June 4, 2007 to purchase (a) all outstanding shares of Company Common Stock at a price of $5.60 per share (the Offer Price), and (b) all outstanding shares of Preferred Stock for the sum of (a) the product of (i) two (2) multiplied by (ii) the Offer Price plus (b) all accrued but unpaid dividends with respect to such shares as of the Acceptance Date, net to the seller thereof in cash, without interest, less any required withholding taxes, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated June 4, 2007 (the Offer to Purchase). Unless extended in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, the Offer is scheduled to expire at midnight, New York City time, on July 2, 2007, at which time, if all conditions to the Offer have been satisfied or waived, Purchaser will purchase all shares of Company Common Stock and Preferred Stock validly tendered pursuant to the Offer and not properly withdrawn. Copies of the Offer to Purchase and the accompanying Letter of Transmittal have been mailed to the Bioenvision stockholders and are filed as exhibits to the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO filed by Purchaser and Genzyme with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on June 4, 2007.

The Merger Agreement provides that, promptly after such time as Purchaser accepts for payment shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Offer and subject to compliance with Section 14(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and Rule 14f-1 thereunder, Genzyme will be entitled to designate that number of directors of the Company's Board as will give Genzyme, subject to compliance with Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 thereunder, pro rata representation on the Company Board (based on the ratio of (i) the number of shares of Company Common Stock that are so accepted for payment and paid for pursuant to the Offer plus the number of shares of Company Common Stock owned by Parent, the Purchaser or any other subsidiary of Genzyme to (ii) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock outstanding). The effect of Purchaser's exercise of its option is the ability to designate a majority of the Company's Board. In connection with the foregoing, the Company will promptly, at the option of Genzyme, either increase the size of the Company Board and/or obtain the resignation of such number of its current directors as is necessary to enable Purchaser's designees to be elected or appointed to the Company Board. In addition, at Genzyme's request, the Company will cause the individuals so elected or designated by Purchaser to constitute substantially the same percentage (rounding up where appropriate) on each committee of the Company Board, each board of directors (or similar body) of each of the Company's Subsidiaries, and each committee (or similar body) of each such board, in each case only to the extent permitted by applicable law or the rules of any stock exchange on which the Company Common Stock is listed. However, following the election or appointment of Purchaser's designees to the Company Board and prior to the Effective Time, any amendment or termination of the Merger Agreement, any exercise or waiver of any of the Company's rights, benefits or remedies under the Merger Agreement, if such action would materially and adversely affect holders of shares of Company Common Stock other than Genzyme or Purchaser, any amendment of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the Company and any other determination with respect to any action to be taken or not to be taken by or on behalf of the Company relating to the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby, will require the approval of a majority of the directors, to the extent there are any, who are directors prior to the Appointment Time and who continue on the Company Board after Purchaser's election or appointment of the Genzyme designees to the Company Board.

This Information Statement is required by Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 thereunder in connection with the appointment of Purchaser's designees to the Company Board.

You are urged to read this Information Statement carefully. You are not, however, required to take any action with respect to the subject matter of this Information Statement.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Introduction

The Company Board's compensation committee administers the Company's compensation programs. The compensation committee is responsible for reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of our chief executive officer, evaluating the chief executive officer's performance in light of those goals and objectives and determining and approving the chief executive officer's compensation level based on this evaluation. The compensation committee is also responsible for reviewing and approving the salaries and other compensation of the Company's other executive officers.

The compensation committee is currently comprised of Mr. Elms and Drs. Schiff and Kauffman; with Dr. Kauffman serving as chairman of the compensation committee. All current compensation committee members are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of NASDAQ.

Compensation for 2006

The Company's 2006 executive compensation program consisted of several elements: an annual base salary, annual bonus compensation and incentive stock option grants.

Christopher B. Wood, M.D. is the Company's chairman and chief executive officer. Dr. Wood received a $312,000 annual base salary which was previously approved by the Company Board. The other executive officers also received their previously established or negotiated salaries. The compensation committee's goal was to provide competitive executive compensation packages as a means of retaining its executive officers. To that end and consistent with its prior practices, the committee strived to compensate executive officers with salaries commensurate with prevailing compensation practices in the bio-pharmaceutical industry. Salaries vary according to the levels of responsibility undertaken by the executive officers.

The compensation committee's goals with annual bonus and incentive stock option grants was to focus executive behavior on the fulfillment of long-term and annual business objectives, and to create a sense of ownership in the company that causes executive decisions to be aligned with the best interests of the Company's stockholders.

For 2006, the Company Board articulated goals for the Company. The Company Board emphasized several drug development activities and corporate development activities as the most relevant measures in determining executive compensation including obtaining requisite regulatory approval for clofarabine in Europe.

Conclusion

All aspects of the Company's executive compensation are subject to change at the discretion of the committee in reaction to and in recognition of the changing circumstances of the current marketplace. The committee will monitor the Company's executive compensation on an ongoing basis to ensure that it continues to support a performance-oriented environment and remains properly integrated with the Company's annual and long-term strategic objectives.

The independent auditors presented to and reviewed with the audit committee the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Company's independent auditors also provided to the committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and in connection therewith the committee discussed with the independent auditors their views as to their independence. In undertaking its oversight function, the audit committee relied, without independent verification, on management's representation that the financial statements have been prepared with integrity and objectivity and in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and on the representations of the independent auditors included in their report on the Company's financial statements.

Based on the audit committee's considerations, discussions with management and the independent auditors as described above, the audit committee recommended to the Company Board that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on the Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT COMPARISON

Set forth below is a line graph comparing the yearly percentage change in the cumulative total stockholder return on shares of Company Common Stock against (i) the cumulative total return of companies listed on Nasdaq Stock Market Index and (ii) the cumulative total return of a peer group selected by us (Vion Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Enzon Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and Genzyme Corporation). The five-year period compared commences June 29, 2001 and ends June 30, 2006. This graph assumes that $100 was invested on July 2, 2001 in us and each of the market index and the peer group index, at the June 29, 2001 closing price, and that all cash distributions were reinvested. The Company Common Stock price performance shown on the graph is not indicative of future price performance.

* The price performance comparison information in the table is not solicitation material, is not deemed filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is not incorporated by reference in any filing of the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, whether made before or after the date hereof and irrespective of any general incorporation language in any filing.

The Company believes that the terms of the foregoing transactions are no less favorable than could be obtained by it from unrelated parties on an arm's length basis.

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Bioenvision, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Bioenvision), is considering a transaction whereby Genzyme Corporation, a Massachusetts corporation (Genzyme), will acquire Bioenvision. Pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger, draft dated May 28, 2007 (the Merger Agreement), among Genzyme, Wichita Bio Corporation (Sub), a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Genzyme, and Bioenvision, (i) Sub will commence a tender offer (the Tender Offer) to purchase all outstanding shares of the common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of Bioenvision (Bioenvision Common Stock) at a purchase price of $5.60 per share in cash (the Common Stock Consideration), and (ii) subsequent to the consummation of the Tender Offer, Sub will be merged with and into Bioenvision (the Merger and, together with the Tender Offer, the Transaction) and each outstanding share of Bioenvision Common Stock not previously tendered will be converted into the right to receive the Common Stock Consideration. The Merger Agreement also provides, in connection with the Transaction, for the acquisition by Sub of all of the outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Participating Preferred Stock of Bioenvision. In addition, simultaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain stockholders of Bioenvision are entering into stockholder agreements with Genzyme and Sub (such stockholders, the Excluded Holders). The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bioenvision Common Stock (other than Genzyme, Sub, the Excluded Holders and their respective affiliates) of the Common Stock Consideration to be received by such holders in the Transaction.

UBS Securities LLC (UBS) has acted as financial advisor to Bioenvision in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee for its services, a portion of which is payable in connection with this opinion and a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction. In the past, UBS has provided investment banking services to Bioenvision unrelated to the proposed Transaction for which UBS received compensation, including having acted as joint bookrunning manager in connection with an equity offering of Bioenvision in 2005. In addition, in the past, UBS has provided investment banking services to Genzyme unrelated to the proposed Transaction for which UBS received compensation, including having acted as financial advisor to Genzyme in connection with certain acquisition transactions in 2005 and 2006. In the ordinary course of business, UBS, its successors and affiliates may hold or trade, for their own accounts and the accounts of their customers, securities of Bioenvision and Genzyme and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

At your direction, we contacted selected third parties to solicit indications of interest in a possible transaction with Bioenvision and held discussions with certain of these parties prior to the date hereof.

In connection with our review, with your consent, we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of any of the information provided to or reviewed by us for the purpose of this opinion and have, with your consent, relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. In addition, with your consent, we have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bioenvision, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. With respect to the financial forecasts and estimates referred to above, we have assumed, at your direction, that they have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Bioenvision as to the future performance of Bioenvision. We have relied, at your direction, without independent verification or investigation, upon the assessments of the management of Bioenvision as to the products and technology of Bioenvision and the risks associated with such products and technology (including, without limitation, the probability of successful testing, development and marketing, and approval by appropriate governmental authorities, of such products and technology). Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information available to us as of, the date hereof.

Annex III

BIOENVISION, INC.
345 Park Avenue, 41st Floor
New York, New York 10154

June 7, 2007

Dear Stockholder:

We are pleased to inform you that on May 29, 2007, Bioenvision, Inc. (the "Company") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Genzyme Corporation ("Genzyme"), pursuant to which a wholly-owned subsidiary of Genzyme (the "Purchaser") is today commencing a tender offer (the "Offer") to purchase (i) all of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock (together with the associated preferred stock purchase rights) for $5.60 per share in cash, without interest and (ii) all of the outstanding shares of the Company's preferred stock for (a) $11.20 per share in cash, plus (b) all accrued but unpaid dividends with respect to such shares of preferred stock as of the date of acceptance of shares pursuant to the tender offer. Unless subsequently extended, the tender offer is scheduled to expire at 12:01 a.m., New York City time, on Monday, July 2, 2007. The tender offer is conditioned upon, among other things, (a) the tender without withdrawal of that number of shares of the Company's common stock and the Company's preferred stock which, when added to any shares of the Company's common stock already owned by Genzyme or the Purchaser, represents at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company's common stock (assuming the exercise or conversion of all vested in the money options and in the money warrants) and the receipt of regulatory approvals and (b) the tender of 100% of the outstanding shares of the Company's preferred stock. The tender offer will be followed by a merger (the "Merger"), in which each share of Company common stock not purchased in the tender offer will be converted into the right to receive in cash the price paid in the tender offer.

Your Board of Directors has unanimously: (i) determined and declared that the Merger Agreement, the Offer and the Merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby are advisable, and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, (ii) approved the Offer and the Merger in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law, (iii) approved the Merger Agreement and (iv) recommended that the Company's stockholders accept the Offer, tender their shares of Company common stock and Company preferred stock into the Offer, and, if required by applicable law, adopt the Merger Agreement.

In arriving at its recommendation, the Board of Directors carefully considered a number of factors more fully described in the attached Schedule 14D-9. You should read the Schedule 14D-9 carefully and in its entirety.

You will also receive the Genzyme Offer to Purchase, dated June 4, 2007, the Letter of Transmittal and related documents. These documents set forth the terms and conditions of the tender offer. We urge you to consider this information carefully.

Sincerely,

/s/ Christopher B. Wood
