Dear Team Financial, Inc. Shareholders:

Enclosed is a notice of a special meeting of shareholders of Team Financial, Inc., to be held on November 8, 2007, together with a proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the business to be transacted at the special meeting.

The purpose of the special meeting is to consider and vote on a proposal to amend our Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting for directors, which is currently permitted under Article 9 of our current Articles of Incorporation.

The special meeting of Team Financial, Inc. shareholders will be held on November 8, 2007, at 9:00 a.m. Central Time, at the Evergreen Events Center, 15 West Wea Street, Paola, Kansas. Only shareholders who hold shares of common stock at the close of business on October 1, 2007, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to vote at the special meeting. We urge you to read this document carefully and in its entirety.

Our Board of Directors believes that elimination of cumulative voting will improve our corporate governance and more fairly apportion the respective rights of our shareholders to determine who will serve as a director. Consequently, as discussed in the enclosed proxy statement, and for the reasons there stated, our Board of Directors has recommended that our shareholders vote FOR this proposal.

Whether or not you are planning to attend the special meeting, we need your vote. Please mark, sign, and date the enclosed proxy card and promptly return it in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope so that the maximum number of shares may be voted. Voting by proxy will not prevent you from voting your shares in person at the special meeting. You may revoke your proxy before it is exercised at the special meeting, either by writing to the Secretary of our company at our address noted in the proxy statement or in person at the special meeting.

Thank you for taking the time to consider this important proposal and for your continuing investment in Team Financial, Inc.

PROXY STATEMENT

Special Meeting of Shareholders To Be Held on November 8, 2007

The Team Financial, Inc. (Team) Board of Directors is soliciting the accompanying proxy for use in connection with a special meeting of shareholders to be held at 9:00 a.m., Central Time, on Thursday, November 8, 2007, at the Evergreen Events Center, 15 West Wea Street, Paola, Kansas. The Board is soliciting the proxy in connection with an amendment to the Team Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting for directors. The Board is seeking the Team shareholders approval of the proposal as set forth in the accompanying letter and notice of special meeting, and in this proxy statement.

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card are first being mailed or delivered to the holders of our common stock on or about October 5, 2007.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT VOTING PROCEDURES AND THE TEAM SPECIAL MEETING

The following questions and answers highlight only selected procedural information from this proxy statement. Team urges you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement because the questions and answers below do not contain all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the proposal that will be considered at the special meeting.

Q. What am I voting on?

A. You are voting only on the proposal, as discussed in this proxy statement, to amend our Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting in the election of our directors.

Q. Has the Board approved the proposal to amend the Articles of Incorporation?

A. Yes. The Board of Directors approved this proposal on September 11, 2007 and recommends that you vote to approve the proposal.

Q. Why am I being asked to approve the amendment to the Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting?

A. Our current Articles of Incorporation were implemented before we became a public entity and at a time when the ownership group was very small. Cumulative voting for directors was then required by Kansas law and was intended to allow each owner to insure representation on the Board of Directors by cumulating their votes. As we have now evolved, our Board of Directors believes that the purpose of cumulative voting is no longer valid and that cumulative voting is confusing to shareholders and cumbersome to manage. Kansas law, as amended in 1988, does not require cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors, and publicly traded companies rarely adopt cumulative voting for directors. By eliminating cumulative voting, each shareholder will have one vote per each share owned for each person nominated to the Board and a plurality vote will determine the election of each director individually.

The Board believes that the amendment of our Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting for directors is fair to, and in the best interests of Team and its shareholders. However, as required by Kansas law, it is necessary that this proposal be approved by our shareholders before it can become effective.

Q. What vote of Team shareholders is required to approve the proposal?

A. The proposal to amend our Articles of Incorporation will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Team. Hence, because this is the only proposal to be considered at the special meeting, at least a majority of the number of shares of our outstanding common stock must be present in person or by proxy at the special meeting in order for this proposal to be approved.

To cast votes for shares represented by a broker holding shares in street name the beneficial owner of such shares must follow the broker's directions to vote. This is because the proposal is not a discretionary matter on which the broker can vote without specific directions from the beneficial owner.

Shares represented by the Team Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the ESOP) can be voted by the ESOP Trustee through the use of direction statements, which will be issued to participants.

Q. When and where will the special meeting of the shareholders of Team be held?

A. The special meeting will take place on Thursday, November 8, 2007, at 9:00 a.m. Central Time, at the Evergreen Events Center, 15 West Wea Street, Paola, Kansas.

Q. Who can attend and vote at the special meeting?

A. Only holders of record of shares of Team common stock at the close of business on October 1, 2007, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 3,600,064 shares of Team common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each shareholder of record on the record date is entitled to one vote on each matter properly brought before the special meeting for each share of common stock held by the shareholder.

Q. How may I vote at the special meeting?

A. You may vote using any of the following methods:

1. BY MAIL: Mark, sign and date your proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided. The named proxies will vote your stock according to your directions. If you submit a signed proxy card without indicating your vote, the person voting the proxy will vote your stock in favor of the proposal.

2. BY TELEPHONE: Call toll free (800) 652-VOTE (8683).

- Use any touch-tone telephone to vote your proxy 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, until 11:59 p.m. Central Time on November 7, 2007.

- Please have your proxy card and the last four digits of your Social Security Number or Tax Identification Number available. Follow the simple instructions the voice provides you.

3. BY INTERNET: www.investorvote.com

- Use the internet to vote your proxy 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, until 11:59 p.m. Central Time on November 7, 2007.
- Please have your proxy card and the last four digits of your Social Security Number or Tax Identification Number available. Follow the simple instructions to obtain your records and create an electronic ballot.

4. BY ATTENDING THE SPECIAL MEETING IN PERSON

Q. Can I revoke or change my proxy?

A. Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised by taking any of the following actions during the time specified:

1. giving written notice of revocation no later than the commencement of the special meeting to Team's Secretary, Lois Rausch:
 - if delivered before the date of the meeting, to Ms. Rausch at Team's offices, 8 West Peoria, Suite 200, Paola, Kansas 66071; or
 - by personal delivery to Ms. Rausch at Team's offices, 8 West Peoria, Suite 200, Paola, Kansas 66071, or at the location of the special meeting, the Evergreen Events Center, 15 West Wea Street, Paola, Kansas; or
2. delivering to Ms. Rausch no later than the commencement of the special meeting a properly executed, later-dated proxy; or
3. voting in person at the special meeting.

Voting by proxy will in no way limit your right to vote at the special meeting if you later decide to attend in person. If no direction is given and a proxy is validly executed, the stock represented by the proxy will be voted in favor of the proposal. The persons authorized under a proxy will vote upon any other business that may properly come before the special meeting according to their best judgment to the same extent as the person delivering the proxy would be entitled to vote. However, we do not expect any matters to be raised at the special meeting other than the proposal to amend our Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting.

If your stock is held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting.

The participants in our ESOP direct the ESOP trustee with respect to all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders. The ESOP trustee will vote the shares held under the ESOP only in the manner directed by the ESOP participants, as provided in the ESOP's governing documents.

Q. Who can help answer my questions?

A. If you have any questions about how to submit your proxy, or if you need additional copies of this proxy statement or the enclosed proxy card, or if you have any questions about the proposal, you should contact either Robert J. Weatherbie, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, or Richard J. Tremblay, our Chief Financial Officer, at:

PROPOSAL 1
AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO ELIMINATE CUMULATIVE VOTING

In 1986, when Team was incorporated, the Kansas business corporation statute required that all Kansas corporations permit their shareholders to cumulate their votes for directors. Consequently, in Article 9 of our Articles of Incorporation, we included a provision specifically providing that our shareholders would have cumulative voting rights. The Kansas business corporation statute was amended in 1988 to remove the requirement that all corporations permit cumulative voting for directors. However, Article 9 of our Articles of Incorporation, as originally written, has remained in effect, and our shareholders currently have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of our directors. Hence, in order to eliminate the cumulative voting rights, it will be necessary to amend our Articles of Incorporation. Under the Kansas business corporation statute, this amendment will require the affirmative vote of shareholders with a majority of the shares of our outstanding common stock.

For the reasons set forth below, we are asking you to consider and approve an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting in the election of directors. With cumulative voting rights a shareholder has a number of votes equal to the number of shares of common stock multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. These votes can be allocated among the nominees in any manner the shareholder desires, including casting all of the votes for one candidate.

For instance, in an election in which three members of the Board of Directors are to be elected (such as would be the case with a staggered board of nine directors, three of which stand for election at each annual meeting), a shareholder with 1,000 shares of stock would have 3,000 votes (1,000 shares times three directors). The shareholder could then allocate these 3,000 votes among the nominees in any manner, including casting all 3,000 votes for one nominee. By contrast, without cumulative voting rights, the shareholder would be permitted to cast only up to 1,000 votes for, or abstain from voting, with respect to any particular nominee for director. In this example, without cumulative voting, and the three nominees receiving the greatest number of votes a plurality would then be elected as members of the Board of Directors.

With cumulative voting, by aggregating votes and casting them for a single individual, rather than casting one vote for each share with respect to each nominee, shareholders holding substantially less than a majority of the outstanding voting shares of a company may be able to elect one or more directors. Thus, a small minority of shareholders may be able to disproportionately influence the composition of the Board of Directors, potentially furthering objectives that may be contrary to those of the majority of shareholders. Our Board of Directors does not believe that a small minority of shareholders, potentially having special interests, should have this ability to elect one or more directors who may be adverse to the interests of the majority of shareholders. Cumulative voting in these circumstances would provide increased opportunities for disruptive actions by a minority of shareholders to the detriment of other shareholders.

For example, due to the size of our ESOP in relation to the number of private shareholders prior to our becoming a public company in 1999, cumulative voting rights did not pose any significant opportunity for outside shareholders to amass sufficient voting strength to overcome the voting powers of the ESOP. However, if the ESOP percentage of ownership declines in the future, cumulative voting rights will increase the ability of outside shareholders to disproportionately influence the selection of directors.

Our Board of Directors believes that each director should only be elected if such director receives a plurality of the votes cast and that each director should represent the interests of all shareholders, rather than the interest of a minority shareholder or special constituency.

The Board of Directors has determined that elimination of cumulative voting is in Team's best interests and that of its shareholders. On September 11, 2007, our Board of Directors adopted a resolution to approve an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting, subject to the approval of our shareholders. The elimination of cumulative voting, if approved by our shareholders, will be effected by amending the language of Article 9 to affirmatively state that cumulative voting is not permitted.

A copy of the proposed Article 9 is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of all outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote on this proposal is required for adoption.

If our shareholders vote to approve the elimination of cumulative voting, Team will amend the Articles of Incorporation to reflect this change by filing Articles of Amendment to Articles of Incorporation, substantially in the form attached as Annex A, with the Kansas Secretary of State, and the amendment will become effective upon this filing. If cumulative voting is eliminated, the change will be in effect with respect to the election of directors in Team's 2008 annual meeting of shareholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE TEAM SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL TO AMEND THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO ELIMINATE CUMULATIVE VOTING FOR DIRECTORS.
