Item 8.01 Other Events.

This Current Report on Form 8-K is being filed pursuant to a memorandum of understanding regarding settlement of certain litigation relating to the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among American Realty Capital Trust, Inc., a Maryland corporation (“ARCT”), Realty Income Corporation, a Maryland corporation (“Realty”), and Tau Acquisition LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of Realty (“Merger Sub”), dated as of September 6, 2012.

SETTLEMENT OF CERTAIN LITIGATION

As previously reported, most recently in a joint proxy statement/prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on December 6, 2012 (the “Definitive Proxy Statement”), since the announcement of the merger on September 6, 2012, nine putative class actions and/or shareholder derivative actions were filed in Maryland and New York on behalf of alleged ARCT stockholders and/or ARCT itself. All of these complaints name as defendants ARCT, members of the ARCT board of directors, Realty Income, and Merger Sub. In each case, the plaintiffs allege that the ARCT directors breached their fiduciary duties to ARCT and/or its stockholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, that the merger consideration negotiated in the merger agreement improperly values ARCT, that the ARCT stockholders will not receive fair value for their ARCT common stock in the merger, and that the terms of the merger agreement impose improper deal-protection devices that purportedly preclude competing offers. The complaints further allege that Realty Income, Merger Sub, and, in some cases, ARCT aided and abetted those alleged breaches of fiduciary duty. The various amended complaints add allegations that disclosures regarding the proposed merger in the joint proxy statement/prospectus filed on October 1, 2012 (and subsequently amended) and the Definitive Proxy Statement are inadequate. Plaintiffs seek injunctive relief, including enjoining or rescinding the merger, and an award of other unspecified attorneys’ and other fees and costs, in addition to other relief.

Maryland Actions. Six putative class actions and/or shareholder derivative actions were filed on behalf of alleged ARCT stockholders and/or ARCT itself in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland, under the following captions: Quaal v. American Realty Capital Trust Inc., et al., No. 24-C1-2005306, filed September 7, 2012; Hill v. American Realty Capital Trust, Inc., et al., No. 24-C-005502, filed September 19, 2012; Goldwurm v. American Realty Capital Trust, Inc., et al., No. 24-C-005524, filed September 20, 2012; Gordon v. Schorsch, et al., No. 24-C-12-5571, filed September 21, 2012; Gregor v. Kahane, et al., No. 24-C-12-5563, filed September 21, 2012; and Rooker v. American Realty Capital Trust Inc., et al., filed October 5, 2012. On November 16, 2012, the court consolidated these actions into a single action captioned In re American Capital Realty Trust, Inc. Shareholder Litigation, No. 24-C-12-005306 (the “Maryland Action”), and, on November 21, 2012, appointed Brower Piven, P.C. as lead counsel for plaintiffs (“Lead Plaintiffs’ Counsel”). On December 11, 2012, Lead Plaintiffs’ Counsel moved for a preliminary injunction and to compel discovery. Lead Plaintiffs’ Counsel filed a consolidated amended complaint in the consolidated actions on December 14, 2012, and defendants filed amended motions to dismiss that amended complaint on December 21, 2012. A hearing on the motions to dismiss is scheduled for February 12, 2013. No hearing date has been scheduled for the motion for preliminary injunction.

Before the court consolidated the Maryland cases and appointed lead counsel, defendants had moved to dismiss the actions and also had moved to stay discovery pending disposition of the motions to dismiss. Plaintiffs had filed their own motions to compel discovery and to expedite discovery. On December 13, 2012, the Circuit Court for Baltimore City granted defendants' motion to stay discovery and denied plaintiffs' motion to expedite discovery.

After the Maryland court denied plaintiff Sydelle Goldwurm's motion for appointment of lead plaintiff and lead counsel in the Maryland litigation, plaintiff Goldwurm filed a class action and shareholder derivative action in the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, captioned Goldwurm v. American Realty Capital Trust, Inc., et al., No. 1:12-cv-03516-JKB (the "Federal Action"). On December 3, 2012, she voluntarily dismissed her case in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland. On December 12, 2012, plaintiff Goldwurm moved for expedited discovery. Defendants moved to stay the federal case on December 13, 2012, and moved to dismiss it on December 19, 2012.

On January 6, 2013, the defendants in the Maryland Action entered into a memorandum of understanding with the plaintiffs in the Maryland Action regarding settlement of all claims asserted on behalf of the alleged class of ARCT stockholders. In connection with the settlement contemplated by that memorandum of understanding, the Maryland Action and all claims asserted in that litigation will be dismissed, subject to court approval. The proposed settlement terms require ARCT to make certain additional disclosures related to the merger, as set forth in this Current Report on Form 8-K. The parties also agreed that plaintiffs may seek attorneys' fees and costs in an as-yet undetermined amount, with ARCT to pay such fees and costs if and to the extent they are approved by the Maryland court. The memorandum of understanding further contemplates that the parties will enter into a stipulation of settlement, which will be subject to customary conditions, including confirmatory discovery and court approval following notice to ARCT's stockholders. If the parties enter into a stipulation of settlement, a hearing will be scheduled at which the court will consider the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement. There can be no assurance that the parties will ultimately enter into a stipulation of settlement, that the court will approve any proposed settlement, or that any eventual settlement will be under the same terms as those contemplated by the memorandum of understanding.

New York Actions. Two putative class actions were also filed on behalf of alleged ARCT stockholders in the Supreme Court of the State of New York for New York, New York, under the following captions: The Carol L. Possehl Living Trust v. American Realty Capital Trust, Inc., et al., No. 653300–2012, filed September 20, 2012, and Salenger v. American Realty Capital Trust, Inc. et al., No. 353355–2012, filed September 25, 2012. On October 19, 2012, the court consolidated these actions into a single action captioned In re American Realty Capital Trust Shareholders Litigation, No. 653300–2012 (the "New York Action"), and appointed Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP as lead counsel for plaintiffs. Plaintiffs filed an amended complaint in the consolidated New York Action on October 23, 2012. On November 9, 2012, the Court granted defendants' motion to stay the New York Action pending the Maryland Action.

SUPPLEMENT OF DEFINITIVE PROXY STATEMENT

In connection with the settlement of the Maryland Action, defendants in that case have agreed to make these supplemental disclosures to the Definitive Proxy Statement. The supplemental information set forth below must be read in conjunction with the Definitive Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. To the extent that information in this Current Report on Form 8-K differs from or updates information contained in the Definitive Proxy Statement, the information in this Current Report on Form 8-K shall supersede or supplement the information in the Definitive Proxy Statement. Nothing in this Current Report on Form 8-K, the memorandum of understanding or any stipulation of settlement shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality of any of the disclosures set forth herein. Capitalized terms used herein, but not otherwise defined, shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Definitive Proxy Statement. All page number references are to the Definitive Proxy Statement.

The penultimate paragraph on page 58 is hereby amended and supplemented by inserting the following after the first sentence of that paragraph:

This was the first communication between the two companies about an extraordinary transaction since February 22, 2012.

The third full paragraph on page 60 is hereby amended and supplemented by inserting the following after the fifth sentence of that paragraph:

These factors, as well as the ARCT Board's belief that ARCT's stock price effectively precluded interest from any other potential bidders, made the ARCT Board comfortable proceeding with the proposed all-stock transaction without a floor or collar. In light of the review of potential strategic alternatives conducted by ARCT in May 2011, the ARCT Board did not believe that it was likely that another party would make or accept an offer to engage in a transaction with ARCT that would be more favorable to ARCT and its stockholders than the proposed transaction with Realty Income (see the section entitled "—Recommendations of ARCT's Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 66 of this proxy statement/prospectus). ARCT did not request that Goldman Sachs solicit interest from other potential bidders in August 2012 because, based on the events of the past year, the ARCT Board was confident it understood the potential bidders that might be interested in a transaction with ARCT and concluded that Realty Income was the only viable candidate for a transaction that might be acceptable to the ARCT Board. Since the date of the merger agreement, no other entity has expressed to ARCT an interest in making or in having the opportunity to make a proposal superior to the proposed transaction.

The second full paragraph on page 61 is hereby amended and supplemented by replacing the last sentence of that paragraph with the following:

Under the agreed-upon term sheet with Realty Income, change-of-control payments under management agreements and company plans, including under ARCT's incentive plans, would be capped at $22 million (a condition required by Realty Income) in lieu of the $31.5 million as calculated by ARCT's compensation consultant under the terms of the plans.

The penultimate paragraph on page 71 is hereby amended and supplemented by replacing sub-paragraph (c) of that paragraph with the following:

In connection with rendering its opinion, BofA Merrill Lynch:

* * * * *

reviewed an alternative version of the ARCT Forecasts prepared by the management of Realty Income that extended the ARCT Forecasts to include calendar years ending December 31, 2014 through December 31, 2018 and incorporated certain other adjustments thereto, referred to herein as the "Adjusted ARCT Forecasts", and (c) discussed with the management of Realty Income its assessments as to the relative likelihood of achieving the future financial results reflected in the ARCT Forecasts and the Adjusted ARCT Forecasts for the periods reflected therein;

The table on page 75 is hereby amended and supplemented by replacing it with the following:

Goldman Sachs calculated the mean and medium one-day premia reflected by the above-listed transactions, excluding the premium applicable to the acquisition of American Land Lease, Inc. announced on December 10, 2008.

The results of this analysis are as follows:

Selected Transactions	1 Day Premium
Since 01/01/2011
High	15.5%
Low	(0.2)%
Mean	7.9%
Median	8.4%
Since 01/01/2006

Based on the foregoing calculations, Goldman Sachs applied the range of premia represented by selected transactions announced since January 1, 2011 to the closing price of ARCT's common stock on September 4, 2012 to derive a range of illustrative implied values per share of ARCT's common stock of $11.93 to $13.80.
