ORIX Announces Third Quarter Results

TOKYO, Japan February 5, 2004 ORIX Corporation (TSE: 8591; NYSE: IX), a leading integrated financial services group, today announced that revenues in the first nine months of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2004 increased 5% year on year to 520,927 million yen, income before income taxes* rose 39% to 85,119 million yen, and net income grew 30% to 45,892 million yen.

Revenues for direct financing leases and interest on loans and investment securities were down compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year as ORIX continued to focus on the profitability of each transaction and carefully selected new assets. However, revenues from operating leases increased mainly due to an improvement in the precision measuring equipment rental business along with gains from the sale of some office buildings, while residential condominium sales also grew during the period. In addition, lower interest expense and fewer write-downs of long-lived assets, and an increase in equity in net income of affiliates contributed to the higher earnings.

The Equipment Operating Leases segment had higher segment profits thanks to an improvement in the precision measuring equipment rental business, while the Real Estate-Related Finance segment saw continued strong performance from the housing loan and corporate loan servicing operations. The Real Estate segment also did well with contributions from the condominium development business and gains from the sale of office buildings. In the Asia and Oceania segment, the contribution from an equity method affiliate and the strong performance of the automobile leasing operations of a number of companies in the region added to segment profits, while The Americas segment posted higher profits largely as a result of lower provisions and fewer write-downs of securities.

Operating assets were down 5% to 4,910,845 million yen and total assets were also down 4% to 5,672,032 million yen compared to March 31, 2003 due to our cautious selection of new assets and our continued attempt to grow profits without increasing assets. Shareholders' equity increased 9% on March 31, 2003 to 551,768 million yen and the shareholders' equity ratio was 9.7% compared to 8.5% at March 31, 2003. ROE (annualized) rose from 9.3% to 11.6% and ROA (annualized) improved from 0.76% to 1.05% compared to the nine months ended December 31, 2002.
