Citrus & Chemical Bancorporation, Inc.

600 North Broadway Avenue

Bartow, Florida 33830

October 17, 2007

Dear Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of Shareholders of Citrus & Chemical Bancorporation, Inc. (C&C), which will be held on November 15, 2007, at 10:00 a.m. local time. The special meeting will be held at C&C's executive offices located at 600 North Broadway Avenue, Bartow, Florida.

At the special meeting, Class B shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on approval of an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger), dated as of July 17, 2007, between C&C and The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. (BancGroup). The agreement provides for us to merge with BancGroup. In the Merger, you will receive either 1.57 shares of BancGroup common stock or $39.02 cash in exchange for each share of C&C common stock that you own. You will be allowed to make an election as to how much stock and how much cash you receive. However, under the terms of our agreement with BancGroup, it will not have to pay to C&C's shareholders more than an aggregate of $103,514,070 in cash and more than an aggregate of 4,164,969 shares of BancGroup common stock assuming 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock are outstanding at the time of the completion of the Merger. Therefore, if C&C shareholders in the aggregate elect to receive too much cash or too much stock, the form of consideration that was excessively elected will be reduced, and will instead be paid in the form of consideration that was under-elected on a pro rata basis. Shareholders who do not make an election will be deemed to have elected to receive $19.51 in cash and 0.785 shares of BancGroup common stock for each of their shares of C&C common stock, but are also subject to pro-ration if an excess election occurs. Your election form will be sent to you in a few business days in a separate package. Please take the time to complete and return the proxy card included in this package.

Please see the attached Proxy Statement-Prospectus for a detailed description of the terms of the Merger. Please refer to pages 2 and 34 of the Proxy Statement-Prospectus for a more complete description of the consideration you will receive at the completion of the Merger.

Your board of directors has unanimously approved the agreement as being in the best interests of the C&C shareholders and recommends that you vote in favor of the approval of the agreement.

Additional information regarding the special meeting, the Merger Agreement, the Merger, C&C and BancGroup is set forth in the attached Proxy Statement-Prospectus. This document also serves as the prospectus for the shares of BancGroup common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger. BancGroup's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CNB. WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO READ THE ENTIRE PROXY STATEMENT-PROSPECTUS CAREFULLY. IN PARTICULAR, YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE DISCUSSION IN THE SECTION ENTITLED COLONIAL BANCGROUP RISK FACTORS, BEGINNING ON PAGE 12 OF THE PROXY STATEMENT-PROSPECTUS.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Class B shares of C&C common stock is required to approve the agreement. Accordingly, your vote is important no matter how large or small your holdings may be. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, you are urged to complete, sign and promptly return the enclosed proxy card to assure that your shares will be voted at the special meeting. If you attend the special meeting, you may vote in person if you wish, and your proxy will not be used.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form 424B5

If you wish to make an election as to the form of consideration that you will receive, you must also complete the election form, which will be mailed to you within the next five business days, and return it to BancGroup's transfer agent by 5:00 p.m. on November 14, 2007. If the transfer agent has not received your completed election form by this time, then you will be deemed to have elected to receive $19.51 and 0.785 shares of BancGroup common stock for each of your shares of C&C common stock (subject to pro-ration if there is an excess election of either cash or BancGroup common stock).

Sincerely

A: Class B Shareholders of C&C are being asked to approve the merger between C&C and BancGroup pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement between such parties dated as of July 17, 2007. Under the merger agreement, C&C will merge into Colonial BancGroup. When the merger becomes effective, C&C will cease to exist as a separate entity and you, as a shareholder of C&C, will be entitled to receive either 1.57 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock or $39.02 cash for each share of C&C common stock that you own (or some combination thereof). Under the terms of the merger agreement, Colonial BancGroup is not obligated to pay more than approximately $103,514,070 in cash and 4,164,969 shares of stock for the outstanding shares of C&C common stock (assuming 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock are outstanding at the time of the completion of the merger). If C&C shareholders elect to receive more cash than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay, then C&C shareholders electing cash will have the amount of cash they will receive reduced and the amount of stock they will receive increased on a pro rata basis. Alternatively, if C&C shareholders elect to receive more stock than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay, then C&C shareholders electing stock will have the amount of stock they will receive reduced and the amount of cash they will receive increased on a pro rata basis.

If you sign, date, and send in your proxy and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the merger agreement and the merger. If you do not sign and send in your proxy, and if you do not attend and cast your vote in person at the special meeting, it will have the effect of voting against the merger.

Q: When will I receive my election form and what should I do when I receive it?

A: Send in your election form with your stock certificate(s). All shareholders (Class A and B) should receive their election forms in about five business days after the receipt of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus. You should complete, sign and date your election form and mail it in the envelope that will be provided. Your election form will be sent to Colonial BancGroup's transfer agent. It is not mandatory that you complete an election form, but if you do not complete and return it, your merger consideration for each of your shares of C&C common stock will be $19.51 in cash and 0.785 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock (subject to pro-ration if there is an excess election of either cash or Colonial BancGroup common stock). Even if you do not desire to make an election as to your desired form of consideration, we ask that you return your election form with your stock certificates as that will aid Colonial BancGroup's transfer agent in the exchange process. You may not make an election after, and any election you have made will be final at 5:00 p.m. on the business day before the special meeting.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Yes, if you give your broker instructions on how to do so. Your broker will vote your shares of C&C common stock only if you provide your broker with instructions on how to vote. You should instruct your broker how to vote your shares by following the directions your broker provides. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted and this will have the effect of voting against the merger agreement and the merger.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker complete my election form for me?

A: Yes, if you give your broker instructions on how to do so. Your broker will complete your election form only if you provide your broker with instructions on how to do so. Q: Can I change my mind and revoke my proxy?

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We expect the merger to be completed in December of 2007. However, the timing of the completion of the merger is dependent on the merger agreement being approved by our shareholders as well as the approval of certain bank regulatory agencies and the satisfaction of other conditions described in this Proxy Statement-Prospectus.

Q: Whom can I call with questions?

A: If you want additional copies of this document, or if you want to ask any questions about the merger agreement or the merger, you should contact: Douglas G. Small, President and CEO, Telephone: (863) 519-2103.

Table of Contents

The Merger (page 18 and Appendix A)

The merger agreement is the document that controls the anticipated merger between C&C and BancGroup. We encourage you to read the entire merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A.

The merger agreement provides for the following:

C&C will merge into Colonial BancGroup. When the merger becomes effective, C&C will cease to exist as a separate entity and you, as a shareholder of C&C, will be entitled to receive either 1.57 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock or $39.02 cash for each share of C&C common stock that you own (or some combination thereof). Under the terms of the merger agreement, Colonial BancGroup is not obligated to pay more than $103,514,070 in cash and 4,164,969 shares of common stock for the outstanding shares of C&C common stock (assuming 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock are outstanding at the time of the completion of the merger). If C&C shareholders elect to receive more cash than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay, then C&C shareholders electing cash will have the amount of cash they will receive reduced and the amount of common stock they will receive increased on a pro rata basis. Alternatively, if C&C shareholders elect to receive more common stock than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay, then C&C shareholders electing such common stock will have the amount of common stock they will receive reduced and the amount of cash they will receive increased on a pro rata basis.

As an example, if there are 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock outstanding at the time of the completion of the merger (in which case Colonial BancGroup is not obligated to pay more than $103,514,070 of the total merger consideration in cash), and the C&C shareholders make an aggregate cash election of $150,000,000, then that would be $46,485,930 more than Colonial BancGroup is required to pay in cash, and would represent approximately 1,191,336 shares of C&C common stock. The electing shareholders who had elected cash would have their cash portion of the merger consideration reduced on a pro rata basis and would instead receive an aggregate of 1,870,397 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. On an individual basis, each electing shareholder who had elected some portion of his or her merger consideration to be paid in cash would in fact receive cash for 69.01% of the C&C common stock that he or she had originally elected to be paid in cash and the remaining 30.99% of C&C common stock that the electing shareholder had requested cash for would be paid in Colonial BancGroup common stock.

Colonial BancGroup will not issue fractional shares in the merger. If the number of shares you are to receive is not a whole number, you will receive $24.85 cash times the fraction of your Colonial BancGroup common stock that you would have otherwise received.

As of October 8, 2007, C&C directors, executive officers and employees held outstanding options which entitle the holders thereof to acquire up to 596,437 shares of C&C common stock.

Each holder of C&C options granted under the C&C Stock Option Plans was given the alternative to exercise his or her vested C&C options or the right to receive a cash payment after the completion of the merger. The amount of such cash payment is equal to the number of shares of C&C common stock subject to each C&C option multiplied by the difference of $39.02 and the per share exercise price of such C&C option, less any applicable withholding taxes. The directors have agreed to elect the foregoing cashless exercise alternative with respect to all of their C&C options.

Comparative Market Prices (page 47)

Colonial BancGroup’s common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CNB. On July 17, 2007, the last trading day before we announced the signing of the merger agreement, the closing price of Colonial BancGroup’s common stock was $24.74.

C&C’s common stock is not traded on any public market. Therefore, the value of the stock can only be determined from prices paid in transactions known to management of C&C. The price paid in the last known transaction on or before July 17, 2007 was $25.18, which occurred on March 30, 2007.

The following table summarizes the comparative values of the two stocks just before the merger agreement was signed and the Colonial BancGroup equivalent price per share of C&C common stock.

BancGroup(1)	C&C(2)	Equivalent price per C&C share(3)
$24.74	$ 25.18	$ 38.93

- (1) Closing price on July 17, 2007.
- (2) Price of last known transaction on or prior to July 17, 2007.
- (3) If the merger had closed on July 17, 2007, and if you had received the default election, then you would have received 0.785 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and $19.51 in cash for each share of C&C common stock you owned on that date.

Fairness Opinions (pages 21 and 26 and Appendices B and C)

In deciding to recommend the merger to shareholders, C&C’s Board of Directors considered the opinion of its financial advisors, Hovde Financial, Inc. and FIG Partners, LLC, that, based upon and subject to the assumptions made and matters set forth in their written opinions, as of July 17, 2007, the consideration to be received by the shareholders of C&C in the merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders. We have attached as Appendix B the written opinion of Hovde Financial, Inc., dated as of July 17, 2007, and as Appendix C the written opinion of FIG Partners, LLC, dated as of July 17, 2007. You should read each opinion carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by each financial advisor, in providing its respective opinion.

We will hold a special meeting of the shareholders of C&C at 10:00 a.m. local time, on November 15, 2007 at 600 North Broadway Avenue, Bartow, Florida 33830. At the meeting, we will ask the shareholders holding voting stock to approve the merger agreement and to act on any other matters that may be put to a vote at the meeting.

Our Recommendation to our Shareholders (page 32)

Based on C&C’s reasons for the merger described herein, including the opinions of Hovde Financial, Inc. and FIG Partners, LLC, referred to above, your Board of Directors believes that the merger is fair to you and in your best interests, and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Record Date; Voting Power (page 16)

You may vote at the special meeting if you owned Class B C&C shares as of the close of business on October 8, 2007. You will have one vote for each share of voting common stock you owned on that date.

Vote Required (page 16)

If a quorum is present at the special meeting, then the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding voting shares will be sufficient to approve the merger agreement. A quorum consists of a majority of the Class B shares outstanding on the record date. On the record date, 506,947 shares of C&C Class B common stock were outstanding. The directors, executive officers and the largest Class B shareholder of C&C own an aggregate of 289,859 shares of C&C Class B common stock, representing approximately 57% of the outstanding shares. The directors, two executive officers and the largest Class B shareholder have agreed with Colonial BancGroup to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement (unless their fiduciary duty compels them to do otherwise). Accordingly, if these individuals vote as they have agreed with Colonial BancGroup, then the merger agreement will be approved. As to other matters that may properly come before the special meeting, such matters shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively, without regard to broker non-votes, as to that matter unless otherwise required by law.

Risk Factors (page 12)

In evaluating the merger and the merger agreement and before deciding how to vote your shares of C&C Class B common stock at the special meeting, you should read this Proxy Statement-Prospectus carefully and especially consider certain factors, risks and uncertainties discussed in the section entitled Colonial BancGroup Risk Factors beginning on page 12 of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus.

In a few days you should receive an election form. You may use this form to elect what percentage of cash or Colonial BancGroup common stock you wish to receive for your shares of C&C common stock. If you do not return an election form by the deadline, then your merger consideration will be the default form of 0.785 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and $19.51 in cash for each of your shares of C&C common stock (subject to pro-rata in the case of an over election of cash or common stock). The deadline by which election forms must be received by Colonial BancGroup's transfer agent, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, is 5:00 p.m. on the business day prior to the special meeting. If you receive some portion of your merger consideration in cash, you will be taxed on any gain you realize on the cash that you receive (see Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences on page 37).

Colonial BancGroup is only obligated to pay a certain portion of the total consideration for the outstanding shares of C&C common stock in cash and a certain portion in common stock. Based on the 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock that were outstanding as of the record date, Colonial BancGroup will pay approximately $103,514,070 in cash and 4,164,969 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. If C&C shareholders elect to receive too much cash, then all C&C shareholders electing cash will have their cash election reduced and their common stock election increased on a pro rata basis. Alternatively, if C&C shareholders elect to receive too much common stock, then all C&C shareholders electing common stock will have their common stock election reduced and their cash election increased on a pro rata basis. If you have not received an election form within five business days of receiving this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, or if you desire to receive another election form, please contact Judy Burdette at (863) 519-2104.

Shortly after we complete the merger, Colonial BancGroup, or its transfer agent, will send you detailed instructions on how to exchange your shares. UNLESS YOU HAVE COMPLETED AN ELECTION FORM AND INCLUDED YOUR COMMON STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR ELECTION FORM IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ELECTION FORM INSTRUCTIONS, PLEASE DO NOT SEND US OR BANCGROUP ANY COMMON STOCK CERTIFICATES UNTIL YOU RECEIVE THOSE INSTRUCTIONS.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 38)

The completion of the merger depends on meeting a number of conditions, including the following:

the shareholders of C&C must approve the merger agreement;

all required regulatory approvals must be received, and any waiting periods must have passed;

there must be no governmental order blocking completion of the merger, and no proceedings by a government body trying to block the merger; and the merger must be completed on or before April 19, 2008, or either party can terminate the merger agreement at will.

Unless prohibited by law, either C&C or Colonial BancGroup could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger anyway. We cannot be certain whether or when any of these conditions will be satisfied, or waived where permissible, or that we will complete the merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 39)

Colonial BancGroup and C&C can agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even if the shareholders of C&C have already voted to approve it.

Either company can also terminate the merger agreement:

if the other party has materially breached the merger agreement and has not cured the breach;

if the merger has not been completed by April 19, 2008, (provided that the failure to complete has not been caused by the breach by the company electing to terminate); or if C&C enters into a binding agreement with any third party to merge with, or sell control to, that third party. In that event, Colonial BancGroup will have the right to receive a payment of $8,000,000 from C&C or its acquirer.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 37)

We expect that neither the two companies nor the C&C shareholders will recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the merger, except in connection with any cash payment that a C&C shareholder may receive as merger consideration or for a fractional share. Colonial BancGroup has received an opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP that this will be the case. The tax opinion is based upon customary assumptions contained therein, including the assumption that consideration other than Colonial BancGroup common stock (including cash in lieu of fractional shares, cash consideration in exchange for outstanding options and cash paid to C&C shareholders that receive cash in the merger) will represent no more than 60% of the total fair market value of all consideration paid to C&C shareholders in the transaction. The opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service, which could take a different view. We expect that any cash received will generally be treated as capital gain for federal income tax purposes.

Determining the actual tax consequences to you as an individual taxpayer can be complicated. For example, the opinion referred to above does not address any tax issues arising under state, local or foreign law. The overall tax treatment applicable to you will depend on your specific situation and many variables not within our control. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences to you.

Accounting Treatment (page 46)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase. The purchase price will be allocated to the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, with any amounts in excess thereof being assigned to goodwill. Goodwill will be recognized unless and until it is deemed to be impaired, in which case the impairment will be measured and any such amount will be charged against current earnings.

Interests of Persons Involved in the Merger that are Different from Yours (page 32)

Certain directors, executive officers and employees of C&C have interests in the merger that are different from your interests. These differing interests include the following:

Directors, executive officers and employees of C&C currently hold options to acquire 596,437 shares of C&C common stock. As of the date that the merger is completed, each holder of unexercised C&C stock options will exercise his or her C&C stock options for the right to receive a cash payment. The amount of such cash payment is equal to the aggregate of the number of shares of C&C common stock subject to each C&C stock option multiplied by the difference of $39.02 and the per share exercise price of such C&C stock option, less any applicable withholding taxes.

C&C currently indemnifies its directors and certain officers, employees and agents against loss from claims arising out of their position with C&C. For the applicable statute of limitations period after the merger, Colonial BancGroup will, subject to some limitations, continue to indemnify those persons against claims that arise from the period when they worked for, or served as directors of, C&C or Citrus & Chemical Bank.

Upon completion of the merger, C&C employees will either become employees of Colonial BancGroup or one of its subsidiaries and become eligible for Colonial BancGroup's employee benefits, or they will be eligible to receive severance benefits under Colonial BancGroup's severance policy.

Douglas G. Small has an existing employment agreement with C&C Bank that provides a base compensation of $450,000 per year. Mr. Small's employment agreement further provides that if C&C Bank experiences a Change in Control (which will occur at the completion of the merger), then Mr. Small will receive a lump sum payment equal to $1,345,500 plus such amounts as are necessary to pay any state and federal excise taxes imposed upon Mr. Small by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code. It is anticipated that Mr. Small's employment will be terminated following the completion of the merger, but pursuant to his employment agreement with C&C Bank, he will serve as a consultant to Colonial Bank and BancGroup for twelve months following the completion of the merger at an annual salary of $450,000.

C&C's directors and the largest single shareholder have entered into affiliate agreements with Colonial BancGroup regarding various issues associated with the merger. These agreements provide that such person would, among other things:

agree to vote his or her shares for the merger unless otherwise required by their fiduciary duty;

not distribute Colonial BancGroup common stock issued in connection with the merger except in accordance with certain rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission;

support the business of Colonial Bank, N.A. after the merger;

if not also an employee of C&C, generally not compete with Colonial Bank, N.A. for a period of two years after the effective date of the merger; and

Dissenters' Rights (page 43)

C&C shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting are entitled to exercise dissenters' rights of appraisal under Florida law. These rights entitle a voting shareholder to dissent from the transaction and, by strictly following the requirements fixed by law, to receive fair value for their stock. The fair value may ultimately be determined in a judicial proceeding, the result of which cannot be predicted with certainty. Dissenting shareholders who receive cash for their stock will likely be subject to federal income tax treatment that differs from that available to shareholders who receive BancGroup stock. The text of the applicable Florida statutes is set forth in Appendix D.

Precautionary Language Regarding the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about either Colonial BancGroup or C&C. Such information can be found elsewhere in this Proxy Statement-Prospectus and in the other public filings that Colonial BancGroup make with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are available without charge at www.sec.gov.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that its parties made to each other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the merger agreement. While Colonial BancGroup and C&C do not believe that such schedules contain information that the securities laws require to be publicly disclosed, other than information that has already been so disclosed, the disclosure schedules do contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the attached merger agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they may be materially modified by the underlying disclosure schedules. These disclosure schedules contain information that has been included in Colonial BancGroup's general prior public disclosures, as well as potential additional non-public information. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Colonial BancGroup's public disclosures.

COLONIAL BANCGROUP RISK FACTORS

The business of Colonial BancGroup is subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties that could effect its future operations and the value of its common stock. These risks include, but are not limited to the following:

Industry Factors

As a financial services company, Colonial BancGroup's earnings are significantly affected by general business and economic conditions.

Colonial BancGroup's business and earnings are impacted by general business and economic conditions in the United States and abroad. These conditions include short-term and long-term interest rates, inflation, money supply, fluctuations in both debt and equity capital markets, the strength of the U.S. economy and the local economies in which it operates. For example, an economic downturn, increase in unemployment, or other events that negatively impact household and/or corporate incomes could decrease the demand for Colonial BancGroup's loan and non-loan products and services and increase the number of customers who fail to pay interest or principal on their loans.

Colonial BancGroup's earnings are significantly affected by the fiscal and monetary policies of the federal government and its agencies.

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System regulates the supply of money and credit in the United States. Its policies determine in large part Colonial BancGroup's cost of funds for lending and investing and the return it earns on those loans and investments, both of which impact its net interest margin, and can materially affect the value of financial instruments it holds, such as debt securities. Federal Reserve System policies also can affect Colonial BancGroup's borrowers, potentially increasing the risk that they may fail to repay their loans. Changes in Federal Reserve Board policies are beyond Colonial BancGroup's control and difficult to predict or anticipate.

The financial services industry is highly competitive.

Colonial BancGroup operates in a highly competitive industry which could become even more competitive as a result of legislative, regulatory and technological changes and continued consolidation. Banks, securities firms and insurance companies can now merge by creating a financial services company called a financial holding company, which can offer virtually any type of financial service, including banking, securities underwriting, insurance (both agency and underwriting) and merchant banking. A number of foreign banks have acquired financial services companies in the United States, further increasing competition in the U.S. market. Also, technology has lowered barriers to entry and made it possible for nonbanks to offer products and services traditionally provided by banks, such as automatic transfer and automatic payment systems. Many of Colonial BancGroup's competitors have fewer regulatory constraints and some have lower cost structures.

Colonial BancGroup is heavily regulated by federal agencies.

Colonial BancGroup, its subsidiary bank and certain nonbank subsidiaries are heavily regulated by federal agencies. This regulation is to protect depositors, federal deposit insurance funds and the banking system as a whole, not security holders. Congress and federal regulatory agencies continually review banking laws, regulations and policies for possible changes. Changes to statutes, regulations or regulatory policies, including changes in interpretation or implementation of statutes, regulations or policies, could affect Colonial Bank in substantial and unpredictable ways including limiting the types of financial services and products Colonial Bank may offer and/or increasing the ability of nonbanks to offer competing financial services and products. Also, any failure to comply with laws, regulations or policies could result in sanctions by regulatory agencies and damage to Colonial BancGroup's reputation. For more information, refer to discussions of regulatory considerations contained in Item 1 Business and Note 16, Regulatory Matters and Restrictions to the financial statements contained in Colonial BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Company Factors

Maintaining or increasing Colonial BancGroup's market share depends on adapting to evolving industry standards and technology, market acceptance and regulatory approval of new products and services.

Colonial BancGroup's success depends, in part, on its ability to adapt its products and services to evolving industry standards. There is increasing pressure on financial services companies to provide products and services at lower prices. This can reduce Colonial Bank's net interest margin and revenues from its fee-based products and services. In addition, the widespread adoption of new technologies, including internet-based services, could require Colonial BancGroup to make substantial expenditures to modify or adapt its existing products and services. Colonial BancGroup might not successfully introduce new products and services, achieve market acceptance of its products and services, and/or develop and maintain loyal customers.

Colonial BancGroup relies on dividends from its subsidiaries for most of its revenue.

Colonial BancGroup is a separate and distinct legal entity from its subsidiaries. It receives substantially all of its revenue from dividends from its subsidiaries. These dividends are the principal source of funds to pay dividends on the holding company's common stock and interest and principal on its debt. Various federal and/or state laws and regulations limit the amount of dividends that Colonial BancGroup's bank and certain of its nonbank subsidiaries may pay to the holding company. Also, the holding company's right to participate in a distribution of assets upon a subsidiary's liquidation or reorganization is subject to the prior claims of the subsidiary's creditors. For more information, refer to Payment of Dividends and Other Restrictions in Item 1 and Note 16, Regulatory Matters and Restrictions in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Colonial BancGroup's accounting policies and methods determine how it reports its financial condition and results of operations, and such policies may require management to make estimates about matters that are inherently uncertain.

Colonial BancGroup's accounting policies and methods are fundamental to how it records and reports its financial condition and results of operations. Management must exercise judgment in selecting and applying many of these accounting policies and methods so that not only do they comply with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States but also that they reflect management's judgment as to the most appropriate manner in which to record and report Colonial BancGroup's financial condition and results of operations. In some cases, management must select the accounting policy or method to apply from two or more alternatives, any of which might be reasonable under the circumstances yet might result in Colonial BancGroup reporting materially different amounts than would have been reported under a different alternative. A description of Colonial BancGroup's significant accounting policies may be found at Note 1, Summary of Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies, to the Consolidated Financial Statements contained in Colonial BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Colonial BancGroup has identified five accounting policies as being critical to the presentation of its financial condition and results of operations because they require management to make particularly subjective and/or complex judgments about matters that are inherently uncertain and because of the likelihood that materially different amounts would be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions. These critical accounting policies relate to: (1) allowance for loan losses, (2) purchase accounting and goodwill, (3) income taxes, (4) consolidations and (5) stock-based compensation. For more information, refer to Critical Accounting Policies in the Management's Discussion and Analysis contained in Colonial BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Colonial BancGroup has an active acquisition program.

Colonial BancGroup regularly explores opportunities to acquire financial institutions and other financial services providers. Colonial BancGroup cannot predict the number, size or timing of future acquisitions. Colonial BancGroup's management typically does not comment publicly on a possible acquisition or business combination until there is a signed definitive agreement for the transaction.

Colonial BancGroup's ability to successfully complete an acquisition generally is subject to regulatory approval, and it cannot be certain when or if, or on what terms and conditions, any required regulatory approvals will be granted. Colonial BancGroup might be required to divest banks or branches as a condition to receiving regulatory approval.

Difficulty in integrating an acquired company may cause Colonial BancGroup not to realize expected revenue increases, cost savings, increases in geographic or product presence, and/or other projected benefits from the acquisition. Specifically, the integration process could result in higher than expected deposit attrition (run-off), loss of key employees, the disruption of Colonial BancGroup's business or the business of the acquired company, or otherwise adversely affect its ability to maintain relationships with customers and employees or achieve the anticipated benefits of the acquisition. Also, the negative impact of any divestitures required by regulatory authorities in connection with acquisitions or business combinations may be greater than expected.

Colonial BancGroup's mix of products and customers subject us to potential concentration risk.

Colonial Bank offers a defined group of products, both retail and commercial, to its customers throughout the branch network. As a result of the products offered and customers served, BancGroup is subject to concentration risk. See Concentration discussion within the Risk Management section of Management's Discussion and Analysis in Colonial BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 for further discussion.

Colonial BancGroup's stock price can be volatile.

Colonial BancGroup's stock price can fluctuate widely in response to a variety of factors including:

actual or anticipated variations in its quarterly operating results;

recommendations by securities analysts;

new technology used, or services offered, by its competitors;

significant acquisitions or business combinations, strategic partnerships, joint ventures or capital commitments by or involving Colonial BancGroup or its competitors;

failure to integrate its acquisitions or realize anticipated benefits from its acquisitions; operating and stock price performance of other companies that investors deem comparable to it;

news reports relating to trends, concerns and other issues in the financial services industry;

changes in government regulations; and geopolitical conditions such as acts or threats of terrorism or military conflicts.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form 424B5

General market fluctuations, industry factors and general economic and political conditions and events, such as economic slowdowns or recessions, interest rate changes or credit loss trends, also could cause Colonial BancGroup's stock price to decrease regardless of its operating results.

A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

C&C and Colonial BancGroup make forward-looking statements in this document and in Colonial BancGroup's public documents. When C&C or Colonial BancGroup use words such as anticipate, believe, estimate, may, intend, expect, will, should, seeks or other similar words, C&C or Colonial BancGroup refer to events or conditions that are subject to risks and uncertainties. When considering those forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risks, uncertainties and other cautionary statements made in this Proxy Statement-Prospectus. You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement, which speaks only as of the date made. In addition to the risks identified below, you should refer to Colonial BancGroup's public documents for specific risks which could cause actual results to be significantly different from those expressed or implied by those forward-looking statements. Some factors which may affect the accuracy of the forward-looking statements apply generally to the financial services industries, while other factors apply directly to C&C or Colonial BancGroup. Any number of important factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

expected cost savings from reorganization into Colonial BancGroup are not fully realized;

deposit attrition, customer loss, or revenue loss following the reorganization into Colonial BancGroup are greater than expected;

the inability of Colonial BancGroup to realize elements of its strategic plan for 2007 and beyond;

deposit attrition, customer loss, or revenue loss in the ordinary course of business;

increases in competitive pressure in the banking industry;

changes in the interest rate environment which adversely affect margins or critical estimates as applied and projected return on investments;

general economic conditions, either nationally or regionally, that are less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality;

management's assumptions and estimates underlying critical accounting policies prove to be inadequate, materially incorrect or are not borne out by subsequent events;

the impact of recent and future federal and state regulatory changes;

current or future litigation, regulatory investigations, proceedings or inquiries;

strategies to manage interest rate risk may yield results other than those anticipated;

changes which may occur in the regulatory environment;

a significant rate of inflation or deflation;

natural disasters in BancGroup's primary market areas that result in prolonged business disruption or materially impair the value of collateral securing loans;

acts of terrorism or war; and changes in the securities markets.

Many of these factors are beyond C&C's control and beyond the control of Colonial BancGroup. For a discussion of factors that could cause Colonial BancGroup's actual results to differ, please see the discussions in the sections entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. C&C and Colonial BancGroup intend for their respective forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Colonial BancGroup and C&C do not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

General

This Proxy Statement-Prospectus is being furnished to the shareholders of Citrus & Chemical Bancorporation, Inc. (C&C) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of C&C for use at the special meeting of the shareholders of C&C to be held on November 15, 2007 (the Special Meeting) and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The purpose of the Special Meeting is to consider and vote upon the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated July 17, 2007 (the Agreement) which provides for the proposed merger (the Merger) of C&C with and into The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. (BancGroup). BancGroup will be the surviving corporation in the Merger.

The Board of Directors of C&C believes that the Merger is in the best interests of the C&C shareholders and unanimously recommends that Class B shareholders vote FOR the Agreement (item 1 on the proxy card).

This Proxy Statement-Prospectus is also furnished by BancGroup in connection with the offer of shares of BancGroup common stock to be issued in the Merger. No vote of BancGroup shareholders is required to approve the Merger.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Vote Required

The Board of Directors of C&C has fixed the close of business on October 8, 2007, as the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the Special Meeting (the Record Date). There were 397 record holders of C&C Class B common stock and 506,947 shares of C&C Class B common stock outstanding, each entitled to one vote per share, as of the Record Date. There were 447 record holders of C&C Class A common stock and 4,798,746 shares of C&C Class A common stock outstanding. Class A common stock is non-voting stock. As of the completion date of the Merger, any remaining holders of C&C stock options will receive a cash-payment in respect of the remaining C&C stock options.

The presence at the Special Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of C&C Class B common stock on the Record Date is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Special Meeting. In the absence of a quorum, the Special Meeting may be postponed from time to time until C&C shareholders holding the requisite number of shares of C&C Class B common stock are represented in person or by proxy. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of C&C Class B common stock, whether or not present or represented at the Special Meeting, is required to approve the Agreement. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted as votes FOR or AGAINST the proposal to approve the Agreement, and, as a result, such non-votes will have the same effect as votes cast AGAINST the Agreement. Each holder of record of shares of C&C Class B common stock is entitled to cast, for each share registered in his or her name, one vote on the Agreement as well as on any other matter presented to a vote of shareholders at the Special Meeting.

As of the Record Date, directors and two of the executive officers of C&C owned 36,207 shares of C&C Class B common stock, representing approximately 7.14% of the outstanding voting shares. These individuals, along with the largest Class B shareholder, who owns 48.28% of the outstanding C&C Class B common stock, have agreed with BancGroup to vote their shares in favor of the Agreement, subject to their fiduciary duties as directors. Accordingly, if these individuals vote as they have agreed with BancGroup, then the Agreement will be approved.

If the Agreement is approved at the Special Meeting, C&C is expected to merge with and into BancGroup promptly after the other conditions to the Agreement are satisfied. See Proposal 1: The Merger Conditions of Consummation of the Merger.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF C&C URGES THE VOTING SHAREHOLDERS OF C&C TO EXECUTE AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AND

In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, directors, officers and other employees of C&C, without receiving special compensation therefor, may solicit proxies from the shareholders of C&C by telephone, by e-mail or other electronic means, by facsimile or in person. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, if any, to forward solicitation materials to any beneficial owners of shares of C&C common stock. C&C will reimburse such custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith.

BancGroup will bear the cost of assembling and mailing this Proxy Statement-Prospectus and other materials furnished to C&C's shareholders. BancGroup will also pay all other expenses of solicitation. BancGroup will pay all expenses incidental to the registration of the BancGroup common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger.

Shares of C&C Class B common stock represented by a proxy properly signed and received at or prior to the Special Meeting, unless properly revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions on the proxy. If a proxy is signed and returned without any voting instructions, shares of C&C common stock represented by the proxy will be voted FOR the proposal to approve the Agreement and in accordance with the determination of the majority of the Board of Directors of C&C as to any other matter which may properly come before the Special Meeting, including any adjournment or postponement thereof. A shareholder may revoke any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation by: (i) delivering to the Secretary of C&C, prior to or at the Special Meeting, a written notice revoking the proxy; (ii) delivering to the Secretary of C&C, at or prior to the Special Meeting, a duly executed proxy relating to the same shares and bearing a later date; or (iii) voting in person at the Special Meeting.

Attendance at the Special Meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute a revocation of a proxy. All written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to the revocation of a proxy should be addressed to:

The Board of Directors of C&C is not aware of any business to be acted upon at the Special Meeting other than consideration of the Agreement described herein. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the Special Meeting, or any adjournments or postponements thereof, the persons appointed as proxies will have the discretion to vote or act on such matters according to their best judgment. Proxies voted in favor of the approval of the Agreement, or proxies as to which no voting instructions are given, will be voted to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, in order to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the Agreement. Proxies voted against the approval of the Agreement and abstentions will not be voted for an adjournment. See Adjournment of the Special Meeting.

Effect of Merger on Outstanding BancGroup Common Stock

Assuming that 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock are outstanding on the date of the completion of the Merger (the Effective Date), BancGroup will issue approximately 4,164,969 shares in connection with the Merger. The issuance of 4,164,969 shares of BancGroup common stock would represent approximately 2.65% of the total number of shares of BancGroup common stock outstanding following the Merger, not counting any additional shares BancGroup may issue for reasons unconnected to the Merger.

PROPOSAL 1: THE MERGER

The following sets forth a summary of the material provisions of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A. All C&C shareholders are urged to read the Agreement and the Appendices in their entirety.

General

The Agreement provides that, subject to approval by the shareholders of C&C, receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and satisfaction of certain other conditions described below at Conditions to Consummation of the Merger, C&C will merge with and into BancGroup. Upon completion of the Merger, the corporate existence of C&C will cease, and BancGroup will succeed to the business formerly conducted by C&C.

Background of the Merger

From time to time over the past several years, during regularly scheduled board of directors meetings, the directors of C&C discussed the business and prospects of C&C, conditions in the business and community banking market in Florida, and the merger activity among financial institutions in the state. In addition, during this time, C&C was approached by several parties who expressed moderate to serious interest in acquiring C&C. C&C did not enter into any agreements with the parties as it did not believe that the transactions would afford C&C shareholders the opportunity to receive any meaningful return on their investment.

In early January 2006, George Harris, Jr., C&C's long time Chairman and CEO died suddenly. Later that spring, the board met for a general discussion of C&C's strategic alternatives and invited Hovde to assist them in their strategic analysis. The Board of Directors met with representatives of Hovde Financial, Inc. (Hovde), its financial advisor, on April 26, 2006 to discuss C&C's strategic options. Shortly afterward, and after careful consideration, the board determined that they would continue executing their existing strategy and remain independent.

Early in 2007, some events transpired in the Florida community banking mergers and acquisition (M&A) market which Hovde communicated to C&C's President and CEO. On March 27, 2007, representatives of Hovde met with C&C's Executive Committee to provide them with an update on the Florida M&A market. Hovde then met with the full board on April 17, 2007 and then again on April 25, 2007, to update them on the Florida M&A market. On May 10, 2007, Hovde and C&C signed an engagement letter which engaged Hovde to assist and advise C&C regarding merger discussions with potential partners and, if the parties proceeded with a transaction, to provide an opinion that the merger consideration was fair from a financial point of view to the stockholders of C&C.

As a part of its engagement, Hovde discussed information regarding the banking industry and market conditions in general. Hovde also discussed bank holding companies and investor groups that, in its opinion, could have an interest in acquiring C&C and had the necessary financial resources to carry out the transaction and to obtain regulatory approvals. While not making a final decision whether to pursue any business combination transaction, C&C did authorize Hovde to solicit indications of interest that might warrant serious consideration and potentially result in an agreement to merge or C&C otherwise being acquired. During the month of May 2007, Hovde, with the assistance of C&C's management, performed a due diligence review of C&C and completed a detailed offering memorandum.

After a thorough review of the most suitable potential buyers, Hovde contacted twenty-six parties during the last two weeks in May 2007. Out of these potential buyers, seventeen expressed interest, executed confidentiality agreements, and received the confidential offering memorandum containing detailed information about C&C. On June 6, 2007, Hovde received written preliminary indications of interest from three institutions and verbal preliminary indications of interest from two institutions. On June 12, 2007, Hovde reported to members of C&C's Executive Committee that two of the three institutions that had submitted written preliminary indications of interest had submitted revised indications of interest. Hovde reviewed each of these proposals, including the financial terms of each proposal, the business, cultural, operations and prospects of each bidder, and the financial terms of other business combinations in the banking industry. Of the three indications of interest, two were for 50% stock and 50% cash and the third was for all stock. On June 13, 2007, Hovde presented the same information to C&C's entire Board of Directors. Following this board meeting, C&C unanimously agreed to pursue a transaction with BancGroup as the offer was deemed most favorable to shareholders.

During the week of June 25, 2007, BancGroup conducted on-site due diligence of the Company. During the remainder of June 2007 and in early July 2007, C&C representatives and BancGroup representatives continued to discuss the background, philosophies and corporate culture of BancGroup and C&C, their strategic directions, future plans, and other issues. The parties also discussed the parameters relating to a possible transaction between the two parties, including integration issues, non-compete agreements, employment agreements, and regulatory, tax, and compliance issues. Concurrently, Hovde, counsel for C&C, representatives of C&C, and BancGroup negotiated the terms of the Merger Agreement. Hovde and representatives from C&C performed reverse due diligence of BancGroup during the second week of July 2007.

On July 17, 2007, C&C's Board of Directors held their regularly scheduled meeting at which representatives of Hovde and counsel for C&C participated. C&C's legal counsel reviewed generally for C&C's Board of Directors the fiduciary obligations of directors in the sale of financial institutions. Hovde and counsel for C&C briefed C&C's Board of Directors on the results of final negotiations concerning the Merger Agreement and related matters. C&C's Board of Directors discussed, among other matters, the proposed terms of the merger, including financial terms. Specifically, C&C's Board of Directors discussed the structure of the transaction, merger consideration terms, the representations, warranties and covenants of the parties and certain non-financial issues. C&C's Board of Directors also reviewed the final form of the Merger Agreement and ancillary documents. During the meeting, Hovde advised the board that it was of the opinion, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of that date and based on and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on review described in its opinion, that the consideration to be received by C&C's shareholders under the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view. See Opinion of Hovde Financial, C&C's Financial Advisor. Following these discussions, C&C's Board of Directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. C&C's Board of Directors authorized C&C's officers to execute the Merger Agreement upon receiving confirmation that BancGroup had approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

On July 17, 2007, C&C and BancGroup signed the Merger Agreement and the parties issued a joint press release publicly announcing the merger the following morning on July 18, 2007.

C&C's Reasons for the Merger

The C&C Board has determined that the Merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, C&C and its shareholders. In approving the Agreement, the Board of Directors of C&C consulted with its financial advisors with respect to the financial aspects and fairness of the transaction to C&C's shareholders from a financial point of view and with its legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the Agreement and related agreements. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the Merger, the Board of Directors of C&C, with the advice from certain members of executive management and financial and legal advisors, considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

The Board of Directors' understanding of strategic options available to C&C and the assessment of those options by the board and certain members of executive management as to the prospects and estimated results of the execution of its business plan as an independent entity under various scenarios, and the determination that none of those strategic options or the execution of its business plan under the best case scenarios were likely to create greater value on a present value basis for shareholders than the merger consideration being paid by BancGroup.

The ability of C&C shareholders to continue to participate in the future of the combined entity by receiving BancGroup common stock and the ability of shareholders to elect to receive approximately 50% of the merger consideration in cash to moderate the effects of market fluctuations in BancGroup's common stock and that shareholders would have potential value appreciation by owning the common stock of a highly-regarded and profitable financial institution operating in the Southeast region.

Information concerning the business, earnings, operations, financial condition, strategic initiatives and general prospects of BancGroup as compared to other institutions and the expected performance of BancGroup and C&C on a combined basis. In particular, the Board of Directors considered the recent merger transactions consummated by BancGroup and the impact those transactions had on BancGroup's performance, the market value and trading history of the common stock of BancGroup in comparison to its peer institutions, and in comparison to C&C's common stock, the combined franchise and geographic coverage that would result from a merger with BancGroup and the relative prospects of continued growth and performance of BancGroup based upon the expected interest rate environment in the near term and the structure of BancGroup's balance sheet and operating strategy.

The opinions rendered by Hovde Financial, Inc. and FIG Partners, LLC, as financial advisors to C&C, that, subject to the assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the Merger consideration was, as of the date of the opinions, fair, from a financial point of view, to C&C's shareholders.

The potential efficiencies and synergies that could result from a combination with BancGroup and the wider array of products and services that would be available to the current customers and communities served by C&C and the prospect that the combined entity would be better able to capitalize on opportunities to provide increased financial services to C&C customers.

The results of the due diligence review conducted on BancGroup, including the likelihood of the transaction receiving the requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner.

The effect of the Merger on the depositors, customers and the communities served by C&C. The acquisition by BancGroup was deemed to be an opportunity to provide depositors, customers and the communities served by C&C with increased financial services and access to financial services throughout a wider market area.

That key executive management of C&C would remain involved with the combined entity and would help the continued entity deal with transition issues.

The current and prospective economic, competitive and regulatory environment and associated compliance costs facing C&C and independent community banking institutions generally and specifically the risks inherent in future expansion of C&C's franchise into highly competitive markets along the Gulf Coast of Florida including those geographic areas where the real estate market is depressed.

The additional cost of capital and risks inherent in the deployment of capital required for C&C's expansion outside Polk County, Florida.

A review, with the assistance of its financial and legal advisors, of the terms of the Agreement, the structure of the Merger and the mix of cash and common stock consideration, including the fact that the Merger is intended to qualify as a transaction of a type that is generally tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes as to the stock component of the merger consideration.

The likelihood of regulatory and shareholder approvals and estimated transactional and severance costs associated with the Merger and payments that could be triggered upon termination of or failure to consummate the Merger.

Table of Contents

The foregoing information and factors considered by C&C's Board of Directors are not exhaustive, but include all material factors that C&C's Board of Directors considered and discussed in approving and recommending the Merger. In view of the wide variety of factors considered and discussed by C&C's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and the complexity of these factors, the Board of Directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign any specific or relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision; rather it considered all of the factors as a whole. The Board of Directors discussed the foregoing factors, including asking questions of certain members of C&C's executive management, and legal and financial advisers, and reached a unanimous conclusion that the Merger was in the best interests of C&C and its shareholders. In considering the foregoing factors, individual directors may have assigned different weights to different factors. C&C's Board of Directors relied on the experience and expertise of C&C's financial advisors for quantitative analysis of the financial terms of the Merger. See Appendices B and C: Fairness Opinion of Hovde Financial, Inc. and Fairness Opinion of FIG Partners, LLC that are attached to this Prospectus/Proxy Statement, respectively. It should be noted that this explanation of the reasoning of C&C's Board of Directors and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under "A Warning About Forward-Looking Statements" on page .

Fairness Opinion of Hovde Financial, C&C's Financial Advisor

Hovde has delivered to the C&C Board of Directors its opinion that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion dated July 17, 2007, the total transaction consideration to be paid to the shareholders of C&C is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting Hovde's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by C&C upon Hovde with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of Hovde, dated July 17, 2007, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached hereto as Appendix B. The shareholders of C&C should read this opinion in its entirety.

Hovde is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, Hovde has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. The Board of Directors of C&C selected Hovde to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the Merger.

Hovde will receive a fee from C&C for performing a financial analysis of the Merger and rendering a written opinion to the board of directors of C&C as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid to the shareholders of C&C. Hovde will receive all of such fee subsequent to Hovde's presentation of its fairness opinion and analysis to the board of directors of C&C. C&C has also agreed to indemnify Hovde against any claims, losses and expenses arising out of the Merger or Hovde's engagement that did not arise from Hovde's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Hovde's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the total transaction consideration, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of C&C as to how the shareholder should vote at C&C shareholder meeting. The summary of the opinion of Hovde set forth in this joint statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by Hovde in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain of these analyses were confirmed in a presentation to the Board of Directors of C&C by Hovde. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by Hovde in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by Hovde to the Board of Directors of C&C, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by Hovde.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis and factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the Board of Directors of C&C and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, Hovde made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of C&C and BancGroup. The analyses performed by Hovde are not necessarily indicative of actual value or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of Hovde's analysis of the fairness of the transaction consideration, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of C&C. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. Hovde's opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other business combination in which C&C might engage. In addition, as described above, Hovde's opinion to the Board of Directors of C&C was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Board of Directors of C&C in making its determination to approve the Agreement.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of C&C and BancGroup and material prepared in connection with the Merger, including, among other things, the following:

the Agreement;

certain historical publicly available information concerning C&C and BancGroup;

certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning C&C and BancGroup;

certain financial projections prepared by the managements of C&C and BancGroup;

certain other information provided to Hovde by members of the senior managements of C&C and BancGroup for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of C&C and BancGroup, including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings expected to be achieved as a result of the Merger;

historical market prices and trading volumes for BancGroup common stock;

the nature and terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that Hovde considered relevant;

the pro forma ownership of BancGroup common stock by the shareholders of C&C relative to the pro forma contribution of C&C's assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the combined company;

the pro forma impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and such other information and factors as Hovde deemed appropriate.

Hovde also took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations. In rendering its opinion, Hovde assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and relied upon the accuracy of the representations of the parties contained in the merger agreement. Hovde also assumed that the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with Hovde by C&C and BancGroup were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of C&C and BancGroup as to the future financial performance of C&C, BancGroup, or the combined company, as the case may be. Hovde has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of C&C or BancGroup. Hovde assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the publicly available and other non-public financial information provided to it by C&C and BancGroup, relied upon the representations and warranties of C&C and BancGroup made pursuant to the Agreement, and did not independently attempt to verify any of such information.

Analysis of Selected Mergers. As part of its analysis, Hovde reviewed three groups of comparable merger transactions. The first peer group included transactions, which have occurred since January 1, 2005, that involved target banks and thrifts in the entire United States that had total assets between $600 million and $1.2 billion and a return on average assets between 0.75% and 1.25% (the Nationwide Merger Group). This Nationwide Merger Group consisted of the following 23 transactions:

Table of Contents

Hovde calculated the averages of the following relevant transaction ratios in the Nationwide Merger Group, the Southeast Merger Group and the Florida Merger Group: the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's tangible book value; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's trailing twelve months earnings; and the tangible book value premium to core deposits. Hovde compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the merger, valuing the total consideration that would be received pursuant to the merger agreement at approximately $219.4 million, or $39.02 per C&C diluted share. In calculating the multiples for the merger, Hovde used C&C's earnings for the twelve months ended March 31, 2007, and C&C's tangible book value per share, total assets, and total deposits as of March 31, 2007. The results of this analysis are as follows:

	Tangible Book Value (x)	Offer Value to 12 months Preceding Earnings (x)	Ratio of Tangible Book Value Premium to Core Deposits (%)
Citrus & Chemical Bancorporation, Inc.	3.59	27.5	26.0
Nationwide Merger Group average	3.08	22.7	26.4
Southeast Merger Group average	3.19	24.9	28.6
Florida Merger Group average	3.19	25.2	30.4

Rate of Return Analysis. Hovde estimated the rates of returns for four different scenarios; C&C standalone, C&C affiliates in 5 years, C&C affiliates with BancGroup, and C&C affiliates with BancGroup and the pro forma company is acquired. For the standalone scenario (Status Quo) it is assumed that the C&C stock sells in the market on December 31, 2011 at 16x EPS and the current C&C P/E is based on the 2007 estimate. The Status Quo scenario yielded an annual return of investment of 15.32%. For the second scenario (Affiliation in 5 Years) it is assumed that C&C affiliates with a merger partner on December 31, 2011 at 20x EPS, which yielded an annual return of investment of 21.64%. The third scenario (Affiliation Today) assumes C&C affiliates with BancGroup in 2007 and the pro forma stock sells in the market on December 31, 2011 at 17x EPS with the current BancGroup P/E based on the 2007 estimate. The Affiliation Today scenario yielded an annual return of investment of 26.73%. The fourth scenario (Double Dip) assumed C&C affiliates with BancGroup in 2007 and the pro forma company is acquired on December 31, 2011 at 24x EPS. The Double Dip scenario yielded an annual return of investment of 37.32%. Also, for this analysis C&C's starting stock price was based on the fair market value appraisal as of April 30, 2007.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Hovde estimated the present value of all shares of C&C's common stock by estimating the value of C&C's estimated future earnings stream. Hovde's assumptions of net income for the period 2007-2011 were based on C&C's internal projections. The present value of these earnings was calculated based on a range of discount rates of 9.0%, 10.0%, 11.0%, 12.0%, and 13.0%, respectively. In order to derive the terminal value of C&C's earnings stream beyond 2011, Hovde assumed a terminal value based on a multiple of between 2.99x and 3.39x applied to book value in 2011. The present value of this terminal amount was then calculated based on the range of discount rates mentioned above. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of C&C's common stock. This analysis and its underlying assumptions yielded a range of values for present value of C&C's stock of approximately $175.4 million (at a 13.0% discount rate and a 2.99x price to book value multiple) to $233.4 million (at a 9.0% discount rate and a 3.39x price to book value multiple) with a midpoint of $202.4 million (using an 11.0% discount rate and a 3.19x price to book value multiple), compared to total merger consideration of $219.4 million.

Gordon Growth Analysis. Hovde estimated the present value of all shares of C&C's common stock by estimating the value of C&C's estimated future earnings stream. Hovde's assumptions of net income for the period 2007-2011 were based on C&C's internal projections.

The present value of these earnings was calculated based on a range of discount rates of 10.0%, 11.0%, and 12.0%, respectively. In order to derive the terminal value of C&C's earnings stream beyond 2011, Hovde assumed a terminal value based on a terminal growth rate of 3% applied to earnings. The present value of this terminal amount was then calculated based on the range of discount rates mentioned above. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of C&C's common stock. This analysis and its underlying assumptions yielded a range of present values of C&C's stock of approximately $131.6 million (at a 12.0% discount rate) to $170.6 million (at a 10.0% discount rate) with a midpoint of $148.7 million (using an 11.0% discount rate), compared to total merger consideration of $219.4 million.

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weighting to any one factor or comparison, Hovde determined that the transaction consideration was fair from a financial point of view to the shareholders of C&C.

Fairness Opinion of FIG Partners, LLC

C&C retained FIG Partners, LLC on July 11, 2007 to act as a financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination with BancGroup. FIG Partners is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, FIG is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

FIG acted as financial advisor to C&C in connection with the proposed merger with BancGroup. In connection with FIG's engagement, C&C asked FIG to evaluate the fairness of the merger consideration to C&C's stockholders from a financial point of view. At the July 17, 2007 meeting of C&C's board of directors, FIG was asked to present its opinion, and the C&C's board voted to approve the Merger and subsequently executed a definitive agreement on the same day. FIG subsequently submitted its written opinion letter to the board of directors on July 17, 2007 at that meeting.

THE FULL TEXT OF FIG'S WRITTEN OPINION IS ATTACHED AS APPENDIX C TO THIS JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS. THE OPINION OUTLINES THE MATTERS FIG CONSIDERED, AND THE QUALIFICATIONS AND LIMITATIONS ON THE REVIEW UNDERTAKEN BY FIG IN RENDERING ITS OPINION. THE DESCRIPTION OF THE OPINION SET FORTH BELOW IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE OPINION. WE URGE YOU TO READ THE ENTIRE OPINION CAREFULLY IN CONNECTION WITH YOUR CONSIDERATION OF THE PROPOSED MERGER.

FIG'S OPINION SPEAKS ONLY AS OF THE DATE OF THE OPINION. THE OPINION WAS DIRECTED TO THE C&C BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND IS DIRECTED ONLY TO THE FAIRNESS OF THE MERGER CONSIDERATION TO C&C STOCKHOLDERS FROM A FINANCIAL POINT OF VIEW. IT DOES NOT ADDRESS THE UNDERLYING BUSINESS DECISION OF C&C TO ENGAGE IN THE MERGER OR ANY OTHER ASPECT OF THE MERGER, THE MERGER AGREEMENT OR ANY RELATED AGREEMENTS, AND IS NOT A RECOMMENDATION TO ANY C&C STOCKHOLDER AS TO HOW SUCH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD VOTE AT THE STOCKHOLDER MEETING WITH RESPECT TO THE MERGER, OR ANY OTHER MATTER.

In connection with rendering its opinion, FIG reviewed and considered, among other things:

the merger agreement;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of C&C and BancGroup that it deemed relevant; projected earnings estimates for C&C and BancGroup prepared by senior management of C&C and BancGroup and discussions with senior management of C&C and BancGroup regarding their respective business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects; internal financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of C&C and BancGroup furnished to FIG by C&C and BancGroup that is not publicly available;

Table of Contents

the reported prices and trading activity of BancGroup common stock, and compared those prices and activity and dividends with other publicly-traded companies that FIG deemed relevant;

the pro forma financial impact of the merger on C&C's ability to complete a transaction from a regulatory standpoint, based on assumptions determined by senior management of C&C and FIG;

the financial terms of other recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available and deemed relevant by FIG;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as it considered relevant.

FIG held discussions with certain members of senior management of C&C regarding their assessment of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the Merger and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies. In connection with FIG's review, it relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by it.

C&C's board of directors did not limit the investigations made or the procedures followed by FIG in giving its opinion.

In performing its reviews and analyses and in rendering its opinion, FIG assumed and relied, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all the financial information, analyses, financial forecasts, and other information that was publicly available or otherwise furnished to, reviewed by or discussed with management of C&C and BancGroup. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data relating to C&C and BancGroup, reviewed by or discussed with it, FIG was advised by the respective management of C&C and BancGroup that such forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of C&C and BancGroup as to the future financial performance of their respective organization, the potential strategic implications and operational benefits anticipated to result from the proposed transaction and the other matters covered thereby. FIG assumed that the financial results (including the potential strategic implications and operational benefits anticipated to result from the merger) reflected in such forecasts and other information and data will be realized in the amounts and at the times projected. FIG was not asked to and did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of such information and it did not assume responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness of any of such information. FIG did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of C&C or BancGroup or any of their respective subsidiaries, or the ability to collect any such assets, nor was it furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. FIG is not an expert in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and it did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of C&C or BancGroup, nor did it review any individual credit files relating to C&C or BancGroup. With C&C's consent, FIG assumed that the respective allowances for loan losses for both C&C and BancGroup were adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. In addition, FIG did not conduct any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of C&C or BancGroup.

FIG's opinion was necessarily based upon financial information, and market, economic and other conditions, as these existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. FIG assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement are not waived. FIG also assumed that there has been no material change in C&C's and BancGroup's financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the last financial statements made available to them, that C&C and BancGroup will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses. FIG further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and third party approvals, consents and releases for the Merger and the related transactions, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on C&C or BancGroup or the contemplated benefits of the proposed transaction in any way meaningful to its analysis.

In rendering its opinion, FIG performed a variety of financial analyses. The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by FIG, but is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying FIG's opinion. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. FIG believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in FIG's comparative analyses described below is identical to C&C or BancGroup and no transaction is identical to the Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of C&C or BancGroup and the companies to which they are being compared.

The internal earnings projections provided by C&C and BancGroup were relied upon by FIG in its analyses. FIG assumed that such projected performance would be achieved, and expressed no opinion as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they were based. The financial projections furnished to FIG by C&C and BancGroup were prepared for internal purposes only and not with a view towards public disclosure. These projections, as well as the other estimates used by FIG in its analyses, were based on numerous variables and assumptions which are inherently uncertain and, accordingly, actual results could vary materially from those set forth in such projections.

In performing its analyses, FIG also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of C&C, BancGroup and FIG. The analyses performed by FIG are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. FIG prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the C&C board at the July 17, 2007 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies are not appraisals and do not necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, FIG's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of C&C common stock or BancGroup common stock or the prices at which C&C or BancGroup common stock may be sold at any time. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of C&C, BancGroup or FIG or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

Summary of Proposed Merger. FIG reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger whereby the holders of C&C common stock shall be entitled to receive 1.57 shares of BancGroup common stock or $39.02 in cash in exchange for their shares of C&C common stock with 50% of the consideration to consist of BancGroup common stock and 50% paid in cash. Holders of C&C options and warrants will receive cash in the amount of the difference between $39.02 and the strike price. Based upon the terms of the merger agreement and BancGroup's closing price of $24.91 on July 13, 2007, FIG calculated a transaction value of $219,438,702 or $39.02 per C&C share. Utilizing C&C's publicly available financial information on the date of announcement, which was the March 31, 2007 financial information, FIG calculated the following ratios:

Deal Value Considerations:
Offer Price / Fully Diluted Share	$ 39.02
Aggregate Value for Common Shares	$ 205,750,392
Aggregate Value for Outstanding Options/Warrants	$ 13,688,310
Total Transaction Value	$ 219,438,702

Deal Multiples:
Price / LTM EPS	27.53x
Price / Book Value	3.59x
Price / Tangible Book Value	3.59x
Core Deposit Premium	26.05%

The fully diluted share count is based upon C&C's 5,272,947 outstanding common shares and 635,383 outstanding options and warrants to purchase common shares at a weighted average strike price of $17.48 outstanding as of the date of the announcement.

Analysis of BancGroup.

Indications of such financial performance and stock market valuation included profitability measures, earnings composition, operating and performance metrics, loan portfolio compositions, deposit compositions, yield and cost analysis, capital adequacy, asset quality, and reserve adequacy, all based on financial information as of March 31, 2007 and, where relevant, closing stock market information as of July 13, 2007. Selected market information for BancGroup and the two groups of comparable companies that was analyzed is provided below.

	Stock Price	Price/TBV (x)	Implied Deposit Prem (x)	Price/2007 Est. EPS (x)	Price/2008 Est. EPS (x)	Mkt. Cap ($m)	Yield (%)

Table of Contents

Contribution Analysis. FIG computed the contribution of BancGroup and C&C to various elements of the pro forma entity's income statement, balance sheet and market capitalization, excluding estimated cost savings and operating synergies. The following table compares the pro forma ownership in the combined company, based upon the exchange ratio, to each company's respective contribution to each element of the analysis.

	Contribution
	BancGroup	C&C
Pro Forma Ownership Actual	96.9%	3.2%
Pro Forma Ownership 100% Stock	93.6%	6.4%
Earnings (000 s):
LTM Earnings	96.8%	3.2%
2007 Earnings	97.0%	3.0%
Balance Sheet (2007 Q1) (000 s):
Loans	96.9%	3.1%
Assets	96.3%	3.7%
Deposits	95.6%	4.4%
Equity	97.2%	2.8%
Tangible Equity	95.9%	4.1%

The contribution analysis indicated that the pro forma ownership of BancGroup common stock issuable to C&C stockholders in the merger was slightly greater than projected earnings contribution in 2007 and generally in line with projected balance sheet projections.

Analysis of Selected Merger Transactions. In order to address the specific valuation considerations within the market that C&C serves, FIG selected a group of comparable merger and acquisition transactions and compared the pricing multiples to the multiples implied by the merger consideration. Specifically, FIG selected bank merger and acquisition transactions according to the following criteria:

Group 1 Bank transactions in the state of Florida announced since 2002 with seller's total assets between $500 million and $2 billion

Group 2 Bank transactions in the Southeastern United States announced since 2000 with seller's total assets between $700 million and $1.2 Billion

Group 3 Bank transactions nationwide with seller's total assets between $700 million and $1.2 billion and NPAs-to-Assets ratio less than 0.25%

FIG reviewed the multiples of transaction value at announcement to last twelve months' earnings, transaction value to total assets, transaction value to tangible book value, and book premium to core deposits and computed the average for the transactions. These average multiples and premiums were compared to the values C&C received in the transaction with BancGroup. The summary of this analysis is shown below.

	Total Assets (%)	Offer Value to		Ratio of Tangible Book Value Premium to Core Deposits (%)
		Tangible Book Value (x)	12 months Preceding Earnings (x)
Citrus & Chemical	25.1	3.59	27.5	26.1
Group 1 average	23.9	3.35	26.3	30.0
Group 2 average	22.3	3.02	24.1	27.3
Group 3 average	23.4	3.06	21.5	25.4

Other than book premium to core deposits, the consideration received by C&C exceeded the averages of every comparable Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Using a discounted cash flow analysis, FIG estimated the present value of the future stream of earnings and dividends that C&C could produce over the next five years based upon an internal earnings and balance sheet forecast for 2008–2012. FIG performed discounted cash flow analyses based upon terminal values to trailing earnings.

In order to derive the terminal value of C&C earnings stream beyond 2012, FIG assumed terminal value multiple 25x of fiscal year 2012 net income. The estimated dividend streams and terminal values were then discounted to present values using different estimated discount rates (ranging from 11.0% to 13.0%) chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return to holders or prospective buyers of C&C common stock. This discounted cash flow analysis indicated a value range between $36.15 and $39.12 per share of C&C common stock.

Other Analyses and Factors. FIG took into consideration various other factors and analyses, including: historical market prices and trading volumes for C&C's and BancGroup's common stock; movements in the common stock of selected publicly-traded companies and movements in the S&P Bank Index.

Information Regarding FIG. FIG will receive a fee from C&C for performing its financial advisory services in connection with the merger and rendering a written opinion to the Board of Directors of C&C as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger to C&C's shareholders. Further, C&C has agreed to indemnify FIG against any claims or liabilities arising out of FIG's engagement by C&C.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of C&C

The Board of Directors of C&C has determined that the Merger and the Agreement are in the best interests of C&C shareholders. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE VOTING SHAREHOLDERS OF C&C VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF THE AGREEMENT.

BancGroup's Reasons for the Merger

The Board of Directors of BancGroup has unanimously approved the Merger and the Agreement. The merger will allow BancGroup to expand its banking operations in C&C's market area. As of June 30, 2007, BancGroup operated a commercial bank with 182 branches in Florida. The Board of Directors of BancGroup believes that the combination with C&C is consistent with its current expansion strategy.

In approving the Merger and the Agreement, the Board of Directors of BancGroup took into account: (i) the financial performance and condition of C&C and Citrus & Chemical Bank (C&C Bank), including its capital and asset quality; (ii) similarities in the philosophies of BancGroup and C&C, including the commitment of C&C to delivering high quality personalized financial services to its customers; and (iii) the extensive knowledge of, and experience in, the Polk County, Florida, market area that has been demonstrated by the management of C&C.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of the management and Boards of Directors of C&C and C&C Bank may be deemed to have certain interests in the merger in addition to their interest as shareholders of C&C generally. The Board of Directors of C&C was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in unanimously approving the Agreement.

Exercise and Cash-out of Options. As of the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, C&C had outstanding options (the C&C Options) which entitle the holders thereof to acquire up to 596,437 shares of C&C common stock. Each holder of a C&C Option who does not exercise his or her options prior to the completion of the Merger will receive a cash payment for his or her C&C Options, in a cashless exercise. The amount of such cash payment is equal to the aggregate of the number of shares of C&C common stock subject to each C&C Option multiplied by the difference of $39.02 and the per share exercise price of such C&C Option, less any applicable withholding taxes. See Proposal 1: The Merger Treatment of C&C Options.

Employees. Douglas G. Small has an existing employment agreement with C&C Bank that provides a base compensation of $450,000 per year. Mr. Small s employment agreement further provides that if C&C Bank experiences a Change in Control (which will occur at the completion of the Merger), then Mr. Small will receive a lump sum payment equal to $1,345,500 plus such amounts as are necessary to pay any state and federal excise taxes imposed upon Mr. Small by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code. It is anticipated that Mr. Small s employment will be terminated following the completion of the Merger, but pursuant to his employment agreement with C&C Bank, he will serve as a consultant to Colonial Bank and BancGroup for twelve months following the completion of the Merger at an annual salary of $450,000, however, the services requested of Mr. Small as a consultant shall constitute less than 20% of the services rendered by Mr. Small to C&C Bank prior to the completion of the Merger. BancGroup has also agreed to allow Mr. Small to buy his company-owned vehicle for $1.00.

On the Effective Date, all employees of C&C will, at BancGroup s option, either become employees of BancGroup or its subsidiaries or be entitled to severance benefits in accordance with Colonial Bank s severance policy. All employees of C&C who become employees of BancGroup or its subsidiaries on the Effective Date will be entitled, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to participate in all benefit plans of BancGroup to the same extent as BancGroup s employees. Because BancGroup has frozen its defined benefit pension plan and new employees are not able to participate in it, C&C employees will not be admitted into that plan.

D. Burke Kibler, III, the Chairman of the Board of C&C, is a partner in Holland & Knight LLP. C&C retained Holland & Knight LLP as special counsel in connection with this merger transaction with BancGroup.

Indemnification. Under the Agreement, BancGroup has agreed for a period equal to the applicable statute of limitations period to indemnify the directors and executive officers of C&C and its subsidiaries against certain claims and liabilities arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Date, to the extent that C&C would have been authorized under Florida law, or under its Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, to indemnify such persons. BancGroup has also agreed to extend such indemnification to directors of C&C Bank with respect to matters existing or occurring after the Effective Date during any extended term of service as a director of C&C Bank. The foregoing indemnification is subject to the limitations imposed by 12 U.S.C. §1828(k) and 12 CFR Part 359 of the FDIC regulations.

Affiliate Agreements. C&C s directors and its largest shareholder have entered into affiliate agreements with BancGroup regarding various issues associated with the Merger. These agreements provide that the director will, among other things:

agree to vote his or her shares for the Merger;

not distribute BancGroup common stock issued in connection with the Merger except in accordance with certain rules of the SEC;
and support the business of Colonial Bank after the Merger.

Additionally, C&C s directors who are not also employees of C&C agreed generally not to compete with Colonial Bank for a period of two years after the Effective Date.

Table of Contents

Effective Date, Conversion of C&C Common Stock

The Agreement provides for the merger of C&C with and into BancGroup, with BancGroup to be the surviving corporation. Assuming all other conditions stated in the Agreement have been or will be satisfied or waived as of the closing, the Merger shall become effective as of the later date and time the certificate of merger is accepted for filing by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the articles of merger are accepted for filing by the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. On the Effective Date, each share of C&C common stock outstanding and held by the C&C shareholders will be converted by operation of law and without any action by any holder thereof into either (i) 1.57 shares of BancGroup common stock or (ii) $39.02 cash (the Merger Consideration). Accordingly, based upon the 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock outstanding as of the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, and assuming the exercise of no C&C Options prior to the closing of the Merger, the number of shares of BancGroup common stock that may be issued in the Merger is expected to be approximately 4,164,969 shares, and the amount of cash that BancGroup is expected to pay in the Merger for the outstanding shares of C&C's common stock is expected to be approximately $103,514,070.

No fractional shares of BancGroup common stock will be issued in connection with the Merger. Each shareholder of C&C otherwise entitled to receive a fractional share of BancGroup common stock will receive instead a cash payment (without interest) equal to such fractional interest multiplied by $24.85.

The Agreement provides that if, prior to the Effective Date, BancGroup common stock is changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any recapitalization or reclassification, stock dividend, combination, stock split, or reverse stock split of the BancGroup common stock, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment will be made in the number of shares of BancGroup common stock into which the C&C common stock will be converted in the Merger.

Election of Consideration

The Agreement allows each C&C shareholder to choose how many shares of his or her C&C common stock will be converted to BancGroup common stock and how many shares of his or her C&C common stock will be converted to cash. You may elect to receive only stock, only cash or some combination of both. If you do not make an election by the election deadline, then you will be deemed to have elected to receive 0.785 shares of BancGroup common stock and $19.51 in cash for each of your shares of C&C common stock. The board of directors of C&C believes that allowing this choice grants C&C shareholders the opportunity to receive the form of consideration that is best suited to each shareholder's needs. If a C&C shareholder elects to receive only cash as his or her consideration, and all C&C shareholders opt in the aggregate to receive stock in exchange for at least 50% of C&C's outstanding shares, then such C&C shareholder will receive $39.02 cash for each share of C&C common stock that such shareholder owns. Any C&C shareholder who receives cash in the Merger should understand that any gain realized on the disposition of his or her C&C common stock that is converted into cash will be recognized to the extent of the cash received (see Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences). If a C&C shareholder elects to receive only BancGroup common stock as his or her consideration, and all C&C shareholders opt in the aggregate to receive cash in exchange for at least 50% of C&C's outstanding shares, then such C&C shareholder will receive 1.57 shares of BancGroup common stock for each share of C&C common stock that such shareholder owns. No income will be recognized by a C&C shareholder if such shareholder receives BancGroup common stock and no cash as his or her Merger Consideration (although income would be recognized in connection with the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share).

You will be sent an election form in a few days. You should follow the instructions on the election form or the instructions given to you by your broker to elect the number of shares of C&C common stock that you desire to be converted into cash and the number of shares of your C&C common stock that you desire to be converted into BancGroup common stock. Enclosed with your Election Form will be a return envelope addressed to BancGroup's Transfer Agent, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company (the Exchange Agent). You should complete your election form and mail it and your C&C stock certificate(s) to the Exchange Agent in the envelope provided. In the event an election form is received by the Exchange Agent without C&C stock certificates, it will be returned.

The Agreement places a maximum amount on BancGroup's obligation to pay cash and common stock for outstanding shares of C&C common stock. Assuming there are 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock outstanding at the completion of the merger, the maximum cash amount would be $103,514,070 and the maximum common stock issued would be 4,164,969 shares. If C&C shareholders elect to receive more cash than the maximum cash amount, then the C&C shareholders electing to receive cash would have their cash consideration reduced and their common stock consideration increased on a pro rata basis. Alternatively, if C&C shareholders elect to receive more common stock than the maximum stock amount, then the C&C shareholders electing to receive common stock would have their common stock consideration reduced and their cash consideration increased on a pro rata basis.

As an example, if there are 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock outstanding at the time of the completion of the merger (in which case BancGroup is not obligated to pay more than $103,514,070 of the total Merger Consideration in cash), and the C&C shareholders make an aggregate cash election of $150,000,000, then that would be 46,485,930 more than BancGroup is required to pay in cash, and would represent approximately 1,191,336 shares of C&C common stock. The electing shareholders who had elected cash would have their cash portion of the Merger Consideration reduced on a pro rata basis and would instead receive an aggregate of 1,870,397 shares of BancGroup common stock. On an individual basis, each electing shareholder who had elected some portion of his or her Merger Consideration to be paid in cash would in fact receive cash for 69.01% of the C&C common stock that he or she had originally elected to be paid in cash and the remaining 30.99% of C&C common stock that the electing shareholder had requested cash for would be paid in BancGroup common stock. Thus, in this example, if a C&C shareholder who owned 10,000 shares of C&C common stock had elected to receive cash for 1,000 shares and BancGroup common stock for 9,000 shares, that shareholder would actually receive cash of $26,923.80 for 690 shares of C&C common stock and 14,616 shares of BancGroup common stock (plus $17.40 for the cash value of a fractional share) for 9,310 shares of C&C common stock.

The deadline to make an election is 5:00 p.m. on November 14, 2007. If the Exchange Agent has not received your completed election form, including your C&C certificates, by the deadline, then each share of your C&C common stock will be treated as if you had elected to receive $19.51 in cash and 0.785 shares of BancGroup common stock (subject to pro-ration in the case of an over election of cash or stock consideration). You may change your election at any time prior to the election deadline, but once the election deadline has passed, all elections are final. You may, at any time prior to the election deadline, revoke your election by providing written notice to the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent's address and phone number are Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, 17 Battery Place, 8th Floor, New York, New York 10004, Attn: Reorganization Department and 212-509-4000 Ext. 536.

If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a person other than the person named on the C&C common stock certificate, no payment can be made on that stock certificate unless it is properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such payment shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other similar taxes required as a result of such payment to a person other than the registered holder of such C&C stock certificate, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable. The Exchange Agent or BancGroup shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration (including cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup common stock) otherwise payable in connection with the merger to any holder of C&C common stock such amounts as the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, is required to deduct and withhold under the Internal Revenue Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law, with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent the amounts are so withheld by the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes as having been paid to the holder of shares of C&C common stock in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be.

The Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall have the right to make all determinations, not inconsistent with the terms of the Agreement, governing (A) the validity of the election form and compliance by any C&C shareholder with the election procedures, (B) the manner and extent to which elections are to be taken into account in making the determinations prescribed by the Agreement, (C) the issuance and delivery of BancGroup stock certificates into which shares of C&C common stock are converted in the merger and (D) the method of payment of cash for shares of C&C common stock converted into the right to receive cash and cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup common stock where the holder of the applicable C&C stock certificate has no right to receive whole shares of BancGroup common stock.

Surrender of C&C Common Stock Certificates

On the Effective Date and subject to the conditions described at Conditions to Consummation of the Merger, C&C shareholders will automatically, and without further action by such shareholders or by BancGroup, become owners of BancGroup common stock and/or be entitled to receive a cash payment, as described herein. Outstanding certificates representing shares of the C&C common stock will represent shares of BancGroup common stock or rights to a cash payment. Thereafter, upon surrender of the certificates formerly representing shares of C&C common stock, the holders will be entitled to receive certificates for the BancGroup common stock and/or a cash payment. Dividends on the shares of BancGroup common stock will accumulate without interest and will not be distributed to any former shareholder of C&C unless and until such shareholder surrenders for cancellation his certificate for C&C common stock. No interest will be paid on any cash payment owed as consideration for the merger. Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, transfer agent for BancGroup common stock, will act as the Exchange Agent with respect to the shares of C&C common stock surrendered in connection with the merger. The Exchange Agent will mail a detailed explanation of these arrangements to C&C shareholders promptly following the Effective Date. Do not send your stock certificates to the Exchange Agent unless you include an Election Form or until such notice is received.

Treatment of C&C Options

Vesting of Options. As of the date of this Proxy Statement-Prospectus, C&C directors, executive officers and employees held outstanding options which entitle the holders thereof to acquire up to 596,437 shares of C&C common stock (C&C Options).

Exercise of Options. Prior to the completion of the Merger, holders who owned vested C&C options may exercise their vested options for C&C common stock.

Holders of C&C Options that are not exercised will receive a cash payment on the Effective Date. The amount of such cash payment is equal to the number of shares of C&C common stock subject to each C&C Option multiplied by the difference of $39.02 and the per share exercise price of such C&C Option, less any applicable withholding taxes.

The C&C Options are not transferable except under the laws of descent and distribution.

Substantially all of the C&C Options held by employees are incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon exercise of such an option, ordinary income would not normally result to the optionee even if the exercise price of the options is lower than the fair market value of the stock subject to the option at the date of exercise provided certain timing requirements are met. However, income could be recognized for alternative minimum tax purposes upon an exercise. No income for regular federal income tax purposes would be realized until the holder actually sells the stock obtained through the exercise of incentive stock options (or exchanges it for cash, as described above) as long as such stock is held long enough. The foregoing statements concerning federal income tax treatment are necessarily general and may not apply in a particular instance. Holders of C&C options should contact their own professional tax advisors for advice concerning their particular tax situation.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

This document was not intended or written to be used, and it cannot be used by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding tax penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer. This document was written to support the promotion or marketing of the transaction or matters addressed in it. You should seek advice based on your particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor, not associated in any way with the transaction.

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). The obligation of each of C&C and BancGroup to consummate the merger is conditioned on the receipt of an opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, BancGroup's tax advisor, to the effect that the merger will constitute such a reorganization. BancGroup has received this opinion. In delivering its opinion, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP received and relied upon certain representations contained in certificates of officers of BancGroup and C&C and certain other information, data, documentation and other materials as it deemed necessary. The tax opinion is based upon customary assumptions contained therein, including the assumption that consideration other than BancGroup common stock (including cash in lieu of fractional shares and cash paid to C&C shareholders that receive cash in the merger) will represent no more than 60% of the total fair market value of all consideration paid to C&C shareholders in the transaction.

Neither C&C nor BancGroup intends to seek a ruling from the IRS as to the federal income tax consequences of the merger. Shareholders of C&C should be aware that the opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will not be binding on the IRS or the courts. Shareholders of C&C also should be aware that some of the tax consequences of the merger are governed by provisions of the Code as to which there are no final regulations and little or no judicial or administrative guidance. There can be no assurance that future legislation, administrative rulings, or court decisions will not adversely affect the accuracy of the statements contained herein.

The tax opinion states that, provided the assumptions therein are satisfied, the merger will constitute a reorganization as defined in Section 368(a) of the Code, and the following federal income tax consequences will result to C&C shareholders who exchange their shares of C&C common stock for shares of BancGroup common stock, cash or a combination:

- (i) No gain or loss will be recognized by BancGroup or C&C as a result of the Merger;
- (ii) The C&C shareholders will not recognize any gain or loss related to BancGroup common stock received in exchange for their shares of C&C common stock. To the extent that both cash and stock are received by a shareholder in the merger, gain (but not loss) will be recognized up to the extent of the cash received.
- (iii) The tax basis of the BancGroup common stock received by each C&C shareholder will equal the tax basis of such shareholder's C&C shares surrendered in the merger, decreased by the fair market value of the consideration (other than BancGroup common stock) and the amount of cash received by such C&C shareholder in the merger and increased by (i) the amount of gain, if any, recognized by such C&C shareholder on the receipt of such other consideration and (ii) the amount, if any, which is treated as a dividend;
- (iv) The holding period of the BancGroup common stock received by the C&C shareholders will include the holding period during which the C&C common stock surrendered in exchange therefor was held, provided that such stock is held as a capital asset in the hands of the C&C shareholders on the date of the exchange under Internal Revenue Code Section 1223(1); and
- (v) The cash received by a C&C shareholder in lieu of a fractional share interest of BancGroup common stock will be treated as having been received as a distribution in full payment in exchange for the fractional share interest of BancGroup stock which he or she would otherwise be entitled to receive and will qualify for either capital gain or loss treatment, provided that such stock is held as a capital asset in the hands of the C&C shareholder on the date of the exchange under Internal Revenue Code Section 1223(1).

Each C&C shareholder will be required to report on such shareholder's federal income tax return for the fiscal year of such shareholder in which the Merger occurs that such shareholder has received BancGroup common stock in a reorganization.

A C&C shareholder electing to receive a combination of BancGroup common stock and cash in the Merger may be able to reduce the amount of gain required to be recognized by him or her by designating the particular shares of C&C common stock that are being exchanged for the BancGroup common stock and the particular shares of C&C common stock that are being exchanged for cash. C&C shareholders should consult their tax advisors concerning this possibility.

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION IS INTENDED ONLY AS A SUMMARY OF MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF C&C, TO C&C AND TO BANCGROUP AND DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF ALL POTENTIAL TAX EFFECTS OF THE MERGER. THE DISCUSSION DOES NOT ADDRESS THE TAX CONSEQUENCES THAT MAY BE RELEVANT TO A PARTICULAR SHAREHOLDER SUBJECT TO SPECIAL TREATMENT UNDER CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS, SUCH AS DEALERS IN SECURITIES, BANKS, INSURANCE COMPANIES, TAX-EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS, NON-UNITED STATES PERSONS, SHAREHOLDERS WHO DO NOT HOLD THEIR SHARES OF C&C COMMON STOCK AS CAPITAL ASSETS WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 1221 OF THE CODE, AND SHAREHOLDERS WHO ACQUIRED THEIR SHARES OF C&C COMMON STOCK PURSUANT TO THE EXERCISE OF OPTIONS OR OTHERWISE AS COMPENSATION, NOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCALITY OR FOREIGN JURISDICTION; MOREOVER, THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO HOLDERS OF C&C OPTIONS ARE NOT DISCUSSED. THE DISCUSSION IS BASED UPON THE CODE, TREASURY REGULATIONS THEREUNDER AND ADMINISTRATIVE RULINGS AND COURT DECISIONS AS OF THE DATE HEREOF. ALL OF THE FOREGOING IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE, AND ANY SUCH CHANGE COULD AFFECT THE CONTINUING VALIDITY OF THIS DISCUSSION. C&C SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS CONCERNING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THEM.

Other Possible Consequences

If the merger is consummated, the shareholders of C&C, a Florida corporation, will become shareholders of BancGroup, a Delaware business corporation. For a discussion of the differences, if any, in the rights, preferences, and privileges attaching to C&C common stock as compared with BancGroup common stock, see Comparative Rights of Shareholders.

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger

The parties' respective obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver, to the extent permitted by law) of various conditions set forth in the Agreement.

The obligations of C&C and BancGroup to consummate the Merger are conditioned upon, among other things, (i) the approval of the Agreement by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding voting shares of C&C common stock; (ii) the notification to, or approval of the Merger by, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation; (iii) the absence of pending or threatened litigation with a view to restraining or prohibiting consummation of the Merger or to obtain divestiture, rescission or damages in connection with the Merger; (iv) the absence of any investigation by any governmental agency which might result in any such proceeding; and (v) consummation of the merger no later than April 19, 2008. The Agreement permits the parties to waive, in writing, conditions for the consummation of the merger other than those required by law.

The obligation of C&C to consummate the Merger is further subject to several other conditions, including: (i) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition or affairs of BancGroup; (ii) the shares of BancGroup common stock to be issued under the Merger Agreement shall have been approved for listing on the NYSE; and (iii) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of BancGroup contained in the Agreement and the performance by BancGroup of all of its covenants and agreements under the Agreement.

The obligation of BancGroup to consummate the Merger is subject to several other conditions, including: (i) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition or affairs of C&C; (ii) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of C&C contained in the Agreement, (iii) the performance by C&C of all of its covenants and agreements under the Agreement, including certain restrictions on C&C's conduct of its business; and (iv) the receipt of the applicable consents to the Merger.

It is anticipated that the foregoing conditions, as well as certain other conditions contained in the Agreement, such as the receipt of certificates of officers of each party as to compliance with the Agreement and satisfaction of each party of all representations, warranties and covenants, will either be satisfied or waived by the parties. The Agreement provides that each of C&C and BancGroup may waive all conditions to its respective obligation to consummate the Merger, other than the receipt of the requisite approvals of regulatory authorities and approval of the Agreement by the shareholders of C&C. In making any decision regarding a waiver of one or more conditions to consummation of the merger or an amendment of the Merger Agreement, the Boards of Directors of C&C and BancGroup would be subject to the fiduciary duty standards imposed upon such boards by relevant law that would require such boards to act in the best interests of their respective shareholders.

Amendment or Termination of Agreement

To the extent permitted by law, the Agreement may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by each of the parties upon the approval of the Boards of Directors of each of the parties. However, after approval of the Agreement by the holders of C&C common stock, no amendment changing the amount or kind of consideration to be received by C&C shareholders or changing any other terms and conditions of the Agreement if such change would materially and adversely affect C&C or the holders of C&C common stock may be made without the further approval of such shareholders. The Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to or on the Effective Date, whether before or after approval of the Agreement by the shareholders of C&C, by the mutual consent of the respective Boards of Directors of C&C and BancGroup or by the Board of Directors of either BancGroup or C&C under certain circumstances including, but not limited to: (i) a material breach which cannot or has not been cured within 30 days of notice of such breach being given by the non-breaching party, (ii) failure to consummate the transactions contemplated under the Agreement by April 19, 2008, provided that such failure to consummate is not caused by any breach of the Agreement by the party electing to terminate and (iii) if C&C enters into a binding agreement with any third party to merge with, or sell control to, that third party. In the latter event, BancGroup will have the right to receive a payment of $8,000,000 (the Termination Fee) from C&C or its acquirer.

Commitment with Respect to Other Offers

Until the earlier of the Effective Date or, subject to certain limitations, the termination of the Agreement, neither C&C nor any of its directors or officers (or any person representing any of the foregoing) may directly or indirectly solicit inquiries or proposals with respect to, furnish any information relating to or participate in any negotiations or discussions concerning, any acquisition or purchase of all or of a substantial portion of the assets of, or of a substantial equity interest in, C&C or any business combination involving C&C (collectively, an Acquisition Proposal) other than as contemplated by the Agreement. C&C is required to notify BancGroup promptly if any such inquiries or proposals are received by C&C, if any such information is requested from C&C, or if any such negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated with C&C. C&C is required to instruct its officers, directors, agents or affiliates or their subsidiaries to refrain from doing any of the above. C&C may communicate information about an Acquisition Proposal to its shareholders if and to the extent C&C's board of directors, after consultation with counsel determines that it is required to do so in order to comply with its legal obligations.

If C&C enters into a letter of intent or a definitive agreement to be acquired by any party other than BancGroup prior to the closing of the Merger or the termination of the Agreement, or, under certain circumstances, if C&C is acquired by a party other than BancGroup within twelve months after the termination of the Agreement, then BancGroup shall be entitled to receive payment of the Termination Fee. Such payment shall compensate BancGroup for its direct and indirect costs and expenses associated with pursuing the Merger and BancGroup's loss as a result of the failure to complete the Merger. The Termination Fee may also have the effect of increasing the likelihood that the Merger will be consummated by making it more difficult and expensive for any third party to acquire control of C&C while BancGroup is seeking to consummate the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals

Section 8.2 of the Agreement provides that as a condition to closing, approvals, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to BancGroup and C&C, shall have been entered by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and other appropriate bank regulatory agencies granting the authority necessary for the consummation of the Merger and the possible merger of C&C Bank with and into Colonial Bank (the Bank Merger), if such Bank Merger is desired by BancGroup.

An application must be filed with the Federal Reserve pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the BHCA) and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto for its prior approval of BancGroup's merger with C&C. In addition, approval of BancGroup's acquisition of C&C Bank as a result of the Merger must be obtained from the Florida Office of Financial Regulation (the Florida Office). These applications were filed on August 1, 2007. On September 10, 2007, the Federal Reserve approved BancGroup's Section 3 application. On September 11, 2007, the Florida Office issued a notice of its intent to approve BancGroup's acquisition of control of C&C Bank. On September 17, 2007, the Florida Office issued its final approval order.

In order to be in a position to consummate the Bank Merger should BancGroup decide to effect it, the prior approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the OCC) must be obtained and notice of the Bank Merger must be filed with the Florida Office. With respect to the Bank Merger, an application was filed with the OCC on August 1, 2007, and a notification was filed with the Florida Office on August 1, 2007. On September 11, 2007, the OCC approved the Bank Merger application.

Federal Reserve Approval. Pursuant to Section 3 of the BHCA, and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the approval of the Federal Reserve must be obtained prior to BancGroup merging with C&C. In evaluating an application filed pursuant to Section 3, the Federal Reserve will consider whether the performance of the activities can reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public (such as greater convenience, increased competition and gains in efficiency) that outweigh possible adverse effects (such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition and unsound banking practices). The Federal Reserve will also take into consideration, among other factors, the financial condition and managerial resources of BancGroup, its subsidiaries, C&C, and C&C Bank. The Federal Reserve will also consider the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the compliance records of Colonial Bank and C&C Bank under the Community Reinvestment Act.

In addition, the Federal Reserve is expressly permitted to approve applications under Section 3 of the BHCA for a bank holding company that is adequately capitalized and adequately managed to acquire control of a bank located in a state other than the home state of such bank holding company (an Interstate Acquisition), without regard to whether such transaction is prohibited under the law of any state.

Under certain circumstances, the Federal Reserve is prohibited from approving an Interstate Acquisition. For example, it may not approve an Interstate Acquisition if the acquiring bank holding company controls, or upon consummation of the acquisition, would control, more than 10% of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the United States. Subject to certain exceptions, the Federal Reserve may not approve an application pertaining to an Interstate Acquisition if, among other things, the bank holding company, upon consummation of the acquisition, would control 30% or more of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the state where the target bank is located.

The Federal Reserve's regulations provide for the publication of notice and public comment on the application and authorize the Federal Reserve to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approval required for consummation of the transaction.

Florida Office Approval. The Florida Office must approve the change of control of C&C Bank which would be effected as a result of the Merger. Pursuant to Section 658.25 of the Florida Banking Code, the Florida Office shall issue a Certificate of Approval for a change in control of a Florida state bank only after it has made an investigation and has determined that the proposed new owner of a controlling interest of such Florida state bank is qualified by reputation, character, experience, and financial responsibility to control and operate the bank in a legal and proper manner and that the interest of the other shareholders, if any, and the depositors and creditors of the bank and the interest of the public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed change in ownership, controlling interest, or management.

OCC Approval. Pursuant to Section 18(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (the Bank Merger Act) and OCC regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the OCC's prior approval of the Bank Merger must be obtained in order for BancGroup to directly merge C&C Bank with and into Colonial Bank. The OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if it would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States. In addition, the OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if its effect, in any section of the country, would be substantially to lessen competition, or to tend to create a monopoly, or which in any other manner would be in restraint of trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the Bank Merger are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the Bank Merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served. The OCC is required to take into consideration the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions, and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The OCC will consider the compliance records of Colonial Bank and C&C Bank under the Community Reinvestment Act and the effectiveness of the institutions in combating money laundering activities.

Because the Bank Merger is an interstate bank merger, certain additional requirements are applicable. For example, the OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if the bank resulting from the Bank Merger, including all insured depository institutions that are affiliates of such resulting bank, upon consummation of the transaction, would control more than 10% of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the United States. The OCC is also prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if either party to the Bank Merger has a branch in any state in which any other bank involved in the Bank Merger has a branch, and the resulting bank, upon consummation of the Bank Merger, would control 30% or more of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in any such state. Finally, the OCC may approve an interstate bank merger only if each bank involved in the transaction is adequately capitalized as of the date the application is filed, and the OCC determines that the resulting bank will continue to be adequately capitalized and adequately managed upon consummation of the Bank Merger.

The Bank Merger Act and the OCC regulations promulgated pursuant thereto provide for the publication of notice and public comment on the application and authorize the OCC to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approval required for consummation of the Bank Merger. The Bank Merger Act imposes a waiting period which prohibits consummation of the Bank Merger, in ordinary circumstances, for a period ranging from 15 to 30 days following the OCC's approval of the Bank Merger. During such period, the United States Department of Justice, should it object to the Bank Merger for antitrust reasons, may challenge the consummation of the Bank Merger.

The Agreement provides that the obligation of each of BancGroup and C&C to consummate the transaction is conditioned upon the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals. There can be no assurance that the applications necessary for BancGroup to consummate the transaction will be approved, and, if such approvals are received, that such approvals will not be conditioned upon terms and conditions that would cause the parties to abandon the transaction.

Any approval received from bank regulatory agencies reflects only their view that the transaction does not contravene applicable competitive standards imposed by law, and that the transaction is consistent with regulatory policies relating to safety and soundness. THE APPROVAL OF THE BANK REGULATORY AGENCIES IS NOT AN ENDORSEMENT OR RECOMMENDATION OF THE TRANSACTION.

BancGroup is not aware of any governmental approvals or actions that may be required for consummation of the transaction except for the approvals described above. Should any such approval or action be required, it is presently contemplated that such approval or action would be sought.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

The Agreement contains certain restrictions on the conduct of the business of C&C pending consummation of the Merger. The Agreement prohibits C&C from taking, without the prior written consent of BancGroup, any of the following actions, prior to the Effective Date, subject to certain limited exceptions previously agreed to by BancGroup and C&C:

- (i) Issuing, delivering or agreeing to issue or deliver any stock, bonds or other corporate securities (whether authorized and unissued or held in the treasury), except shares of C&C common stock issued upon the exercise of C&C Options and shares issued as director's qualifying shares;

- (iv) Declaring or making or agreeing to declare or make, any payment of dividends or distributions of any assets of any kind whatsoever to shareholders, or purchasing or redeeming or agreeing to purchase or redeem, any of its outstanding securities, provided that C&C may continue to make (i) quarterly cash dividends of no more than $.08 per share of its Class A and B common stock and $.80 per share of its Class C common stock and at times consistent with past practices, (ii) if the Effective Time has not occurred by December 31, 2007, make its special annual dividend of no more than $.10 per share of its Class A and B Common Stock and $1.00 per share of its Class C Common Stock, and (iii) accelerate the vesting of C&C Options held by the C&C's executive officers;
- (v) Except in the ordinary course of business or as requested by BancGroup, selling or transferring or agreeing to sell or transfer, any of its assets, property or rights or canceling, or agreeing to cancel, any debts or claims;
- (vi) Except in the ordinary course of business, entering or agreeing to enter into any agreement or arrangement granting any preferential rights to purchase any of its assets, property or rights or requiring the consent of any party to the transfer and assignment of any of its assets, property or rights;
- (vii) Waiving any rights of value which in the aggregate are material considering the business as a whole;
- (viii) Except in the ordinary course of business, making or permitting any amendment or termination of any contract, agreement or license to which it is a party if such amendment or termination is material considering its business as a whole;

(ix) Except in accordance with past practice, making any accrual or arrangement for or payment of bonuses or special compensation of any kind or any severance or termination pay to any present or former officer or employee;

(x) Except in accordance with past practice, increasing the rate of compensation payable to or to become payable to any of its officers or employees or making any material increase in any profit-sharing, bonus, deferred compensation, savings, insurance, pension, retirement or other employee benefit plan, payment or arrangement made to, for or with any of its officers or employees;

(xi) Failing to operate its business in the ordinary course in a manner intended so as to preserve its business intact and intended to preserve the goodwill of its customers and others with whom it has business relations;

(xii) Entering into any other material transaction other than in the ordinary course of business or as requested by BancGroup; and (xiii) Agreeing in writing, or otherwise, to take any action described in clauses (i) through (xii) above.

The Agreement also provides that: (i) at the request of BancGroup, C&C will consult with BancGroup and advise BancGroup in advance of all loan requests outside the ordinary course of business or in excess of $1,000,000 (excluding renewals) that are not single-family residential loan requests; and (ii) C&C will consult with BancGroup on a reasonable basis to coordinate various business issues.

Indemnification

BancGroup has agreed to indemnify, for the period of time covered by the applicable statute of limitations, present and former directors and officers of C&C and C&C Bank against liabilities arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Date to the maximum extent allowed under the Florida Business Corporation Act, Bylaws of C&C and pursuant to any existing indemnification agreements.

BancGroup has also agreed to extend such indemnification to directors of C&C Bank with respect to matters existing or occurring after the Effective Date during any extended term of service as a director of C&C Bank. The foregoing indemnification is also subject to the limitations imposed by 12 U.S.C. §1828(k) and 12 CFR Part 359 of the FDIC regulations.

Appraisal Rights

With respect to the Merger, a holder of C&C Class B common stock as of the Record Date who chooses not to vote on the Merger or who votes against the Merger (a Dissenting Shareholder) and complies with the procedures set forth in Sections 607.1301 to 607.1333 of the FBCA relating to appraisal rights is entitled to demand payment and receive the fair value in cash for his or her shares of Class B common stock instead of accepting the Merger Consideration. In order to perfect his or her appraisal rights, a Dissenting Shareholder must strictly comply with the statutory procedures set forth in Sections 607.1301 to 607.1320 of the FBCA summarized below, the full text of which is attached hereto as Appendix D. Holders of C&C Class B common stock are urged to read Appendix D in its entirety and to consult with their legal advisors. Each Dissenting Shareholder who desires to assert his or her appraisal rights is cautioned that failure to adhere strictly to the procedures set forth in Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA will constitute a waiver of any appraisal rights.

No dissenters or appraisal rights are available with respect to shares of C&C Class A common stock in connection with the Merger.

Table of Contents

Procedures for Asserting Appraisal Rights. The following summary of Florida law is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the provisions of the FBCA attached hereto as Appendix D and incorporated herein by reference.

1. A Dissenting Shareholder must not vote in favor of the Merger and, prior to the taking of the vote on the Merger, must provide to C&C a written notice indicating his or her intent to demand payment for his or her shares of Class B common stock if the Merger is effectuated. If a Dissenting Shareholder has not provided such written notice before the vote is taken, the Dissenting Shareholder will be deemed to have waived his or her appraisal rights.
2. If a Dissenting Shareholder properly provides C&C with a notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares of Class B common stock and the Merger is consummated, BancGroup, within 10 days after the Effective Date of the Merger, must deliver a written appraisal notice and form to the Dissenting Shareholder. The appraisal notice and form will contain, among other things, BancGroup's estimate of the fair value of the Class B common stock and an offer to the Dissenting Shareholder to purchase his or her shares of Class B common stock at such fair value estimate.
3. In order to receive payment, a Dissenting Shareholder asserting his or her appraisal rights must execute and return a completed appraisal notice and form to BancGroup and deposit the certificate(s) representing his or her shares of Class B common stock in accordance with the terms of the notice, before the date specified in the appraisal notice, which date will not be less than 40 days or more than 60 days after the date the appraisal notice and form were sent to the Dissenting Shareholder. If a Dissenting Shareholder's shares of Class B common stock are held in street name, the Dissenting Shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to such shares of Class B common stock only if the Dissenting Shareholder submits to BancGroup the written consent from the firm in whose name the shares are registered before the date specified in the appraisal notice, and does so with respect to all the shares of Class B common stock that are beneficially owned by such Dissenting Shareholder. A Dissenting Shareholder who deposits the certificate(s) representing his or her shares of Class B common stock in accordance with the assertion of appraisal rights, shall thereafter be entitled only to receive payment of the fair value of his or her shares of Class B common stock pursuant to the appraisal procedures and shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any other rights of a shareholder, unless the appraisal demand is withdrawn.
4. A Dissenting Shareholder who fails to execute and return the form and deposit his or her certificate(s) by the dates set forth in the appraisal notice will lose his or her rights to receive payment and will be entitled only to receive the Merger Consideration as provided for in the Merger Agreement. A Dissenting Shareholder who complies with the requirements but wishes to withdraw from the appraisal process may do so by notifying BancGroup in writing before the date set forth in the appraisal notice as the due date for notices of withdrawal. A Dissenting Shareholder will not be able to withdraw from the appraisal process after such date without BancGroup's written consent. Upon withdrawal, a Dissenting Shareholder will have the same rights he or she had prior to signing and returning the appraisal notice and form in that he or she will be entitled only to receive the Merger Consideration as provided for in the Merger Agreement.
5. If a Dissenting Shareholder accepts BancGroup's offer to pay the fair value of his or her shares of Class B common stock as set forth in the appraisal notice, payment will be made within 90 days of BancGroup's receipt of the appraisal notice and form indicating the Dissenting Shareholder's acceptance. If a Dissenting Shareholder is dissatisfied with BancGroup's offer, the Dissenting Shareholder must include in his or her returned appraisal notice and form a demand for payment of that Dissenting Shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares of Class B common stock plus interest. Interest will be calculated at the interest rate on judgments in Florida on the Effective Date of the Merger. Failure to include such demand in the returned appraisal notice and form will result in the Dissenting Shareholder being entitled only to receive the payment offered by BancGroup. Upon payment of the agreed value, the Dissenting Shareholder will cease to have any interest in his or her shares of Class B common stock.

6. If a Dissenting Shareholder makes demand for payment of his or her estimated fair value and the issue of fair value remains unsettled thereafter, then BancGroup, within 60 days after receipt of the written demand, will commence a proceeding and petition a court of competent jurisdiction in Polk County, Florida, to determine the fair value of such shares of Class B common stock and accrued interest.

7. If BancGroup fails to institute such proceeding within the above-prescribed period, any Dissenting Shareholder who has made a demand for payment may do so in the name of BancGroup. All Dissenting Shareholders whose demands remain unsettled will be deemed to be parties to the proceeding and will be served a copy of the initial pleading. In such proceeding, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. BancGroup will be required to pay each Dissenting Shareholder who is a party to the proceeding the amount found to be due within 10 days after a final determination in the proceeding. Upon payment of the judgment, the Dissenting Shareholder will cease to have any interest in his or her shares of Class B common stock.

8. The costs and expenses of the court proceeding will be determined by the court and will be assessed against BancGroup, except that all or any part of such costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed against any Dissenting Shareholders who are parties to the proceedings if the court finds that such Dissenting Shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to their appraisal rights. Expenses include reasonable compensation for, and expenses of, appraisers appointed by the court. Additionally, the court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties against BancGroup if the court finds that it did not substantially comply with the requirements of Sections 607.1320 and 607.1322 of the FBCA, or, against any party which the court finds acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect the appraisal rights provided under the FBCA. If the court finds that the services of counsel for any Dissenting Shareholder were of substantial benefit to other Dissenting Shareholders similarly situated, and that fees for those services should not be assessed against BancGroup, the court may, in its discretion, award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the Dissenting Shareholders who were benefited.

9. If a Dissenting Shareholder accepts BancGroup's offer to pay the fair value of the shares of Class B common stock as set forth in the appraisal notice and BancGroup fails to make the required payment, the Dissenting Shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed, and to the extent successful, will be entitled to recover from BancGroup all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

Any Dissenting Shareholder who perfects his or her right to be paid the value of his or her shares of Class B common stock will recognize gain or loss, if any, for federal income tax purposes upon the receipt of cash for such shares. The amount of gain or loss and its character as ordinary or capital gain or loss will be determined in accordance with applicable provisions of the Code. See Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences.

BECAUSE OF THE COMPLEXITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE FLORIDA LAW RELATING TO DISSENTERS' APPRAISAL RIGHTS, SHAREHOLDERS WHO ARE CONSIDERING DISSENTING FROM THE MERGER ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN LEGAL ADVISERS.

Resale of BancGroup Common Stock Issued in the Merger

The issuance of the shares of BancGroup common stock pursuant to the Merger (including any shares to be issued pursuant to C&C Options) has been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act). As a result, shareholders of C&C who are not affiliates of C&C (as such term is defined under the Securities Act) may resell, without restriction, all shares of BancGroup common stock which they receive in connection with the Merger. Under the Securities Act, only affiliates of C&C are subject to restrictions on the resale of the BancGroup common stock which they receive in the Merger.

The BancGroup common stock received by affiliates of C&C (directors and executive officers) who do not also become affiliates of BancGroup after the consummation of the Merger may not be sold except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering such shares or in compliance with Rule 145 under the Securities Act or another applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Generally, Rule 145 permits BancGroup common stock held by such shareholders to be sold in accordance with certain provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. In general, these provisions of Rule 144 permit a person to sell on the open market in brokers or certain other transactions within any three-month period a number of shares that does not exceed the greater of 1% of the then outstanding shares of BancGroup common stock or the average weekly trading volume in BancGroup common stock reported on the NYSE during the four calendar weeks preceding such sale. Sales under Rule 144 are also subject to the availability of current public information about BancGroup. The restrictions on sales will cease to apply under most circumstances once the former C&C affiliate has held the BancGroup common stock for at least one year. BancGroup common stock held by affiliates of C&C who become affiliates of BancGroup, if any, will be subject to additional restrictions on the ability of such persons to resell such shares.

C&C has provided BancGroup with the identity of those persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of C&C. C&C has obtained from each such person a written undertaking to the effect that no sale or transfer will be made of any shares of BancGroup common stock by such person except pursuant to Rule 145 or pursuant to an effective registration statement or an exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Accounting Treatment

BancGroup will account for the Merger as a purchase transaction in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The purchase price will be assigned to the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, with any amounts in excess thereof being assigned to goodwill. The valuation of intangibles, if any, will be made as of the Effective Date of the Merger. Qualifying intangibles, such as core deposit intangibles, will be amortized by charges to future earnings over their expected useful lives. The goodwill will be recognized and evaluated for impairment on an annual basis, or if circumstances arise in which it is more likely than not the fair value of the related reporting unit has been reduced. If such goodwill were to be deemed impaired, such impairment would be measured and any such amount would be charged against current earnings.

In May 2005, BancGroup added $5 million in trust preferred securities, representing $5 million in junior subordinated debt, as part of the acquisition of FFLC Bancorp, Inc. These securities qualify as Tier I capital and bear interest at a rate of 3-month LIBOR plus 3.40%. The subordinated debentures, notes, trust preferred securities and junior subordinated debt described above are subordinate to substantially all remaining liabilities of BancGroup.

Colonial Bank had long-term FHLB borrowings outstanding of $2.4 billion at June 30, 2007. These borrowings bear interest rates ranging from 3.33% to 5.46% and mature from 2008 to 2026. Colonial Bank had capital lease obligations outstanding of $3.9 million at June 30, 2007. These obligations bear interest at a weighted average rate of 6.00% and mature from 2008 to 2017.

Minority Interest/REIT Preferred Securities

In May 2007, CBG Florida REIT Corp. (Florida REIT), a Florida corporation, issued $300 million in fixed-to-floating rate perpetual non-cumulative preferred stock. The Florida REIT is an indirect subsidiary of BancGroup and Colonial Bank. The Florida REIT is qualified as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Florida REIT's assets consist primarily of participation interests in mortgage loans secured by commercial property in the State of Florida originated by Colonial Bank.

Dividends on the preferred stock are payable as declared by the Florida REIT's board of directors on a non-cumulative basis at an annual rate of 7.114% until May 15, 2012 and 3-month LIBOR plus 2.02% thereafter. Dividends will be payable semi-annually through May 15, 2012, and quarterly thereafter. The dividends are reflected, before tax, as minority interest expense in the Company's consolidated statements of income.

The Florida REIT may, at its option and subject to certain restrictions, redeem the preferred stock in whole or in part, on May 15, 2012 and each fifth succeeding year thereafter.

Change in Control

Certain provisions of the BancGroup Certificate and the BancGroup Bylaws may have the effect of preventing, discouraging or delaying any change in control of BancGroup. The BancGroup Board of Directors is authorized to issue BancGroup preference stock with such rights and privileges, including voting rights, as it may deem appropriate in order to enable BancGroup's Board of Directors to prevent a change in control despite a shift in ownership of the BancGroup common stock. See Preference Stock. In addition, the power of BancGroup's Board of Directors to issue additional shares of BancGroup common stock may help delay or deter a change in control by increasing the number of shares needed to gain control. See BancGroup Common Stock. The following provisions also may deter any change in control of BancGroup.

Classified Board. BancGroup's Board of Directors is classified into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, with the members of each class elected to three-year terms. Thus, one-third of BancGroup's Board of Directors is elected by shareholders each year. With this provision, two annual elections are required in order to change a majority of the Board of Directors. There are currently 16 directors of BancGroup. This provision of the BancGroup Certificate also stipulates that (i) directors can be removed only for cause upon a vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting as a class, (ii) vacancies in the Board of Directors may only be filled by a majority vote of the directors remaining in office, (iii) the maximum number of directors shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors, and (iv) the provisions relating to the classified Board of Directors can only be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting as a class.

Business Combinations. Certain Business Combinations of BancGroup with a Related Person may only be undertaken with the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, plus the affirmative vote of at least 67% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, not counting shares owned by the Related Person, unless the continuing Directors of BancGroup approve such Business Combination. A Related Person is a person, or group, who owns or acquires 10% or more of the outstanding shares of BancGroup common stock, provided that no person shall be a Related Person if such person would have been a Related Person on the date of approval of this provision by BancGroup's Board of Directors, i.e., April 20, 1994. An effect of this provision may be to exclude Robert E. Lowder, the current Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of BancGroup, from the definition of Related Person. A Continuing Director is a director who was a member of the Board of Directors immediately prior to the time a person became a Related Person. This provision may not be amended without the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, plus the affirmative vote of the outstanding shares of at least 67% of the outstanding Voting Stock, excluding shares held by a Related Person. This provision may have the effect of giving the incumbent Board of Directors a veto over a merger or other Business Combination that could be desired by a majority of BancGroup's shareholders. As of February 20, 2007, the Board of Directors of BancGroup owned approximately 5.04% of the outstanding shares of BancGroup common stock.

Board Evaluation of Mergers. The BancGroup Certificate permits the Board of Directors to consider certain factors such as the character and financial stability of the other party, the projected social, legal, and economic effects of a proposed transaction upon the employees, suppliers, regulatory agencies and customers and communities of BancGroup, and other factors when considering whether BancGroup should undertake a merger, sale of assets, or other similar transaction with another party. This provision may not be amended except by the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of BancGroup common stock. This provision may give greater latitude to the Board of Directors in terms of the factors which the board may consider in recommending or rejecting a merger or other Business Combination of BancGroup.

Director Authority. The BancGroup Certificate prohibits shareholders from calling special shareholders' meetings and acting by written consent. It also provides that only BancGroup's Board of Directors has the authority to undertake certain actions with respect to governing BancGroup such as appointing committees, electing officers, and establishing compensation of officers, and it allows the Board of Directors to act by majority vote.

Bylaw Provisions. The BancGroup Bylaws provide that shareholders wishing to propose nominees for the Board of Directors or other business to be taken up at an annual meeting of BancGroup shareholders must comply with certain advance written notice provisions. These bylaw provisions are intended to provide for the more orderly conduct of shareholders' meetings but could make it more difficult for shareholders to nominate directors or introduce business at shareholders' meetings.

Delaware Business Combination Statute. Subject to some exceptions, Delaware law prohibits BancGroup from entering into certain business combinations (as defined) involving persons beneficially owning 15% or more of the outstanding BancGroup common stock (or one who is an affiliate of BancGroup and has over the past three years beneficially owned 15% or more of such stock) (either, for the purpose of this paragraph, an Interested Shareholder), unless the Board of Directors has approved either (i) the business combination or (ii) prior to the stock acquisition by which such person's beneficial ownership interest reached 15% (a Stock Acquisition), the Stock Acquisition. The prohibition lasts for three years from the date of the Stock Acquisition. Notwithstanding the preceding, Delaware law allows BancGroup to enter into a business combination with an Interested Shareholder if (i) the business combination is approved by BancGroup's Board of Directors and authorized by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock of BancGroup which is not owned by the Interested Shareholder or (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the shareholder becoming an Interested Shareholder, such shareholder owned at least 85% of the outstanding

BancGroup common stock (excluding BancGroup common stock held by officers and directors of BancGroup or by certain BancGroup stock plans). These provisions of Delaware law apply simultaneously with the provisions of the BancGroup Certificate relating to business combinations with a related person, described above at Business Combinations, but they are generally less restrictive than the BancGroup Certificate.

Control Acquisitions. As it relates to BancGroup, the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978 prohibits a person or group of persons from acquiring control of a bank holding company unless the Federal Reserve has been given 60 days prior written notice of such proposed acquisition and within that time period the Federal Reserve has not issued a notice disapproving the proposed acquisition or extending for up to another 30 days the period during which such a disapproval may be issued. An acquisition may be made prior to the expiration of the disapproval period if the Federal Reserve issues written notice of its intent not to disapprove the action. Under a rebuttable presumption established by the Federal Reserve, the acquisition of more than 10% of a class of voting stock of a bank holding company with a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as BancGroup, would, under the circumstances set forth in the presumption, constitute the acquisition of control. The receipt of revocable proxies, provided the proxies terminate within a reasonable time after the meeting to which they relate, is not included in determining percentages for change in control purposes.

COMPARATIVE RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

If the Merger is consummated, shareholders of C&C, a Florida corporation, may become holders of BancGroup common stock. BancGroup is a Delaware corporation. The rights of the holders of the C&C common stock who become holders of BancGroup common stock following the Merger, will be governed by the BancGroup Certificate and the BancGroup Bylaws, as well as the laws of Delaware.

The following summary compares the rights of the holders of C&C common stock with the rights of the holders of the BancGroup common stock. For a more detailed description of the rights of the holders of BancGroup common stock, including certain features of the BancGroup Certificate and the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) that might limit the circumstances under which a change in control of BancGroup could occur, see BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt.

The following information is qualified in its entirety by the BancGroup Certificate and the BancGroup Bylaws, and the C&C Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and the Florida Business Corporation Act (FBCA).

Director Elections

C&C. C&C s directors are elected to terms of one year and are elected annually. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors.

BancGroup. BancGroup s directors are elected to terms of three years with approximately one-third of the Board to be elected annually. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors. See BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control Classified Board.

Removal of Directors

C&C. The C&C Bylaws provide that directors may be removed, with or without cause, by vote of the shareholders. Any director may be removed by the C&C Board with cause upon a vote of 3/4 of all directors.

BancGroup. The BancGroup Certificate provides that a director may be removed from office, but only for cause and by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

Voting

C&C. Each shareholder of Class B and C common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of such class held. Class A common stock is non-voting. Voting shareholders are not entitled to cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. No Class C common stock is currently outstanding.

BancGroup. Each shareholder of BancGroup is entitled to one vote for each share of BancGroup common stock held, and such holders are not entitled to cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Preemptive Rights

C&C. Holders of C&C common stock do not have preemptive rights with respect to any shares of C&C common stock that may be issued.

BancGroup. The holders of BancGroup common stock have no preemptive rights to acquire any additional shares of BancGroup common stock or any other shares of BancGroup capital stock.

Directors Liability

C&C. The FBCA provides that a director of C&C will not have any liability by reason of being or having been a director of C&C if such director performs his duties as a director in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of C&C and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. The FBCA provides that a director of C&C will have no personal liability to C&C or any other person for any act or omission taken by the director regarding corporate management or policy unless the director breached or failed to perform his or her duties as a director and such breach involved any of the following: (i) a violation of the criminal law unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; (iii) the director voting for an unlawful distribution by C&C; (iv) in a derivative action or a shareholder action, it is shown that the director acted in conscious disregard of the best interest of the corporation or engaged in willful misconduct; or (v) in an action other than a derivative action or a shareholder action, it is shown that the director recklessly acted or failed to act, or acted or failed to act in a manner involving bad faith or a malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety or property.

BancGroup. The BancGroup Certificate provides that a director of BancGroup will have no personal liability to BancGroup or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for the payment of certain unlawful dividends and the making of certain stock purchases or redemptions, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This provision would absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence. It would not permit a director to be exculpated, however, for liability for actions involving conflicts of interest or breaches of the traditional duty of loyalty to BancGroup and its shareholders, and it would not affect the availability of injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy.

Indemnification

C&C. The FBCA permits a corporation to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents for expenses incurred by them by reason of their position with the corporation if the person has acted in good faith and with the reasonable belief that his or her conduct was in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, with no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The FBCA does not permit a corporation to indemnify persons in actions brought by or in the right of the corporation if the person is adjudged to be liable to the corporation (although it does permit indemnification in such situations if, any only to the extent, approved by the court in which such proceeding was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction). To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, that person shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

C&C's Bylaws generally provide that C&C shall indemnify persons against all liabilities incurred by such persons in connection with any brought or threatened proceeding in which such person is involved by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of C&C to the fullest extent authorized by the FBCA, unless it is shown that the director in the performance of his or her duties acted with gross negligence, acted in bad faith and in a manner opposed to the best interests of C&C, or engaged in willful misconduct. Such indemnification includes advancement of his or her expenses (including attorneys' fees) in defending such indemnifiable actions. C&C also maintains officers' and directors' insurance.

BancGroup. The BancGroup Certificate provides that directors, officers, employees and agents of BancGroup shall be indemnified to the full extent permitted under the DGCL. Section 145 of the DGCL contains detailed and comprehensive provisions providing for indemnification of directors and officers of Delaware corporations against expenses, judgments, fines and settlements in connection with litigation. Under the DGCL, other than an action brought by or in the right of BancGroup, such indemnification is available if it is determined that the proposed indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of BancGroup and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of BancGroup, such indemnification is limited to expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of such action if the indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of BancGroup and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to BancGroup unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

To the extent that the proposed indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding (or any claim, issue or matter therein), he or she must be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

BancGroup maintains an officers' and directors' insurance policy and a separate indemnification agreement pursuant to which officers and directors of BancGroup would be entitled to indemnification against certain liabilities, including reimbursement of certain expenses that extends beyond the minimum indemnification provided by Section 145 of the DGCL.

Special Meetings of Shareholders; Action Without a Meeting

C&C. The C&C Bylaws provide that special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, by the President, by the Board of Directors or upon written demand from the holders of at least 10 percent of all voting shares.

BancGroup. Under the BancGroup Certificate, a special meeting of BancGroup's shareholders may only be called by a majority of the BancGroup Board of Directors or by the chairman of the Board of Directors of BancGroup. Holders of BancGroup common stock may not call special meetings or act by written consent.

Mergers, Share Exchanges and Sales of Assets

C&C. The FBCA provides that mergers, share exchanges and sales of substantially all of the assets of a Florida corporation must be approved by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. As of the date of the C&C special shareholder meeting, only the Class A (non-voting) and Class B (voting) shares will be outstanding. Accordingly, a vote for the Merger by a majority of the outstanding Class B stock will constitute shareholder approval of the Merger.

BancGroup. The DGCL provides that mergers and sales of substantially all of the assets of Delaware corporations must be approved by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. The DGCL also provides, however, that the shareholders of the corporation surviving a merger need not approve the transaction if: (i) the agreement of merger does not amend in any respect the certificate of incorporation of such corporation; (ii) each share of stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger is to be an identical outstanding or treasury share of the surviving corporation after the effective date of the Merger; and (iii) either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation and no shares, securities or obligations convertible into such common stock are to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, or the authorized unissued shares or the treasury shares of common stock of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger plus those initially issuable upon conversion of any other shares, securities or obligations to be issued or delivered under such plan do not exceed 20% of the shares of common stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger. BancGroup Capital Stock and Debentures Changes in Control for a description of the statutory provisions and the provisions of the BancGroup Certificate relating to changes of control of BancGroup.

Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

C&C. The C&C Articles of Incorporation provide that every amendment to the Articles of Incorporation must be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the shareholders, and approved at a shareholders meeting by the holders of the majority of shares entitled to vote thereon. C&C's Bylaws provide that they may be amended by the shareholders at any annual or special meeting of the shareholders or by a vote of at least 4/5 of the Board of Directors. The Bylaws adopted by the shareholders cannot be amended by the Board.

BancGroup. Under the DGCL, a Delaware corporation's Certificate of Incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, and a majority of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote as a class, unless the certificate requires the vote of a larger portion of the stock. The BancGroup Certificate of Incorporation requires super-majority Shareholder approval to amend or repeal any provision of, or adopt any provision inconsistent with, certain provisions in the BancGroup Certificate of Incorporation governing (i) the election or removal of directors, (ii) business combinations between BancGroup and a Related Person, and (iii) board of directors evaluation of business combination procedures. See BancGroup Capital Stock and Debentures Changes in Control.

As is permitted by the DGCL, the Certificate of Incorporation gives the Board of Directors the power to adopt, amend or repeal the BancGroup Bylaws. The shareholders entitled to vote have concurrent power to adopt, amend or repeal the BancGroup Bylaws.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

C&C. See Appraisal Rights at Page 43.

BancGroup. Under the DGCL, a shareholder has the right, in certain circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate transactions and receive the fair value of his or her shares in cash in lieu of the consideration he or she otherwise would have received in the transaction. For this purpose, fair value may be determined by all generally accepted techniques of valuation used in the financial community, excluding any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the transaction, but including elements of future value that are known or susceptible of proof. Such fair value is determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, if a petition for appraisal is timely filed. Appraisal rights are not available, however, to shareholders of a corporation (i) if the shares are listed on a national securities exchange (as is BancGroup common stock) or quoted on the Nasdaq NMS, or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders (as is BancGroup common stock), and (ii) shareholders are permitted by the terms of the merger or consolidation to accept in exchange for their shares (a) shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation, (b) shares of stock of another corporation listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders, (c) cash in lieu of fractional shares of such stock, or (d) any combination thereof. Shareholders are not permitted appraisal rights in a merger if such corporation is the surviving corporation and no vote of its shareholders is required.

Preferred Stock

C&C. The C&C Articles of Incorporation authorize no preferred stock.

BancGroup. The BancGroup Certificate authorizes the issuance of 1,000,000 shares of preference stock and 50,000,000 of preferred stock from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors of BancGroup. Currently, no shares either of preference stock or preferred stock are issued and outstanding. See BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Preference Stock and Preferred Stock.

Control Share Acquisitions

C&C. Section 607.0902 of the FBCA generally provides that certain shares of stock of a Florida corporation such as C&C which has not opted out of coverage by this section in the prescribed manner shall not have any voting rights. Shares of stock whose voting rights may be restricted would be those that, upon acquisition by a person or group of persons, when added to all other shares of the same class of stock owned by such person or group of persons, would entitle the holder thereof to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power within any of the following ranges of voting power: (a) one-fifth or more but less than one-third of all voting power; (b) one-third or more but less than a majority of all voting power; and (c) a majority of all voting power. Control shares acquired in a control-share acquisition have the same voting rights as were accorded the shares before the control share acquisition only to the extent granted by resolution approved by the shareholders of the corporation.

BancGroup. For information with respect to provisions under BancGroup's governing documents and the DGCL regarding provisions which may have the effect of presenting, discouraging or delaying any change in control of BancGroup, see BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Change in Control.

Transactions with Interested Persons

C&C. Section 607.0901 of the FBCA (the affiliated transaction provision) generally provides that an affiliated transaction with an interested shareholder must receive the approval of either a majority of the disinterested directors or a vote of 2/3 of the voting shares of disinterested shareholders or, if neither such approval is obtained, a fair price must be paid to the shareholders in the transaction. Generally, an interested shareholder is any person who is the beneficial owner of more than 10 percent of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation. Generally, a disinterested director is a person who became a director before the date on which an interested shareholder became an interested shareholder.

BancGroup. For information with respect to provisions under BancGroup's governing documents and the DGCL regarding provisions which may have the effect of presenting, discouraging or delaying any change in control of BancGroup, see BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Change in Control.

Effect of the Merger on C&C Shareholders

As of October 8, 2007, C&C had 455 shareholders of record and 5,305,693 outstanding shares of common stock. As of February 20, 2007, there were 152,810,673 shares of BancGroup Common Stock outstanding held by approximately 9,288 shareholders of record.

Assuming that 5,305,693 shares of C&C common stock are outstanding on the Effective Date, an aggregate number of 4,164,969 shares of BancGroup common stock would be issued to the shareholders of C&C pursuant to the Merger. These shares would represent approximately 2.65% of the total shares of BancGroup common stock outstanding after the Merger, not counting any shares of BancGroup common stock to be issued in other transactions.

The issuance of BancGroup common stock pursuant to the Merger will reduce the percentage interest of BancGroup common stock currently held by each principal shareholder and each director and officer of BancGroup. Based upon the foregoing assumption, the directors and executive officers of BancGroup who owned approximately 5.39% of BancGroup's outstanding shares as of February 20, 2007, would own approximately 5.25% after the Merger. See BancGroup Security Ownership of Management and Management Information.

The business of C&C Bank consists of attracting deposits from the general public in its primary service area and applying those deposits, together with funds derived from other sources, to the origination of a variety of commercial, consumer and real estate loans. The revenues of C&C Bank are derived primarily from interest on, and fees received in connection with, their lending activities and from interest and dividends from investment securities and short-term investments. The principal expenses of the banks are the interest paid on deposits and operating, general and administrative expenses.

C&C Bank offers a broad range of commercial, consumer, and real estate loans, and provides a variety of corporate and personal banking services to individuals, businesses, and other institutions located in its market area. The Bank is a full-service commercial bank and exercises trust powers with total trust related assets in excess of $90 million. The Bank offers a full range of interest bearing and non-interest bearing accounts, including commercial and retail checking accounts, money market accounts, NOW accounts, individual retirement accounts, regular interest-bearing statement savings accounts and certificates of deposit. All deposit accounts are insured by the FDIC up to the maximum limits permitted by law.

C&C Bank is subject to examination and comprehensive regulation by the Florida Department of Banking and Finance and the FDIC. As is the case with banking institutions generally, the bank's operations are materially and significantly influenced by general economic conditions and by related monetary and fiscal policies of financial institution regulatory agencies, including the FDIC and the Federal Reserve Board.

Market Areas

The primary service area for each branch encompasses the area within a three-mile radius of the branch. In addition, each branch services customers outside its primary service area, but generally within the surrounding communities. Management believes that the bank's principal markets have been established small businesses and professionals, and the expanding residential market, in the branches' primary service areas.

Competition

C&C Bank encounters strong competition both in attracting deposits and in the origination of loans. The deregulation of the banking industry and the widespread enactment of state laws which permit multi-bank holding companies as well as the availability of nationwide interstate banking has created a highly competitive environment for financial service providers in the bank's primary service area. In one or more aspects of their business, the bank competes with other commercial banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, finance companies, mutual funds, insurance companies, brokerage and investment banking companies, and other financial intermediaries operating in its market areas and elsewhere. Most of these competitors, some of which are affiliated with large bank holding companies, have substantially greater resources and lending limits, and may offer certain services that the bank does not provide. In addition, many of C&C's and the bank's non-bank competitors are not subject to the same extensive federal regulations that govern bank holding companies and state chartered and federally insured banks.

Competition among financial institutions is based upon interest rates offered on deposit accounts, interest rates charged on loans and other credit and service charges, the quality of the services rendered, the convenience of banking facilities, and, in the case of loans to commercial borrowers, relative lending limits.

Employees

At June 30, 2007, C&C employed 203 full-time and 16 part-time employees.

Including in such transactions are loans and commitments from C&C Bank, all of which are made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rate and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and do not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

ADJOURNMENT OF SPECIAL MEETING

Approval of the Agreement by C&C shareholders requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding voting shares of C&C common stock. In the event there are an insufficient number of shares of C&C common stock present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting to approve the Agreement, the C&C Board of Directors intends to adjourn the Special Meeting to a later date provided a majority of the shares present and voting on the motion have voted in favor of such adjournment. The place and date to which the Special Meeting would be adjourned would be announced at the Special Meeting. Proxies voted against the Agreement and abstentions will not be voted to adjourn the Special Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be voted on this matter but will not count as no votes. However, an abstention or a broker non-vote has the same effect as a no vote. If it is necessary to adjourn the Special Meeting and the adjournment is for a period of not more than 30 days from the original date of the Special Meeting, no notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting need be given the shareholders, other than an announcement made at the Special Meeting.

The effect of any such adjournment would be to permit C&C to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Agreement. Such an adjournment would not invalidate any proxies previously filed as long as the record date for the adjourned meeting remained the same, including proxies filed by shareholders voting against the Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

NAME

1.1 Name. The name of the corporation resulting from the Merger shall be The Colonial BancGroup, Inc.

ARTICLE 2

MERGER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

2.1 Applicable Law. At the Effective Time, Acquired Corporation shall be merged with and into BancGroup (herein referred to as the Resulting Corporation whenever reference is made to it as of the time of merger or thereafter). The Merger shall be undertaken pursuant to the provisions of and with the effect provided in the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), and the applicable provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act (the FBCA). The offices and facilities of Acquired Corporation and of BancGroup shall become the offices and facilities of the Resulting Corporation.

2.2 Corporate Existence. As of the Effective Time, the corporate existence of Acquired Corporation and of BancGroup shall, as provided in the DGCL and the FBCA, be merged into and continued in the Resulting Corporation, and the Resulting Corporation shall be deemed to be the same corporation as Acquired Corporation and BancGroup. All rights, franchises and interests of Acquired Corporation and BancGroup, respectively, in and to every type of property (real, personal and mixed) and choses in action shall be transferred to and vested in the Resulting Corporation by virtue of the Merger without any deed or other transfer. The Resulting Corporation as of the Effective Time, and without any order or other action on the part of any court or otherwise, shall hold and enjoy all rights of property, franchises and interests, including appointments, designations and nominations and all other rights and interests as trustee, executor, administrator, transfer agent and registrar of stocks and bonds, guardian of estates, assignee, and receiver and in every other fiduciary capacity and in every agency, and capacity, in the same manner and to the same extent as such rights, franchises and interests were held or enjoyed by Acquired Corporation and BancGroup, respectively, immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Table of Contents

2.3 Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. At the Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Resulting Corporation shall be the restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws of BancGroup as they exist immediately before the Effective Time.

2.4 Resulting Corporation's Officers and Board. The board of directors and the officers of the Resulting Corporation as of the Effective Time shall consist of those persons serving in such capacities of BancGroup as of the Effective Time.

2.5 Shareholder Approval. This Agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of Acquired Corporation at the Shareholders Meeting to be held as promptly as practicable consistent with the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in this Agreement. Upon approval by the requisite vote of the shareholders of Acquired Corporation as required by applicable Law, and the satisfaction of such other conditions as set forth herein, the Merger shall become effective thereafter as soon as commercially reasonable in the manner provided in section 2.7.

2.6 Further Acts. If, at any time after the Effective Time, the Resulting Corporation shall consider or be advised that any further assignments or assurances in law or any other acts are necessary or desirable (i) to vest, perfect, confirm or record, in the Resulting Corporation, title to and possession of any property or right of Acquired Corporation or BancGroup, acquired as a result of the Merger, or (ii) otherwise to carry out the purposes of the Merger and this Agreement, BancGroup and its officers and directors shall execute and deliver all such proper instruments, deeds, assignments and assurances in law and do all acts necessary or proper to vest, perfect or confirm title to, and possession of, such property or rights in the Resulting Corporation and otherwise to carry out the purposes of this Agreement; and the proper officers and directors of the Resulting Corporation are fully authorized in the name of Acquired Corporation or BancGroup, or otherwise, to take any and all such action as may be necessary to effect the terms of this Agreement and Plan of Merger.

2.7 Effective Time and Closing. The Merger shall become effective as of the later of the date and time the Certificate of Merger is accepted for filing by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the Articles of Merger are accepted for filing by the Florida Department of State (such time being herein called the Effective Time). Assuming all other conditions stated in this Agreement have been or will be satisfied or waived as of the Closing, the Closing shall take place at the offices of Miller, Hamilton, Snider & Odom, L.L.C., 100 Colonial Bank Boulevard, Suite B101, Montgomery, Alabama on a date specified by BancGroup and agreeable to Acquired Corporation that shall be as soon as commercially reasonable after the later to occur of the Shareholder Meeting or all required regulatory approvals (including waiting periods) under Section 8.2, or at such other place and time that the Parties may mutually agree.

2.8 Merger of Subsidiary Bank. BancGroup and Acquired Corporation anticipate the possibility that after the Effective Time, the Bank will merge with and into Colonial Bank, N.A., BancGroup's Subsidiary bank (the Bank Merger). The exact timing and structure of the Bank Merger have not been finalized at this time, and BancGroup in its discretion will determine if such Bank Merger shall proceed and will finalize such timing and structure at a later date. Acquired Corporation will reasonably cooperate with BancGroup in consummating the Bank Merger, including the calling of any special meetings of the board of directors of the Bank and the filing of any regulatory applications, at BancGroup's sole cost and expense.

ARTICLE 3

CONVERSION OF ACQUIRED CORPORATION STOCK

3.1 Conversion of Acquired Corporation Stock.

(a)(i) At the Effective Time, and subject to sections 3.1(a)(ii), 3.1(a)(iii), 3.1(a)(iv), and 3.3, each share of common stock of Acquired Corporation outstanding and held by Acquired Corporation's shareholders (Acquired Corporation Stock), shall be converted into the right to receive shares of BancGroup Common

Table of Contents

Stock and/or cash (the Merger Consideration) as specified below. Each outstanding share of Acquired Corporation Stock at the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive either (A) 1.57 shares (subject to section 3.3 hereof) of BancGroup Common Stock or (B) $39.02 in cash in accordance with sections 3.1(a)(ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Agreement.

(ii) A holder of Acquired Corporation Stock may, prior to the Shareholders Meeting, file a written election form (an Election Form) with the Acquired Corporation specifying whether such holder prefers to have the Merger Consideration paid to such holder in shares of BancGroup Common Stock only, cash only, or any proportion of cash and whole shares of BancGroup Common Stock that such holder desires to receive, subject to the limitation on cash and share consideration in sections 3.1(a)(iii) and (iv) of this Agreement.

(iii) Notwithstanding section 3.1(a)(ii) of this Agreement and notwithstanding any elections made pursuant to the Election Forms, the aggregate amount of cash to be distributed in the Merger for Acquired Corporation Stock shall be the amount of 50% of the number of shares of outstanding Acquired Corporation Stock at the time of the Closing times $39.02 (the Cash Consideration) (approximately $102,875,195 assuming 5,272,947 shares of Acquired Corporation Stock are outstanding at the time of the Closing) even if the aggregate amount of cash elected by stockholders (the Aggregate Cash Amount) is less than or exceeds the Cash Consideration. Notwithstanding section 3.1(a)(ii) of this Agreement and notwithstanding any elections made pursuant to the Election Forms, the aggregate number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock to be distributed in the Merger shall be 50% of the number of shares of the outstanding Acquired Corporation Stock at the time of the Closing times 1.57 (the Stock Consideration) (approximately 4,139,263 shares of BancGroup Common Stock assuming 5,272,947 shares of Acquired Corporation Stock are outstanding at the time of the Closing), even if the aggregate number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock elected by stockholders (the Aggregate Stock Amount) is less than or exceeds the Stock Consideration. If the aggregate of all Acquired Corporation shareholders' Cash Elections (or Stock Elections) exceeds the Cash Consideration (or the Stock Consideration), the Merger Consideration distributable to each holder of Acquired Corporation Stock shall be adjusted by taking the following steps: (1) determine the amount by which the Aggregate Cash Amount (or Aggregate Stock Amount) exceeds the Cash Consideration (or Stock Consideration); (2) reduce the amount of cash (or BancGroup Common Stock) that each such Shareholder who elects, or is deemed to elect, cash (or BancGroup Common Stock) will receive on a pro rata basis until the Aggregate Cash Amount (or the Aggregate Stock Amount) is equal to the Cash Consideration (or the Stock Consideration) (the aggregate amount of this reduction shall be referred to as the Excess Election); (3) determine the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock that each Acquired Corporation Shareholder's pro rata portion of the Excess Election represents (which will be the pro rata portion of the Excess Election divided by $39.02 in the case of a Cash Excess Election (or the pro-rata portion of the Excess Election divided by 1.57 in the case of a BancGroup Common Stock Excess Election)); (4) increase such Shareholder's stock (or cash) component of such Shareholder's Merger Consideration by 1.57 shares of BancGroup Common Stock (or $39.02) for each share of Acquired Corporation Stock determined in step (3) above.

(iv) Elections made shall apply to all shares of record of Acquired Corporation Stock held immediately prior to the Effective Time by a record holder making the election. If an Acquired Corporation shareholder does not submit an Election Form, then such holder shall be deemed to have elected to receive $19.51 in cash and 0.785 shares of BancGroup Common Stock for each share of Acquired Corporation Stock as his or her portion of the Merger Consideration. Interest will not be paid on any cash to be paid as part of the Merger Consideration.

(b) Promptly after the execution of this Agreement, the Board of Directors of Acquired Corporation shall pass resolutions effecting the following:

(i) any unvested options to purchase Acquired Corporation Stock (Acquired Corporation Options) shall become vested and exercisable as of the Closing; and

(ii) all outstanding Acquired Corporation Options shall be exercised at the Effective Time for cash as described in subparagraph (c) of this Section 3.1.

(c) All Acquired Corporation Options shall be exercised at the Effective Time through a cashless exercise with such exercised stock being exchanged for cash payable on or within five (5) business days after the Effective Time. As a result of this cashless exercise, the amount of cash to be received shall be determined by calculating the difference between (i) the number obtained by multiplying the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock issuable pursuant to his or her Acquired Corporation Options times $39.02 less (ii) the number obtained by multiplying the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock issuable pursuant to his or her Acquired Corporation Options times the exercise price per share (as determined pursuant to the applicable stock option plan and stock option agreement of the Acquired Corporation). In the event that the exercise prices of all Acquired Corporation Options are not the same, the above calculation shall be made for each series of options. The amount of cash paid to holders of Acquired Corporation Options shall not be considered as part of the Cash Consideration.

3.2 Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock shall be issued, and each holder of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock having a fractional interest arising upon the conversion of such shares into shares of BancGroup Common Stock shall, at the time of surrender of the certificates previously representing Acquired Corporation Stock, be paid by BancGroup an amount in cash equal to the fractional interest times $24.85 per share.

3.3 Adjustments. In the event that prior to the Effective Time BancGroup Common Stock shall be changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any recapitalization or reclassification, stock dividend, combination, stock split, or reverse stock split of the BancGroup Common Stock, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made in the number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock into which the Acquired Corporation Stock shall be converted.

3.4 BancGroup Stock. The shares of Common Stock of BancGroup issued and outstanding immediately before the Effective Time shall continue to be issued and outstanding shares of the Resulting Corporation.

3.5 Dissenting Rights. Any shareholder of Acquired Corporation who shall not have voted in favor of this Agreement and who has complied with the applicable procedures set forth in the FBCA, relating to rights of dissenting shareholders, shall be entitled to receive payment for the fair value of his Acquired Corporation Stock. If after the Effective Date a dissenting shareholder of Acquired Corporation fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses his or her right to appraisal and payment for such holder's shares of Acquired Corporation Stock, BancGroup shall issue and deliver the consideration to which such holder of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock is entitled under Section 3.1 (without interest) upon surrender by such holder of the certificate or certificates representing shares of Acquired Corporation Stock held by him or her.

3.6 Election and Exchange Procedures. Each holder of record of shares of the Acquired Corporation Stock ("Holder") shall have the right, subject to the limitations set forth in this Article 3, to submit an election and exchange his or her Acquired Corporation stock certificates (the "Acquired Corporation Stock Certificates") in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The Election. Each Holder may specify in a request made in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.6 (herein called an "Election") (i) the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock owned by such Holder with respect to which such Holder desires to receive a portion of the Stock Consideration (a "Stock Election") and (ii) the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock owned by such Holder with respect to which such Holder desires to receive a portion of the Cash Consideration (a "Cash Election").

(b) Form of Election. BancGroup shall prepare a form reasonably acceptable to the Acquired Corporation (the "Form of Election") which shall be mailed to the Acquired Corporation's stockholders (voting and non-voting) so as to permit the Acquired Corporation's stockholders to exercise their right to make an Election prior to the Election Deadline (as defined in Section 3.6(d)).

(c) Distribution of Forms of Election. BancGroup shall make the Form of Election initially available at the time that the Proxy Statement (as defined herein) is made available to the stockholders of the Acquired Corporation, to such stockholders, and shall use all reasonable efforts to make available as promptly as possible a Form of Election to any stockholder of the Acquired Corporation who requests such Form of Election following the initial mailing of the Forms of Election and prior to the Election Deadline. In no event shall the Form of Election be made available for the first time less than twenty (20) calendar days prior to the Election Deadline.

(d) Proper Election and Exchange Agent. Any Election shall have been made properly only if the Person authorized to receive the Elections and to act as Exchange Agent under this Agreement (the Exchange Agent) shall have received, by 5:00 p.m. local time in the city in which the principal office of such Exchange Agent is located, on the date of the Election Deadline, a Form of Election properly completed and signed and accompanied by Acquired Corporation Stock Certificates to which such Form of Election relates or by an appropriate customary guarantee of delivery of such certificates, as set forth in such Form of Election from a member of any registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States; provided, that such certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent by the time required in such guarantee of delivery. Failure to deliver shares of Acquired Corporation Stock covered by such a guarantee of delivery within the time set forth on such guarantee shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made Election, unless otherwise determined by BancGroup, in its sole discretion. As used herein, Election Deadline means 5:00 p.m. on the date that is the day prior to the date of the Acquired Corporation Stockholder Meeting. If BancGroup or the Exchange Agent shall determine in its reasonable discretion that any Election is not properly made with respect to any shares of Acquired Corporation Stock, such Election shall be deemed to be not in effect, and the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock covered by such Election shall, for purposes hereof, be treated as if no Election had been made, unless a proper Election is thereafter timely made.

(e) Modification and Revocation of Form of Election. Any Acquired Corporation stockholder may, at any time prior to the Election Deadline, change or revoke his or her Election by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed, revised Form of Election or by withdrawal prior to the Election Deadline of his or her Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate, or of the guarantee of delivery of such certificates, previously deposited with the Exchange Agent. All Elections shall be revoked automatically if the Exchange Agent is notified in writing by BancGroup or the Acquired Corporation that this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with Article 13, and Acquired Corporation Stock Certificates shall be promptly returned to the Acquired Corporation's Stockholders.

(f) Proper Designation and Taxes. If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name an Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate so surrendered is registered, it shall be a condition to such payment that such Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the Person requesting such payment shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other similar Taxes required as a result of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable. The Exchange Agent or BancGroup shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration (including cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock) and from payments made to holders of Acquired Corporation Options otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Acquired Corporation Stock or of Acquired Corporation Options such amounts as the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, is required to deduct and withhold under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law, with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent the amounts are so withheld by the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock or of Acquired Corporation Options in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by the Exchange Agent or BancGroup, as the case may be.

(g) Power of Determination. BancGroup, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall have the right to make all determinations, not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, governing (A) the issuance and delivery of BancGroup Stock Certificates into which shares of Acquired Corporation Stock are converted in the Merger and (B) the method of payment for shares of Acquired Corporation Stock converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock where the holder of the applicable Acquired Corporation Stock Certificate has no right to receive whole shares of BancGroup Common Stock.

(h) Exchange Procedures. Within five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time, the Resulting Corporation shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of an Acquired Corporation Certificate (who has not previously submitted his Acquired Corporation Certificate): (i) a letter of transmittal (Letter of Transmittal) which shall specify that delivery shall be effected and risk of loss and title to the Acquired Corporation Certificates shall pass only upon delivery of the Acquired Corporation Certificates to the Exchange Agent and which Letter of Transmittal shall be in customary form and have such other provisions as BancGroup or the Resulting Corporation, as the case may be, may reasonably specify and (ii) instructions for effecting the surrender of such Acquired Corporation Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of an Acquired Corporation Certificate to the Exchange Agent together with such Letter of Transmittal, duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Acquired Corporation Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, and Resulting Corporation shall instruct Exchange Agent to transmit as promptly as commercially practicable, (i) one or more shares of BancGroup Common Stock (which may be in uncertificated book-entry form unless a physical certificate is requested) representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of shares that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) a check for any cash portion of the Merger Consideration and for the cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Agreement, including cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock and dividends and other distributions required or permitted by this Agreement. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable for the cash portion of the Merger Consideration. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Acquired Corporation Stock which is not registered in the transfer records of Acquired Corporation, one or more shares of BancGroup Common Stock evidencing, in the aggregate, the proper number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock and a check for the cash portion of the Merger Consideration, the cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Agreement, may be issued with respect to such Acquired Corporation Stock to such a transferee if the Acquired Corporation Certificate representing such shares of Acquired Corporation Stock is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

(i) No Further Ownership Rights in Acquired Corporation Stock. All shares of BancGroup Common Stock issued and cash paid upon conversion of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock in accordance with the terms of this Article 3 (including any cash paid pursuant to this Agreement) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.6, each Acquired Corporation Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions to which a holder of Acquired Corporation Stock on or prior to the Effective Time is entitled to receive under this Agreement.

(j) No Liability. None of BancGroup, the Acquired Corporation, the Resulting Corporation or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any Merger Consideration delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(k) Lost Certificates. If any Acquired Corporation Certificate shall have been lost, stolen, destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Acquired Corporation Certificate to be lost, stolen, or destroyed and, if required by the Resulting Corporation that posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as the Resulting Corporation may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Acquired Corporation Certificate the applicable Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock formerly represented thereby, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock, and unpaid dividends and distributions on shares of BancGroup Common Stock deliverable in respect thereof, in each case, pursuant to this Agreement.

(l) Stock Transfer Books. The stock transfer books of the Acquired Corporation shall be closed immediately at the Effective Time and there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock thereafter on the records of Acquired Corporation. On or after the Effective Time, any Acquired Corporation Certificates presented to the Exchange Agent or the Resulting Corporation for any reason shall be converted into the Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock formerly represented thereby, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to this Agreement and any dividends or other distributions to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to this Agreement.

REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS OF BANCGROUP

No representation or warranty contained in this Article 4 shall be deemed untrue or incorrect, and BancGroup shall not be deemed to have breached a representation or warranty as a consequence of the existence or absence of any fact, event or circumstance, unless such fact, event or circumstance is not set forth in BancGroup's disclosure schedules to this Agreement and, whether individually or in the aggregate with all other facts, events or circumstances that have not been set forth in BancGroup disclosure schedules to this Agreement, has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except as disclosed in any BancGroup disclosure schedule to this Agreement, BancGroup represents, warrants and covenants to and with Acquired Corporation as follows:

4.1 Organization. BancGroup is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware. BancGroup has the necessary corporate powers to carry on its business as presently conducted and is qualified to do business in every jurisdiction in which the character and location of the Assets owned by it or the nature of the business transacted by it requires qualification or in which the failure to qualify could, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect. 4.2 Capital Stock.

(a) The authorized capital stock of BancGroup consists of (i) 400,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $2.50 par value per share, of which as of March 31, 2007, 156,662,992 shares were validly issued and 152,954,381 were outstanding, fully paid and nonassessable and are not subject to preemptive rights (not counting additional shares subject to issue pursuant to stock option and other plans), (ii) 50,000,000 shares of Preferred stock, $2.50 par value per share, none of which are issued and outstanding, and (iii) 1,000,000 shares of Preference Stock, $2.50 par value per share, none of which are issued and outstanding. (b) All Tax returns required to be filed by or on behalf of BancGroup and its Subsidiaries have been timely filed (or requests for extensions therefore have been timely filed and granted and have not expired), and all returns filed are complete and accurate in all Material respects. No audit, examination or investigation is presently being conducted or, to the Knowledge of BancGroup, threatened by any taxing authority which is likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect. BancGroup and its Subsidiaries have withheld from its employees (and timely paid to the appropriate governmental entity) proper and accurate amounts for all periods in Material compliance with all Tax withholding provisions of applicable federal, state, foreign and local Laws (including without limitation, income, social security and employment Tax withholding for all types of compensation).

4.4 No Conflict with Other Instrument. The consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not result in a breach of or constitute a Default (without regard to the giving of notice or the passage of time) under any Material Contract, indenture, mortgage, deed of trust or other Material agreement or instrument to which BancGroup or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which they or their Assets may be bound; will not conflict with any provision of the restated certificate of incorporation or bylaws of BancGroup or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of any of its Subsidiaries; and will not violate any provision of any Law, regulation, judgment or decree binding on them or any of their Assets.

4.5 Absence of Material Adverse Change. Except as set described in detail on Schedule 6.2(a), Acquired Corporation shall cause the Bank to postpone all branch relocation and/or expansion plans prior to the Effective Time or the date of termination pursuant to this Agreement. Acquired Corporation will take no action that would prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368 of the Code, and Acquired Corporation will treat the merger consistently with such qualification for all income Tax purposes. Except to the extent the Acquired Corporation's Board of Directors, after consultation with counsel, determines in good faith it necessary to comply with its fiduciary duties, no Acquired Corporation Company or any Representative thereof shall furnish any non-public information that it is not legally obligated to furnish, negotiate with respect to, or enter into any Contract with respect to, any Acquisition Proposal, and each Acquired Corporation Company shall direct and use its reasonable efforts to cause all of its Representatives not to engage in any of the foregoing, but Acquired Corporation may communicate information about such an Acquisition Proposal to its shareholders if and to the extent, after consultation with counsel, that it determines in good faith that it is required to do so in order to comply with its legal obligations. The Parties acknowledge and agree that it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to fix the actual damages resulting from the foregoing events and, therefore, the Parties have agreed upon the foregoing payment as liquidated damages which shall not be deemed to be in the nature of a penalty. Except as expressly contemplated hereby, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests, or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any Party hereto (whether by operation of Law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other Party. 15.10 Attorneys' Fees. If any Party hereto shall bring an action at law or in equity to enforce its rights under this Agreement (including an action based upon a misrepresentation or the breach of any warranty, covenant, agreement or obligation contained herein), the prevailing Party in such action shall be entitled to recover from the other Party its costs and expenses incurred in connection with such action (including fees, disbursements and expenses of attorneys and costs of investigation).

15.11 No Waiver. No failure, delay or omission of or by any Party in exercising any right, power or remedy upon any breach or Default of any other Party shall impair any such rights, powers or remedies of the Party not in breach or Default, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such right, power or remedy, or an acquiescence in any similar breach or Default; nor shall any waiver of any single breach or Default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any Party of any provisions of this Agreement must be in writing and be executed by the Parties to this Agreement and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

(iii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning the Company;

(iv) analyzed certain financial projections prepared by the management of the Company;

(v) held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and Colonial for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of the Company and Colonial, including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings (the Synergies) expected to be achieved as a result of the Merger;

(vi) reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of Colonial Common Stock;

(vii) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks and bank holding companies that we considered relevant;

(viii) evaluated the pro forma ownership of Colonial Common Stock by the holders of the Company Common Stock relative to the pro forma contribution of the Company's assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the combined company;

(ix) analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and

(x) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We also took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by the Company and Colonial and in the discussions with the managements of the Company and Colonial. In that regard, we have assumed that the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the Synergies and projections regarding under-performing and nonperforming assets and net charge-offs have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates of the Company and Colonial and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances made by the subsidiaries of the Company and Colonial are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. We were not retained to and did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of the Company, Colonial or their respective subsidiaries. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of the Company, Colonial or any of their respective subsidiaries and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have further assumed that the Merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles. We have assumed that the Merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to the Company, Colonial and their subsidiaries. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger and we have further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals, no restriction will be imposed on Colonial or the surviving corporations that would have a material adverse effect on the surviving corporations or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. We have also assumed that no change in applicable law or regulation would occur that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of Colonial or any of the surviving corporations after the Merger.

(e) For the purposes of paragraph (d) only, the term "beneficial owner" means any person who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, or understanding, other than a revocable proxy, has or shares the power to vote, or to direct the voting of, shares, provided that a member of a national securities exchange shall not be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities held directly or indirectly by it on behalf of another person solely because such member is the recordholder of such securities if the member is precluded by the rules of such exchange from voting without instruction on contested matters or matters that may affect substantially the rights or privileges of the holders of the securities to be voted. When two or more persons agree to act together for the purpose of voting their shares of the corporation, each member of the group formed thereby shall be deemed to have acquired beneficial ownership, as of the date of such agreement, of all voting shares of the corporation beneficially owned by any member of the group.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the articles of incorporation as originally filed or any amendment thereto may limit or eliminate appraisal rights for any class or series of preferred shares, but any such limitation or elimination contained in an amendment to the articles of incorporation that limits or eliminates appraisal rights for any of such shares that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment or that the corporation is or may be required to issue or sell thereafter pursuant to any conversion, exchange, or other right existing immediately before the effective date of such amendment shall not apply to any corporate action that becomes effective within 1 year of that date if such action would otherwise afford appraisal rights.

(4) A shareholder entitled to appraisal rights under this chapter may not challenge a completed corporate action for which appraisal rights are available unless such corporate action:

(a) Was not effectuated in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section or the corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws, or board of directors' resolution authorizing the corporate action; or

(b) Was procured as a result of fraud or material misrepresentation.

(1) A record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but owned by a beneficial shareholder only if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares of the class or series owned by the beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of a record shareholder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the record shareholder's name under this subsection shall be determined as if the shares as to which the record shareholder objects and the record shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different record shareholders.
