PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On June 15, 2004, BioVeris Corporation ( BioVeris ) issued a press release, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on BioVeris's Current Report on Form 8-K, announcing that the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of BioVeris (the Audit Committee ) had commenced an investigation of Meso Scale Diagnostics, LLC. ( MSD ). MSD is a company jointly owned by BioVeris and Meso Scale Technologies, LLC. ( MST ), a company wholly-owned by Jacob N. Wohlstadter, the son of Samuel J. Wohlstadter, BioVeris's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The investigation was prompted by the discovery of a series of transactions undertaken by MSD involving the actual or proposed purchase by MSD of certain residential real property and luxury automobiles. The transactions, which are believed to have a total cost of approximately $7 million, were entered into by MSD upon Jacob Wohlstadter's sole approval and without BioVeris's knowledge. The Audit Committee has made a formal demand upon MSD to inspect MSD's accounting books and records in furtherance of its investigation of these transactions and to determine whether MSD has entered into other similar transactions without BioVeris's knowledge. BioVeris also brought legal action against MSD and Jacob Wohlstadter which has been described in its press releases made on June 15, 2004 and June 21, 2004.

BioVeris cannot complete its Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2004 until its consolidated financial statements, which include MSD's financial information, have been completed. BioVeris adopted FASB Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities ( FIN 46 ), as of March 31, 2004, and accordingly, it must consolidate the financial information of MSD in its consolidated balance sheet beginning as of March 31, 2004 and in its other financial statements for subsequent periods so long as the requirements of FIN 46 are satisfied. BioVeris cannot complete its consolidated financial statements or have those financial statements audited by its independent accountants until it receives MSD's audited financial statements and the Audit Committee completes its investigation of MSD. MSD's independent accountants have advised BioVeris that they cannot complete an audit of MSD's financial statements until the investigation of MSD is completed and until MSD's independent accountants have had an opportunity to review the results of this investigation and determine what additional procedures, if any, are required to complete the audit of MSD's financial statements and deliver the related opinion. The completion of the investigation of MSD and the audit of its financial statements will require MSD's cooperation.
