Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 21, 2007 Laidlaw International, Inc. entered into amendments of the employment agreements with Kevin E. Benson, Beth Byster Byster Corvino, Jeffrey W. Sanders, Jeffery A. McDougale and Mary B. Jordan. The sole reason for these amendments is to revise these executives' employment agreements to be in compliance with the final IRS Code Section 409A regulations. These amendments to the employment agreements do not modify the salary, bonus, severance, change in control payments or other benefits that are currently provided to executives under the employment agreements that were previously disclosed in, and filed as exhibits to, a Form 8-K, filed on January 24, 2007 for Messrs. Benson, Sanders and McDougale, as well as Ms. Corvino and Ms. Jordan.

The amendments to the employment agreements:

- Provide that if the executive is a "specified employee" (as defined by Section 409A), then upon termination that executive will have to wait six months before receiving a lump-sum payment of his or her termination payments as provided in the relevant employment agreement.
- Provide that notwithstanding the six-month wait discussed above, if the executive is a "specified employee", the executive will be able to be paid $15,500 of his or her termination payment within 30 days of the termination date in accordance with the final Section 409A regulations.
- Require that reimbursement payments under the employment agreement be made in accordance with the final Section 409A regulations.

Copies of the amendments to the employment agreements are attached as Exhibits 99.1 through 99.5.
