ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On April 25, 2002, National Fuel Gas Company (the "Company") issued a press release regarding its operations for the period ended March 31, 2002. On April 26, 2002, the Company issued a press release regarding its projected operations for the period ending September 30, 2003 and the projected oil and gas production of its subsidiary, Seneca Resources, Inc. The press releases are hereby incorporated by reference and filed as part of this Current Report as Exhibits 5.1 and 5.2, respectively.

Neither the filing of either press release as an exhibit to this Current Report nor the inclusion of a reference to the Company's internet address shall, under any circumstances, be deemed to incorporate the information at such internet address into this Current Report. The information available at the Company's internet address as of the date of this Current Report or any other report filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission is not intended to be relied upon.

Certain statements contained herein and incorporated by reference from the press release regarding the Company's earnings projections, are "forward-looking statements" as defined by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. There is no assurance that the Company's projections will in fact be achieved nor do these projections reflect the effect of divestitures that may occur during fiscal 2002 or 2003. While the Company's expectations, beliefs and assumptions are made in good faith and are believed to have a reasonable basis, actual results may differ materially from those stated in the statement. Furthermore, each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made and the Company has an obligation to update the statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which it is made, including unanticipated events. In addition to other factors, the following are important factors that could cause the Company's projections to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements: changes in economic conditions caused by terrorist activities, demographic patterns or weather conditions; changes in the availability of natural gas and oil; inability to obtain new customers or retain existing ones; significant changes in competition; governmental/regulatory actions, initiatives and proceedings, including those affecting the Company's rates of return, industry and rate structure, franchise renewal, and environmental/safety requirements; restructuring initiatives in the natural gas and electric industries; significant changes from expected revenues, expenditures and operating expenses and unanticipated project delays or changes in project costs; profitability of pending and potential projects and other investments; occurrences affecting the Company's operations, debt or equity to finance needed capital expenditures and other investments; unavailability of financing; estimates; ability to successfully identify and finance oil and gas property acquisitions and other investments; ability to successfully identify and retain existing and any subsequently acquired business or properties; ability to successfully identify,
