Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On May 13, 2008, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Realty Income Corporation (the “Company”) approved and adopted the Amendment to Bylaws of Realty Income Corporation (the “Amendment”). The Amendment includes the following changes:

- (i) To permit householding of notices, as permitted by the Maryland General Corporations Law.
- (ii) To provide that the timeliness of a stockholder’s notice be determined based on the anniversary of the date of the proxy statement for the preceding year’s annual meeting rather than the date of mailing of the proxy statement.
- (iii) To require a stockholder making a proposal of business to be taken up at an annual meeting to disclose his true economic interest in the Company.
- (iv) To require a proposing stockholder to notify the Company of any changes in information supplied pursuant to the requirements of the advance notice provisions.
- (v) To eliminate the need to supply the information required by the advance notice provisions by stockholders or stockholder associated persons who solicit revocable proxies by means of an effective proxy statement.
- (vi) To allow the Board and the stockholders to ratify actions that could have been authorized, but were not or were imperfectly authorized, even in the face of a derivative proceeding.
- (vii) To provide for emergencies.
- (viii) To make certain changes to conform the bylaws to the Maryland General Corporations Law and New York Stock Exchange regulations, delete certain provisions that are no longer applicable or required, or include clarifying standard provisions of bylaws and make other non-substantive changes.

The Amendment took effect upon adoption by the Board. The foregoing is a brief description of certain material provisions reflected in the Amendment and is quantified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
