Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As reported below, at the 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Cerner Corporation (“Cerner”) held on May 22, 2015, Cerner’s shareholders approved: (i) the amendment and restatement of the Cerner Corporation Performance-Based Compensation Plan (the “Performance Plan”); and (ii) the amendment and restatement of the Cerner Corporation 2011 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan (the “Omnibus Plan”). Summaries of the Performance Plan and the Omnibus Plan are included in Proposal Nos. 4 and 5, respectively, of Cerner's definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 13, 2015 (the "2015 Proxy Statement"). The descriptions below of the Performance Plan and the Omnibus Plan are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the plans filed herewith as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Cerner Corporation Performance-Based Compensation Plan (As Amended and Restated May 22, 2015)

The Performance Plan is designed to provide a framework for granting performance-based compensation under Cerner's current and future compensation programs which may be deductible from Cerner's income taxes under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). The Performance Plan provides for the granting of awards of incentive compensation that may be paid to a participant upon satisfaction of specified performance goals for a particular performance period. The Performance Plan may be utilized for all forms and types of compensatory arrangements, awards, programs or plans (equity or cash-compensation based) sponsored or maintained by Cerner. Eligible participants under the Performance Plan include key associates and executives. The Performance Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee, and such Committee has the full authority to designate the employees who are eligible to participate in the Performance Plan and to establish the performance goals and achievement levels for each participant.

Cerner Corporation 2011 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan (As Amended and Restated May 22, 2015)

The Omnibus Plan is designed to assist Cerner in recruiting and retaining key associates, consultants and non-employee directors and to align such individuals' interests with those of Cerner's shareholders. The terms of the Omnibus Plan provide for the grant of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, restricted stock units, performance shares, performance units, performance grants and bonus shares, some of which may be paid in cash, shares of Cerner common stock, or a combination of cash and shares of Cerner common stock. Subject to certain adjustments, the maximum number of shares of Cerner common stock that may be delivered pursuant to awards under the Omnibus Plan is the sum of (i) 32,000,000 shares, plus (ii) any shares either available for issuance under the Cerner Corporation 2004 Long-Term Incentive Plan G (the "Plan G") on May 27, 2011 (the original adoption date of the Omnibus Plan) or that, after May 27, 2011, became available under the Omnibus Plan due to the original Plan G awards expiring or being canceled or terminated without the issuance of shares thereunder. Eligible participants under the Omnibus Plan include key associates, consultants and non-employee directors. The Omnibus Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee (or such other committee as the Board of Directors may determine), and such Committee has the sole discretion to determine who may be granted awards under the Omnibus Plan, the size and types of such awards and the terms and conditions of such awards. The amendments to the Omnibus Plan, among other things, increased the maximum number of shares of Cerner common stock authorized for issuance under the Omnibus Plan by 16,000,000 shares and extended the term of the Omnibus Plan by an additional 10 years.
