Revenues:

In the first quarter, revenues from Teléfonos de México and its subsidiaries in Mexico and Latin America totaled 41,555 million pesos, 0.4% lower than the same period of 2005. Of total consolidated revenues, voice revenues represented 76.9% and data transmission revenues represented 19.1%.

Costs and expenses:

Costs and expenses in the first quarter totaled 28,756 million pesos, 1.5% lower than the same period of the previous year, mainly due to the decrease of interconnection costs as a result of the 10% reduction in the calling party pays rate and lower costs related to depreciation and amortization, international settlement, and prepaid cards.

EBITDA (1) and operating income:

EBITDA (1) totaled 18,822 million pesos in the first quarter, a decrease of 2.8% compared with the same period of 2005. Comprehensive financing cost

: Comprehensive financing cost was 984 million pesos in the quarter compared with 1,008 million pesos in the first quarter of 2005. This result was due to: (i) a decrease of 13% in net interest because of a lower cost of debt, (ii) a higher exchange loss from the impact of the first-quarter's exchange rate variation of 0.24 pesos per dollar; partially offset by the gain that hedges produced; and (iii) a gain in the monetary position of 599 million pesos during the quarter.

Majority net income

: Majority net income totaled 7,593 million pesos in the first quarter, 12.8% higher than the same period of the previous year due to lower comprehensive financing cost and its effect on taxes. Earnings per share in the first quarter, based on the number of shares outstanding at March 31, 2006 (21,446,265,270 shares) was 0.35 pesos per share compared with 0.29 pesos per share in the same period of 2005 and earnings per ADR were 0.65 dollars compared with 0.48 dollars in last year's first quarter.

Also, 47.5% of gross total debt carries a fixed rate and by adding interest rate swaps for 15,900 million pesos at March 31, 2006 the percentage increases to 66%.
