NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

April 15, 2006

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

We cordially invite you to attend the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of First Community Corporation, the holding company for First Community Bank, N.A. At the meeting, we will report on our performance in 2005 and answer your questions. We are excited about our accomplishments in 2005 and look forward to discussing both our accomplishments and our plans with you. We hope that you can attend the meeting and look forward to seeing you there.

This letter serves as your official notice that we will hold the meeting on May 17, 2006 at 11:00 a.m. at First Community Bank, Training Room, 1735 Wilson Road (entrance facing Alex Avenue), Newberry, South Carolina for the following purposes:

1. To elect five Class III directors to serve on the board of directors each for three-year terms; and
2. To transact any other business that may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting.

Shareholders owning our common stock at the close of business on March 31, 2006 are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting. A complete list of these shareholders will be available at the company's offices prior to the meeting.

Please use this opportunity to take part in the affairs of your company by voting on the business to come before this meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, we encourage you to complete and return the enclosed proxy to us as promptly as possible.

By order of the Board of Directors,

/s/ James C. Leventis
James C. Leventis
Chairman of the Board

Proxy Statement for Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be Held on May 17, 2006

Our board of directors is soliciting proxies for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This proxy statement contains important information for you to consider when deciding how to vote on the matters brought before the meeting. We encourage you to read it carefully.

Voting Information

The board set March 31, 2006 as the record date for the meeting. Shareholders owning our common stock at the close of business on that date are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, with each share entitled to one vote. There were 2,893,246 shares of common stock outstanding on the record date. A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock represented at the meeting will constitute a quorum. We will count abstentions and broker non-votes, which are described below, in determining whether a quorum exists.

Many of our shareholders hold their shares through a stockbroker, bank, or other nominee rather than directly in their own name. If you hold our shares in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee, which is considered the shareholder of record with respect to those shares. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or nominee how to vote and are also invited to attend the annual meeting. However, since you are not the shareholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the meeting unless you obtain a signed proxy from the shareholder of record giving you the right to vote the shares. Your broker or nominee has enclosed or provided a voting instruction card for you to use to direct your broker or nominee how to vote these shares.

When you sign the proxy card, you appoint David K. Proctor and Joseph G. Sawyer as your representatives at the meeting. Messrs. Proctor and Sawyer will vote your proxy as you have instructed them on the proxy card. If you submit a proxy but do not specify how you would like it to be voted, Messrs. Proctor and Sawyer will vote your proxy for the election to the Board of Directors of all nominees listed below under "Election of Directors." We are not aware of any other matters to be considered at the meeting. However, if any other matters come before the meeting, Messrs. Proctor and Sawyer will vote your proxy on such matters in accordance with their judgment.

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by signing and delivering another proxy with a later date or by voting in person at the meeting.

Brokers who hold shares for the accounts of their clients may vote these shares either as directed by their clients or in their own discretion if permitted by the exchange or other organization of which they are members. Proxies that brokers do not vote on some proposals but that they do vote on others are referred to as "broker non-votes" with respect to the proposals not voted upon. A broker non-vote does not count as a vote in favor of or against a particular proposal for which the broker has no discretionary voting authority. In addition, if a shareholder abstains from voting on a particular proposal, the abstention does not count as a vote in favor of or against the proposal.

We are paying for the costs of preparing and mailing the proxy materials and of reimbursing brokers and others for their expenses of forwarding copies of the proxy materials to our shareholders. Our officers and employees may assist in soliciting proxies but will not receive additional compensation for doing so. We are distributing this proxy statement on or about April 15, 2006.

Proposal No. 1: Election of Directors

The board of directors is divided into three classes with staggered terms, so that the terms of only approximately one-third of the board members expire at each annual meeting. The current terms of the Class III directors will expire at the meeting. The terms of the Class I directors will expire at the 2007 Annual Shareholders Meeting and the terms of the Class II directors will expire at the 2008 Annual Shareholders Meeting. Our directors and their classes are:

Class I	Class II	Class III
Richard K. Bogan, MD	Thomas C. Brown	Chimin J. Chao
Michael C. Crapps	O.A. Ethridge, D.M.D.	James C. Leventis
Hinton G. Davis	W. James Kitchens, Jr.	Loretta R. Whitehead
Anita B. Easter	Mitchell M. Willoughby	J. Thomas Johnson
George H. Fann, Jr., D.M.D.		Alexander Snipe, Jr.

There are currently five directors in Class III. Shareholders will elect five nominees as Class III directors at the meeting to serve a three-year term, expiring at the 2009 annual meeting of shareholders. The directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting. This means that the five nominees receiving the highest number of votes will be elected. The board of directors recommends that you elect Chimin J. Chao, James C. Leventis, Loretta R. Whitehead, J. Thomas Johnson, and Alexander Snipe, Jr.

If you submit a proxy but do not specify how you would like it to be voted, Messrs. Proctor and Sawyer will vote your proxy to elect Mr. Chao, Mr. Leventis, Ms. Whitehead, Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Snipe. If any of these nominees is unable or fails to accept nomination or election (which we do not anticipate), Messrs. Proctor and Sawyer will vote instead for a replacement to be recommended by the board of directors, unless you specifically instruct otherwise in the proxy.

Information Regarding Nominees for Directors

Set forth below is certain information about the Class III nominees, each of whom is also a director of the bank:

Chimin J. Chao, 50, Class III director, has served as a director of the company since its formation in 1994. Information About the Board of Directors

Meetings

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the board of directors of the company held 12 meetings and the board of directors of the bank held 12 meetings. All of the directors of the company and the bank attended at least 75% of the aggregate of such board meetings and the meetings of each committee on which they served, with the exception of Mr. Davis who attended 58% of the meetings.

Although we do not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of our board at our annual shareholders meetings, directors are encouraged to attend our annual meeting. Nine directors attended the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders.

Shareholder Communication Policy

Our board of directors has implemented a process for shareholders of the company to send communications to the board. Any shareholder desiring to communicate with the board, or with specific individual directors, may so do by writing to the secretary of the company, at First Community Corporation, 5455 Sunset Boulevard, Lexington, South Carolina 29072. The secretary has been instructed by the board to promptly forward all such communications to the addressees indicated thereon.

Audit Committee

The audit committee is composed of Dr. Ethridge, Mr. Kitchens, Mr. Willoughby, Ms. Whitehead, and Ms. Easter. The board of directors has determined that all members are independent, as contemplated in the listing standards of the NASD and The NASDAQ Capital Market. Our board has determined that Mr. Kitchens, who was appointed to the audit committee on March 16, 2004, qualifies as an audit committee financial expert under the SEC rules. The audit committee met four times in 2005.

The audit committee has the responsibility of reviewing the company's financial statements, evaluating internal accounting controls, reviewing reports of regulatory authorities, and determining that all audits and examinations required by law are performed. The committee recommends to the board the appointment of the independent auditors for the next fiscal year, reviews and approves the auditor's audit plans, and reviews with the independent auditors the results of the audit and management's responses. The audit committee has a written charter which was adopted on March 18, 2003 and attached to our proxy statement filed with the SEC on March 21, 2003. The charter outlines the committee's responsibilities for overseeing the entire audit function and appraising the effectiveness of internal and external audit efforts and may be amended by the board at any time. The audit committee reports its findings to the board of directors.

Nominating Committee

Our board of directors recently appointed a nominating committee which is responsible for nominating individuals for election to our board. The nominating committee, which is composed of Dr. Fann, Mr. Chao, Mr. Willoughby and Mr. Snipe (appointed to the committee in February 2006), met one time in 2005. The board of directors has determined that all members of are independent, as contemplated in the listing standards of the NASD and The NASDAQ Capital Market.

On March 16, 2004, our board adopted a nominating committee charter. The charter provides that the responsibilities of the committee include: (a) reviewing the qualifications and independence of the members of the board and its various committee assignments; (b) evaluating incumbent directors in determining consideration for reelection; (c) recommending board nominees for election as officers; (d) providing guidance on board and corporate governance issues; and (e) considering director candidates recommended by shareholders who submit nominations in accordance with our bylaws. A copy of the nominating committee charter is available on our website at www.firstcommunitysc.com.

Director Nominations

Shareholders who submit candidates for nomination must deliver nominations in writing to the secretary of the company no later than (i) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of shareholders, 90 days in advance of such meeting; and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of shareholders for the election of directors, seven days after notice of the special meeting is given to shareholder. Each notice must set forth: (i) the name and address of the shareholder who intends to make the nomination and of the person or persons to be nominated; (ii) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the company entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholder; (iv) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, had the nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, by the board of directors; and (v) the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the company if so elected. The chairman of the meeting may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure.

In evaluating such recommendations, the committee uses a variety of criteria to evaluate the qualifications and skills necessary for members of our board of directors. Under these criteria, members of the board of directors should have the highest professional and personal ethics and values, consistent with our longstanding values and standards. They should have broad experience at the policy-making level in business, government, education, technology or public interest. They should be committed to enhancing shareholder value and should have sufficient time to carry out their duties and to provide insight and practical wisdom based on experience. Their service on other boards of public companies should be limited to a number that permits them, given their individual circumstances, to perform responsibly all director duties. Each director must represent the interests of our shareholders.

Our committee uses a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for director. They regularly assess the appropriate size of the board of directors, and whether any vacancies are expected due to retirement or otherwise. If vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the committee considers various potential candidates for director. Candidates may come to their attention through current members of the board, shareholders, or other persons. These candidates are evaluated at regular or special meetings of the board, and may be considered at any point during the year. The committee considers properly submitted shareholder recommendations for candidates. In evaluating such recommendations, the committee uses the qualifications and standards discussed above and seeks to achieve a balance of knowledge, experience and capability on the board of directors.

Human Resources / Compensation Committee

Our human resources/compensation committee is responsible for establishing the compensation plans for the company. The committee's duties include the development with management of all benefit plans for employees of the company, the formulation of bonus plans, incentive compensation packages, and medical and other benefit plans. This committee met three times during the year ended December 31, 2005. The committee is composed of the following members: Thomas C. Brown, Hinton G. Davis, Loretta R. Whitehead, and Chimin J. Chao. The board of directors has determined that all members of are independent, as contemplated in the listing standards of the NASD and The NASDAQ Capital Market.

Report of the Audit Committee of the Board

The report of the audit committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the company specifically incorporates the information contained in the report by reference, and shall not be deemed filed under such acts.

The audit committee has reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements. The audit committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The audit committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 ("Independence Discussions with Audit Committees") and has discussed with the independent auditors the independent auditor's independence from the company and its management. In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the audit committee recommended to our board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on SEC Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the SEC.

The report of the Audit Committee is included herein at the direction of its members, Dr. Ethridge, Mr. Kitchens, Mr. Willoughby, Ms. Whitehead and Ms. Easter.

1) The exercise price equals the market price of the company's common stock on the date of the grant.

(2) The potential gains are based on the assumed annual rates of stock price appreciation of 5% and 10% over the term of each option. Any actual gains are dependent on the future performance of our common stock and general market conditions. There is no assurance that the assumed rates of stock price appreciation will be achieved. Increases in the stock price will benefit all shareholders commensurately.

In 2005, in addition to the options shown in the above table, we also granted 43,500 options to employees pursuant to the First Community Corporation 1999 Stock Incentive Plan, approved by our board of directors and shareholders. Currently, there are a total of 147,047 options covered by the 1999 Stock Incentive Plan, including 147,047 options that have been granted and are currently outstanding. In addition, there are 180,625 options outstanding which were acquired in the DutchFork merger transaction.

 (2) The values shown equal the difference between the exercise price of unexercised in-the-money options and the closing market price $18.50 of the underlying common stock at December 31, 2005. Options are in-the-money if the fair market value of the common stock exceeds the exercise price of the option.
 (3) Options were issued in connection with the DutchFork merger transaction.

Employment Agreements

Michael C. Crapps and James C. Leventis. Upon its formation, the company entered into employment agreements with Michael C. Crapps, as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the company, and James C. Leventis, as the Chairman of the Board of the company. Both employment agreements provided for an initial term of three years, to be extended automatically each day for an additional day so that the remaining term of the agreement will continue to be three years. The term may be fixed at three years without additional extension by notice of either party to the other. The term of each agreement is currently three years. The agreement with Mr. Crapps provided for a starting annual salary of $90,000, and the agreement with Mr. Leventis provided for an annual salary of $25,000 per year, and the amounts have been reviewed annually by the board of directors and increased from time to time based on the board's recommendation. Both Mr. Crapps and Mr. Leventis are also eligible to receive annual payments based upon achievement criteria established by the board of directors. Since the company's formation through 2002, Mr. Leventis devoted approximately 25% of his time to the company. In 2003, Mr. Leventis began devoting a greater percentage of his time to the company (currently approximately 75% of his time), and the company increased his salary proportionately.

Both agreements provide that if the company terminates the executive's employment without cause or if the executive's employment is terminated due to a sale, merger, or dissolution of the company or First Community Bank, the company will be obligated to continue his salary and bonus for the first 12 months thereafter plus one-half of his salary and bonus for the second 12 months thereafter. Furthermore, the company must remove any restrictions on outstanding incentive awards so that all such awards vest immediately and the company must continue to provide his life insurance and medical benefits until he reaches the age of 65.

In addition, both employment agreements provide that following termination of the executive's employment with the company and for a period of 12 months thereafter, the executive may not (i) be employed in the banking business as a director, officer at the vice president level or higher, or organizer or promoter of, or provide executive management services to, any financial institution within Richland or Lexington counties, (ii) solicit major customers of the company for the purpose of providing financial services, or (iii) solicit employees of the company for employment.

David K. Proctor and Joseph G. Sawyer. The company has entered into employment agreements with David K. Proctor, as Senior Vice President and Senior Credit Officer, and Joseph G. Sawyer, as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Both employment agreements provide for an initial term of three years, to be extended automatically each day for an additional day so that the remaining term of the agreement will continue to be three years. The term may be fixed at three years without extension by notice of either party to the other. The term of each agreement is currently three years. The agreement with Mr. Proctor provided for a starting annual salary of $89,278, and the agreement with Mr. Sawyer provided for an annual salary of $91,260 per year, and the amounts have been reviewed annually and increased from time to time. Both Mr. Proctor and Mr. Sawyer are also eligible to receive annual payments based upon achievement criteria established by the board of directors.

Both agreements provide that if the company terminates the executive's employment without cause the company shall be obligated to pay the employee compensation in an amount equal to 100% of his then current monthly base salary each month for three months from the date of termination, plus any bonus earned or accrued through the date of termination. If the executive terminates his employment or the company terminates the executive's employment after a change in control without cause, the company will pay the employee an amount equal to two times the then current annual base salary. In addition, the company will pay the employee any bonus earned or accrued through the date of termination. The company will remove any restrictions on outstanding incentive awards so that all such awards vest immediately. The company must continue to pay at its expense medical and life insurance benefits for a period of two years after termination.

In addition, each agreement provides that during the employee's employment and for a period of 12 months thereafter, the employee may not (without prior written consent of the company) compete with the company or any of its affiliates by, directly or indirectly, forming, serving as an organizer, director or officer of, or consultant to, or acquiring or maintaining more than a 1% passive investment in, a financial institution which has one or more offices or branches located within a radius of 10 miles from the bank's main office or any of its branch offices. This restriction does not apply after a change in control.

J. Thomas Johnson and Steve P. Sligh. In connection with our merger with DutchFork, J. Thomas Johnson, President and Chief Executive Officer of DutchFork, and Steve P. Sligh, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, and Treasurer of DutchFork, entered into new employment, consulting, and noncompete agreements with First Community Bank effective on the closing date of the merger. As a result of terminating their existing employment agreements in connection with the merger, Messrs. Johnson and Sligh received lump sum payments of $863,298 and $749,863, respectively. Under the new agreements, Mr. Johnson agreed to serve as Executive Vice Presidents and Mr. Sligh agreed to serve as Senior Vice President of First Community Bank for a period of three years and paid annual salaries of $175,000. Upon termination of employment, Messrs. Johnson and Sligh agreed to provide consulting services to First Community and First Community Bank for two years in exchange for annual salaries of $172,500. At the end of the consulting period, First Community Bank will pay Messrs. Johnson and Sligh $150,000 per year for a three-year period for complying with certain restrictive covenants. During the term of the agreement, First Community Bank has agreed to procure and maintain a life insurance policy, with certain limitations, on Messrs. Johnson and Sligh with death benefits payable to First Community Bank in an amount that approximates the total payments due to the executives during the consulting period and the restricted period if the consulting services were performed and the restrictive covenants were honored in their entirety.

Each agreement provides that during the employment term, consulting period, and for a period of 36 months thereafter, the employee may not (without prior written consent of the company) compete with us by, directly or indirectly, forming, serving as an organizer, director or officer of, or consultant to, or acquiring or maintaining more than a 1% passive investment in, a financial institution which has one or more offices or branches located within a radius of 30 miles from the bank's main office or any of its branch offices. In addition, each agreement provides that during this restricted period, the employee may not solicit our customers or employees.

Each agreement provides that if we terminate without cause, we will be obligated to pay such employees an amount equal to his base salary for the remainder of the employment term, consulting period, and restrictive covenant period.

On September 14, 2005, Mr. Sligh announced his retirement from his position as director of the company and senior vice president of the bank and entered into an amendment to his employment, consulting, and noncompete agreement. The amendment provides that Mr. Sligh will provide consulting services for a period of two years. During this period, we will pay Mr. Sligh an annual consulting fee of $180,000 on a monthly basis in accordance with our standard payroll practices. Upon the expiration of this two-year period, we will pay Mr. Sligh the sum of $180,000 per year for three years payable on a monthly basis in accordance with our standard payroll practices for complying with the restrictive covenants described above.

Director Compensation

During the year ended December 31, 2005, outside directors received a retainer in the amount of $5,000 and fees of $150 for attendance at each committee meeting and $500 for attendance at each board meeting.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Our human resources/compensation committee is composed of the following members: Thomas C. Brown, Hinton G. Davis, Loretta R. Whitehead, and Chimin J. Chao. No member of the human resources/compensation committee was an officer or employee of the corporation or any of its subsidiaries during the year ended December 31, 2005, or was formerly an officer or employee of the company or any of its subsidiaries, or had any relationship otherwise requiring disclosure.

Report on Executive Officer Compensation

Our human resources/compensation committee is required to provide our shareholders with a report discussing its policies in establishing compensation for our executive officers. The report is also required to discuss the relationship, if any, between our performance and executive officer compensation. Finally, the report must specifically discuss the factors and criteria upon which the compensation paid to our chief executive officer was based. This report is provided as a summary of current practice with regard to the annual compensation review and authorization of executive officer compensation, and with respect to specific action taken for our chief executive officer.

The fundamental philosophy of our compensation program is to offer competitive compensation opportunities for executive officers that are based both on the individual's contribution and on our performance. The compensation paid is designed to retain and reward executive officers who are capable of leading the company in achieving our business objectives in an industry characterized by complexity, competitiveness, and change. The compensation of our executive officers is reviewed and approved annually by our human resources/compensation committee. Annual compensation for our chief executive officer (and other executive officers) consists primarily of three elements.

- A base salary that is determined by individual contribution and performance, and which is designed to provide a base level of compensation comparable to that provided to key executives of other financial institutions of similar size and performance.
- A short-term cash incentive program that is directly linked to individual performance and our soundness, financial performance, and growth.
- A long-term incentive program that includes matching contributions to the 401(k) Plan and stock options to executive officers. Such awards provide an incentive that focuses the executive's attention on managing the company from the perspective of a shareholder with an equity stake in the business. The economic value of any such award is directly tied to the future performance of our stock and will provide value to the recipient when the price of our stock increases over time.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. Crapps' compensation in 2005 consisted of base salary, cash incentives, stock options, contributions to the 401(k) Plan, term life insurance premiums, and certain perquisites (which did not exceed the lesser of $50,000 or 10% of base salary and bonus). For 2005, Mr. Crapps' base salary was $200,500. The committee established his base salary by analyzing compensation levels of other chief executive officers of comparable size banks based in the Southeast. Additionally, the committee received advice from compensation consultants. The committee determined that the base salary established for 2005, combined with a cash incentive opportunity (described below) and stock based compensation awards as described, would provide compensation to Mr. Crapps comparable to that paid on average by other banking organizations of similar size and financial performance.

Cash Incentives for Executives in 2005

Annual incentive compensation for 2005, paid in the form of a cash bonus during the first quarter of 2006, was based on targets with respect to earnings per share growth, noninterest income growth, and loan growth. To qualify for any incentive under the established criteria, our bank is required to retain a prescribed overall rating from its primary banking regulator. Executive officers were eligible to receive cash bonuses up to 50% of their base salaries. The committee granted cash bonuses of 12.5% of the base salaries for Mr. Crapps and the other executive officers.

Stock-Based Compensation

We from time to time also grant stock options to our executive officers. These stock-based incentive awards help align the interests of our executive officers with the interests of our shareholders by providing economic value directly related to increases in the value of our stock. The number of options granted to executive officers during any given year is based on a number of factors, including seniority and job responsibilities. Please refer to the Summary Compensation Table for a listing of stock options granted to the named executive officers in 2005, 2004, and 2003.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

We make loans and enter into other transactions in the ordinary course of business with our directors and officers and their affiliates. It is our policy that these loans and other transactions be on substantially the same terms (including price or interest rates and collateral) as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties. We do not expect these transactions to involve more than the normal risk of collectibility nor present other unfavorable features to us. Loans to individual directors and officers must also comply with our lending policies and statutory lending limits, and directors with a personal interest in any loan application are excluded from the consideration of the loan application. Our policy is that all of our transactions with our affiliates will be on terms no less favorable to us than could be obtained from an unaffiliated third party and will be approved by a majority of disinterested directors.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

As required by Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, our directors and executive officers and certain other individuals are required to report periodically their ownership of our common stock and any changes in ownership to the SEC. Based on a review of Forms 3, 4, and 5 and any representations made to us, we believe that all such reports for these persons were filed in a timely fashion during 2005 for transactions occurring in 2005, with the exception of the reporting of certain options granted to each of the following directors: On January 19, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company approved 5,000 options to each of the following: Joe Sawyer, James Leventis, Ted Nissen, David Proctor, and Michael Crapps. A Form 4 was filed late with the SEC on February 22, 2005 for each individual named above to report these option grants.

Independent Registered Public Accountants

We have selected Clifton D. Bodiford, C.P.A. to serve as our independent auditor for the year ending December 31, 2006. Mr. Bodiford will be present at the annual meeting. He will have the opportunity to make a statement if he desires and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit Fees

The following table shows the fees that we paid for services performed by our independent auditor, Clifton D. Bodiford, C.P.A., in fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004:

	Year Ended December 31, 2005	Year Ended December 31, 2004
Audit Fees	$84,213	$34,000
Audit-Related Fees	$ —	$ —
Tax Fees	$10,900	$ 4,500
All Other Fees	$ 1,400	$13,640
Total	$96,513	$52,140

Audit Fees. Includes the aggregate fees billed by Clifton D. Bodiford for the audit of our annual financial statements and the review of financial statements included in our quarterly reports.

Tax Fees. Includes fees by Clifton D. Bodiford for tax compliance, tax planning, and tax advice.

All Other Fees. In 2004, this category consisted of fees billed related to merger activities. In 2005, this category consisted of fees billed by Clifton D. Bodiford, CPA for services related to reviewing a letter corresponding to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Oversight of Accountants; Approval of Accounting Fees.

Under the provisions of its charter, the audit committee is responsible for the retention, compensation, and oversight of the work of the independent auditors. The committee reviews any proposed services to insure that they are not prohibited by securities laws and approves the scope of all services prior to being performed. All of the accounting services and fees reflected in the table above have been reviewed and approved by the audit committee, and none of the services were performed by individuals who were not employees of the independent auditor.

Shareholder Proposals for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders
