NEWS RELEASE

PROVIDENT FINANCIAL HOLDINGS ANNOUNCES THE RETIREMENT OF ROBERT G. SCHRADER

Riverside, California, February 7, 2003 Provident Financial Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ/PROV), the holding company for Provident Savings Bank, FSB, today announced the retirement of Robert G. Schrader, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer effective March 31, 2003. Mr. Schrader will continue to serve on the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Holdings and Provident Savings Bank through the duration of his current term.

Mr. Schrader began his career with Provident in 1963 and during the course of his employment has held numerous positions culminating in his election to the Board of Directors in 1995 and his appointment to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer in 1996. Craig G. Blunden, President and CEO said, "Bob has been an outstanding leader and will be missed for his wisdom, drive and energy. Fortunately for us, we can continue to tap those qualities since he remains a member of our Board."

Provident is currently conducting a search for a Chief Lending Officer; a position that will be responsible for many of the duties previously assigned to Mr. Schrader.

Forward-Looking Statement

Certain matters in this News Release may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements may relate to, among others, expectations of the business environment in which the Corporation operates, projections of future performance, perceived opportunities in the market, potential future credit experience, and statements regarding the Corporation's mission and vision. These forward-looking statements are based upon current management expectations, and may, therefore, involve risks and uncertainties. The Corporation's actual results, performance, or achievements may differ materially from those suggested, expressed, or implied by forward-looking statements due to a wide range of factors including, but not limited to, the general business environment, interest rates, the California real estate market, competitive conditions between banks and non-bank financial services providers, regulatory changes, and other risks detailed in the Corporation's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002.
